Beautification Project at Calera School Progresses

"Planned Beauty", that's the theme of Calera High School as the beautification project continues to grow.

Mrs. R. E. Bowdon, Jr., coordinator and principal worker on making Calera High School the beauty spot on Highway 31 said, "Our project has been slow in materializing, but has constantly gained momentum during the past two and a half years. The cooperation of the PTA, Garden Club, Civitan Club, Town of Calera, and individuals have contributed to the forward movement of the project."

For the past several weeks Mrs. Bowdon, students and parents have been preparing beds and planting shrubs around the football field. This work will be completed in the near future.

Grading of the new baseball diamond was also started this week under direction of Mr. Clyde Carden.

With the completion of the shrubs and flower beds around the school and athletic field, Calera High School will be a beauty spot on U. S. Highway 31.

Mr. E. Marvin Smith, principal, said, "The entire school is certainly indebted to Mrs. R. E. Bowdon, Jr., and cooperative organizations which have made this possible."

March 15th is The Last Day

Because of the wide publicity concerning proposed legislation in Congress to change the date for filing income tax returns, many taxpayers seem to believe the day for filing 1953 income tax returns has been extended.

In order to clarify this situation George D. Patterson, District Director of Internal Revenue at Birmingham issued the following statement today: "The last day for filing 1953 income tax returns is March 15, 1954. Envelopes containing returns must be postmarked not later than midnight on that day."

A STATEMENT FROM THE PUBLISHER

Starting this week your newspaper will be the Shelby County Times-Herald. This change in name has been made, by our action in combining The Montevallo Times and The Calera Herald.

The Times-Herald will be published each Thursday with a Montevallo edition and a Calera edition. Each edition will be mailed at its respective post office of publication. Offices of publication and for the conduct of business will continue to be maintained at both Montevallo and Calera.

Mrs. Marion Jones will continue in charge of the Calera office as heretofore.

The Times-Herald in the future will contain in each edition all the news, features and advertising that normally would have been in The Montevallo Times and The Calera Herald separately. In other words, our new plan of publication of The Times-Herald will bring to the subscribers of each edition the full coverage of this Shelby County area.

In this manner we will be able to fully serve the mutuality of interests of both communities of Montevallo and Calera in the promotion of all things that offer opportunities for development and progress. Working closely together in the past, Montevallo and Calera have accomplished much to mutual advantage. We expect to encourage the continuation of this cooperative spirit, and we believe that The Times-Herald will give to us and the communities served an instrument that will be more effective in this purpose.

We respectfully solicit the continued support of the people of our area. A good newspaper is an asset to a community. We expect to make The Times-Herald such a persistent advocate of progress, cooperation, and news dissemination as will be worthy of its place as your community newspaper.

FFA and FHA Present Program At Montevallo PTA Meeting

The Parent Teachers Association of Montevallo held its March meeting Monday in the Montevallo High School library at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Alvin McGaughy, president, presided at a brief business meeting. The roll was called by grades to check the parents present. It was announced that the prize for the room with the highest attendance at the February meeting would go to Mrs. Holcombe's room.

Mrs. W. G. Hicks introduced a program of FFA and FHA activities. Mr. M. Thornton's FFA group began their part of the program with a modified form of club and class activities. The FFA president, Paul Woolley, opened with the club's history and their yearly program plans. Fred Lucas, Billy Jack Holcomb, C. D. Galloway and Jimmy Rochester briefed the group on the meaning of the club emblem and class projects. This part of the program was concluded by Dan Whetstone who described the meaning of FFA in relation to building future citizens. Dan is a former member of the Montevallo chapter and is now employed by Southern Research Institute in Birmingham.

The second part of the program was introduced by Mrs. Winona Brooks. She explained the four phases of homemaking as home experiences, class experiences, community experiences and FHA experiences. She then introduced Anita Bradley, president of the Montevallo FHA, who presented the candidates for Miss FHA of the Montevallo chapter. The candidates, Ouida Byrd, Jade Higgins, Sigrid Lund, Bobbie Dee Galloway, Mary Kathryn Cox, Doris Cunningham, Beverly Doyle (Continued on page 2)

Montevallo Lions Club Conducts Broom Sale

Lions Club members of Montevallo are "broom conscious" these days. The sale of brooms for the benefit of the Alabama Sight Conservation Association is a state-wide project with world-wide popularity. It is sponsored by Lions Clubs of the State.

That is the reason local Lions are now "pushing the broom." So, if your door bell rings and there is a man to greet you with a broom, he is not there to sweep your sidewalk for you. He is a Lion wanting you to buy a broom and thereby help promote the project of Lions, the sight conservation program.

It is a most worthy enterprise and the local boys who are doing a good job of it in this community are to be congratulated—and should be helped. Buy a broom!

GRADY KELLY

Grady Kelly To Run for Senator

In this issue of The Times-Herald will be found the announcement of Grady Kelly as candidate for State Senator from the 15th District, composed of Autauga, Chilton and Shelby counties, subject to the Democratic primaries of May 4 and June 1. Mr. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Kelly, was born and reared in Autauga County. He is a Mason and a member of the Methodist Church, having served on the official board for two different periods. He is married to the former Ida Mae Fikes. He has a son, Bobby, and a daughter, Carol. In business life Mr. Kelly is associated with Griffin Funeral Home and Burial Association and for 20 years has represented this firm.

This is Mr. Kelly's first bid for public office. He stated that his pledge is, if elected, to strive to serve in a manner fair to everyone with no special favors to any group or individual.

This popular citizen has a wide circle of friends who believe that he is admirably fitted to serve in this important office and who are rallying to his support and urge his nomination and election.

Calera Grid Squad Chooses Leaders

Fred Sims and Hugh Tomlin were elected to lead the Calera High School football team for 1954-55, Coach E. M. Smith announced Monday.

Fred Sims was selected by the 1953 lettermen for captain of the Golden Eagles. Tomlin was elected alternate captain of the squad.

Coach Smith said he was happy over the squad's selection of leaders and expected them to work hard to produce a spirited team at Calera this fall.

This past season Sims played outstanding ball at offensive and defensive end for the Eagles. He was shifted to defensive tackle for the last two games of the 1953 season after Buddy Askins was injured.

The guard position was handled nicely by Alternate Captain-elect Hugh Tomlin in 1953. Coach Smith stated he was counting on these two lads to play better in 1954.

The Eagles' 1954 schedule is as follows:

- Sept. 17—Vincent at Calera.
- Sept. 24—Goodwater at Goodwater.
- Oct. 1—Jemison at Calera.
- Oct. 8—Verbena at Calera.
- Oct. 15—Thompson at Siluria.
- Oct. 22—Isabella at Isabella.
- Oct. 29—Montevallo at Calera.
- Nov. 6—Open.
- Nov. 12—Columbiana at Columbiana.
- Nov. 19—Reeltown at Calera.

Mrs. Crowe Moves to Home in Marion

Upon leaving for Marion to live with her daughter, Mrs. F. F. Crowe sent a note to The Times, saying:

"Please send me The Times to Marion. I am now pleasantly located with my daughter, Mrs. W. P. Guerard. I am sorry to leave Montevallo after having lived there for nearly 60 years. I love the place and the people there. It has become necessary for me to make this change on account of old age. We all have to bow to this.

"I have left my business in good hands to Mr. Kelly at the bank, and Mr. Foshee in rental of my property in Montevallo.

"Give my love to all."

We are sorry to see Mrs. Crowe leave Montevallo.

Montevallo Is A Bird Sanctuary

Our beautiful town with its classical name, Montevallo, has many distinctions, by no means the least of these well known features being that our town is a bird sanctuary.

In 1934, at the request of a committee chosen by the students of our planning school, our town council enacted a law making it illegal to destroy any phase of bird life within the corporate limits of Montevallo.

Soon new leaves and bird houses will be sheltering tender birdlings in their nests. Friends, old and young, please be mindful of our birds and learn of them. They are said to be the most joyous creatures on earth.

PTA Meeting

and Gayle Jones were presented to the PTA audience. Excitement grew as the judges retired to make their decision as to who of the pastel gowned girls would wear the crown as Miss FHA.

While the judges were conferring, the FHA presented a skit called "A Path to Happy Homes." It featured the conversation by three chapter members discussing the degrees of accomplishments in the FHA program. As Beverly Doyle, Mary Thornton and Bobbie Dee Galloway told each other of their experiences, a scroll containing the FHA stepping stones was unrolled as a back drop for the skit. Scrollers for the skit were Jade Higgins and Sigrid Lund. The stepping stones forming a path of experience for the girls as individuals, as members of families, as FHA members and as community members unfolded to a climax of a happy home for these girls in the future. As the skit members hurried off, the eight candidates for Miss FHA re-entered and President Anita Bradley announced the decision as she placed the "golden" crown on the head of Mary Kathryn Cox. Beverly Doyle was runner up for the title. Mary Kathryn will now represent the Montevallo chapter in the Shelby County selection of Miss FHA.

Siluria Students Sell Magazines

Miss Davidson urges all parents of Thompson school students to please receive the student salesmen in as helpful fashion as possible.

Students soliciting magazine subscriptions will have with them subscription blanks from Curtis Publishing Company.

The drive will close two weeks from Friday.

To receive the Junior Homemaker Degree the member must get a better understanding of the FHA organization, its creed, emblem, colors, flower, and purposes; she must gain some understanding of parliamentary procedure. Home Ec. Girls Study Nursing

Members of the Home Economics II class of Montevallo High School are anticipating the awarding of their Red Cross certificates in home nursing. Jade Higgins, Eloise Mitchell, Annette Hooper, Nellie Ruth Carlee, Evelyn Oglesby, Joyce Lou Wilson, Virginia Horton, Clara Young, Carleen Lind, and Jean Johnson have been studying home nursing since February 19 and will complete the course on March 19.

To qualify for the Red Cross Home Nursing Certificate the girls must attend or make up 16 hours of class instruction. Also the course must be taught by a qualified teacher who has had special training through certain trained Red Cross leaders.

Some of the things the girls will learn in regard to personal care of a sick person are how to feed, bathe and groom a sick person, how to give medicine, how to recognize symptoms of illness, how to take a person's temperature, and how to count pulse and respiration. Instruction in how to keep daily records of a patient for a doctor's use is also given.

The girls also get instruction in how to make an occupied bed, how to make a patient more comfortable by helping them to sit up in bed and change positions, how to equip a medicine cabinet, and how to make improvised equipment, such as back rests, pressure pads, and foot cradles.

When the girls receive their certificates they will be able to assist in home nursing in case of emergency. However, they cannot teach home nursing or work for pay.

A class of this nature can be given to adults in the near future if enough people for a class are interested. For further information contact Mrs. Rebecca McGaughy at 6791 or 7171.

Calera Beta Club Members Attend State Convention in Birmingham

Eleven members of the Calera Beta Club, accompanied by their sponsor, Mrs. Gertha Kelly, attended the State Beta Club convention at the Tutwiler Hotel and Phillips High School March 5 and 6. Members going were Amelia Frost, Barbara Findley, Jenny Sue Alverson, Peggy Wood, Sylvia Killingsworth, Betty Jean Collum, Carolyn Sample, Dan Childress, Bobby Henson, Donnie Jacks and Eugene Hadaway.

The convention opened with a get acquainted party at the Tutwiler Friday afternoon with the Clay County Club as host. Here the group played games, sang, were entertained and served lovely refreshments while they met members of other clubs from all parts of the state.

Phillips auditorium was packed with over 1500 attending the talent contest Friday night. Ten clubs presented numbers in the contest and it was a fine example of what young people of Alabama can do. Marion County won first prize with a skit. After the talent contest the group attended the late show given by the Alabama Theatre in their honor.

Saturday morning Dr. John W. Harris presented the talent contest award.

Monroe County conducted a forum on Youth and Adult Relations. Mayor Morgan welcomed the group to the city and invited them to visit the new city hall. A group from Calera, including Barbara Findley, Amelia Frost, Jenny Sue Alverson, Peggy Wood, Betty Jean Collum, Sylvia Killingsworth, Carolyn Sample and Mrs. Kelly accepted the invitation and were delighted to find the Mayor himself there when they arrived. He showed them through the court rooms and told them many interesting things about the building. Here they met a German exchange student who is attending Phillips High School. There was a daffodil show in progress and the group enjoyed seeing the lovely exhibits here as well as the art museum on the same floor.

Another highlight of the convention was the afternoon meeting where the new state officers were elected by roll call of all the clubs. Interesting campaigns had been carried on by the clubs which were running candidates. It was at this meeting that contributions to the education fund were made. Eugene Hadaway presented the contribution from the Calera Club.

Saturday night's banquet was the close of the convention. The group was given a wonderful challenge by Hon. Geddes Self, supervisor of Alabama' high schools, and enjoyed hearing from all the newly elected officers. As at all the meetings, there was an air of friendliness and companionship that made each member glad to be a part of the Beta Club.

Superintendent Elliott Cites Progress Made in Shelby County Schools

County Supt. of Education, Mr. Woodrow W. Elliott, makes the following statement to the people of Shelby County this week:

I have been informed by the chairman of the Shelby County Democratic Executive Committee that no other candidate qualified for the office of Superintendent of Shelby County Schools. I wish to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the people for their endorsement of my candidacy for this office and for your approval of my efforts in behalf of the boys and girls of our county. I have a sincere feeling of humility and I shall endeavor to continue my best effort toward building the best rural school system in Alabama.

I feel that much of the credit for any improvements in our schools during the two and one-half years I have served as your superintendent should go to the people with whom I have worked and to the patrons in every school community who have cooperated so generously to make the progress of our schools possible. I am listing below for your information a few of the outstanding accomplishments of the last two years. Several of these projects were jointly made possible by local groups, P. T. A.'s Town Councils, etc.

1. A full time attendance officer, correcting many causes of non attendance.
2. New school cafeteria at Montevallo.
3. Indoor restrooms and cafeteria at Chelsea Junior High.
4. New electrical wiring at ten schools.
5. Over $12,000 worth of new school seats and other classroom furniture. (Every child in Shelby County has a comfortable school desk.)
6. An improved transportation system by using 60 passenger school buses and other corrective steps to improve school transportation. (Still 20 of our buses are in their 13th year.)
7. The construction of 13 negro classrooms. This was made possible by a special purchase of six large government buildings at the Alabama Ordnance Works for $250 and transporting this, the very best material obtainable, to the various school sites for construction of these rooms.
8. Increasing the amount of money furnished by the County Board of Education for the operation of the schools from 50 cents per child in average daily attendance to $3.00 per child in every school, negro and white, in the county. This money is spent for lights, water, janitor services, supplies, library books, films, maps, and other instructional materials. One dollar of this sum was matched by local communities. The total of this fund during the 1953-54 term will be approximately $28,000. We all realize that this amount of money for these materials and services is inadequate and that it will take the continuous effort of all our people to provide the necessities for a good school program for all our children.
9. With the cooperation of local communities gas heating systems have been installed at Helena, Wilsonville, Pelham and County Training School.
10. The child study program, under direction of consultants from the University of Maryland, is in its second year and was started jointly by the Shelby County Board of Education, Cullman County and City Boards of Education and the Mental Hygiene Division of the State Department of Health. The program was initiated in 1952 in a workshop at Alabama College. The program now has been started in Tuscaloosa County and Decatur with over 200 teachers participating in the various systems. Several other counties have sent representative groups of teachers to Shelby County to study the program with the idea of starting a similar program in their own systems. The Child Study Program has been acclaimed by college officials and State Department personnel as the most promising development in education in Alabama in the last two decades.
11. The home economics departments in Calera, Columbiana,

Vincent, and the County Training School have been equipped with cabinets and sinks to compare as nearly as possible with the other high schools of the county.

12. An extensive repair program has been initiated including outside painting of several buildings.

13. Auditing and bonding of high school principals by the Board of Education after a request by the Shelby County Principals' Association.

14. Driver training in four of the white high schools of our system with automobiles furnished by local dealers, increasing the safety of traveling on our highways.

There are many other fine accomplishments, including campus beautification, school lighting, interior decorating, that have been completed by local communities indicating the cooperative spirits of local citizens groups in their desire for better schools for their children.

For these and many other activities made possible by the team work of our people I am deeply grateful, and if elected again to this highly responsible position in the general election in November, I shall continue to work in behalf of the youth of our county.

CHARLIE SEZ: If you haven't tried his service, just give him a chance. Your satisfaction is guaranteed. Phone 5081, next to the City Hall, Montevallo.

Half-ton beauty with a two-ton punch

THIS new '54 GMC light-duty wasn't born just to win beauty contests.

Sure, its sleek lines, full-width grille and panoramic windshield are handsomely un-trucklike.

There's the same dashing air about the inside, too. Two-tone color scheme. Harmonizing, supple-as-leather upholstery. Smart instrument panel, with dials clustered for instant reading.

But mister—take another look!

A burly, brawny brute of an engine—a real truck engine—makes you think of a Miss America who also can bend horseshoes. 125 horsepower says that this beauty can heft a top load with ease and dash.

That's more power than some makers pack into their two-ton models. That's more usable power than in any other 6-cylinder engine in its class!

And its wide, deep box holds at least 8 cubic feet more than the roomy '53 model. That tail gate is grain-tight—and sand-tight.

Finally, it offers Truck Hydra-Matic Drive* that saves you, saves your cash, saves your time.

(Note to the luxury-minded: there's a DE LUXE model at extra cost, with chrome grille and trim, two-tone paint, curved rear corner windows—the works!)

Come in and drive this great GMC. It will do all its own selling!

*Truck Hydra-Matic Drive standard on some models, optional at extra cost on others.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

Although I was present through the entire incident, the attack by four Puerto Rican revolutionists on the members of the House of Representatives last week still seems almost unbelievable.

After eating lunch with Reps. Kenneth Roberts, Albert Rains and Bob Jones, I returned to the House chamber to hear the remainder of the debate on a bill to continue the use of Mexican farm labor in this country. Seated to my immediate left were Rep. Lester Johnson of Wisconsin and Rep. Billy Matthews of Florida. Shortly after I had returned to the House floor, Congressman Roberts came in and seated himself directly in front of me. To his left was Rep. Percy Priest of Tennessee.

Kenneth Roberts had been in his seat only a short time when Rep. Harold Cooley of North Carolina asked for a vote on the rule at issue. Speaker Joe Martin called for the "ayes" and both Kenneth and I stood to cast our votes in the affirmative. Speaker Martin finished counting the vote and we had hardly settled back in our seats when I heard a series of reports. At first I thought someone had set off a package of firecrackers. This reaction was only momentary, however, as I glimpsed gunfire in the gallery to my right almost instantly. I immediately dropped to the floor and yelled "Hit the floor!" Congressmen Johnson and Matthews both followed suit.

Sees Gunman Reload

During a short pause in the shooting, I raised up on my knees and looked over the back of the seat. At that time the Puerto Ricans fired another volley and I dropped back to the floor. After the second round of firing had ceased, I stood up and saw one of the Puerto Ricans attempting to reload his pistol. Finally, as I stood watching, and in a moment that seemed like hours, someone in the gallery rushed over, grabbed one of the fanatic gunmen by the wrist and shoved him into the hallway outside the gallery. Two more of the would-be assassins were then apprehended and the fourth, believed to have escaped during the commotion, was picked up later at a bus station.

Since there were scores of Congressmen who had dropped to the floor during the siege of gunfire, it was almost impossible to tell at first which ones had been hit. Within a few minutes I noticed that Kenneth Roberts had gone to the other end of the aisle and was still lying on the floor. I hurried over to find that Kenneth had a bullet hole through his left leg, slightly above his knee. Rep. Priest had removed his necktie and was using it as a tourniquet to stop the flow of blood from Kenneth's wound. I rushed to the Democratic cloakroom and got a pillow to put under Kenneth's head. A stretcher was brought in a few minutes later, and I helped to place him on it. We carried him out the front door, down the steps on the House side of the Capitol, and placed him in the first ambulance. Congressman Lester Johnson and I accompanied Kenneth in an ambulance to Casualty Hospital and remained with him until his leg had been treated and dressed and we were assured that his wound was not critical.

I then returned to the Capitol with Rep. Johnson. We went into the House chamber and found that a bullet had traveled through the seat directly in front of Kenneth and into his leg. This bullet had fallen dead and was picked up only inches from the spot where I had been lying.

In the immediate area where we had been sitting, Congressman George Fallon of Maryland had also been struck by a bullet; and a number of bullets had lodged in the seats and the walls. The FBI estimated that a total of 25 or 30 shots were fired. The fact that only five members were hit is no less than a miracle.

Good Fortune For Me

I can certainly look back on Monday, March 1, 1954 as a day of good fortune for me. In addition to escaping injury in the shooting affray, I learned at midnight that I would be unopposed for re-election to Congress in the forthcoming Democratic primary.

I am most grateful to the citizens of the Sixth District who are allowing me to return to the Congress for a second term without opposition. It is with real pride that I serve as a member of this great body, and I can assure you that I shall continue to make every effort to do a creditable job for the fine people I have the privilege of representing.

CHARLIE SEZ: If it's repairs or alterations you need, don't hesitate to contact him. His many years of experience is given to you for your benefit and is your guarantee for satisfactory service in dry cleaning. Next to City Hall, Montevallo, phone 5081.

Calera School Has Stunt Night

There was plenty of excitement and enthusiasm on the campus of Calera High School Thursday night, March 11, when the Junior Class presented the annual air-fair of Stunt Night.

Again this year the school was divided into two equal sides, the Blues and the Golds. Four leaders were elected from the Junior Class. Leaders for the Golds were Rosemary Tortorigi and Fred Sims. The Blue leaders were Carolyn Sample and Hugh Tomlin. The program proved to be one of the best ever held at Calera High School.

It was a very enjoyable evening for everyone, but especially for those students on the Blue side, for again this year Stunt Night was a Blue victory. The judges, Mrs. Nannie Dee Durden, Mrs. Margaret Youngblood and Mr. Henry Peete, had a tough decision to make. Although the Blues won the Golds were still in there pitching.

Each year Stunt Night is dedicated to one of the teachers of C. H. S. This year the Junior Class honored Miss Lorraine McLaughlin by dedicating Stunt Night to her. The dedication was made by Donnie Jacks, president of the Junior Class and master of ceremonies. Following the dedication, Miss McLaughlin was presented an orchid by Ruth Stewart, member of the Junior Class and Miss Calera High of 1954.

The Junior Class would like to express their appreciation to all the students and teachers who helped to make Stunt Night of 1954 a success, but especially to Mrs. Gertha Kelley, sponsor of the Junior Class, who worked unendingly and for her kind understanding and cooperation in preparing for the event.

Stunt Night of 1954 will be one long remembered by both the students and teachers of Calera High School, and some day when the students look back and remember the Stunt Night of 1954 they will say, "I helped to make it a success."

Spring Training Forecast Good Football Season At Montevallo High School

Coach Theron Fisher's Montevallo Bulldogs will climax their spring training Friday night with an intra-squad game between the Whites and the Blues. Game time is 7:00 p. m.

Prospects, according to Fisher, are fair for next season with 38 boys sticking through three weeks of "hard knocking" this spring. Seven regulars are back and several newcomers have shown quite a bit of spark and drive in earning themselves a possible starting position in next year's lineup. Among the names on the roster for the first time are J. T. Smith, who looks like a regular at right end; Frank Hamric, who has about made a slot for himself at right tackle; and David Eiland looking like a regular defensive guard come next fall.

Several "B" teamers coming up to varsity have shown promise. Among these are B. Wilson, K. Oglesby, J. Kirby and R. O'Neal at guard; R. Lovelady and W. Hyde at tackle; and Frank Norris at end.

Lettermen who were not regulars but who will probably see much more action this fall are Doyle Burdette, John Hallman, James Hallman and Tinker Underwood.

Out for the first time are B. Logan and Billy Lee at Center; Knowles and D. Hughes at tackle; J. T. Smith, Cates, Nolen, and Bearden at ends; Eiland and Warren at guard; and Russell Smitherman, Blair, Lemley, Terrell, L. Winslett and B. Fisher in the backfield.

The boys have been divided equally according to talents and will play under the leadership of Nannini, captain for the Blues, and Galloway, White captain.

Assisting with the coaching this spring have been seniors from last year's team. Alton Smitherman, H. G. McGaughey, Jimmy Busby, and H. Pickett are assistant coaches for the Blues; and Pat Kelly, Lewis Knowles and Heywood Blair for the Whites.

Rep. Harrison will lead two panel "workshops" at the sessions, sponsored by the National Citizens Commission for the Public Schools.

The recommendations evolved at the meeting will be passed along to President Eisenhower, at his request, for presidential action.

Rep. Harrison, who is president of the Alabama Citizens Advisory Educational Council, has long been interested in improving educational standards.

He was state director of the income tax amendment campaign that provided Alabama teachers an increase of $7,000,000 annually.

Montevallo Negro School Accredited By State Board

Supt. W. W. Elliott announced today that he had received official notice from the Alabama State Department of Education that the Montevallo Negro High School had been reviewed and approved for state accreditation. This has been a goal for which Supt. Elliott, the County Board of Education and the faculty and patrons of the Montevallo Negro High School have been working for more than two years.

This accreditation will mean that the students graduating from this institution will receive the same recognition for their high school work as from any high school having state accreditation.

Mr. Elliott stated that all five of the white senior high schools in the county were fully accredited by the State Department of Education and that this is the first Negro high school in the county to receive this recognition. He also states that progress is being made on the requirements for accreditation at the Shelby County Training School, the other Negro high school of the county, and that he anticipates full accreditation for this institution in the very near future. In order for an institution to receive state accreditation, special attention must be given to the following divisions of the school program:

Library, science laboratory, guidance, training of teachers, teacher load and other important areas that are essential to efficient operation of a school program.

"Report From Washington" by Congressman Armistead Selden does not appear in this week's Times-Herald due to operational difficulties. Next week's paper will contain two columns by Congressman Selden.

Letters To Editor

To The Times-Herald:

May I extend to you my congratulations on your new, enlarged paper, The Shelby County Times-Herald? With my congratulations, of course, goes my sincere wish that your good newspaper will continue to grow and prosper.

Your newspaper has long been a great asset to our county and I know that it will continue to be so.

It is a pleasure to receive my copy each week.

With best regards,

To The Times-Herald:

I have just learned from your last week's issue of The Montevallo Times that effective with the next issue of your paper, the Times will come out as a joint edition with the Calera Herald.

I want to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your expansion at a time when that section of Shelby County is expanding.

And as an old Shelby County boy—native of Calera who married a native of Montevallo—you know that I have a particular interest in seeing the development of the area.

As you know, I have just taken over the duties of this office, and I want you to feel free at any time to call on us for any assistance that we might be able to give you.

G. C. LONG, JR.

Director, State Publicity
Montgomery.

To The Times-Herald:

It is with a deep feeling of gratitude that I wish to thank the people of Alabama for the fact that I have no opposition in my candidacy for the office of State Auditor in the Democratic Primary. I am grateful for the expression of confidence reposed in me by my election four years ago as Secretary of State when I was nominated without the necessity of a runoff in a field of five candidates, and the further confidence shown by my lack of opposition for the office of State

Auditor. I have diligently striven to be of real service to the people of Alabama during my term and I expect to be equally as industrious in my next office.

Through the medium of your newspaper I wish to express to the people of our state my deep thanks and gratitude for this trust and to pledge to them my continued best efforts.

Thanking you and with best wishes, I am

Yours very truly,

MRS. AGNES BAGGETT
Secretary of State

Returning Birds Herald Coming Spring

Already the feathered harbingers of mild weather are winging their way from tropical regions toward northern nesting sites where they will spend the summer time rearing their young.

Meadow larks are piping a loud refrain, "Spring is here, Spring is here!" Invariably, the most conspicuous first arrivals in Montevallo of our summer birds are wood thrushes, noisy, wary crested flycatchers, Acadian flycatchers, orchard orioles, yellow warblers and black and white warblers.

The male orioles come on April 7 or near that time. In two days or less time the female orioles arrive. They choose mates and nest building activities are soon in evidence.

Who among our bird watchers will be the first to announce seeing the following newly arrived summer bird residents: Maryland yellow throats, yellow throated warblers, yellow breasted chats, scarlet tanagers, summer tanagers, redstarts, indigo buntings, and catbirds? The males and females of most of the above mentioned birds are different in appearance. It is interesting to learn the outstanding field marks of birds, as it makes it easier to identify the new birds we chance to see.

Who will be watching for transients that stop by our bird sanctuary town for a bit of food, a drink of water or for a cooling, cleansing bath at a bird bath that contains fresh water?

The following is a petition concerning migrating birds, quoted from the writings of a bird lover:

"God, give them strength for journeying.

Watch after them along the way.

Make the rains to fall lightly

And the winds to blow softly

And bring them back safely

For Spring's first day."

Something Brand New in Alabama Politics!

JIM ALLEN'S BLUNT FRANKNESS

Never before in a campaign for Governor of Alabama has a candidate spoken out with the bold frankness of Jim Allen.

In all his speeches, he states his stand—fearlessly and forthrightly. He doesn't hedge or haggle. This is refreshingly different from the usual campaign vote-seeking promises. And it's making a hit with people everywhere who like the "whole truth and nothing but the truth." Commenting on "Allen's Blunt Candor," The Montgomery Advertiser said: "There Goes A Man."

That's why Allen's band wagon leads the parade. Help speed it on its way.

Owen Campaigns In South Alabama

With the cheers of 4,500 of his most ardent supporters still ringing in his ears from Centreville's "Back Jack" celebration, C. C. (Jack) Owen last week began his helicopter-borne campaign tour of the state. During the next few weeks the big "whirly-bird" will take him all over the state on one of the most strenuous speaking tours ever undertaken by a gubernatorial candidate.

At each stop he will explain

CUTE . . . BUT DEMANDS LOTS OF CLEANLINESS

Every day is wash-day with baby . . . and for all homes with children the Electric Clothes Dryer is a must. With an Automatic Electric Washer and an Electric Dryer you can have an abundance of clean garments always.

Baby's clothes dry softer, cleaner, and fresher since there's no soot nor dust-specking from hanging on the line. The fluff n' tumble action of the Electric Clothes Dryer finishes all your laundry with a freshness and softness that is not possible in old fashioned line-drying. Things dry so soft that many things need no ironing.

Washing and drying with this automatic, electric way saves much time . . . time to spend with baby and time to do the other things you like to do.

For these and other advantages, get an Automatic Electric Washer and Electric Clothes Dryer at any electrical appliance dealer's or at our store.

his Plan to Build Alabama, the main points of which are illustrated in a huge plywood and metal book. The big book is transported from town to town by truck.

Clayton Nordan, Montevallo hardware merchant, joined the Jack Owen helicopter tour of Southeast Alabama last week. When the party reached Abbeville Friday, Mr. Nordan introduced Owen to the people of his (Nordan's) home town. Owen and Nordan were roommates during their college days at Auburn.

Mr. Nordan reports that the reception given Owen in the Wiregrass was highly encouraging. He estimates that 15,000 people turned out to see and hear Mr. Owen in the 17 counties visited last week.

Montevallo Students Count Sport Laurels

Have you stopped and looked over the trophy case at Montevallo High School lately? We have done quite well in the field of sports over the past years. In baseball, we have a total of five trophies (two county championships—1950 and 1951; two district crowns—1950 and 1952; and the state runner-up in 1950).

Won, but missing from the trophy case, are the 1952 and '53 county baseball awards.

We have also done quite well in basketball, winning the county crown four consecutive years—1950, '51, '52, and '53. The 4-H junior championship in 1947 and the county "B" team award in 1946 are among the basketball honors. Then we drop down to a couple of real oldtimers—the 1926 girls' county basketball cup and the Fifth District third place cup in '32.

In the early Alabama days, most of the small farmers never expected to become large planters. They were only looking for a piece of ground on which they could make a living.

PLANTING TIME...

Wherever you see new telephone poles being "planted" and rural lines strung, it means service for folks who didn't have it before — service that helps get things done on the farm and in the home.

Every month, Southern Bell is adding about 7,000 new rural telephones. That's the kind of progress we like to report because we're devoting a lot of know-how, materials and money to rural telephone expansion.

Southern Granted Permission To End Passenger Service

Montgomery, Ala. — Southern Railroad Company has been granted permission by the Alabama Public Service Commission to discontinue service on mixed trains Nos. 15 and 16 operating between Wilton and Tecumseh, Alabama.

While the railroad was authorized to discontinue the passenger service, the PSC said not less than 10 days notice had to be given the general public at each of the stations and stops served by the trains.

The order dated March 11, becomes effective 30 days thereafter.

"A decision by this commission to authorize discontinuance of this passenger service will not affect our jurisdiction over the matter of the carrier's rendering reasonable adequate freight service, and any shipper has the right to informally or formally complain to the commission against inadequate, unreasonable or inconvenient freight service," the commission said.

No member of the shipping or traveling public appeared at the hearing to protest the discontinuance of passenger service on the trains, it was said.

The two Southern trains operate actually between Wilton, Alabama and Rome, Georgia and the Alabama PSC's jurisdiction in authorizing discontinuance of passenger service was limited to that portion which is within Alabama, approximately 116 miles on which are located 35 stops, including flag stops.

Whites Edge Blues 6-0 to End Spring Training at Montevallo High School

The White team, captained by C. D. Galloway, edged the Blues, led by Marshall Nannini, 6-0 to close spring training at Montevallo High School last Friday night.

The Whites drew blood in the first quarter as Galloway threw to Underwood for 15. Doyle Burdette carried the mail the remaining one yard on a quarterback plunge. The extra point was no good. At the end of the quarter the score stood 6-0 Whites.

In the second quarter, Hicks threw to Lemley for 30 yards and a Blue touchdown which was immediately called back due to a clipping penalty.

Both teams threatened to score in the final two quarters with the Blues coming closest. Lemley intercepted a White pass and ran to the 8-yard line where he was dragged down just short of pay dirt by Smith. The Whites held and punted out of danger. The game ended White 6, Blue 0.

Local Students Play at State Music Festival

The All-State Music Festival, meeting this week in Tuscaloosa, on the University campus, is divided into three large sections.

The All-State Chorus and All-State Orchestra began their rehearsals Saturday, culminating in a concert in Foster Auditorium Monday afternoon. Members of the orchestra from Montevallo were Mary Katherine Hicks, Mary Thornton and Mavis Bridges, all in the violin section.

As the chorus orchestra completed their work, members of the All-State Bands registered in preparation for try-outs and rehearsals on Tuesday. From Montevallo John Ziolkowski and Elbert Mahaffey were chosen for the trumpet section of the Red Band. Marcia Trumbauer, flute, Mary Katherine Hicks, French Horn, for the White Band; and Sigrid Lund, oboe, for the Blue Band. The final concert is Wednesday night in Foster Auditorium.

Observe Bird Week

The Biology classes at Montevallo High School have been busy observing Bird Week. Many activities were planned to help celebrate the most welcome occasion.

The Biology students chose individual projects such as building bird houses and putting them up, making attractive notebooks, making posters and giving oral reports.

The classes have gone on field trips and observed many species of birds and their habits. Some of the birds observed are: brown thrasher, robin, blue jay, cedar wax wing, house wren, cardinal, English sparrow, mocking bird, field sparrow, wood thrush, wood peewee, towhee, yellow breasted chat and woodpecker.

Several films have been shown. One of which was "Birds of Prey." Some of these birds are protected in Alabama. The six unprotected birds in our state are: Sharp-Shinned Hawk, Cooper's hawk, crow, great horned owl and English sparrow.

To begin the celebration of Bird Week one of Montevallo's most ardent bird lovers, Mrs. Edwin Allen talked to the class about her experiences with birds.

We, the Biology students are proud of our bird sanctuary and urge everyone to plant berry bearing shrubbery, put up bird houses for the house dwellers, put up feeding stations and provide bird baths to attract birds and keep Montevallo a bird sanctuary.

One of the highlights of the AMAE three day meeting was a special banquet held Monday evening at the University of Alabama, observing Professor LeBaron's 25 years of leadership in the field of music education in Alabama.

Featured speakers for the banquet were Dr. Donald Kettering, organist and music director of the East Liberty Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh; Mr. Ralph Rush, president of the music educators national conference and member of the faculty of the school of music, University of Southern California; Dr. Alton O'Steen, head of the school of music, University of Alabama; Mr. Mieczyslaw Ziolkowski, professor of music, Alabama College; Dr. John Hoover, president of Alabama Music Teachers Association; Mr. Emerson VanCleave, state superintendent of music for Alabama; and Mrs. Maxine Couch Davis, assistant professor of music, at Alabama College.

Following the banquet a special concert was given by the U.S. Air Force Band School, Washington, directed by Col. George S. Howard. Col. Howard, Dr. Kettering and Mr. Rush were pupils of Mr. LeBaron when he was a member of the faculty of Ohio Wesleyan University.

Attending Monday's ceremonies were Alabama College's music faculty members; 25 members of Alabama College's senior class; President and Mrs. Lund; Dr. Hallie Farmer, Dr. Eva Golsen, Miss Dawn Kennedy, Miss Josephine Eddy; more than a dozen Alabama College alumnae; and Mrs. Ruth Scott Parker, of Birmingham, an Alabama College Trustee.

Farmers Use New Terracing System

Just east of Calera the James A. Parker farm became the second in Shelby County to have a field terraced with the new Parallel Terrace system developed by Soil Conservation Service engineers. All terraces and all rows are parallel, about 700 feet long, and with even numbers of rows between terraces. The only irregularity is one small triangle near the end of one terrace. This may be planted in sod when meadows for the next area to be terraced are planted.

The other parallel terraces already built are on the Montevallo farm of W. C. Martin.

Requests for parallel terraces are also in from C. A. Overstreet and Floyd Atkinson, both near Montevallo. Both fields have been looked at with this type of terraces in mind, and will be laid out soon.

Some fields would have to have meadows and critical areas planted before terracing, but these are ready to go.

To crush crackers for crumbs, put them in a paper bag, twist the top tightly and roll the crackers, bag and all, with a rolling pin.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Last week the House passed several bills of importance. Legislation approved and sent to the Senate included highway construction aid, federal assistance for a broadened hospital construction program, excise tax reduction, and authorization for Federal-local action in attacking problems of upstream soil and water conservation.

Excise Tax Reduction

The bill passed by the House last Wednesday to reduce and revise our excise tax laws will affect nearly all of us. This legislation, overwhelmingly approved by a vote of 411 to 3, places a 10 per cent excise tax ceiling on most items taxed. These tax revisions will reduce federal revenues by an estimated $1 billion.

The 10 per cent ceiling, effective April 1, will cover transportation, long distance telephone calls, jewelry, furs, cosmetics, admission tickets, luggage, club dues, photography equipment, light bulbs and tubes, pens, mechanical pencils, cigarette lighters, sporting goods and firearms.

At the same time, the House bill postponed for one year reductions in the excise tax rates scheduled for April 1 on distilled spirits, beer, wine, gasoline, cigarettes and automobiles.

A Democratic motion to recommit the measure with instruction to add a provision for an outright exemption from taxes of all admissions of 50 cents or less failed by a close vote.

Other Legislation

Passed by voice votes were 3 other bills of importance. The first was a measure which authorizes Federal aid funds in the amount of $60 million for assistance to the states for the construction of diagnostic or treatment centers, for hospitals for the chronically ill and impaired, for rehabilitation facilities, and for nursing homes. This assistance is an expansion of the Hill-Burton hospital program, and is to be made through grants to public and non-profit agencies.

The second legislation of importance passed by voice vote was a measure authorizing an appropriation of $600 million in federal aid highway construction funds for fiscal 1956 and 1957. These funds, to be allocated to the states on a matching basis, constitute an increase of 39 per cent over present allocations. Of the total, $270 million to be used for federal aid primary highway systems; $180 million for projects on secondary road systems; and $150 million for primary systems in urban areas. Part of the latter amount will also be used for approved extension on secondary systems within urban areas.

The final measure passed by the House last week provides the legislative authority and direction for cooperative federal-local action in attacking the problems of upstream soil and water conservation and flood prevention. This bill also set out the policies and framework under which such action can be initiated.

Bill of Interest to Veterans

The House committee on Veterans Affairs, of which I am a member, recently approved a bill to extend to June 30, 1955, direct home loans to veterans. The Veterans Administration's present authority for making these loans expires on June 30 of this year. The bill reported out of the Veterans Affairs Committee extends the loan making authority for 1 year and authorizes a maximum $100 million to be added to the "revolving fund" which finances the program. Under the bill, loans will still be limited to ten thousand dollars per veteran and will continue to be available only to those veterans who are unable to borrow money from private lending agencies at 4 1/2 per cent interest. It is hoped the loan extension bill will be voted on by the full House in the near future.

Selden Resolution Reported

More committee action of interest was the decision of the House Judiciary Committee on March 9 to report favorably a resolution I introduced in the House earlier in the session. The purpose of the resolution is to give the consent of Congress to the establishment of a permanent boundary line between the states of Alabama and Florida in the vicinity of Perdido River. Over a period of several years, under the force of winds, waves, and currents, the mouth of the Perdido River has shifted and so the boundary line as fixed in the state constitutions between Florida and Alabama in regard to that particular locality has likewise shifted. My resolution gives the consent of Congress to a permanent boundary line between the two states described by longitude and latitude which has already been agreed upon by the legislatures of both Alabama and Florida. This resolution has been placed on the Union Calendar of the House and should come up for consideration in the near future.

What LAURIE BATTLE Believes An ALABAMA Senator Should Be

LAURIE C. BATTLE
The Veterans' Candidate for U. S. Senate

Son of Rev. W. R. Battle, Methodist minister 40 years, serving churches throughout Alabama. Worked way through college. Fought as a Private (World War II); promoted through ranks to Major. Named 1 of the 3 outstanding Democratic Congressmen. Married, father of 3 children.

He should be a loyal Southern Democrat—everywhere and all the time. He should stand up and speak out for our people's customs and traditions, not only here in Alabama but also wherever they are threatened.

He should be completely fair to all—farmers, labor, management, and white-collar workers, always recognizing that the public interest must come first.

He should be fearless in voting his convictions regardless of offense to any clique or faction.

He should be alert to see that our State receives its fair share of Federal expenditures and agencies.

He should work full time for all the people of Alabama and keep constantly and closely in touch with them.

He should be diligent and earnest in the discharge of his duties and appreciative of the serious responsibilities that rest on him.

He should patriotically place above all else the security of the United States of America.

Activities Planned For Calera Park

Eddie Downs, chairman of the Park and Recreation Board for the City of Calera, makes the following announcement pertaining to activities in the City Park for this summer.

Fred Sims has been employed by the board to work in the park during the summer. His working hours will be from 1 p.m. until sundown. He will be responsible for all park equipment and it will be his duty to carry on an organized program during the summer months. This program will be organized by the committee members who are Eddie Downs, chairman, George Holcombe, Bill Miner, Dan Carroll, W. W. Godfrey, and Herman Jones.

An organized program can not be put into effect until after school is out. In the meantime, anyone who desires the use of this equipment on Saturdays can obtain it by contacting Fred. The board has at the present time, tennis, softball, volley ball, badminton and horseshoe equipment.

The committee asks the cooperation of the people who plan to use the park facilities during the summer to do your part in helping us to take good care of the equipment. This park and the equipment belongs to the people of Calera. We invite you to use it, but we do want you to keep in mind that this equipment cost considerable money and you can be a great help to us in helping care for it.

We ask that no one drive a motor vehicle inside the park. This includes automobiles, motor scooters, etc. Driving a motor vehicle through the park is a dangerous thing to do in that the small children sometimes forget to look out for automobiles.

Death Claims Mrs. F. W. Rogan

Mrs. Fred W. Rogan, 79, lifelong resident of Montevallo, died at her home Wednesday morning, March 31, following a long illness.

Mrs. Rogan, the former Fannie Belle Reynolds, was born and reared in Montevallo, daughter of Captain Henry Clay Reynolds, first president of the institution that is now Alabama College. She was educated in the Montevallo public schools and Judson College.

On December 9, 1896 she was married to Fred W. Rogan, then a young business man.

She was a charter member of Montevallo Presbyterian Church, and was outranked in terms of years by only one other member, her husband. Her church and her consideration in thoughts and in deeds for her friends and neighbors were the motivating ideals of her life. For more than fifty years Mrs. Rogan was active in all phases of church work, having held the office of president and other offices of the Women of the Church. She always took part in giving and planning entertainments and receptions for greeting new Presbyterian students at Alabama College. Nearly 60 years she was treasurer of her Sunday School, and with loving care she prepared the communion for her church.

"Atkinson & Bashore, attorneys at law, Clanton, Alabama, announce their partnership for the general practice of law — J. B. Atkinson, Glen T. Bashore."

The Times-Herald extends its best wishes to these gentlemen of the bar, both of whom we are proud to number among our friends of former years.

son Building as soon as a partition can be erected.

It will seem odd, strange, or something without P. C. Wilson in active business in Montevallo. He has been here since 1918 when he started a drug store on the corner where Alabama Power Co. is now located. When that building burned in 1928 he moved to the present location where the business has continued to operate successfully ever since.

We regret to see the name of Wilson go out of our active business circles. It has ever been an honored and honorable name, the widely known business that has had an important part in the life of Montevallo for these many years.

We do not know what P. C. will do with himself with no drug store to run. He has been in the business since the days of his youth when he started to work for Upchurch in Clanton. He will find something to do, however, because he is not old enough to retire. He might take a notion to get married and live happily the rest of his life.

There is no telling the number of Montevallo boys who have had a start in business as soda jerkers at Wilson's. Out of all the bunch, P. C. says he never had any that were any worse than Jimmie Wyatt and John Orr.

In Home Treatment of Tuberculosis

Since 1944 the Shelby County Health Department has devoted considerable time, effort, and thought to the control of the No. 1 communicable disease problem, tuberculosis.

The first step in an attempt to cope with this problem was the installation of X-Ray, fluoroscope and pneumothorax equipment, so that a close watch could be kept on contacts of known cases, and suspects referred by the doctors of the county could be X-Rayed at any time, and also patients who had received some form of collapse treatment at the sanatorium could continue their treatment at home.

After several years we found that many new cases were being diagnosed and that the majority of these had no funds to go to the sanatorium.

Then about 4 years ago the County Tuberculosis Association, whose available funds were matched by the County Board of Revenue and Control, undertook to pay sanatorium expense for indigent patients. Due to the prolonged stay in the sanatorium of most patients, it was found that only about four patients a year could be hospitalized.

The attempt at paying sanatorium expense was then abandoned and the funds provided by the county tuberculosis association and the Board of Revenue and Control were made available to the county health department clinic for the purchase of drugs and supplies for the home treatment of tuberculosis.

During the past year 26 active cases have been treated at the county clinic with these drugs, and where indicated, collapse treatment has been instituted.

Two of these cases were hopeless when first diagnosed.

Of the remaining 24, one case has been allowed to discontinue treatment and is classified as "arrested"; three are on partial treatment and are working part time; 3 teen-agers will be ready to return to school next fall; 16 patients whose sputum was positive for tubercle bacilli when treatment was started have been consistently negative on each periodic (3-month) re-examination. This latter is of the utmost public health significance and is the one way to stop the dissemination of tuberculosis. At the present rate of progress, 11 patients should be well enough to classify as arrested during this year. Since it is an accepted fact that 2 to 4 years treatment is required to "arrest" the average case of tuberculosis, it is felt that the results obtained compare favorably with results in an institution. A small percentage of cases in any series require surgery and must be hospitalized.

With the present diagnostic and treatment facilities and funds available in this county, we are convinced that we are making definite progress in the control of tuberculosis and that this system of treating patients at home will eventually be adopted by other counties and will be the means of eradicating this disease.—E. F. Sloan, County Health Officer.

Convocation To Feature
Alabama String Quartet

Alabama College's convocation program for Tuesday, April 6, will feature the University of Alabama String Quartet in Palmer Hall at 11 a.m.

The musicians who comprise the String Quartet will use an invaluable collection of instruments. Ottokar Cadek will use a priceless Stradivarius violin made in 1718. Matching the Stradivarius in quality is the Nicholas Amati played by Jerrie Cadek. Made in 1647, it is one of the finest remaining examples of this celebrated master, the teacher of Stradivari.

The viola of Henry Barret, violist with the quartet, was made by Carlo Fernando Landosphi in 1765. A fine cello made by the Italian Pressenda in 1830 completes the ensemble. It is played by Margaret Christy, who has a wide experience in quartet playing in New York as well as with the Alabama String Quartet.

All Alabama College convocations are open to the public, free of charge.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

The controversial tax revision bill was passed by the House last week by a vote of 339 to 80. The bill is reputedly one of the largest and most comprehensive legislative measures ever to come before Congress. It contains 820 large pages of fine print which embody 8,023 different sections of tax law. The committee report that explains the measure contains more than 500 pages.

This tax revision bill rewrites the internal revenue code — the first time it has been completely overhauled and revised since 1875.

Much obsolete language has been deleted; provisions have been rearranged for clarity and ease of use; and much simplification has been brought about. There was agreement between both parties as to the real need for a bill to revise our tax laws.

This bill went further, however, as it called for certain tax reductions. It was on the question of where these reductions should be made that the House divided almost entirely along party lines.

On a motion to recommit, the Democratic leadership attempted to strike from the bill a provision for special tax credits on the dividend income of corporate stockholders and to substitute a $100 increase in personal exemptions for everyone.

Most of the Democratic members felt that, if any tax relief was to be given, it should be given to as many taxpayers as possible. By doing this with increased exemptions for the individual taxpayer, the purchasing power in the hands of consumers would be greatly increased, thereby stimulating the nation's economy which has shown recent signs of sagging.

The Republicans felt, however, that the federal budget could not stand a further loss of revenue amounting to approximately $2 billion, and they urged defeat of the recommitment motion. By a vote of 210 to 204 the motion failed to pass.

Funds for New Dam
The civil functions appropriations bill that passed the House last week contains two items of special interest to Alabamians.

An appropriation of $3.4 million to continue work on the Demopolis lock and dam is the first item of interest. This structure is now almost 80 per cent complete. The second item is an appropriation of $1.5 million to begin construction on the Warrior lock and dam. This new installation, to be located between Demopolis dam and Oliver dam at Tuscaloosa, will eliminate antiquated locks and dams 8 and 9 on the Warrior River and will cost approximately $19.5 million to build.

When the House Appropriation Committee retained $1.5 million in the civil functions appropriations bill for the Warrior lock and dam, I knew the greatest roadblock had been cleared away and House passage was certain. Such was the case.

There is a good possibility the Senate will increase to $2 million the sum appropriated by the House for this project. If so, the House-Senate conference committee will probably agree on a sum between $1.7 and $1.8 million. In any event, I feel reasonably sure the funds necessary to begin construction on this important link in the Warrior-Tombigbee system will be forthcoming and that construction will be started during the calendar year.

Introduces Veterans Bill
I introduced in the House last week a bill that, if enacted, will permit veterans of the Korean War to have until October 15, 1954, to start their courses of education or training under the GI Bill of Rights. The present law requires any veteran discharged on or before August 20, 1952, to begin his courses by August 20 of this year. Veterans released from service after the 1952 date have until two years following their date of discharge to initiate their education or their training.

Most schools, particularly colleges and universities, do not open until after August 20. As a result, many Korean veterans will not be able to begin their education this fall under the GI Bill since their eligibility runs out before school opens.

When this problem was brought to my attention by the Alabama State Board of Veterans Affairs, I requested the VA Administrator through the chairman of the veterans affairs committee, to issue a special ruling extending the August 20 date for 60 days. After learning that such a ruling could not be issued, I introduced a bill to extend the date to October 15, 1954. The bill has been referred to the Veterans Affairs Committee for consideration.

REPUBLICAN-DIXIECRAT PLOT

Your vote for John Sparkman, May 4, will serve a double purpose. It will help re-elect John Sparkman on the one hand. On the other hand, it will defeat a carefully conceived, deep laid plot of the National Republican Party to discredit the National Democratic Party by defeating Sparkman—the man who was Democratic nominee for vice-president in 1952.

The die-hard Dixiecrat leaders have joined forces again with the Republicans. False claims as to States Rights and Civil Rights are being revived.

These leaders apparently intend this smoke screen to hide the real issue of the campaign. The real issue is the desire of these Republican-Dixiecrat leaders to defeat Sparkman and place in the U. S. Senate an inexperienced man who they know will do their bidding. Backed up by a few Texas oil millionaires and Wall Street Republicans, these leaders seek the defeat of John Sparkman—a tried and experienced senator who over a period of years in the U. S. Congress has shown by his actual voting record that he has at heart the best interest of all the people of Alabama and cannot be controlled by selfish groups.

The Republicans may win a majority in Congress if they can defeat John Sparkman in Alabama.

A vote for Sparkman is a vote to regain Democratic control of Congress and a return to prosperity and Democratic principles of government.

"Setting the Pace in the Governor's Race"

Says Veteran Political Observer
Hugh Sparrow in The Birmingham News

Writing recently from Montgomery, Hugh Sparrow, who has followed more Governors' campaigns than any living Alabama political writer, had this to say of Jim Allen's bold and forthright campaign for Governor:

"Allen Sets Pace"

"Lt.-Gov. JAMES B. ALLEN who brought his campaign to Montgomery the past week, left most Capitol Hill observers in agreement on one point:

"That Allen has demonstrated he is no punch puller. On the contrary, most of them admit Allen's straight-from-the-shoulder declarations have in many cases set the pace for all candidates."

To The VOTERS of Shelby County

"If I am elected Member of the Board of Revenue and Control in your county, this I will do:

"No area, no community, no people can prosper unless adequate highways are provided and maintained to give them access to the market for their products. A searching survey must be made to determine if such area or community suffers from lack of facilities for free and safe travel. Should it be found that such a situation exists, then provision must be made to remedy the problem at once. That should be the basis on which road building or road improvement is made by your County Board of Revenue and Control, and that only.

"Here in our own county we have the spectacle of seeing some communities withering on the vine for lack of good roads for those whose homes are rooted in these areas. Such a situation is shameful, and should be improved."

Fund Raising Campaign Held At Calera School

Thursday night, March 11 climaxed the biggest fund raising campaign that has been staged in recent years at the Calera School. Each room in the Elementary School had an allotted amount to raise for the book fund. All over that amount was to be used for the beautification and improvement of each of the several rooms.

Already, on entering some of these rooms, one can see the improvements being made which will help the rooms to take on the new look very soon. Never before have we witnessed such a fine community spirit towards the school. The children, teachers and parents all cooperated and showed such a fine spirit of enthusiasm.

Our thanks go to these and the room mothers who so graciously gave of their time to sponsor the sale of cakes, rummage, coat-hangers, candies, cookies, popcorn and other items, as well as having a luncheon sponsored by the mothers of the first and second grades.

The queen and king chosen was to come from the room that raised the most money. First place was to Deegee Downs and Jerry Coshatt of the fourth grade. Second place was to Faye Harris and Jessie Hugh Spencer of the first grade. Third place was to Sharon Kelly and Jerry Dodson of the third grade.

Our Faith Stands Justified

"Cast thy bread upon the waters . . ."

A little over a year ago when Westinghouse Electric Corporation was considering locating its new plant in this area, the people of Montevallo and Calera were asked by the company to take care of the rough grading that was necessary to put the proposed plant site in shape to begin construction of the buildings.

That was the only thing Westinghouse asked local people to do in order to get the plant located here.

The Chambers of Commerce of Montevallo and Calera took the matter in hand, and it was only a short time until people of the two communities had "chipped in" $20 thousand to pay for the grading—$10 thousand each by Montevallo and Calera.

The grading was done, the company began to build their plant, and everybody was happy.

"For thou shalt find it after many days . . ."

Last Friday our representatives, officials of the Chambers of Commerce of Montevallo and Calera, were given checks by Westinghouse, returning to us the money we had "cast upon the waters"—$10,275 to Montevallo and $10,066 to Calera.

It is not enough merely to say to Westinghouse that we thank you. Our gratification is deeper and broader than that. Our appreciation of Westinghouse is certainly not to be priced at $20 thousand. The company could have kept the money and we still would have been satisfied with the bargain. In fact, that's what we expected them to do.

The true and unbounded measure of our gratification lies in our realization that Westinghouse is actually what they told us it would be—a vital, responsible and functioning part of our communities—one of us, working together for the good of all.

"In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand."

And remember . . . You can be SURE if it's WESTINGHOUSE.

Calera Churches To Hold Easter Sunrise Services

All churches in Calera are invited to join in an Easter Sunrise Service on April 18 at five o'clock in the morning. We will assemble at 5:00 and begin the service at 5:15. The service will be held on the school grounds.

Surely all Christians will be eager to join in this commemoration of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, who rose on this day. It will be a rare privilege to be able to partake of this opportunity.

"And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, He went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed."—Mark 1:35.

Mrs. Nybeck Injured in Alexander City Accident

Alexander City, April 2 — A woman motorist who apparently stopped too soon for a highway intersection was injured here yesterday when her car was struck by a slowly moving Central of Georgia passenger train.

Highway patrolman A. J. Knox who witnessed the crash, identified the woman as Mrs. Glennie I. Nybeck of Montevallo, a home economics supervisor for the education department. Mrs. Nybeck suffered cuts and bruises but escaped serious injury.

Knox said the woman stopped at the railroad crossing then apparently eased across the tracks to stop for a highway intersection just beyond. But she stopped with the rear of her car still on the tracks, he said.

The officer quoted Mrs. Nybeck as saying she did not see the oncoming train.

To prevent slipping, sandpaper the soles of children's new shoes.

"My Best Buy of the Year"

Having a telephone put in our farm home was my best buy last year. It saves valuable time in ordering groceries, or getting a doctor or help from a neighbor. The joy it gives me to chat with a neighbor, invite someone to church, inquire about a sick friend, or receive long distance calls from my children in other states—in all these ways the telephone makes our farm life more worth-while. "Mrs. I. E. Bazzell, Route 1, Box 164, Mountain Creek, Alabama."

Mrs. I. E. Bazzell of Mountain Creek, Alabama found her telephone so valuable she sent an unsolicited letter to The Progressive Farmer, through whose courtesy it is reprinted at the left.

A lot of people everywhere feel as Mrs. Bazzell does — that the telephone is their "best buy". On farms, in cities, day in and day out, the telephone serves in so many big and little ways. Yet its cost is small, less than a penny an hour for the average family.

SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Veterans who plan to build homes under the direct loan program will be interested to know that the House passed and sent to the Senate last week a bill to extend his program for a period of one year. The legislation also authorizes a maximum of $100 million for the program's revolving fund. This amount is to be allocated in quarterly installments of $25 million each, less the proceeds of direct loan sales in the preceding quarter. The loan program presently scheduled to expire on June 30 of this year.

In supporting this legislation on the floor of the House, I pointed out that the direct loan program was originally enacted in 1950 to enable veterans living in small towns and semi rural communities to benefit from the GI housing program. Under this legislation, veterans can qualify for direct loans only if they are judged to be good credit risks and can furnish evidence that they have been unable to obtain a housing loan from private sources at 4½ per cent interest. The loans are repaid by the veterans with profit to the federal treasury.

In emphasizing to House members that the government is not losing money on the direct loan program, I used the State of Alabama as an example. As of January 31, 1954, there have been 1,745 fully disbursed direct loans made in our state for an average amount of $7,284. Of the total number of loans outstanding, only 0.5 per cent are in default. This latter figure, certainly a tribute to the veterans of Alabama, is a good indication that the federal government is not to date losing money on the veterans direct loan program.

This point was further emphasized during the debate by another member of the House who stated that if the program continues for the full 20 years, the government will make about $70 million. At the same time, it will continue to make it possible for thousands of veterans to borrow the funds necessary to build homes for their families.

In concluding my statement to the House in favor of the bill to extend the direct loan program and to add a maximum of $100 million to its revolving fund, I made the following observations:

"It was my hope that the amount currently authorized for the direct loan program would be increased by the legislation now under consideration. Inadequate funds for this program have built up long waiting lists. In my state, for example, there are more than 1300 veterans whose loans are now awaiting further appropriation of funds. Yet, with ample evidence that additional funds were needed, it was the opinion of the members of the Veterans' Affairs Committee that Congress would not appropriate funds in excess of $100 million at this time."

Should the demand for direct loans to veterans fail to be met in fiscal 1955 by the funds available, I hope the present administration will recommend increased funds for the revolving fund of the direct loan program for the following fiscal year and that the Congress will act accordingly."

Other Legislation

Before approving the Third Supplemental Appropriation bill for 1954, the House added an amendment to provide funds in the amount of $55 million for federally - impacted school districts. The amendment authorizes the Office of Education to aid in the construction of school facilities in areas which are confronted with an overflow of students due to the establishment of defense plants. In the bill reported to the House last week, the Appropriations Committee had not included funds for this purpose. The House also added an amendment to increase by $7 million the funds provided for grants to states for unemployment compensation and employment service administration.

Festival Begins

The annual Cherry Blossom Festival gets under way this week with events scheduled from Wednesday through Sunday. National Capital Parks officials believe the cherry blossoms will be in bloom by this week end, provided Washington has no freezing weather before that time.

Alabama is being represented in the Festival this year by Miss Maxine Vincent, of Montevallo. An attractive 21-year old blonde, she was selected as State princess by the Alabama State Society of Washington. Miss Vincent will vie with princesses from the other states and territories for title of 1954 Cherry Blossom Queen. The queen will be selected at a ball Friday evening by the spinning of a wheel marked with the names of the various states and their princesses. Hon. Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, will spin the giant "wheel of fortune." He will also crown the queen.

Baptists Observe Youth Week

Youth week being observed at Montevallo Baptist Church this week is a Southwide emphasis on training young people in church leadership.

Pastor for the week is Mr. Wallace Weaver; Sunday school supt., Paul Woolley; training union director, Gayle Jones; WMU president, Mary Katherine Hicks; brotherhood president, C. D. Galoway; and music chairman, Harriett Kendrick.

Sunday morning Mr. Weaver will fill the pulpit at the eleven o'clock worship and the youth choir will render the anthem, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross."

Sunday evening worship service will be conducted by Eugene Hadaway, guest soloist, from Calera.

Baptist Training Unions Select Drill Winners

Declared winners in the Shelby Baptist Associational eliminations held last Friday night were: Junior, Patsy Carden, Calera; intermediate, Margaret Moore, Columbiana; young people, Carolyn Stone, of Columbiana.

These three girls will represent Shelby Association in the district training union convention memory drill, sword drill and better speakers tournament, respectively, to be held in Bessemer April 16.

Total attendance at last Friday night's mass meeting was 279 people from 15 churches, including Harpersville church which won the attendance banner by having the highest percentage of its training union present (93 per cent). They also had the biggest crowd present from any one of the churches, 57 being the number.

Columbiana Baptist had the second largest crowd present, 54.

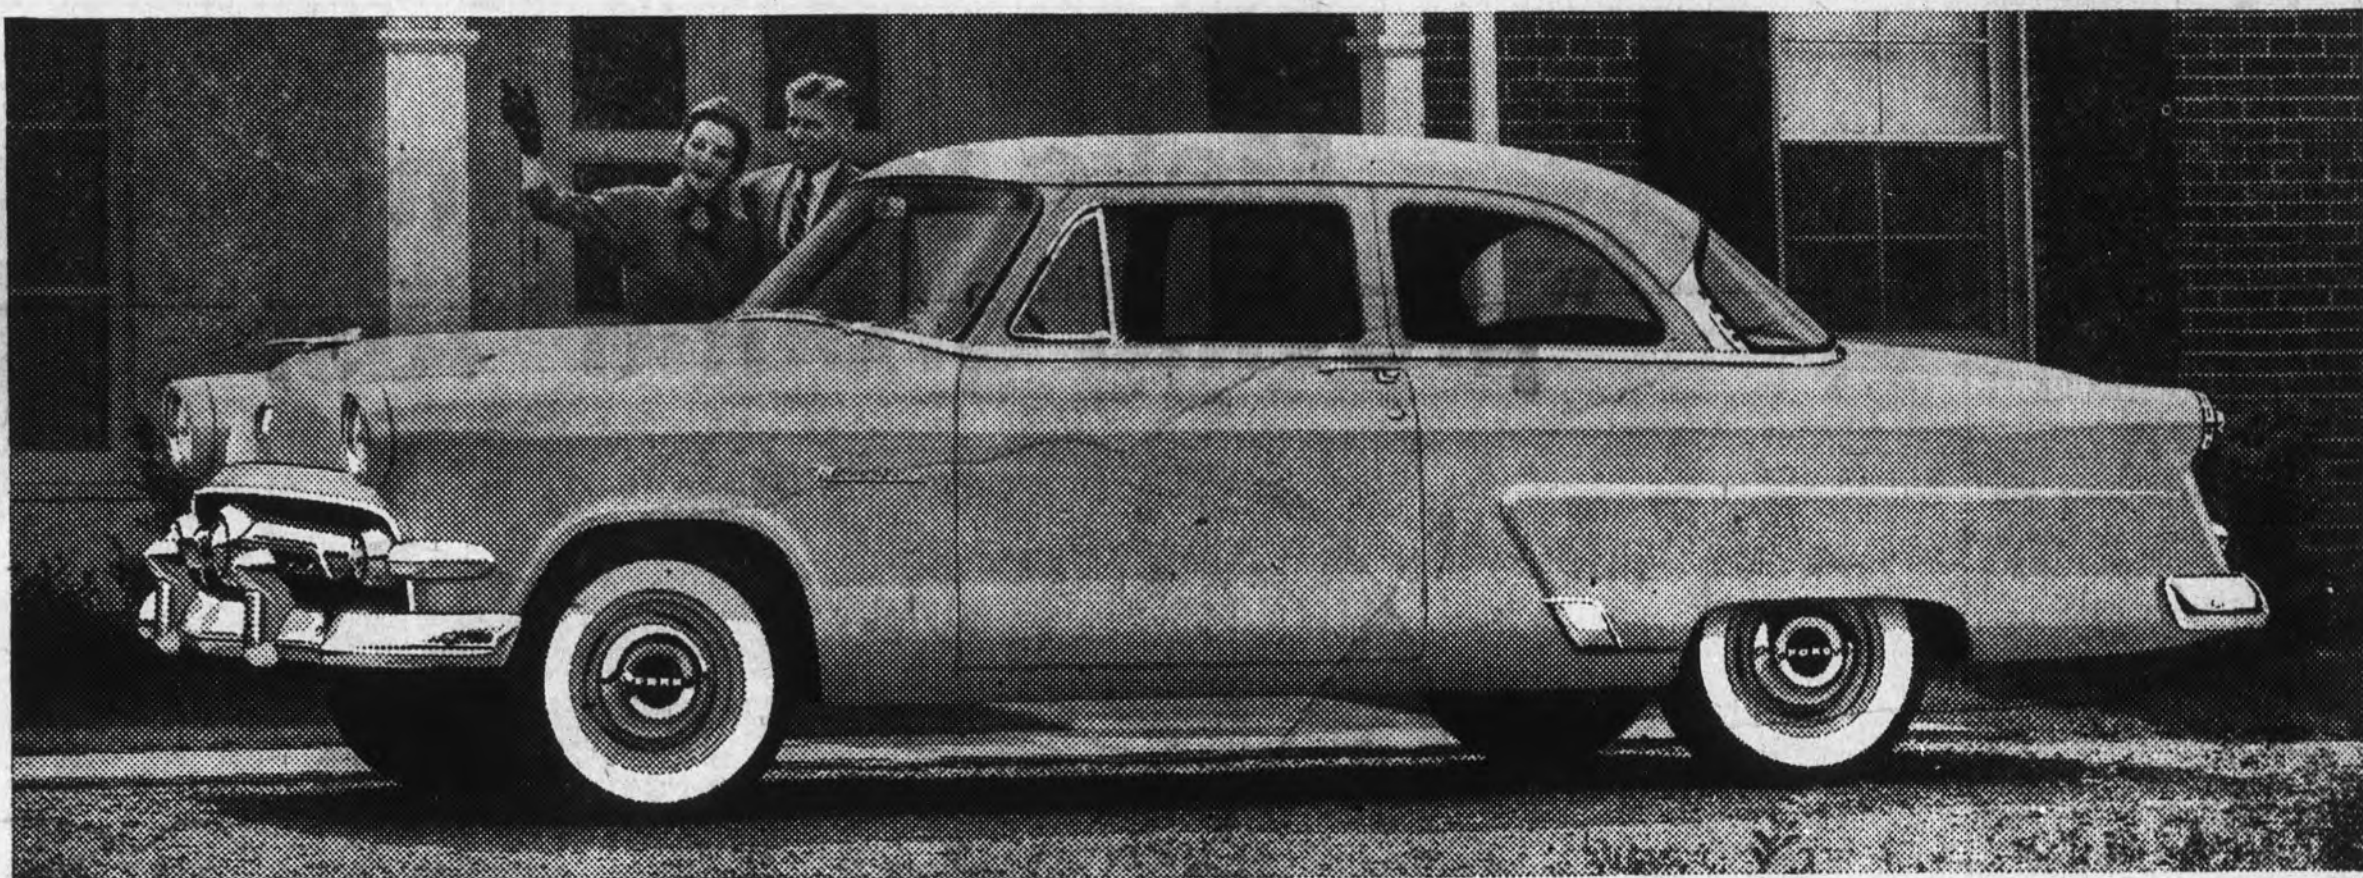

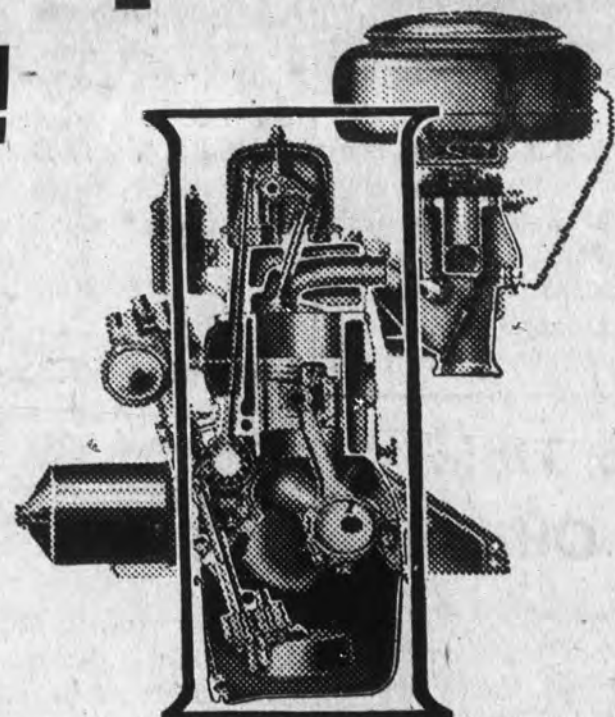

Congratulations are in order for these winners and all who entered these action drills from any church and to the workers who sponsored the event, says G. C. Moore, Jr., Associational BTU Director.

America's lowest priced low-friction SIX!

FORD'S NEW I-BLOCK SIX IS THE MOST MODERN SIX IN THE INDUSTRY . . . THE ONLY LOW-FRICTION SIX IN ITS FIELD!

Why are more and more folks who like sixes swinging to Ford's 115-h.p. I-block Six? Because they're getting the most modern six in the industry . . . and for less money than practically any other six in America. Ford's short-stroke, low-friction design means less gas waste, less wear and longer engine life. The extra-deep, "I-shaped" block means a more rigid, quieter engine. And the new high-turbulence combustion chambers, teamed with Ford's exclusive Automatic Power Pilot, bring you even more "GO" per gallon.

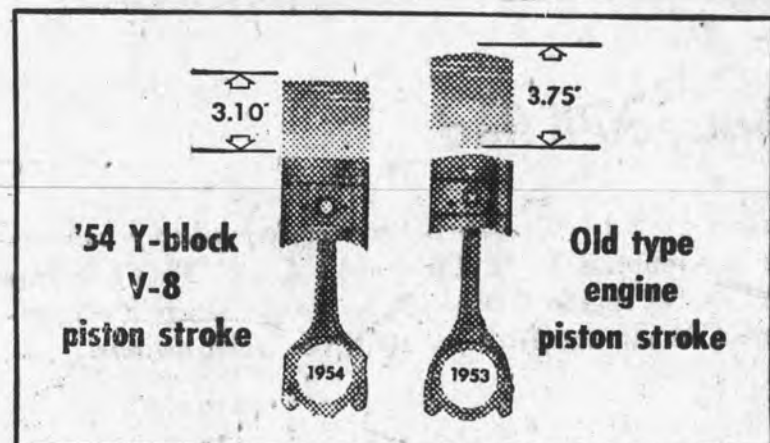

ONLY FORD OFFERS BOTH A V-8 AND SIX IN THE LOW-PRICE FIELD!

Ford is still the only low-priced car to bring you V-8 power. And this year, Ford's Y-block V-8, with its new deep-block, low-friction design, is the most modern "eight" in the industry. Both new Ford engines are available with Fordomatic,* Overdrive* or Conventional Drive—the finest choice of drives in the low-price field.

*at extra cost

HERE'S WHAT FORD'S LOW-FRICTION DESIGN MEANS TO YOU

LONGER ENGINE LIFE. Both new Ford engines are of short-stroke design. This means pistons travel less distance. Naturally, there is less friction and less wear. In both engines overhead valves have a free-turning feature which allows them to rotate to cut down wear.

MORE POWER. Because there is less friction to overcome in moving pistons up and down, there is more energy available to move the car. And because combustion chambers are wedge-shaped, fuel burns more completely . . . for even more power and less gas waste.

MORE "GO" PER GALLON. In addition to this gas-saving, low-friction design, Ford engines bring you the Automatic Power Pilot which squeezes the last ounce of power out of every drop of gas. You won't find any of the modern advances on this page in any other low-priced car.

Worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it!

THANK YOU! for Your Endorsement of Our Proposed COOSA RIVER DEVELOPMENT

Our proposal to complete the development of the Coosa River between Wetumpka, Alabama and Rome, Georgia, has been endorsed to date by 155 organizations and many individuals.

We are publishing this advertisement to express publicly our appreciation for the resolutions of the organizations listed below, and others, and for the formal and informal expression of good wishes, including those from many newspapers which have given their endorsement.

We are ready to start immediately with engineering and other work necessary to begin actual construction, which will bring about the expenditure for labor and materials of approximately $100,000,000, all of which will be furnished by the Company.

For our proposal to be carried out, legislation by the Congress is required. The Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, and the Company agreed on March 11 upon the provisions to be included in such legislation, and on March 15 a copy was sent to Senators Hill and Sparkman and the Congressmen from Alabama, with a memorandum signed by Major General B. L. Robinson, Deputy Chief of Engineers, stating that "These provisions are satisfactory to me, and I believe they adequately protect the federal interest."

We are hopeful that necessary legislation making this development possible will be introduced in the Congress at an early date by Alabama's Senators and Congressmen.

We believe that this project will be of untold benefit to the people of Alabama.

A STATEMENT BY HUGH SIMS

Candidate for SHERIFF

To the People of Shelby County:

In seeking the important office as sheriff of this great county, my only desire is to serve you in the profession which I have chosen and which I have followed for the last eleven years. Since qualifying for this office I have been able to meet and talk with many of you and will make every effort to see many more before the election on May 4th. However, I know that it would be impossible for me to see and talk to all of the citizens of this county and I am using this method to tell you of some of my plans if elected as your sheriff.

In my opinion it is most important that the sheriff make every effort to obtain the very best men possible to serve as deputies and when elected this shall be one of my aims. These men must be of good character, honest, sober and have a sincere desire to serve the people of our county. These men, also, must be recommended by the citizens of the community in which they live. I have promised no one a commission as a deputy when I am elected and I will not even consider such appointments until after I am elected.

After I have secured the proper men as deputies I plan to hold periodic training courses within the county in order that all deputies shall be properly informed as to the most efficient and modern ways to enforce the laws and to properly protect the people of our county. This can be done without any expense whatsoever to our county as all federal and state law enforcement agencies are anxious to assist in training local officers.

When elected it shall be my aim for the sheriff's office to maintain close contact with every section of our county in order that crimes might be prevented as well as criminals apprehended. Crime prevention is a most important part of the work of the sheriff's office.

It is my plan to work closely with the solicitor's office in order that the sheriff's office might give prompt and effective attention to all complaints in our county.

It is my plan as your sheriff to enforce all laws fairly but firmly for the best interest of our county. I am not and will never be obligated to enforce the laws for the interest of any individuals or any group in our county but will always uphold the laws for the interest of all our people.

It is the obligation of the sheriff of our county, just as it is the obligation of every citizen of our county, to work toward making our county a better place in which to live. This I shall always do to the best of my ability.

I earnestly solicit your consideration and sincerely promise that a vote for me to be your next sheriff will be A VOTE FOR HONEST, DECENT AND FAIR LAW ENFORCEMENT IN OUR COUNTY.

Mobile Press-Register Cites Reasons Why

"FORTHRIGHT LAURIE BATTLE IS NEEDED IN U. S. SENATE"

(From Editorial Endorsing Battle for Senate)

LAURIE C. BATTLE The Veteran's Candidate for U. S. Senate

Son of Rev. W. R. Battle, Methodist minister 40 years, serving churches throughout Alabama. Worked way through college. Fought as a Private (World War II); promoted through ranks to Major. Named 1 of the 3 outstanding Democratic Congressmen. Married, father of 3 children.

"The Mobile Press Register recommends Rep. Laurie Battle of the Ninth Congressional District (Birmingham) for election to the United States Senate to succeed Sen. John J. Sparkman.

"We endorse the 41-year-old Battle because we believe the people of Alabama are entitled to firm and consistent representation in the Senate. Battle's record shows that he is an Alabama Democrat who represents Alabamians.

"Vast numbers of Alabamians are disappointed in Sen. Sparkman. They believe, and we think rightly, that Sparkman has let them down. Sparkman has not been representing Alabama at all times...

"Laurie Battle is a sincere, earnest man, a man of stature and firm conviction who believes in Alabama Democratic party principles. Elected four times to the U. S. House of Representatives from Jefferson County, Battle deserves promotion to the Senate so he can serve all of Alabama in a larger field. He has earned that promotion on his record as a forthright congressman."

BUYING FUTURES FOR ALL OF US

Where do bosses come from?

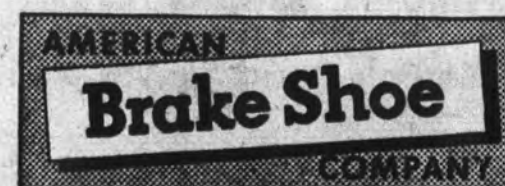

Not too long ago, the man on your right was running that machine. Today, he's a foreman—passing on his experience to his men . . . helping them make the most of their capabilities . . . showing by his own example the qualities in his daily job that spell success.

For here at Brake Shoe, our "bosses" come from within the company. Most foremen started in unskilled jobs. Most supervisors began in modest positions. Of the 500 top management men, most started as office boys, clerks, day laborers, machinists or molders.

Promotion from within doesn't just happen. It's part of the Brake Shoe plan for making the company a better one to work for . . . a better one to do business with . . . a better neighbor in the community—a long-range plan whose goal is "buying futures" for all of us.

Nerves . . . JUST NERVES

Many have been told, "Your trouble is nerves, just nerves, that's all." Nerves are too important to the body to be dismissed so easily.

Nerves make possible all movement, nerves transmit all sensations to the brain. Nerves make possible sight, smell, taste and hearing. Nerves maintain balance and keep the body temperature at 98.6 degrees. Nerves control blood pressure, stomach action, blood flow, speech and breathing. Nerves make the bowels move. Nerves make it possible to swallow. In fact, all functions taking place in the body are under control and coordination of the nervous system.

The spine acts as a conduit for nerves. The Chiropractor works with the spine and nerves. His object is to locate and correct nerve trouble that may be causing abnormal function or disorders in the body.

In the chart at the left, it is clearly shown how the nerves to all parts of the body pass through the spine from the brain to the various organs.

Any pinching of these nerves as they leave the spine can cause trouble in the organ supplied by that nerve. The spine is the "Switchboard" controlling health. Chiropractic releases the power within. Investigate this method of healing now! You may do so by consulting DR. L. ALFRED NORVILLE.

That Chiropractic has stood the test of personal investigation by millions proves its lasting benefits to sick humanity.

Final Report On Christmas Seals

A final report on the sale of Christmas Seals shows that $1,817.74 was contributed by people of Shelby County to be used in the fight to treat and prevent tuberculosis. Of this amount, $381.72 has been forwarded to the State organization to be used in research and educational projects. The remainder, less expenses of the drive, will be matched by an appropriation of the Shelby County Board of Revenue and Control and will be spent in Shelby County under the direction of County Health Officer, Dr. E. F. Sloan.

Dr. Sloan has instituted a program of home treatment in Shelby County, together with clinical treatment at the health office, that is being observed with interest throughout Alabama. This program is much less expensive than sanatorium treatment, therefore, many more patients are receiving the benefits from the proceeds of the Christmas Seal Sale. Marked success has been achieved in arresting this disease under this program.

S. J. Isbell Seeks Revenue Post in Fourth District

Mr. Stedford J. Isbell, presently Mayor of Harpersville, is a candidate for member of the Shelby County Board of Revenue and Control in the Fourth District. Mr. Isbell gives us the following information about himself and requests its publication so that the people of this section of the county may know him better and more fully.

"I was born in Dunnivant Valley, Shelby County, July 8, 1921. I am the oldest child of a family of four. In my youth our community was probably the most isolated section of the county. No roads over the mountain, short terms of schools and plenty of hard work for everyone. By the time I had finished the local grade school, a road had been built across the mountain to Leeds, and I was able to enter high school there.

"After I had finished school I was employed by the J. W. McCraney Oil Co., as station attendant and was a station manager in three months.

"I joined the Marines in 1943 and served in the Pacific theatre of war. At the close of the Guam campaign I was placed in the department of heavy duty equipment for which I had been trained here in the states. This I like to emphasize as it gave me first hand knowledge of heavy equipment used in the construction of roads.

"When the war was over, I was made athletic director for my battalion. I had served in that capacity for my company during my entire service in the Marines. After my discharge I returned to the McCraney Oil Co. I was given the task of opening up new territories, and establishing of truck routes.

"In 1949 I moved to Harpersville where I went into business for myself. I joined the Harpers-

Letter to the Editor

Equal Rights for Women

Editor The Times-Herald:

Four bills affecting the legal rights of women in the United States are now before Congress. Only one of them, HJR 74, known as the Equal Rights Amendment and introduced by Congresswoman St. George, meets the requirements of American democracy and the United Nations Charter.

The Equal Rights Amendment states simply in language appropriate to the Constitution: "Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex." It has been endorsed in the platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties and is regarded by such national organizations as The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the National Woman's Party, and the National Education Association, as a necessary Bill of Rights for women to wipe out their common-law status.

The common-law status of women, accepted when the Constitution was drafted, has never been fully abrogated and has been repeatedly upheld in court decisions. Without an Equal Rights Amendment, our Constitution is out of line with the principle of equal rights expressed in the United Nations Charter. In fact, lack of such amendment has made it impossible for our delegates to the United Nations to sign any equal rights treaty because to do so would precipitate a states rights conflict in law.

SJR 49, passed by the Senate in July, 1953, and now before the House of Representatives is the Equal Rights Amendment distorted and nullified by the Hayden

Rider. This rider provides that the Equal Rights Amendment shall not be construed to "impair any rights, benefits, or exemptions now or hereafter conferred by law on persons of the female sex."

By writing a blank check for benefits and exemptions for women into the Federal Constitution, the Hayden Rider would fasten benefits and exemptions upon women by constitutional law. It would legally segregate women, branding them as a special class of citizens, and would open the door wide for all kinds of controls on the grounds of sex and potential motherhood, controls from which women would have no redress.

The Women's Status Bill, H R 2240, introduced by Cong. Celler of New York, would establish a commission to investigate discriminations against women and proposes as a policy "that in law and its administration, no distinctions on the basis of sex shall be made except such as are reasonably justified by differences in physical structure, biological, or social function." Not only is this bill a means of further delaying action on an important matter, but it has some dangerous implications as the Hayden Rider.

The Hunt Amendment, SJR 111, introduced at the very end of the last session of Congress at the instigation of a group of Wyoming women, provides that the words "person," "persons," and "people," and any personal pronoun in the Constitution be interpreted to include both sexes. The effectiveness of the Hunt Amendment is seriously questioned by both men and women working for a bona fide Equal Rights Amendment.

"Operation Buttonhole is the new project of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., which began in November 1953 and continues until a successful vote is achieved. Thousands of women all over the country have made personal visits to their Congressmen discussing HJ Res. 74 and soliciting their active support. Public opinion has been mobilized through the medium of community meetings and support for the Amendment is gathering momentum all the time."

The clarification of the legal rights of women is long overdue. The only adequate measure proposed is the Equal Rights Amendment, HJR 74. — Ruth M. Ratliff, President, Montevallo BPW.

New Rural Phone System Gets Trial

Field trials are scheduled to start in the next few weeks on a new rural telephone system which holds promise of helping provide more and better service to the nation's farming areas. Mr. B. F. Lunsford, manager of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, said here today.

The transistor, the revolutionary electronic device invented at the Bell Telephone laboratories, is the heart of the new system which permits many conversations to share a pair of telephone wires without interfering with each other. It can operate over distances as short as five miles.

Bell engineers are setting up equipment for the experiment in farming communities near Americus, Georgia, about 130 miles to the south of Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Ray had as their guest Friday night, Mrs. E. F. Moody of Dothan, who was enroute home from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Griffith and Miss Maxine Vincent in Washington, D. C. While there she attended the Cherry Blossom Festival in which Miss Vincent, a native of Montevallo, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray, participated as Alabama's 1954 Cherry Blossom Princess.

With Men Who Know State Government Best (Your State Legislators) it's JIM ALLEN 3 to 1 for Governor

Few have the opportunity to know and judge the qualifications of a candidate for Governor like those who have worked closely with him. In a secret poll, members of the 1953 Alabama Legislature named Jim Allen as the "man we would like to see elected Governor" by a vote of more than 3 to 1 over their next choice.

Here Is How Legislators Voted:

for JIM ALLEN 47
for Jim Folsom 15 for Jimmy Faulkner . . 9 for Bruce Henderson . . 5

Other votes were divided among 15 nominees—none of whom is a candidate for Governor.

Thinking voters everywhere in Alabama are swinging to Jim Allen in growing numbers because he is the best qualified candidate on his record of service to all the people.

Jim Allen has forged to the front in the Governor's race and is gaining day by day because the people want a forceful leader—not a showman—to chart the straight course for Alabama's forward march these next four years.

Bruce Henderson

THE MAN FOR GOVERNOR

During twelve (12) years of service in the Senate BRUCE HENDERSON was the leader of the AGRICULTURE GROUP and all AGRICULTURAL LEGISLATION was introduced by him in the SENATE.

BRUCE HENDERSON has been active in the ALABAMA FARM BUREAU AND IS A MEMBER OF THE LIVESTOCK COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN FARM BUREAU FEDERATION.

BRUCE HENDERSON is opposed to the removal of your sales tax exemption and is against increasing your taxes. Other candidates want to increase your taxes by removing your sales tax exemptions and by levying new taxes.

Read His Record

1. Aid to Agriculture

In service to Alabama Agriculture, Bruce Henderson was the author of the Farm-to-Market Road Law, Farm Tractor Gas Refund Law, Farm Fish Pond bills, Artificial Insemination for Livestock Law, Stadium Construction Law, Bangs Disease Control Law and the Law to establish the state livestock Coliseum and agricultural center. He fought successfully to have these laws enacted.

2. Support of Schools

Bruce Henderson's fight to earmark school funds so they could not be diverted or squandered in other ways increased the money available for school purposes from 44,000,000 to 79,000,000, the greatest raise ever given in the history of Alabama.

FARMER-STATESMAN

3. Public Health

Bruce Henderson was the author of legislation for improving public health, which has reduced the ravages of tuberculosis, syphilis, and cancer in Alabama and has brought him a special citation from the Alabama Medical Association. This achievement has been given national recognition by articles in American Magazine and Readers Digest.

A vote for BRUCE HENDERSON IS declaration of war on crime, crookedness and corruption in government. It is the first step for the elimination of favoritism, inefficiency, wasteful expenditure, padded payrolls and all other things which make good government bog down.

BRUCE HENDERSON is the best qualified man in the Governor's race. Go to the polls on May 4th and elect the man whom you will be proud to have in the Governor's Office for the next four years.

Of the 489 stills destroyed, the most, 95, were in Jefferson County. Next came Tuscaloosa with 75 and Cleburne with 52. Other counties in which 10 or more stills were destroyed in March were: Winston 12, Walker 19, St. Clair 22, Shelby 21, Marshall 14, LIMESTONE 10 and Colbert 14.

New Chevrolet Trucks...

do more work per day... more work per dollar!

You save hours on the road.
Thanks to new high-compression power, you can maintain faster schedules without driving at higher maximum speeds. Increased acceleration and hill-climbing ability let you save time where it counts.

You save time on deliveries.
With new truck Hydra-Matic transmission, you save time at every delivery stop. And you can forget about clutching and shifting for good! It's optional at extra cost on 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton Chevrolet trucks.

You save extra trips. That's because of the extra load space you get in the new Advance-Design bodies. New pick-up bodies are deeper, new stake and platform bodies are wider and longer. Also, they're set lower for easier loading.

You save with lower upkeep, too. Extra chassis strength saves you money on maintenance. There are heavier axle shafts in two-ton models... bigger clutches in light- and heavy-duty models... stronger frames in all models.

You save on operating costs. New power saves you money every mile! The "Thrifmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235" and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost) deliver increased operating economy.

And your savings start the day you buy. In fact, they start with the low price you pay and continue over the miles. Chevrolet is America's lowest-priced line of trucks. It's also the truck that has a traditionally higher trade-in value.

Come in and see all the wonderful new things you get in America's number one truck. We'll be glad to give you all the money-saving facts.

We can not accept all cases—but we can help almost all that we do accept — see if yours is a chiropractic case.

Even though Chiropractic is not limited as a health service to one particular disease, there are often many cases that we do not accept because we cannot find or cannot correct the cause. Chiropractic does not claim to be a panacea — a "cure-all." We know after our examination is complete, whether or not we have FOUND THE CAUSE — whether we feel if we can CORRECT the cause or not — and this honest fact determines WHETHER OR NOT we accept the case.

Scarcely a week passes that we do not refuse some case because we are unable to locate the cause of the patient's trouble, or we felt unable to correct what we did find.

We are proud of our enviable record of achieving outstanding results in many cases—some of which had been told their condition was hopeless.

Our examination eliminates cases we can't help.

Calera Eagles Win First Game Under Lights

Winning its first baseball game under its new lights, the Eagles came from behind twice to take the Jemison Panthers Friday night.

After letting Jemison score in the first inning with a base on balls, an error and a base hit, pitcher Porter Ingram settled down to strike out the side twice and gave up only six more hits, as he went on to finish the game with 12 strikeouts and 2 bases on balls.

Jemison scored again in the top of the fourth when Cofer, Martin and Smith singled. Ingram struck out the next two batters and picked Martin off third to end the inning.

The Eagles then tied up 2-2 in the bottom of the fourth when Sims walked and Askins tripled off the center field fence, 320 feet away. Askins then scored on an error by the catcher. Ingram doubled down the left field line, but Findley struck out to end the inning.

Jemison went back into the lead in the fifth inning when, with two outs Nelson got on by an error and the next two batters singled.

That made it 3-2 in Jemison's favor until the sixth inning when lead-off man Bobby Henson took a walk, Porter Ingram singled, and stole second. Then James Findley singled, scoring both runners to put Calera back in the lead 4-3. Jemison was retired in the top of the seventh without a run to end the game.

In all, the Eagles collected 5 hits, of which pitcher Ingram got two, a double and a single, James Findley, short stop, one, a single, Junior Smith one, also a single, and Bucky Askins with the longest hit of the game, a triple.

Gothard was the losing pitcher for Jemison.

Calera plays its next game here April 16 against Vincent

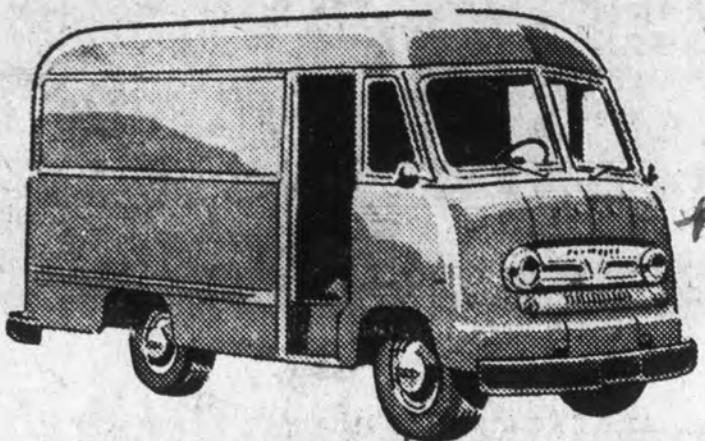

High School. The game will begin at 7:00.

FFA NOTES

The Montevallo FFA will send three judging teams to Auburn Saturday to participate in the central Alabama final contests in judging dairy cows, beef cattle and swine. The boys will also observe radio programs, quartet contests, and listen to several string bands as they compete. Twenty Montevallo FFA boys will make the trip to Auburn.

Montevallo FFA boys will leave for Wheeler Dam Monday and will be up there on a camping and fishing trip until Wednesday. The FFA boys have been making this trip for the past four years and it is set up in the annual activity program as a regular activity of the chapter. It is hoped that at least 20 of the boys will go, along with their adviser, M. Thornton.

Willis Hamaker, Billy Gene Jones, Robert Goggins and Robert Lovelady have been working this week in the new subdivision helping Miss Josephine Eddy and Miss Menefee get their lots in shape for their new buildings. The boys are helping with the grading, pruning trees and shrubs, and transplanting some grass for sodding certain areas.

During last week the Agr. II boys worked toward improving the athletic field. Additional fertilizer and bermuda seeds were added and the field was dragged and a pitcher's mound fixed. Eugene Smith and Stanley Allen put the finishing touch on the mound Monday.

It is interesting to note that of the original 52 boys to enroll in vocational agriculture in 1948 at Montevallo, all but two are now gainfully employed. Below is given a summary of what the boys are doing.

Thirty-two entered the armed services, mostly Navy and Army; 7 went to college—2 study agriculture, 1 law, 1 organ construction and repair, 3 business education; 1 went to trade school, radio and electric; 10 went on special jobs—1 Hayes Aircraft, 1 loan company clerk, 1 carpenter, 2 Swift and Company, 1 block-laying and carpenter, 2 clerical work in Birmingham, 1 grocery clerk, 1 nurseryman, 1 movie projector operator; 2 dropped out, no record available.

Although vocational agriculture was originally placed in the high school curriculum to train farmers or those about to enter farming, many have found phases of agricultural study helpful in that their future work has been closely related to agriculture in some manner. During recent years much time has been given to the teaching of fundamentals of electricity, welding, painting, carpentry, food processing, marketing, budgeting and citizenship.

The Montevallo vocational agriculture department now has 84 students enrolled in three classes. Thirty-four of these are beginning students, 29 are second year boys, and 21 are third year. The average enrollment for central Alabama is 37 students per department.

Orchestra Gives Program at Calera

The faculty and students of the Calera schools were entertained last Friday when the Alabama College Orchestra played in the school auditorium.

Mrs. M. Thornton, music director of the school, presented Miss Claire Ordway of Alabama College, director of the orchestra. Miss Ordway arranged the numbers on the program and explained the different sections of the orchestra. Demonstrations were given by strings, percussion, woodwind and brass sections.

The program was opened with singing "America" by the audience, and closed with singing of "Dixie." The orchestra played accompaniment for both numbers. Members of the Alabama College Orchestra are:

Violins, Mary Katherine Hicks, concertmaster; Mavis Bridges, Edith Edfeldt, Denny Elliott, Bobbie Gray, Anne Kuers, Joan Sanders, Mary Thornton, Loyce Wilborn, Virginia Williams.

Viola, Annette Roe; cello, Lucy Underwood; bass, Ramona Freeman, Elizabeth Lowery; flute, Jade Higgins, Carmela Brii, oboe, Gene Hulme, Sigrid Lund; clarinet, Barbara Fite, Ellen Little.

Re-elect
JOHN SPARKMAN
U. S. SENATOR

EXPERIENCED STATESMAN

DEMOCRAT

There is positive photostatic proof that present opposition to Senator Sparkman stems from the same Republican-Dixiecrat leaders who would have led Alabama into the Republican ranks in 1952. They are more anxious than ever now to defeat Sparkman, 1952 Democratic nominee for vice-president of the United States, in order to destroy National Democratic Party prestige and thereby help defeat Democratic candidates throughout the Nation.

THIS IS THE "CHANGE"—How Do You Like It?

A campaign slogan of the recent presidential campaign was "We want a Change." Now we have the change—a Republican administration.

1. Prosperity has changed to a gathering storm of depression.
2. Volume of retail sales is declining and industrial plants are closing down for lack of orders.
3. Full employment has changed to thousands out of jobs.
4. Farm prosperity has changed to falling farm prices while the cost of living has gone up.
5. REA, TVA and all low-cost power are more seriously attacked than ever before.
6. Low interest rates have changed to high interest rates. Home loans and small business loans cost much more, when one can be found. On a $10,000 house, this costs the home buyer $800 extra. Higher interest rates cost the consuming public billions of dollars extra on consumer time payments on all kinds of merchandise.
7. Promised tax reductions are now opposed by the Republican administration, the budget is unbalanced and the public debt is growing.
8. Hill-Burton hospital funds have been reduced.
9. REA, and rural telephones and soil conservation funds have been reduced.
10. World communism is more rampant and insolent than ever.
11. World peace still is a dream for the future as peace conferences fail.
12. Race hatred and prejudice is fanned into higher and higher flames.

Remember these things when you vote May 4. Your vote for re-election of John Sparkman will be a vote against the National Republican Party and against Republican-Dixiecrat reactionaries who are engineering this "change."

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

The Housing Bill

The Administration's Housing bill was passed by the House last Friday and sent to the Senate. As cleared by the House, the bill contains numerous proposals of the President for enlarging the supply of new privately sponsored housing, encouraging the rehabilitation of old homes, spurring slum clearance and urban redevelopment. The House refused, however, to authorize 140,000 new public low rent housing units that had been recommended by Mr. Eisenhower. It also refused to grant discretionary power to the President to raise or lower interest rates on veterans' loans. This power will remain in the Congress.

Wiretap Evidence

The House passed legislation last week that will permit the introduction of wiretap evidence in the Federal courts in cases involving treason, espionage and sedition. In order to understand the need for such legislation, it is important to understand its history.

In 1928, in the case of Olmstead against the United States, the Supreme Court of the United States held that the introduction of wiretap evidence did not violate the defendant's right against unlawful search and seizure under the fourth amendment, nor his rights against self-incrimination under the fifth amendment. In other words, there was nothing in the Constitution that would bar the admission of evidence by wiretapping.

Six years later, Congress passed the Federal Communications Act. This provides that "no person shall intercept any communication and divulge such intercepted communication to any person." In 1937, in the case of Nardone against the United States, the Supreme Court construed section 605 to mean that wiretap conversations are not admissible as evidence in any case in the Federal courts. We see then that the admission of wiretap evidence is barred by the 1934 statute.

In 1952, the effect of this statute was spotlighted in the celebrated Judith Coplon case. Coplon had been convicted of espionage while she worked in the Justice Department, but her conviction was reversed on appeal when it was held that wiretap evidence was not admissible in the Federal courts. The release of Judith Coplon made it apparent that legislation was badly needed that would permit the introduction of evidence in cases involving spies and saboteurs.

Against this background a number of bills were introduced in an effort to remedy the situation. Last week the Administration-backed Keating bill reached the floor of the House. The primary purpose of the bill was to admit wiretapped information as evidence in the criminal prosecution of spies and saboteurs. There was very little opposition to this portion of the bill. There was very strong opposition, however, to a section of the bill giving the Attorney General of the United States unrestricted power to authorize wiretaps by the FBI and by military intelligence agents in specified cases.

Many members of both parties felt very strongly that such semi-judicial power should not be vested in the hands of one man—a man who already heads the prosecuting arm of the government. The power to authorize future wiretaps should, they believed, be vested in the Federal courts.

After two days of heated debate, the House passed a substitute proposal introduced by Rep. Willis of Louisiana, permitting the Attorney General to use wiretap evidence he already has, but requiring him to obtain a Federal court order before tapping wires for such evidence in future. The bill as passed, permits such evidence to be admitted in Federal courts only in cases of espionage, treason, and sedition.

The retroactive clause allowing the Attorney General to authorize the use of wire-tap evidence already in his possession was inserted because of the Judith Coplon case and similar cases. If the Senate adopts the House bill, it will undoubtedly be necessary for the courts to decide whether Congress can legislate retroactively, making court evidence valid in the Coplon case which was invalid at the time of the crime.

In any event, the House bill in its final form gives to the Justice Department a means whereby it may more effectively protect our nation against spies and traitors. At the same time it provides that the federal courts shall act as a safeguard against the abuses of power that could result from the passage of less restricted legislation.

Coosa River Development

There is a good possibility that legislation will be introduced this week in both the House and the Senate that, if enacted, will make it possible for the Alabama Power Company to go forward with their plans to build five additional dams on the Coosa River. The U. S. Corp of Engineers and the Alabama Power Company have already agreed upon the provisions to be included in such legislation and an official spokesman for the Corps of Engineers has stated that he believes these provisions "adequately protect the Federal interest."

LAURIE BATTLE'S Home Newspaper Recommends Him for U. S. Senator and scores Sparkman's turnabout Stand on Civil Rights

LAURIE C. BATTLE

LAURIE BATTLE has received the strong endorsement of many Alabama newspapers that know his fine record in Congress and are disgusted with Sparkman's turnabout stand on the vital Civil Rights issue. Latest in the list is the:

BIRMINGHAM POST-HERALD

It Had This to Say:

"In his unsuccessful bid for the vice presidency Senator Sparkman tried to be all things to all people. As Laurie Battle puts it, he attempted to carry water on both shoulders. . . . In Alabama he tried to tell us he was the same 'Old John.'"

Sparkman Helped Write Civil Rights Plank

"But it was John Sparkman who helped to write the civil rights plank in the Democratic platform and time and again in public appearances during the campaign he stated that he stood four-square on it. Now he comes back to Alabama seeking to retain his seat in the Senate and tells us he has always vigorously opposed the civil rights program and has never deviated from that position. But the record speaks for itself and no matter what Mr. Sparkman says now he cannot change one letter of it."

Sparkman Has Lost Touch With the People

"During his long years in Washington Senator Sparkman has lost touch with the people of his own State. By his own acts and of his own free choice he has destroyed his usefulness as a representative of the people of Alabama. It is time to bring him home and to put in his place a man who not only is in sympathy with and capable of representing Alabama but who will be sincere and forthright about it. Laurie Battle is such a man. His experience in the House as Congressman from the Ninth District qualifies him for the promotion he asks. His record recommends him highly."

Contributions to help Battle win are needed and will be appreciated.

JACK'S PLAN ... TO BUILD ALABAMA

★ TAXES I will not advocate nor support any additional taxes unless the voters of Alabama go to the polls and decide additional taxes are necessary.

★ LABOR My father was a coal miner. I realize the vast improvement of working conditions under Collective Bargaining. I feel we should preserve the right of Labor to bargain collectively. I favor the "Right to Work" bill.

★ INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT My plan calls for an intensive world-wide search for new and old industry alike to locate in Alabama. Industrial capital is fast waking up to the fact that Alabama and the South should be their natural headquarters. Too long have we watched our natural resources, such as iron, steel, lumber and cotton, being shipped out of Alabama to some highly industrialized northern city to be manufactured into the finished product, which eventually finds its way back to the Alabama supplier in the form of tractors, bathtubs, toys and overalls.

★ LOCAL GOVERNMENT I believe in local government and shall do all within my power to support any measure that will strengthen local self-government.

★ A.B.C. I am in accord with the principle of local option. It is the democratic privilege of a majority of the people of each locality to decide the alcoholic beverage control question for themselves.

★ OLD AGE ASSISTANCE Alabama aged and dependents are entitled to payments equal to or exceeding the national average. This shall be my constant goal.

★ EDUCATION The financial needs of our schools are greater than can be met under the present economy of the State. I promise to exert every effort to determine where economies can be effected to fulfill these needs without further increasing the burden on our already overburdened taxpayer.

★ HEALTH I pledge to expand the efforts of our State Government to provide more adequate public health, industrial hygiene and maternal and child care and to provide more hospitals and Health Centers and better health protection for all our people.

★ AGRICULTURE With the help of the Legislature, I will seek by every means the achievement of an adequate research, educational, and assistance program for the farmers of Alabama.

★ STATE PURCHASING I will see that all purchases are made on a competitive bid basis. I think the Alabama tax dollar should be spent for materials manufactured here in Alabama by Alabama taxpayers.

★ REAPPORTIONMENT We are taxing and governing great numbers of our people without granting them equal representation in our State Government. This condition is not only un-Democratic; it is un-American. My plan is to recommend that the Legislature perform its duties immediately by taking steps to reapportion the great State of Alabama.

Jack Owen Denies Phone Rate Raise

Montgomery, April 19 — Alabama Public Service Commission President C. C. "Jack" Owen today announced that the Commission has determined to deny in full the application of Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. for an increase of $4,790,200 annually in intrastate rates in Alabama. President Owen stated that the Company presently is earning 6 per cent in its intrastate net average investment, as adjusted, and that the Commission felt this was a fair and adequate rate of return under existing conditions. The Commission observed that the Telephone Company has been before it four times since the end of World War II seeking rate increases, and that the last decision of the Commission on October 17, 1952, denied their application on the grounds that they were then earning 6 per cent on their net average investment.

In hearings which consumed 2 weeks the Company had sought to justify their present proposed increase with a case admittedly costing over $200,000. Mr. Owen pointed to the statutes in other states and declared he felt that legislation is badly needed in Alabama to enable the Commission to assess the costs of such proceedings against the utility.

Mr. Owen stated he felt that the 6 per cent rate of return on average net investment as fixed by the Alabama Supreme Court was too high under existing conditions and that if any such return was allowed it will certainly have to be granted by the courts by the Company going over the heads of the Commission. He called on the Company "to tighten its belt" with the people of Alabama and as a public service to reduce expenses to avoid the alleged necessity for continued rate increase applications.

This decision means that the proposed $4,790,200 rate increase will not be permitted by the Alabama Public Service Commission and the rate payers in Alabama will be able to enjoy the full benefits in the federal excise tax reduction of $3,500,000 per year on their telephone rates.

Judge Clayton Seeks Full Term

Clayton, Ala. — Supreme Court Justice Preston C. Clayton today asked Alabama voters to retain him on the high court on the basis of his court record and his 22 years in the legal profession.

"I ask the voters to return me to the Supreme Court," Judge Clayton said, "on the basis of the time-honored custom of allowing a short-term appointee to be given the opportunity of a full term."

"Also, I ask your support because I have already given close study to the many vitally important legal questions currently pending before Alabama's Supreme Court," he said.

"Calling on my knowledge and experience gained during my 22 years as a practicing lawyer, I will do my utmost at all times to continue to discharge my duties in a manner that will merit your approval," said Justice Clayton. Justice Clayton has served on the Alabama Supreme Court since October, 1953, succeeding the late Justice Joel B. Brown.

Those in the legal profession consider him to be among Alabama's most steady and able judges.

Report from Washington

BY ARMISTEAD SEIDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Funds for next year's operation of one of the larger departments of our government were approved by the House last week. A total of slightly over $1 billion was authorized for the Department of Agriculture for fiscal 1955. The House-approved bill carries $719 million in direct cash and $320.5 million in loan authorizations for agricultural or rural purposes. The measure has been sent to the Senate for further debate and vote.

Sixth District residents, particularly those in Chilton County, will be interested to know that the bill includes a total of $139,000 for continuance of the federal-state program for control of the phony peach disease. The Budget Bureau had recommended only $39,000 for this program, but the appropriations committee raised the amount to $139,000 before reporting the bill to the House.

If the many letters I have received on the subject are any indication, quite a number of people in the District are interested in the appropriation for the school lunch program. The House bill designates a total of over $83 million for this service. The appropriations committee had asked for an increase of $9 million over the amount provided in the budget, and members of the House approved an additional $6 million increase. This adds up to a total increase of $15 million over the amount originally included in the budget for school lunch program.

Other major funds included in the agriculture appropriation bill are: agricultural research, $92 million; extension service $48 million; commodity stabilization service $99.6 million; forest service $74 million; soil conservation service $71 million.

The bill also authorizes the Department of Agriculture to lend farmers over the nation up to $320.5 million to develop rural electrification and rural telephone services.

Highway Funds Increased

Both the House and the Senate approved and sent to the White House last week a compromise bill authorizing $966 million in federal aid highway funds to be appropriated in each of the fiscal years 1956 and 1957. This legislation authorizes about $400 million a year more than is authorized under present law, and Alabama will, of course, be eligible to share this increase.

The compromise bill authorizes $875 million a year in federal contributions for highway projects in which state and local government share in financing. Of this, $315 million will go to primary roads; $210 million for secondary roads; $175 million will go to urban roads; and $175 million is earmarked for an interstate system of highways.

Of the remaining $91 million authorized in the compromise bill $31 million is for federally built roads and $10 million for non-federal roads.

The bill in its final form contains for the first time in any federal highway legislation a clause making collusion and conspiracy to defraud a federal criminal offense. This should be a restraining force on any malpractices that may have heretofore existed in highway construction.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

The record reveals that the Republican Party, allied with the Dixiecrat leaders in the South, are entirely responsible for the economic quagmire in which we now find ourselves! No longer can we afford to compromise with this menace to our everyday happiness and livelihood. As always, the answer lies in steadfast devotion to the principles of the great Democratic Party . . . the party of the South. Alabama's greatest gains have been made during Democratic administrations. Therefore on May 4th, go to the polls and vote for men who have pledged themselves to uphold the Democratic Party, to work for continuation of the great programs of human welfare that have brought prosperity and a richer life to millions of our people.

THE TIME TO STEM THE TIDE IS NOW!

WHY IS YOUR VOTE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE CANDIDATES IMPORTANT?

The State Democratic Executive Committee is the policy making body of the Democratic Party in Alabama. It is the guardian of the great principles that have endeared the Democratic Party to all Southerners. It is to your advantage to protect the Executive Committee from Republican infiltration under the Dixiecrat banner by voting for men who have proven their loyalty. Vote for the eight (8) regular, old-line Democrats listed at right.

Bessemer Church Is Host To Training Unions

The First Baptist Church of Bessemer last Friday night was the scene of one of the 12 district training union conventions being held this spring preparatory to the State training assemblies at Shocco Springs this June.

Seven associations, including the Shelby County association met at Bessemer mainly to have the elimination in the junior memory drill, the intermediate sword drill and the young people's better speakers' tournament.

Two winners were selected by competent judges in each of the three phases of the work. They will later represent this district at Shocco Springs.

Shelby association had a winner in all phases as follows:

Juniors: Patsy Carden, Calera; intermediates, Margaret Moore, Columbiana; and young people, Carolyn Stone, Columbiana.

Of the total attendance of 200 at this convention, Shelby association had the largest group of any visiting association. We had 33 registering to help eat the wonderful fellowship supper put on by the host association. This number included 4 pastors and delegates from Columbiana, Willsonville, Antioch No. 1, Calera, and Montevallo.

Congratulations are in order to these winning girls and to the churches and pastors, directors, leaders and other workers, says G. C. Moore, Jr., associational training union director.

Bilious Attacks

The liver is to be regarded as a great poison filter for the entire body. So long as there is no interference with its nerve supply and function, it can deal with poisons as fast as they are formed, the body is safe and can remain healthy. But if the

Dr. Norville liver does not function properly, the poisons are not handled properly and we become "bilious." Our head aches, our tongue becomes coated, we have a bad taste in the mouth, we lose our appetite and feel stupid, dull and feverish.

Such waste products as the liver cannot burn down, so that the kidneys and skin can handle them it pours out through its duct into the intestine as bile. The bile is a yellowish brown fluid, which assists the pancreatic juice in the digestion of the food, and helps to dissolve the fats eaten. It is however chiefly a waste product.

Besides being a great blood purifier the liver is a blood maker in the sense that it changes food stuffs in the blood from the intestines into forms which are more suitable for use by the brain muscles and other tissues of the body. Some of the sugars, for instance, the liver changes into a kind of animal starch (glycogen) which it stores away in its own cells. It also turns both sugars and proteins into fat, part of which it stores away in its own cells.

The liver is very important in the network of organs of the body. Maintain its normal function by Chiropractic adjustments.

Alabama Farmers Need
LAURIE C. BATTLE
in the U. S. Senate to Represent Them on AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE

Not since the death of the late, great Senator John H. Bankhead have Alabama farmers had a representative on the Agriculture Committee of the U. S. Senate. Laurie Battle's foremost aim will be to get on this Committee, where he can best serve the farmers of Alabama.

Laurie Battle has always been a staunch friend of the farmer. Battle's vigorous and wholehearted support in Congress of legislation to help farmers brought warm praise from the Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee when the Democrats were in power. He wrote:

"Hon. Laurie C. Battle, Member of Congress.

My dear Laurie:

I am writing to thank you for the splendid cooperation you have always given me as chairman of this great committee. You have always been very helpful, interested and cooperative and I shall always be grateful to you. I know of your great interest in the success of a well-rounded farm program, and I think all of our Democratic colleagues can take just pride in the program which has been built during Democratic administrations.

(Signed) Harold D. Cooley, Chairman,
U.S. House of Representatives Agriculture Committee."

Thousands of farmers have pledged Battle their support because in Congress he has a record of getting things done.

FOR YOUR OWN FUTURE — and ALABAMA'S
Help Send Battle to the Senate on May 4!

This is the 1954 Chevrolet Bel Air 2-Door Sedan. With 3 series, Chevrolet offers a model to meet every individual and family need.

These facts about the New Chevrolet can help you make an important decision

Don't you agree that buying a new car calls for careful consideration? Regardless of make, it involves a substantial amount of money and a lot of future satisfaction. This information can give you a better idea of comparative value and help you decide which make to buy.

A good customer of ours was telling us the other day how he sizes up a new car. Because he's bought a number of them over the years, we were interested in what he had to say. We think you will be, too.

Actually, what he does is to ask about seven basic questions. The answers give a pretty complete picture of the car and its comparative value. Here's what he wants to know.

How well do I like its looks?

That's one question, of course, that only you can answer. You're the one who buys the car and you, above anybody else, should be proud of its appearance.

All we can tell you is that we hear a lot of nice things about Chevrolet's new styling. People seem to like the new front-end and rear-end designs, and the way the bumpers curve even farther around the fenders. They like the new styling touches all around the car and the wide choice of bright new colors and two-tone combinations. A good many tell us that Chevrolet has a decided edge over the other cars in its field for smooth and graceful lines.

Who makes the body?

This question takes in much more territory than the appearance of the car. It involves the quality of the interior as well as the strength and safety of the body construction. That's why we think it worth your consideration that Chevrolet has the only Body by Fisher in the low-price field.

You can see the difference outside and inside. We'd especially like you to look over the new interiors. Just sit in the car, if you will. Feel the quality of the fabrics and notice the more generous use of vinyl trim.

In all these ways, you'll find evidence of superior quality and workmanship. And after all, isn't that what you would expect in Body by Fisher? As you know, Fisher is the largest and most famous manufacturer of automobile bodies in the world. Doesn't it stand to reason that Fisher can build extra quality into the Chevrolet body? It's there and you can see it.

What's under the hood?

You hear a great deal of talk these days about engine power. The truth is that the number of horsepower isn't nearly as important as what the horsepower does for you.

In this year's Chevrolet, you get increased power in two finer engines. There's the "Blue-Flame 125" engine teamed with Powerglide automatic transmission and optional on all models at extra cost. In gearshift models, you get the more powerful "Blue-Flame 115" engine.

But, actually, the increase in horsepower is only a sort of by-product of design changes made for other reasons. Chevrolet engineers were after greater engine efficiency, not just greater power. So, you get improved acceleration, with greater and safer passing ability. You get quieter, smoother operation. You climb the steep hills with new ease.

How hungry is it for gasoline?

A car's reputation for, and record of, economy of operation is certainly an important consideration to most people. We'd be glad to have you compare Chevrolet in this respect with any car at any price.

And, in the case of this new Chevrolet, you do not have to sacrifice economy for finer performance and more horsepower. That's because the Chevrolet engines are high-compression engines. Their compression ratio of 7.5 to 1 is the highest in any of the leading low-priced cars.

This means simply that the engine compresses, or squeezes, the fuel mixture to a greater degree in order to wring more work out of it. That's how Chevrolet is able to give you an important gain in performance along with money-saving gasoline mileage—and on regular gas, of course.

Is it up to date in features?

We can't think of a new feature or development you might want that you can't have on the new Chevrolet.

Now you can have Chevrolet's zippy and thrifty Powerglide automatic transmission on any model. You can have Power Steering on all models and at a new, lower price. You can have Automatic Window and Seat Controls on any Bel Air or "Two-Ten" model, and you can have Power Brakes on any model equipped with Powerglide. All are, of course, optional features at extra cost.

How popular a car is it?

When you come right down to it, there's no better way to judge the satisfaction a car gives its owners than by its popularity. How many people buy it and keep on buying it?

Well, as you may know, Chevrolet is by far the most popular car in this country. That's true today and it's been true for a good many years now. But it couldn't be true—or wouldn't be true—unless Chevrolet gave its owners an extra measure of satisfaction and value.

How much does it cost?

There's a short, sweet answer to that one: Chevrolet is priced below all other lines of cars. This lower cost is made possible by the greater production facilities and purchasing power of the world's largest manufacturer of automobiles. That is why Chevrolet can offer you all the advantages we've told you about here—and many more, too.

We'd be more than glad to have you see all these things for yourself and to try out this new Chevrolet on the road. We'll be happy to see you at any time.

State Primary Election Laws

This paper will publish information taken from the laws of Alabama relating to the primary elections to be held in a few days.

This information will be started in this article and concluded in an article next week.

Absentee ballots are now being voted, so perhaps the laws pertaining to this ballot should be first discussed.

A qualified voter who, by reason of his regular business, will be absent from his county on the day of the election, may vote a duplicate ballot in the office of the Register not more than 20 and less than 5 days before the election. The voter must subscribe to an oath on the ballot which states that his regular business or occupation regularly requires his absence from the county of his residence and that he will be absent from the county on the day of the election because of his regular business and in the performance of the duties thereof. The voter is given duplicate ballots by the Register and two envelopes, one addressed to the Secretary of State and the other to the County election officials. He then marks his ballot without assistance, unless incapacitated, and subscribes to the affidavit. The Register completes the affidavit and then the voter seals his ballots in the envelopes. The original is retained for the County election officials and the copy is mailed at the end of the day by the Register to the Secretary of State.

The Register is required to post publicly each day the names of those who have voted that day. Three days before the election the Register shall post a complete list of the names and addresses of all persons who have voted and on election day he shall furnish the names to the election officials at each polling place, who are required to then strike the names from their list of voters and such persons shall not be permitted to vote again. Special provisions are made for hospitalized disabled veterans, servicemen and their wives.

Voting On Election Day

One important change has been made in the election laws for voting. It is now required that each voter sign his own name on the list of names of persons voting, which is kept by election officials. No one shall sign for him unless because of physical handicap and then an election official may sign for him and he must write the cause of his assistance and also his own name. If the voter cannot sign his name because of illiteracy, then he must make his mark on the list of voters and his name shall be written for him by an election official who shall witness his mark by signing his own name. This Act became effective in 1953. It provides that one who signs the name of another illegally shall be punished for a felony.

The law says that the ballot of every voter shall be kept secret and inviolate. The following procedure is prescribed:

1. The voter shall sign his name to the list of persons voting.
2. An inspector initials the perforated tab on the ballot, hands the ballot to the voter, who takes it, records his vote and then folds the ballot so as to leave showing the one inch square at the bottom, and hands it to the inspector.

3. The inspector verifies the initials on the ballot; places the number on the ballot in the one-inch square which corresponds with the number beside the signature of the voter on the list; places a black seal over the number and deposits the ballot in the box: all this without unfolding the ballot.

4. The voter's name is then crossed off the official list of voters.

Some election officials have followed the procedure of numbering the ballot and placing the black seal over the number before giving the ballot to the voter, and the voter, after recording his vote, places the ballot in the box. This method, though not in strict compliance with the law, may also preserve the secrecy of the ballot.

Each voter must prepare his ballot in the room in which the election is being held. It is illegal to take a ballot from the polls for voting purposes. If, through illiteracy or physical handicap he is unable to mark his ballot, he may request the assistance of the inspectors, and one inspector shall put him under oath as to such disability and then his ballot shall be marked by one inspector as directed, and in the presence of the other inspector. It is unlawful for anyone else to assist one to prepare his ballot. It is unlawful for the inspector to attempt to influence the decision of the voter or to divulge how the voter had the ballot marked.

Next week another article will be printed giving further information about the conduct of primary elections.

Dr. Robert Johnson Accepts Position With Colorado School

Dr. Robert H. Johnson, supervising principal of the Thompson Schools, Siluria, has been elected to a high position with a $12,000 salary attached. He will serve as superintendent of the second largest school system in Colorado, the Jefferson County, Colorado school system. His appointment to the Colorado position is effective on June 1. This announcement was made simultaneously last week by Dr. G. H. Gilbert, chairman of the Board of Education, Jefferson County, Colorado, and by the Shelby County Board of Education.

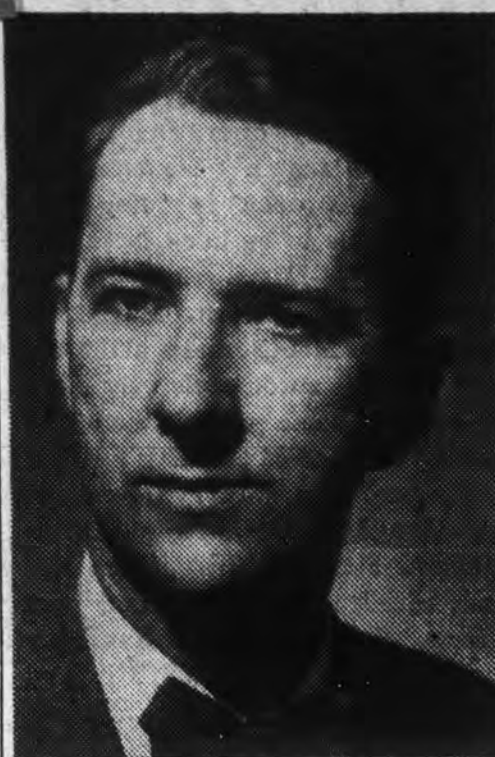

Dr. Johnson is 34. He received the B.S. degree from Livingston Teachers College; the M.A. from the University of Alabama; and the Ed.D. degree from Colorado State College, Greeley, Colo. In addition to his duties at Thompson Schools, he is visiting professor during the summer sessions at the Colorado State College.

Dr. Johnson came to the Siluria schools from Semmes Technical School at Mobile. During the past 6 years he has completed an expansion program which has included an entire new high school plant with modern library, cafeteria, a vocational agriculture building and music and boys' athletic annexes.

TWO YEARS AGO the school was accepted for membership in the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. Only one other school in Shelby County holds such membership. Approximately 80 of the 400 high schools in Alabama are in the association. Also, Dr. Johnson is one of five Alabama high school principals holding the doctorate degree.

Other improvements at Thompson schools include the audio visual aids laboratory now considered among the best in the state. The library has been expanded. Books are now valued at more than $10,000. The enrollment of the school and the faculty has increased by one-third during the six-year period Dr. Johnson has been at Siluria. Each year more and more students have been encouraged to go on with their education and many are going to college on scholarships. All levels of service to the children of the people of the community have been steadily improved and increased.

Dr. Johnson in a statement says "The people of our community have cooperated to the fullest extent with our staff in making all these things possible, and it is with the most pleasant associations that I leave this field."

Dr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Johnson, of Parrish. He is married to the former Estelle Penry of Daphne. They have two daughters, Martha and Barbara.

Record Vote Is Expected Tuesday

The Democratic primary election next Tuesday promises to be interesting to observe in many respects

New Voters

Due to the recent change in poll tax requirements, many voters will cast a ballot for the first time, while others who had fallen behind with poll taxes will again cast a vote for the first time in many years. According to information received some days ago, Shelby County will have approximately 2,819 more voters than heretofore, of which 2,519 are new registrants.

Negro Voters

Shelby County will have about 175 new Negro voters distributed by beats as follows: 36 in Beat 1; 126 in Beat 4; 4 in Beat 3; 6 in Beat 7; 3 in Beat 16.

Changes in Beat 4

Beat 4 has been rearranged into three districts as follows:

District one, with voting place at Montevallo City Hall.

District 2, with voting place at Wilton Town Hall.

District 3 with voting place at Times-Herald office in the Masonic Building.

There are approximately 632 voters in district one; 200 in district 2; and 581 in district 3.

(The voting place at Newala is discontinued.)

List of Voters in Beat 4

The Times-Herald requested of the Probate Judge that we be allowed to publish the official list of voters in the county, which would have given the people of this area an opportunity to check their names and determine at which place they would vote.

However, the Probate Judge had the qualified list published in the Columbiana paper only.

As time for voting draws near we have heard many people inquiring and wondering at which place they would vote. Evidently they did not see the list that was in the Columbiana paper.

Therefore, as a public service to the people of Beat 4, we are this week publishing at our own expense, the lists of voters at the three voting places in Beat 4.

Look for the lists elsewhere in this issue.

These lists are authentic and certified by the Probate Judge as of April 15 and published in the Columbiana paper. Errors in the list, if any, may have been corrected if the voter concerned had knowledge of the error and asked the Probate Judge for correction.

Thompson P. T. A. Elects Mrs. Kent President

Mrs. Douglas Kent will succeed Mrs. W. E. Stinson, who has led the group successfully this year. Projects have included science laboratory table and fence fund.

Health Dept. Notes

Mrs. Bertha Walton, R. N., graduate of Christ Hospital of Cincinnati has been appointed as Public Health Nurse for Shelby County. Mrs. Walton has had wide experience in her profession and the Health Department is very happy to have her join the staff.

The Health Department has a number of inquiries regarding the new Polio Vaccine. Innoculations with the new Salk Vaccine were begun in Montgomery County this week. Montgomery County is the only county in this State where the vaccine is being used and this because of the widespread epidemic of Polio there during the past summer. It may be another year before the vaccine is available in sufficient quantity to supply all the counties.

We are happy to announce that Warren Duke has been awarded this county's medical scholarship to the Medical College of Alabama. This Scholarship is awarded by the Board of Censors of the County Medical Society to a medical student from this County whose previous scholastic record and high character are outstanding.

Warren possesses every attribute necessary to become an eminent member of the medical profession.

Today Jimmy Faulkner is obviously far ahead in this important race for Governor . . . He is leading because the people of Alabama know that Jimmy Faulkner has the TRAINING and ABILITY plus a program of HONESTY, DECENCY and PROGRESS to benefit ALL ALABAMA CITIZENS . . .

Alabama people also APPROVE OF THE REFRESHINGLY CLEAN CAMPAIGN THAT FAULKNER HAS CONDUCTED!!

JIMMY FAULKNER

Because Jimmy Faulkner is so far ahead in this race, certain opposing candidates are now desperately "shooting at" this clean, forward-looking young man . . .

These candidates are shooting at Faulkner ONLY BECAUSE THEY KNOW HE IS WINNING! (Politicians don't waste their shots on political "dead ducks!")

But "you can't get blood out of a turnip!"—and YOU CAN'T FIND DIRT WHERE THERE IS NO DIRT! These candidates fighting Faulkner know how true this is . . . They HAVE TRIED DESPERATELY BUT HAVE FAILED to come up with one charge that will hold water! . . .

That's because JIMMY FAULKNER IS CLEAN AS A WHISTLE and because JIMMY FAULKNER HAS NO SECRETS!

Retired Ministers Aided by Mother's Day Offerings

Practically 200,000 members of 940 Methodist Churches in the North Alabama Conference will contribute to the comfort and happiness of 241 retired ministers and widows who are dependent on the Mother's Day offering for the necessities of life, according to Dr. W. Nelson Guthrie, executive secretary of Superannuate Homes and Endowment.

In 1952 the North Alabama Conference approved unanimously a plan called An Enlargement Program giving to each church a quota which when paid will provide homes, endowment and more adequate retirement pay. Last year the first year of the enlargement program about 85 per cent of the churches paid quotas in full. From advance reports from pastors and laymen across the conference, indications are that practically every church will pay quota in full this year, stated Dr. Guthrie.

Bishop Clare Purcell and members of his cabinet have approved and are supporting the program. Bishop Purcell says, "It is G-d sent for our claimants."

Dr. Guthrie says Congress will perhaps pass social security for ministers, but when the plan is passed it will not include help to those who have retired. The church will not forget these when they make their offerings on Mother's Day. Pastors and church school officers and teachers will present this cause in every Methodist Church May 9th.

A Message From Your Candidate W. P. (Bill) HILL

During this campaign I have worked an average of sixteen hours per day and have travelled well over eight thousand miles in an effort to see in person each and every resident of our county, in order to acquaint the public with my views and qualifications and what could be expected of me as your sheriff. I realize, however, through no fault of mine I have been unable to meet and talk with all of you. So I would like to sum up for you the things I stand for.

1. Again I solemnly pledge you to clean up this important office and to that end eliminate all corruptness that exists, and I assure you the duties of this office will be carried out efficiently, with integrity and fairness to all.

2. Regardless of the rumors circulated, I have made no deals with any individual or group as to the deputies whom I will use.

3. I will cooperate to the fullest extent with each and every law enforcement agency of every municipality in our county and all state and federal agencies. By taking this advantage I am convinced that your sheriff can properly enforce all our laws with the number of deputies which are allowed a salary by our county. I am definitely opposed to any part-time deputies on a fee basis. I shall seek and obtain all the modern day training for law enforcement officers provided by our state and federal government, for myself and the intelligent, honest men I appoint as deputies.

4. As a step forward by a progressive and enlightened county I promise you a great improvement over the "horse and buggy" day practices we now have. Such a step as many of the other counties of our state and other states are taking, namely, uniformed deputies in properly marked cars. The modern day law enforcement, with two-way radio, telephone, etc., has no need for the out-dated "peeping-Tom" type of law enforcement. To this end as your sheriff I will dedicate myself to give you a sheriff's department which you and every other good citizen will be justly proud of.

During my campaign I have refused all financial assistance from the gamblers, bootleggers, moonshiners and all other individuals and groups seeking special favors which would prevent any man from giving you the law enforcement our county deserves. I have also refused to pay the precinct politicians and for this reason, many of them will attempt to have you believe that I cannot be elected. Please do not be deceived, as I am convinced, based upon the assurances of the support of so many good people within this county, that you will go to the polls and vote your own convictions, which will give me the opportunity to give our county efficient, intelligent, decent and modern law enforcement.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. (Bill) HILL

Help Smash Machine Politics in Alabama! Elect LAURIE C. BATTLE U. S. Senator

Over the years John Sparkman has master-minded the most ruthless political machine our State has ever known.

OUT-OF-STATE POLITICAL ORGANIZERS CALLED SOUTH TO ALABAMA

Pleas for help from the desperate leaders of the Sparkman machine have brought Out-Of-State professionals with their slush funds into Alabama in a frantic last minute attempt to stem the rising Battle tide, hoping to keep Sparkman—their rubber stamp—in the U. S. Senate.

There is positive proof that all of these outsiders are leading the fight to beat Battle:

THE POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE of the C.I.O.—Jack Kroll, National PAC Director from New York, and his cohorts, have been in Alabama directing Sparkman's campaign. Workers in Alabama resent this outside interference which is pushing for F.E.P.C. and other anti-South force bills.

THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE, whose radical left-wing leaders seek to end segregation in the South and to destroy the friendly relations which have long existed between the races.

Alabama voters, on May 4th, will overwhelmingly repudiate this effort of outsiders who are against our Southern customs and traditions, to tell them how to vote. They will . . .

On the Farms In Shelby County

ON THE FARMS

B. F. Hatchett and G. C. Starcher
Lester Stansell has applied
2700 pounds of 4-10-7 fertilizer and 800 pounds of ammonium nitrate to his profitable 1953 seed patch of Chapel Hill Rescue grass. This volunteer stand on the 5 acre seed patch is very thick, seeding heavily.

J. W. Sterrett has a good stand of both crimson clover and rescue grass on his new-ground, and we reassured him this week that the crowding will not hurt his rescue grass.

Even before they moved onto their newly purchased farm the Floyd Atkinsons became district cooperators, got S.C.S. help in planning land use, water disposal and soil conservation. Thursday a parallel terracing system with one long, 60 foot wide, "W" meadow was under construction on this "Moore's cross-roads" farm.

Having built many lakes for others, Ernest Faulkner and Harry Lee have bought a 40 acre farm and begun a lake of their own. Of course they expect to equal or better S.C.S. specifications, health department standards, and State Department of Conservation requirements.

W. E. Dorrough's dam nears completion, on his 4-mile farm.

Carl Edfelt's daughters, Amelia and Edith posed proudly for us in that field of BALL CLOVER sowed on an old stand of crimson clover. This field is visible from the road, just in front of their "Sunrise Farm" at Moore's Crossroads. The Edfeldts yard-dog is a very active defender of these District Cooperators, so we suggest caution if you would like to inspect the clover more closely.

No preparation was made before sowing. Some "prepared" ball clover fields did not get satisfactory stands due to weather conditions, we believe.

P. B. SHAW SAYS

I want to sincerely thank each friend who has helped me in my race for TAX ASSESSOR, and now, that May 4 is only a short time ahead, I am counting on each of you to help me carry on to a successful conclusion.

I visited several homes last week where no candidate had preceded me. This makes clear to me that I can not contact all of the voters, and as always, I must depend on friends to help me.

Thanking each one of you with all sincerity, I am,

Yours truly,

P. B. SHAW

DON'T TAKE LESS THAN THE BEST

Without The Frills
The Decatur Daily

In a Birmingham News conducted poll at the Alabama Education Association annual session, 550 of the 7,500 teachers were contacted with the result that Faulkner was the teachers' choice 3 to 1 over Allen. Bruce Henderson was third and Folsom was fourth. Senator John Sparkman led Congressman Battle by 3 to 1 in that same poll.

However, Bruce Henderson ran much stronger in this poll than he did in the same poll back in 1950, and it put us to thinking that we haven't heard much of Henderson in this campaign except that "Henderson is the best man in the race, but he can't win." That has stuck to him like a barnacle ever since the campaign began.

Now just suppose that all the folks who vote for him, wouldn't that be a big surprise to Alabamians?

Henderson has some strength in all the counties. How much nobody can tell. This determined man, with a great legislative record back of him, keeps pushing up and down the state seeing folks, no political fences. He is operating with-out benefit of gadgets and musicians to attract the attention of the public, but he is campaigning and if people will give him time Bruce Henderson will convince them that he is the best qualified man in the race, that he means what he says and that he is going to keep right on saying it until midnight of May 3.

This newspaper has not endorsed any candidate in the race for governor, but we have been continually mindful of the qualities of Bruce Henderson. He won't make much noise, but he will be campaigning until the last tick of the clock. One vote to him is important if it takes him all day to get it and he will be just that consistent as governor, if enough of the folks who say he is the best man vote for him in May.

—his record proves it . . . thousands are saying it!!

Reprinted here are portions of an editorial which appeared originally in THE DECATUR DAILY.

It represents some of the soundest thinking and simplest logic to evolve from the current gubernatorial campaign.

READ IT . . . and VOTE FOR THE BEST MAN!
HE CAN WIN! HE IS GOING TO WIN!

CONVICTIONS MAY 4

GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA

PAID POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT by J. E. LAMBERT, DARLINGTON

The article in last week's paper mentioned the duties of the officials in assisting the voters and in maintaining the secrecy of the ballot.

A candidate may, by written paper, appoint a single watcher who may remain in the polls from the time of opening until the box is sealed and delivered to the returning officer. He shall have the right to inspect the ballots as they are counted and to see the tally as it is being made and generally to watch the conduct of the election. The watcher may not serve as an election official nor may he assist anyone

NO BALLOTS are to be counted until the polls are closed. The officials then proceed to count without adjournment. Before the count is begun the official list of voters is sealed in one envelope and the two lists of voters are sealed in another envelope, and the managers all write their names across the seal. After the votes have been counted and the certificate of results prepared and signed, the inspectors shall seal up in a separate envelope all ballots which have been cast and put it, together with a tally sheet and one certificate of result in the ballot box, and it shall then be locked and delivered to the returning officer, who in turn delivers it to the chairman of the county committee at the office of the Judge of Probate. The returning officer also delivers to the county committee chairman an envelope in which the inspectors have placed a certificate of results and one tally sheet. The chairman has the duty to destroy the sealed ballots and other election papers after a lapse of 30

In the event of a tie vote the chairman of the county committee shall decide the election if a county office is involved.

It is a good farm practice to save seed of small grains, white clover, caley peas, bur clover, vetches and crimson clover.

In spite of the fact that there was a lack of land transportation in early Alabama; the state was fortunate in having excellent river systems.

ARE WE IN THE SOUTH GOING DOWN THE PRIMROSE PATH TO POVERTY?

Thousands of Alabama voters today know beyond all question that the Republican Party and their southern wing, the Dixiecrat leaders, are leading the nation along a path that can only mean misery for millions. You have seen the danger signals for the past few months . . . the high interest rates; the attacks on TVA, REA and other great social reforms of the Democratic Party; the dropping prices to farmers for farm products, cattle and milk; the ever-growing army of unemployed! Where does it lead? To economic chaos, of course! Can you stop it? Yes! You and your neighbors, and other voters of this district, can go to the polls on May 4th and vote for regular, old-line Democrats . . . men who will follow the concepts of Jefferson, Jackson, Wilson and Roosevelt . . . men who are devoted to Southern traditions and happiness for the average man.

HERE IS THE BAROMETER:

- STOCK MARKET FLUCTUATING ABNORMALLY
—New York speculators want it!
- INTEREST RATES INCREASING
—Big City Bankers and other Mortgagees want it!
- ARMY OF UNEMPLOYED GROWING
—Our very existence depends on full employment.
- PRICES TO FARMER FOR CATTLE, MILK AND PRODUCE DROPPING —The farmer is entitled to a fair price for his crop.
- TVA AND REA UNDER ATTACK
—Millions are benefitted by low cost electricity.

YOUR VOTE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CANDIDATES

IS DECISIVE!

The State Democratic Executive Committee is the policy making body of the Democratic Party in Alabama. By deluding the voters, the Dixiecrat leaders seized control of the committee and made it impossible for us to support the national party nominees in 1948. The ONLY way Alabama voters can help elect a Democratic administration in 1956 is to make SURE now that the Executive Committee remains loyal to the principles of the Democratic Party, and is not traded off again to the Republicans.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

If the House is to meet the Administration's proposed July 31 adjournment date, its legislative pace will have to increase considerably during the next three months. House sessions were resumed Monday after a week's Easter recess, with a heavy schedule of controversial and major issues lying ahead.

More than 200 specific recommendations were made to Congress by President Eisenhower at the beginning of the session. Although many of them can be termed minor, the committee dockets remain crowded with unfinished business.

Major Issues Ahead

Even though the House is ahead of schedule on appropriations bills, it still must consider five major "money" bills before adjournment. These appropriations bills, which provide operating funds for all the departments and agencies of our government, must originate in the House of Representatives. In addition to the Defense Department Appropriations bill that is under consideration this week, the House will take up before adjournment measures providing funds for the Department of Labor, the Department of Health Education and Welfare, the District of Columbia, the Mutual Security Administration, and the legislative and judicial branches of the national government.

The ways and means committee is still conducting extensive hearings on legislation to expand Social Security coverage by about 10 million people. Committee members believe a bill will be ready for House action sometime this month.

A bill to increase postal rates by approximately $240 million a year is awaiting House action after being reported from the Post Office and Civil Service Committee earlier in the session. The legislation, introduced in an effort to reduce the large annual deficit of the Post Office Department, will raise some rates on first, second and third class mail. Committee action is still pending on proposals to increase salaries for postal employees and other federal workers.

Although the Senate labor committee has reported a measure containing revisions to the Taft-Hartley Law, the House education and labor committee has made no final recommendations as yet. The House committee has made an exhaustive study of proposed changes in the Taft-Hartley law during both sessions of the 83rd Congress, and there is some question as to whether or not any changes will be recommended by the committee during this session.

The Senate has passed and the House public works committee has recommended the St. Lawrence Seaway bill. This measure will make it possible for the U.S. to join Canada in developing a navigable waterway from Duluth, Minn., at the head of the Great Lakes, to the Atlantic Ocean. The Seaway bill is now being held up in the House rules committee but it may still be considered before the House adjourns.

LEGISLATION TO ADMIT Hawaii and Alaska as the 49th and 50th states is, according to Speaker Martin, "resting comfortably" on his desk and is going to remain there for some time. The House passed a bill last year granting statehood to Hawaii, but the measure was amended by the Senate to include both territories. It is extremely doubtful that the House will vote to admit Hawaii and Alaska at the same time unless real pressure is brought by the administration. There is no indication at this time that such pressure will be exerted.

Pending farm issues include price supports, marketing quotas and tariff policies. President Eisenhower has made more than 30 recommendations pertaining to these farm issues, and these recommendations have been referred to the House agriculture committee. There will undoubtedly be

House action on many of the President's agricultural recommendations before we adjourn.

Limited space makes it possible for me to mention only a few of the major issues now pending in the House. Legislation concerning veterans, foreign aid, reciprocal trade, future use of atomic energy and other important subjects will probably be voted on before adjournment.

To Give Radio Report

I AM RETURNING to Alabama to cast my vote in Tuesday's Democratic primary. So that I can report to you while I am at home, I have requested and received 30 minutes on each of the five radio stations in the 6th District. My report will consist primarily of a review of the important legislation that has been considered by the House of Representatives since Congress reconvened in January.

This report will be broadcast by the three Tuscaloosa stations on Sunday afternoon May 2. It is to be carried on station WJRD from 2:30 to 3:00 p.m., and on stations WTBC and WNPT from 5 to 5:30 p.m. The program will be broadcast over station WJAM Marion, from 2:15 to 2:45 p.m. on the same afternoon. It will be heard in Clanton on Sunday evening over station WKLF from 6:15 to 6:45 p.m.

McKee is interested also in Michaelmos clover, and on his own farm is trying many other new conservation farm crops, including Argentine and Paraguay 22 Bahia, coastal bermuda and button clover.

AGREEMENT between the City of Montevallo, a municipal corporation under the laws of Alabama (herein called "the city"), and the Water Works Board of the Town of Montevallo, a public corporation under the laws of Alabama (herein called "the board"):

RECITALS

The board is the owner of a water works plant and water distribution system (herein called "the system") which serves the city and its inhabitants. At the present time twenty-one (21) fire hydrants form a part of and are connected with the system. THEREFORE, THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH:

In consideration of the respective agreements herein contained, the parties agree one with the other as follows:

(1) The board hereby rents to the city twenty-one (21) fire hydrants now connected with the system and agrees to install, connect with the system, and to rent to the city additional fire hydrants in such number as the governing body of the city may direct, such additional hydrants to be located at such places within the city as may be designated by the mayor of the city or by an engineer appointed by the said governing body. The board agrees to maintain all of the said hydrants now connected with the system and all such hydrants that may be hereafter installed, as herein provided, in good operating condition and to furnish through said hydrants such water as the city may require to be furnished therethrough for fire and street purposes in the city. The installation and maintenance provided for herein shall be at the expense of the board.

(2) The city agrees to pay the following sums as rental for said fire hydrants and for all water supplied through the same by the board:

(a) For the aforesaid twenty-one (21) hydrants that are presently connected with the system, the sum of $940.00 for each successive twelve-month period (said amount consisting of $50.00 each for ten of said hydrants and $40.00 each for eleven of said hydrants), such rental to be payable at the said twelve-month rate in substantial equal monthly installments on or prior to the 15th day of each successive calendar month beginning with the month during which this agreement shall become effective; and

(b) For each hydrant that may be installed pursuant to the provisions of this agreement, subsequent to the effective date thereof, an amount equal to $40.00 for each successive twelve-month period, such rental to be payable at the said twelve-month rate in substantial equal monthly installments on or prior to the 15th day of each successive calendar month beginning with the month in which such hydrant shall be so installed;

Provided, that the hydrant rental payments due hereunder shall be payable only out of current revenues received by the city during the fiscal year in which such payments are due.

(3) This agreement shall become effective upon the execution and delivery of these presents, and shall continue effective until August 31, 1953.

THE MOST IMPORTANT QUALITY

WHAT is most important in industrial development?

Some say ample raw materials. They're important; you can't extract minerals or cut wood or supply agricultural products for processing where such raw materials aren't available.

And there must be customers. No need to make something if you can't sell it.

Some say electric power is most important. There is ample power. Others say transportation. If raw materials and customers exist in sufficient quantities, transportation will be provided if it doesn't exist.

What, then, is

THE MOST IMPORTANT QUALITY?

It is friendliness toward the industry which a community hopes will become a part of it. A community's reputation for friendliness is built by repeated friendly acts toward not only the stranger and the newcomer but to the oldtimer as well. A reputation for friendliness with the oldtimer and all who come after him is certain to become known to the visitor soon; it often does much to sway him and his associates in their decision on where to locate a new plant or warehouse.

And often community friendliness is an important factor in the decision of an industry to expand where it is now or to build its expansion elsewhere.

In this Alabama Industry Week, perhaps it is well again to recall to mind the admonition to "seek new friends but in the seeking do not forsake the old."

Jack Owen's Record and Program

The Times-Herald was for Jack Owen for Governor in the beginning of the present campaign.

Now that the race has been run and the decision of the voters is soon to be known, we are more earnestly in favor of him at the end of the campaign than at the start.

The manner in which Mr. Owen has conducted his campaign and presented to the people of Alabama his plan for conducting the office of Governor should convince anyone that he is the logical man for the people of Alabama to choose in the Primary May 4.

His experience in serving the people, the record he has made as Public Service Commissioner, prove that he has the ability to be a good Governor.

His plan which he has outlined and presented in his campaign stands out as the most forceful and workable blue print that has been offered by any candidate. With the integrity and aggressiveness that we know Jack Owen has, his plan can not fail to bear the best and most abundant fruit of good government in Alabama.

All of the other candidates have bogged down in their own ruthless efforts to discredit one another. They have thus created an atmosphere of confusion and distrust for all of them in the opinion of conscientious citizens.

Jack Owen has not been mixed up in this donneybrook. He has run his own race with integrity and respect for all, and has kept out of others.

He has not run his campaign on the policy of making a big noise about what other candidates have done or have not done—can do or can not do.

He has not wasted time in the disgusting game of seeking to blame who for what in the past.

Owen has faced the future, presenting himself and himself alone and his record, his ability, and his plan of continued broader service to the people of Alabama as his appeal for support in the race for Governor.

On the other hand, let it be said that the other candidates who have been so busy assassinating each other, have offered no attack on or criticism of Jack Owen. This is an interesting reflection, because Owen certainly has plenty of public record behind him. If there had been any vulnerable target in his record, it is certain that one of the other candidates would have taken a crack at it.

Jack Owen has been elected three times to state office. His record, character and ability deserve the continued support of those who have voted for him in the past, and of all citizens.

If the friends of Jack Owen throughout the state stick by him on May 4, as we have every reason to believe they will, the results of the primary will be a big surprise to those who have said "he is all right, a good man — but . . ."

Selden Introduces Coosa River Bill

Washington, D.C.—Rep. Armistead Selden introduced in the House of Representatives on Wednesday, April 28, a bill which permits development of the Coosa River by the Alabama Power Company. Similar bills were introduced by seven other Alabama Representatives and the two Senators.

Congressman Selden's bill H.R. 8925, suspends a previous authorization by Congress for development of the Coosa River with federal funds. At the same time, it directs the Federal Power Commission to grant a preliminary permit to the Power Company to make engineering studies that are necessary before applying for a license to construct dams. In effect, the bill makes it possible for the Alabama Power Company to build five additional dams on the Coosa at an estimated cost of $100 million. The bill stipulates that the Chief of Engineers must review and make recommendations on any plans the Power Company submits to the FPC for development of the River.

Construction of the dams by the Alabama Power Company is expected to answer Alabama's present need for additional electric power. The project would also provide temporary employment for Alabamians over a period of five to seven years during construction and permanent employment after the dams are completed.

Commenting on his bill, Congressman Selden said, "The construction of five new power dams on the Coosa River will be a great boon not only to the Coosa River Valley but to our State in general. I shall make every effort to see that my bill or a similar proposal is enacted into law before Congress adjourns this year."

Teachers' Group Sponsors Exhibit

The Shelby County Teacher's in-service art group is sponsoring an art exhibit beginning May 7 at the community recreation building in Columbiana. Original art work done by Shelby County pupils this school year will be shown.

Mrs. Estelle Johnson, Chairman for the group says that classes of art work being entered include: Pictures in crayon, water paint, oil, colored chalk, charcoal, pencil, pen and ink and photographs. Sculpture in wire, clay, wood, and marble will be shown. Costume design, textile design, pottery, bulletin board arrangements, papier mache, puppets, weaving, plastics, metal work and projects using native materials are to be included also.

The exhibit will be open to the teachers at their annual social on the evening of Friday, May 7, and will remain open for the public for several days.

Plans for the exhibit were made last fall at the teachers, pre-school conference when a theme, "correlating art work with other subjects," was chosen. During meetings this year, this group has seen demonstrations in different art media; films and filmstrips were used also in promoting better art in the schools. Free materials were secured and given to members of the group. The year's work has developed into a better art plan for each teacher's situation, aiming for practicability, usefulness, and the use of materials at hand.

A bulletin on the year's activity has been compiled for distribution to all teachers interested in art in the grades.

Serving with Mrs. Johnson have been Mrs. Margaret Youngblood, Co-chairman and Mrs. Louise Douglas, Recorder. Miss Jean Gibbons is consultant for the group.

Plans Made For Annual Poppy Day

Arrangements for Poppy Day in Montevallo have been completed by a large committee of Auxiliary women in charge of Mrs. W. M. Wyatt, local Poppy Chairman. Teams of volunteer workers from the Auxiliary and other co-operating groups will be on the downtown streets throughout the day with baskets of artificial poppies. Other teams will be at work in residential areas and outlying shopping centers.

The Auxiliary's memorial poppies have been made by disabled veterans of the two World Wars and the Korean conflict at Tuscaloosa Hospital. They are crepe-paper replicas of the famous Flanders' Field poppies, which bloomed so strikingly on the battlefields and war cemeteries in Europe, and became the memorial flower for the war dead soon after World War I. Making them provides interesting and helpful occupation for the disabled veterans, and enables them to earn much needed money.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Funds for operating the largest of all the governmental departments were approved last week when the House of Representatives voted approximately $28.7 billion in new money for the Defense Department. The House-approved bill carries some $1.2 billion less in new funds than President Eisenhower had recommended for national defense. Yet, added to the $48 billion carried over from previous appropriations, a grand total of nearly $77 billion will be available for defense spending in fiscal year 1955 if the Senate adopts the House bill.

In reporting the bill, the House Appropriations Committee listed several reasons for recommending less than the amount requested by the Administration. The Committee report pointed out that the largest part of the cut was agreed to by the Army, Navy, and Air Force, and that the Committee itself took responsibility for only $541 million of the cut. The chief reason for the $541 million cut, according to the Committee, is a change in military philosophy. As expressed by Admiral Radford, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the new military concept is to "prepare for the long pull instead of the year of crisis, and the problem is to evolve a military structure which is balanced as to the military requirements as we see them, and which is capable of being supported both from an available appropriations standpoint and a personnel standpoint—the available manpower."

Other reasons given by the Committee for recommending a military budget below the Administration's estimate include: (1) improved weapons and a greater reliance on air power; (2) the end of the Korean War; (3) the increasing strength of the NATO nations; (4) the greatly improved and expanded South Korean Army; (5) the excess funding during prior fiscal years, of which large portions are continued available in 1955; and (6) the increasing efficiency and greater application of sound business methods in the Defense Department.

Air Power Stressed

The so-called "new-look" in the military places greater emphasis on the Air Force than ever before in history. New funds in the amount of $10.8 billion were approved for the Air Force, providing for a continual buildup of air strength toward the Administration's goal of 137 wings by June 30, 1957. If the program for increased Air Force strength works out as planned, there will be approximately 975,000 members of this service by June 30, 1957. In addition to regular wing strength, the plan calls for a gradual increase in the Air National Guard and Reserves until the 1957 goal of 30 reserve wings and 27 Air National Guard wings is reached. To support these forces, both the regulars and the Guard and Reserves, the Air Force plans to maintain an active aircraft inventory ranging from 21,010 on June 30, 1954, to 24,710 on June 30, 1957.

For the Department of the Army the House-passed defense appropriations bill designates $7.6 billion in new funds. This does not include the $58 million approved for use by the Army for civilian relief in Korea. The budget for the Army is predicted on a military manpower strength at the end of fiscal year 1955 of 1,172,000. Although Army personnel will number 173,000 less than at the end of December, 1953, our Army will still be the greatest ever maintained by the United States on a full-year basis in the absence of actual warfare.

More Aircraft and Ships

The defense appropriations bill allots $9.7 billion to the Department of the Navy (which includes the Marine Corps), with all but $34 million of the total being new funds. The Navy's budget for the current fiscal year is $9.36 billion. The chief reason for increasing this appropriation for 1955 is the need for additional aircraft and ships. At the end of fiscal 1955, the Navy hopes to have 682,000 personnel, excluding midshipmen and aviation cadets, while the Marine Corps' goal is 215,005 personnel.

The defense bill also provides funds for the National Security Training Commission, for the Office of the Secretary of Defense, and for interservice activities. The term "interservice activities" refers to all the services and includes such matters as claims, retired pay, contingencies, emergency funds, reserve tools and facilities, construction of ships for the Military Sea Transportation Service, and the Court of Military Appeals.

Rep. Frederic Coudert (R-N.Y.) offered a controversial amendment to the defense appropriations bill to prevent the use of United States troops in Indo-China or anywhere else without the consent of Congress. President Eisenhower called for defeat of the amendment, saying that it would put an artificial restraint on his executive powers and would hamper his ability to carry on a flexible world strategy during the uncertain international situation. At the same time, he assured the American people he would not put the nation into war in Indo-China or any other place without prior consent of Congress.

When the issue came to a vote, and with the President's assurance, House members defeated the move to restrict the President's power to send troops overseas by a 214 to 37 vote.

Second Grade Students Visit College Dairy

By Paul Woolley

The children of Mrs. Lazenby's second grade have recently concluded a special study on food. To climax their study the children made a trip to the college dairy. They were taken by parents of members of the class. They were Mrs. Bill Alexander, Mrs. F. M. Miles, Mrs. M. S. McGehee, Mrs. W. E. Barrett, Mrs. W. B. Dunaway, and Mrs. J. W. Grant. The children observed the procedure used in milking the cows.

The were told the names of the different cows and how much milk each produces. Next they were shown how the milk was pasteurized, cooled, and bottled.

Another high point in the study was their trip to the store which led into the construction of a store in the room. They made paper money and paper mache fruits and vegetables.

To culminate the study, the children had a program in the room for their parents. They shared all the work they had done during their study, such as pictures, papier mache cow and bulletin boards, poems, songs, and the store.

These are the Questions to which Prospective Industries Want Answers

ANYONE active in industrial development work must be prepared to answer certain basic questions with facts. Some of those questions are listed here. They are the questions to which chambers of commerce, local industrial committees, and industrial representatives from railroads and public utilities, such as ours, must have the answers if they are to be reasonably successful in persuading an expanding industry to locate in Alabama.

Different types of industry require different combinations of things. The competition between communities is keen and often the difference between success and failure is the appearance of a town or the friendliness of the people in it.

Here are some of the questions. The answers to them are such that the types of industry are few whose requirements can't be met in Alabama if they're seeking a location. Every part of Alabama isn't suitable for every kind of industry; some part of Alabama is superior or equal to other sections of the country for most kinds of industry.

? If we make it in Alabama, is there a sufficient market in Alabama and surrounding area for what we make to justify a plant in Alabama? The answer usually is YES, because of greatly increased buying power in Alabama and the South.

? If electric power is important, is there sufficient for our type of operation? The answer ALWAYS is YES.

? Are there sufficient technical, mechanical, skilled and unskilled workers for our kind of manufacture? The answer is that some areas are better in this respect than others, and that some are better for industries requiring mostly women, while others excel for industries requiring mostly men. Alabama workers acquire new skills very rapidly.

? Is there an adequate industrial water supply? Alabama is unusually well-endowed in this respect in most areas.

? How are living conditions? There is a wide selection of communities, from metropolitan cities to medium size and small towns.

? What about fuel supply? Bituminous coal and natural gas are available in abundant quantity.

? What about transportation? Alabama is served by many trunk-line railroads, truck lines, has good highways, good airline service and water transportation.

? How about the weather? Weather is an asset to manufacturing operations in Alabama. Year 'round favorable weather is one of Alabama's many assets.

? We have a lot of export business; how can we take care of this business from a plant in Alabama? Alabama's Port of Mobile is one of the leading ports in the nation.

? Our industry is an important user of certain minerals. What has Alabama in quantity? Coal, iron, salt, sand, clays, oil, limestone, bauxite.

? What type of outdoor recreation can one enjoy in Alabama? Anything from surf bathing to mountain climbing; deep sea to pond fishing; camping, hunting, golfing—and all of these with the possible exception of surf bathing, every month in the year.

? Wood is an important raw material for us; what has Alabama to offer? Alabama is one of the leading soft-wood producers in the nation. Modern forestry practice insures a continuing supply of wood.

? Is Alabama's tax structure favorable for our type of industry? The answer to this is that taxes on industry are considered fair and reasonable.

? Does Alabama officially welcome industry? Alabama's public officials many times have voiced a sincere and cordial welcome to any industry that wants to become a good corporate citizen of Alabama. The experience of industries locating in Alabama has proven that the welcome lasts.

We are happy to publish this advertisement for the information of the many Alabamians who have an interest in the continued development of Alabama, and in cooperation with the numerous Alabama organizations with whom we are happy to join hands in this effort.

Tips Given on Spring Fabrics

Piece-goods materials for spring and summer clothing are calling all persons who would like to sew. Cotton, linens, silks, and the synthetic fibers are still in strong competition with each other. The girls in the Home-making Clothing Class at the Montevallo High School are studying materials along with clothing construction.

The urge to sew will soon lure you as a homemaker away from spring house cleaning and yard work. The large variety and kinds of materials, whether solid colors, prints, plaids or strips will suddenly make you wish for some of each. Perhaps the suggestions contained in the following questions and answers will help you make a wise choice.

What Is the Content of Your Fabric? A label always appears on liner, and you cannot test linen without using special equipment and scientific methods. Be sure you know what you are buying.

Ask the salespeople what are the properties of the particular type of rayon you buy, and what special treatment it will need.

New synthetic fabrics are appearing on the market. Ask your dealer to analyze them for you.

Is it pre-shrunk or Sanforized? When cotton, linen and rayon materials have been sanforized, they are guaranteed not to shrink more than one per cent. The words "shrunk" or "pre-shrunk" on material mean that it may shrink as much as three per cent.

Is it Sized? The words "sizing" "filling", "dressing" and "weighting" all mean that something has been added to give the fabric substance. This is an accepted practice in fabric manufacture. However, too often sizing is a cover-up for poor quality. Washable fabrics may be tested by washing a sample to see if it becomes limp, but remember that you can replace some of the sizing with starch. The words "permanent finish" mean that sizing is fused with the fibers. "Pure dye silk" means silk without weighting.

Will it Keep its Color? The quality of dye determines colorfastness. Some fabrics are marked color fast. Others may be tested by washing a sample and placing it in the sunlight.

Do I Wash it or Dry Clean it? Cotton is almost always washable. Linen and rayon vary, so ask for special information each time you buy a piece of fabric. Nylon is usually washable but can seldom be ironed.

In spite of the fact that there was a lack of land transportation in early Alabama, the state was fortunate in having excellent river systems.

Try cold water on ink stains; then use an acid or bleach if necessary.

Saturday at 5 p.m. Miss Billie Jean Ray and Phillip E. Lacey were wed by the Rev. John H. Wiley, Jr.

They were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Tillia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ray. Mr. Lacey's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lacey of Maylene.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Merry Jo Palmer. Miss Palmer wore a jonquil yellow gown of antique satin which featured a tucked bodice and shrug jacket. A matching bandeau of straw twist was worn on her head. She carried a bouquet of butterscotch carnations.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle. The lace bodice was covered with a brief jacket with tiny buttons down the front. A scalloped lace peplum fell over the bouffant tulle skirt. Her demi veil of illusion was attached to a satin bandeau trimmed with Venice lace edging and orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Stanley Lacey, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

A reception was held at the Tillia home, with Mrs. Alton McGuire, Mrs. Jack Ray, Mrs. Jerry Ray and Mrs. George C. Schafner assisting.

I wish to thank all of my many friends who worked in my behalf during the recent election.

H. G. Kelly

(Paid political adv. by H. G. Kelly, Prattville, Ala.)

To My Friends and Constituents:

With the May primary a thing of the past, I wish to take this opportunity to thank you again for returning me as your Democratic nominee to Congress.

Naturally, I am especially gratified that you saw fit to renominate me without opposition. Having no campaign to conduct, I have been able to give all of my time to your interests in Washington.

Weekly reports of my activities have been given you through my newspaper column, and while at home to vote, I have reported to you over the radio. I plan to return and visit each of the eight counties of the district when Congress adjourns, and I hope I shall have the pleasure of seeing you at that time.

In the meantime, I invite your suggestions on all public matters, large or small. I am your representative in Washington and I hope that, in me, the word representative has been and will continue to be something more than a mere title. I am there to serve you.

Gratefully yours,

Blood Donor Cards Are Valuable to Local Sick People

"I want to be the first in line when the bloodmobile gets here," Mrs. Mary Hood was speaking of what her blood donor card had meant to her and Mr. Hood a short time ago when he was terribly ill. Transfusions were required, many of them, and the donor card got them, and got them free. No need this time to search desperately for friends with a rare type of blood who could go to Birmingham to give transfusions. All that was needed was there and ready because she had given her pint of blood when the bloodmobile was at Montevallo in November.

The Fred Frost family want everyone to know how much it meant to them when Mr. Frost had a serious operation a short time ago. They had taken with them to the hospital the three cards they had in the family, thinking that all of them might be needed, and perhaps more. The concern on that point was groundless. They were told that only one card would be required, no matter how many transfusions were needed. And all it cost was what the hospital charged for the administration. How different was the experience of another family in the hospital at the same time. Because this family had neither donor card nor hospital insurance they were required to pay in advance for all transfusions that were needed to save the life of their loved one.

There have been occasional disappointments because people have not understood that the cards must be renewed every 6 months. No card is valid for more than six months. It is important to watch the date on your card and be sure to renew it every six months. If you got your card last November you have an opportunity to renew it when the bloodmobile visits Calera Monday, May 24. It will be at the Town Hall between 1 and 6:30 p.m. Call, or send a postal card to Mrs. Minnie Mae Hokanson, Calera (phone 8271) and ask for an appointment to renew your card.

Calera Methodist Men Entertain With Supper

The Calera Methodist Men's Bible Class entertained their wives and friends last Thursday evening with a chicken supper in the recreation room of the church at 7:30.

Mr. Lawrence introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. R. Q. Shotts, teacher at the University of Alabama, and district layman of the Tuscaloosa District.

His topic was Responsibilities of a Layman. He stressed the failure of laymen in accepting responsibility in serving the church and man. Dr. Shott presented the charter stating this was the fourth to be organized in Tuscaloosa District.

Pictures were made during the presentation. There were 75 to 80 enjoying the evening.

M. H. S. Band To Present Concert

Lighter numbers will be "Blue Tango," "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and a Gay Nineties medley and "Toy Trumpet."

Featured will be John Ziolkowski in a trumpet solo, Mary K. Hicks on the French horn, and several small ensembles.

Tickets will be sold by members of the Band Boosters Club and band members. Proceeds will go toward band instruments purchased this year. Prices will be 60 cents for adults and 30 cents for students.

Miss Iris Martin Wins Beauty Title

Miss Iris Helen Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Martin of Maylene, was crowned as "Miss Southern Belle" at the annual beauty contest at Thompson High School Saturday evening. She succeeds Miss Claudette Kinds, Miss 1953, who was also a talent winner in last year's Miss Alabama contest. Miss Martin was sponsored by Central State Bank of Calera.

Miss Martin is historian for the state chapter of the Future Teachers of America; secretary of the Thompson student council; secretary of Beta Club; past president of Shelby County 4-H council, and local secretary for this group. Year before last Iris was district dairy maid at the Bessemer dairy show. She is the president of the Junior Class.

"Festive Time in the Southland" was the theme for this year's presentation when 37 young women were sponsored by local business firms. Proceeds of this affair were for a $3,000 cyclone fence which is to be erected at the rear of the campus. Several other projects have been in effect this year to stem this fund which now stands near the $2,000 mark.

Miss Pat Woolley Is Crook Week Heroine

Pat Woolley, Alabama College junior, of Montevallo, was this week's heroine in the eyes of all members of the junior class. She found the "Crook," and thereby gained senior privileges for the entire junior class.

Crook week is a 30 year old tradition at Alabama College. From Thursday night when Crook Week officially begins until the "Crook" is found, junior students are at the "command" of seniors. Dressed in a fantastic array of costumes, juniors search for the "Crook", which is hidden somewhere on the campus each year by the senior class.

The "Crook" itself is a polished piece of cherry wood resembling a walking cane. Throughout the year it is displayed in the senior dormitory in a specially designed glass showcase.

Privilege of hiding the "crook" goes to the previous year's finder. The "crook" was hidden this year by Sue Dobbins, Gadsden, and senior class president, who had hidden it on one of the ivy covered walls of Ramsay Hall, junior dormitory.

2 County Runoffs Set For June 1

In the June 1 run-off primary there will be a contest for only two county offices in Shelby County.

Bud Norwood and Hugh Sims will fight it out for Sheriff.

Ross Bob Mullins, and P. B. Shaw will be in the final round for Tax Assessor.

In the other possible county run-off contest, it is our information that Ennis Lucas, second high man in the District 2 Board of Revenue race, has conceded the nomination to incumbent Fred R. McClendon.

In the first primary May 4, Hugh Sims led the field of seven candidates for Sheriff with 3196 votes. Norwood was second with 2207 votes. There were 1880 votes cast for other candidates besides Sims and Norwood.

For Tax Assessor in the first primary Mullins led with 2959 votes. Shaw was second with 2069 and Tom Fore received 2011, only 58 votes behind Shaw.

It is the general prediction that the run-off primary will not get out as many voters as did the first primary May 4.

Saturday, May 22, Is Poppy Day

Saturday, May 22 will be Poppy Day in Montevallo.

The work of making the poppies, which are sold by American Legion Auxiliary members in every city, town and village in America, is one of the most interesting activities throughout the long bleak years for the disabled men and women in our Veterans Hospitals.

In remembrance of America's heroic dead, and in helpfulness to our living disabled and their dependents, buy and wear a poppy on Poppy Day!

Ennis Lucas Withdraws From Revenue Board Race

Ennis Lucas stated to The Times-Herald Wednesday that he has decided to withdraw from the race for Member of the Board of Revenue in District two and concede the nomination to Fred R. McClendon.

Mr. Lucas added this statement to the voters of the county:

"I want to express my appreciation for the support given me for Member of the Board of Revenue on May 4. It was a real pleasure to meet the many fine people of the county in the campaign.

"I am withdrawing from the run-off primary and to the nominee I give my best wishes."

Carrying Out Program

The Times-Herald has received from Mr. James E. Folsom the following statement for publication:

"A majority of the qualified voters of Alabama have voted me as their Governor for the second time. I am ever so grateful and humble for their vote of confidence in me, and I pledge to all of the people of our state an administration during which I will do my best to carry out my program that a majority of the people of Alabama have overwhelmingly approved. I am confident that I will have the support of the legislature in carrying Alabama forward to a new era of progress during the next four years.

"The campaign is over, and it is my hope that all political differences will be quickly forgotten and that we can all work together for the welfare of our great state and its people. To my friends I say 'Thank You,' and to my opposition I say we need your help in order to make Alabama a better place in which to live."

Montevallo Methodist

Rev. O. Kyle Lamb, pastor of the Methodist Church of Montevallo will preach at both services next Sunday. Subject for the morning hour will be "How To Live With Yourself." For the evening service at 7:30 it will be "Life With A Margin of Goodness."

In the teachers' division Miss DeMent was also awarded the gold pin.

Nursery School
Opens Next Fall

A new ultra modern "world for little people" will be opened this fall for children age 2 to 4 who will be enrolled in Alabama College's laboratory nursery school.

Construction of the new nursery school building designed especially for use by children, is under way, with completion date scheduled for late summer.

The new building was approved by the state building commission in July 1952. Plans received a supplemental appropriation in the fall of 1953. Contract for the building was let in November of 1953 to Jones and Hardy of Montevallo. Construction began this spring.

Furnishings for the building will be small scale, appropriate for the abilities and desires of pre-school age occupants. Incorporating a minimum of "attractive hazards" for little people, the nursery school will house complete play facilities, sleeping rooms, kitchen and bath facilities.

Alabama College's nursery school, started in 1931, is one of the oldest laboratories for training and research in the field of child development in the state. More than 50 prospective teachers are trained and gain actual experience in caring for pre-school age children each year.

Under direct supervision of Miss Ethel Bickham, diminutive "scholars" learn how to play and associate with each other and receive their first introduction to school life.

4-H Clubs Observe
Rural Life Sunday

On May 16 the Shelby County 4-Hers will be observing National 4-H Sunday, one of the outstanding events in our year's program.

One might ask, "Why observe Rural Life Sunday and what is the purpose of it?" The objectives are:

To enable 4-H members to recognize and value the spiritual values and character building opportunities in 4-H club work.

To encourage 4-H members to participate in church activities.

To help rural youth to understand and appreciate the stewardship that people who work with the soil have with God.

To help 4-H members and leaders to interpret spiritual activities in their every day living.

To give 4-Hers an opportunity to work with community groups.

To enable all 4-H members and leaders to take advantage of their American heritage to know and to live the Abundant Life and pursuit of happiness.

Each of the clubs will observe this special day in one or several of these suggestions:

Clean the church and arrange flowers, sing in the choir or a special number, have the pastor preach to the youth, boys act as ushers with permission of the pastor, sit as a body and wear the club colors green and white.

The church is needed for the spiritual guidance of the 4-H club and together they can build a healthy, happy community.

STATEMENT from BUD NORWOOD
Candidate for Sheriff

By this means I wish to express my thanks to those who supported me in the primary of May 4. I want your continued support on June the first.

To those who voted for another candidate on May 4, I say that I most earnestly hope that you will be with me in the run-off. I feel that many of my friends voted for some other candidate on May 4 through personal friendship for them and not as a vote against me. I certainly do not blame you for that, but I do hope that you will give me your active support and your votes on June 1st.

Sincerely yours,

A. E. (Bud) NORWOOD

(Paid political adv. by A. E. Norwood, Calera, Ala.)

To all of the people of Shelby County I want to say that this is just your old friend and humble servant, P. B. Shaw, asking you to support me for Tax Assessor. You do not need anyone to tell you whether or not I am qualified for the office. I have served you in public office before. I want to serve you again. You know I can and will do you a good job.

I am depending on the people who know me and trust me to nominate me as your Tax Assessor. Come to the log-rolling June 1, my friends, "and bring a hand" with you.

On The Farms In Shelby County

Proper pasture management often must wait on better water supply for the cattle. Around Dargin several cattlemen are getting stock water reservoirs dug by a bulldozer this week. Distrit cooperators, Atchison, who wanted to build a dam (but we could find no suitable location) is having two reservoirs dug, as well as other work planned under his conservation farm plan.

Hugh McDanal, well-known FMA committeeman, and enthusiastic conservation farmer, showed us the newest features of his program this week. Some special eye-openers were kudzu, rescue grass, crimson clover, button clover (My cattle will leave any other grazing to eat button clover, said Hugh) and planted and volunteer oats.

T. W. Stubbs, Helena, may be an iron worker by trade, but his farm, deep and green with rescue grass, clover and fescue-clover, is a conservationist's dream come true. And Isaac Walton himself would have been in fisherman's heaven on Stubbs' SCS planned fish ponds.

Speaking of Isaac Walton, that famous old fisherman should haunt Shelby County from now on, as lakes and ponds increase almost daily.

Your SCS workers are in Cullman this week for a two-day training session to learn most modern methods of pond construction.

Chiropractic Is A Science By Which The Doctor Locates And Removes Cause of Disease

Chiropractic may be new to you. You and specific chiropractic are strangers. In this short space we can not give a complete picture of chiropractic, but will introduce you to chiropractic and tell why we do what we do through our booklets, or disease tracts. Are you suffering from headaches, nervousness, heart trouble, high blood pressure, neuritis, asthma, bronchitis, hay fever, tonsillitis, head colds, chorea, diabetes mellitus, goiter, eye trouble, infantile paralysis (polio), epilepsy, gall stones, appendicitis, constipation, arthritis, lumbago, rheumatism, sciatica, locomotor ataxia, skin eruptions, pulmonary-tuberculosis, stomach trouble, liver trouble, adenoids, sinusitis, ear trouble and children's diseases. If so write for one of the above disease tracts.

For every disease, ache or pain there is a cause. As long as you have a cause, you will have disease. Removal of cause results in removal of disease. That sounds reasonable, doesn't it? You use the same principle every day in your home, at work, or at play and it works. For example: You are in the yard watering your lawn with a water hose and a rock falls across the hose. It may interfere with the flow of water to where there is only half of the original amount coming out at the nozzle. Do you work on the nozzle? No, you go back down the hose and remove the cause, the rock. That seems to be the simple, ordinary thing to do in the case and it will also work in your health problem. That is what chiropractic is about, locating and removing the cause. What follows—HEALTH.

THANKS!!

I am humbly and deeply grateful for the many hundreds of my friends who supported and voted for me and my program in the Democratic primary.

In the race for sheriff there were seven candidates and due to your wonderful support I led the ticket, receiving 989 more votes than the second place candidate. There will be a runoff in this race June 1, and I earnestly solicit your continued support. It is my hope to see all of you soon and extend my personal thanks.

To those candidates who were defeated in this race last week—my thanks for the clean campaigns that you conducted.

To all—I stand on my pledge—that a vote for Hugh Sims is a vote for honest, decent, and fair law enforcement in our county.

MontevalloMail Box Week
Begins May 17

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has announced the week beginning May 17 as Mail Box Improvement Week. This will be the 16th annual campaign to tidy up the official mail receptacles.

Postmaster Morris Watson, of Montevallo, is requesting the rural patrons in this area to repair and beautify their mail box equipment and approaches to lend brightness to the scenic beauty of highways, roads and drives.

The Post Office Department is the most important agency in keeping people of the nation informed. The rural delivery is a post office on wheels and many times these services are taken for granted and not fully appreciated. The carriers are trying to serve patrons promptly with as few mistakes as possible. Errors are sometimes caused by patron's name being omitted on the mail box, especially when a substitute serves the route while the regular carrier is on vacation or sick. The substitute is not always acquainted with the route as well as the regular carrier.

Many boxes, which are the highway billboards of the postal service, have become unsightly with rust, unserviceable due to a leaky condition, broken doors, or no lids, missing signals, no name, supports being bent or rotted and needing replacing, or weeds and grass grown around the supports and approaches, and in many places the ground is rough and full of chuck holes.

Postmaster Watson requests the patrons to cooperate in improving their mail box equipment in the period May 17 to 24. He desires that the route become a source of pride for the patrons, the Post Office Department and the carriers. For those patrons desiring additional information on the proper height and size for their rural mail box, they may get this information from the postmaster or Mr. P. D. Pendleton, the rural carrier.

Why a short trip means better hay...

DEARBORN SIDE DELIVERY RAKE moves hay only 8 feet

— saves more leaves

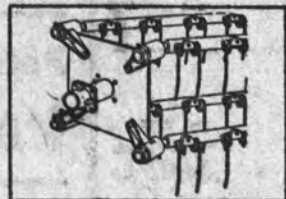

The less hay is handled during raking, the better that hay is going to be. And because it moves hay about 8 feet on the average, instead of the usual 11 feet, the Dearborn Side Delivery Rake goes a long way toward making a more profitable crop.

This implement gently turns hay over, tucking the leaves inside—exposing the stems to sun and wind for quick, thorough curing. The result? Better, richer hay that's more valuable to you . . . and faster haying, too.

Letter to the Editor

Editor Times-Herald:

I sincerely appreciate the wonderful way you and the people of your county helped me in my race for the Public Service Commission.

The votes I received make me feel that the people have confidence in me, and I promise you again that I will do the same conscientious job that I have always done in the legislature and in two other state offices I have held.

I want you and the people of your county to feel free to call on me if I can ever help you.

Sincerely,

SIBYL POOL

(Note—Miss Pool carried every county in the primary May 4.)

Editor Times-Herald:

I wish to thank the voters of Shelby County for the beautiful vote given to me in my race for Secretary of State. I shall ever be grateful to them. I bow graciously to the voice of Alabama's voters.

It isn't what we win that matters; it is how we play the game. In my heart and mind I am happy for every vote given me was from voters who wanted to vote for me. I have served the Democratic party to the best of my ability for thirty years.

Let's all pull together to make Alabama the best state in the nation. We will never build a greater Alabama until we become better citizens. Democracy and Americanism is you and I. Making it work is our job.

Please accept my appreciation to each of you individually. I am sorry I let you down.

Sincerely

MRS. LENNARD THOMAS

Players Chosen
For All-Star Game

Two of Montevallo High's outstanding athletes have been selected to represent the school in the annual All-Star East-West baseball game to be played in Clanton Friday night, May 21 at 7:00 o'clock.

In addition Coach Fisher has also been given the honor of coaching one of the teams in the big East-West game to be played in Birmingham on June 4.

These boys are worthy of the support of our local people and Montevallo is expected to show their appreciation by turning out to see them play in Clanton.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Last week the House passed legislation that will make it possible for the United States to join with Canada in the construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

This legislation authorizes the creation of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation to finance and construct the United States section of the project that traverses only the International Rapids of the St. Lawrence River. The other sections of the seaway will be handled by the Canadian government. Canada had previously created its own government corporation with authority to construct the entire seaway project alone, if necessary.

The corporation authorized by last week's bill can issue up to $105 million in bonds for seaway development purposes. These bonds are to be purchased by the Treasury and are to be repaid in 50 years by toll revenues. This measure, as passed, does not contemplate a vast public subsidy, but sets up the seaway on a self-liquidating basis.

The St. Lawrence Seaway has been advocated by every successive administration for the past 30 years and has been thoroughly debated by Congress over the same period. Yet every previous attempt to pass legislation has failed in the Senate. The circumstances under which the measure was considered last week were decidedly different from any previous circumstances. Not only was Canada ready to proceed on its own if the United States had not acted, but the legislation under consideration by the House had already passed the Senate by a wide margin. Also, power facilities that had been made an issue in previous legislation were not a part of the present bill. This change alone reduced the United States share of the cost by $395 million.

Among the important reasons advanced for joining with Canada in the development of the seaway was that of national safety. Admiral Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, stated in a letter to Senator Ferguson, "Failure of the United States to participate at this time in the navigation features of the seaway would result in the construction of all the locks on the Canadian side of the St. Lawrence wholly outside United States territory. As a result, no part of the seaway locks and lateral canals would ever be under control of the United States. The United States would then necessarily have to depend on Canada to evaluate and take steps necessary to protect its interest in the matter of the operation of the seaway, not only in relation to toll charges and priority of transportation in times of emergencies, but also in relation to the physical security and control of the seaway. Although the Joint Chiefs of Staff can hardly conceive of a way in which we would be involved with Canada remaining neutral, from a national security viewpoint we can not ignore the possibility of such an eventuality. Since it is not customary for neutral nations to permit the use of their inland waters to belligerents, its use could possibly be denied to us at the very time we needed it the most, by a failure on our part to participate jointly with Canada in the construction of the waterway, thereby insuring joint control of the United States."

During the House debate on the bill, it was emphasized that the St. Lawrence Seaway will be important as a transportation route because it will serve an area which is already highly industrialized. Development of the seaway will greatly increase the availability of large supplies of raw materials, particularly iron ore from the Labrador-Quebec area. There is a possibility, too, of obtaining titanium and manganese from this area. All these materials are essential to our defense effort. This important area, then, should meet the defense demands as well as the peace time needs of our country for certain raw materials.

Therefore it was for reasons of national security as well as economic reasons that the St. Lawrence Seaway bill, adopted by the House and Senate, had the unqualified support of the President, the Cabinet, the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the National Security Council.

President Signs Selden Bill

Early in the session I introduced a resolution designed to settle the question of the exact location of the Alabama-Florida boundary lines along the Perdido River. For many years this boundary has been in question due to the shifting of the Perdido River near its mouth.

Last year the governors of Alabama and Florida appointed a special commission to study the problem. Recommendations for a fixed boundary line, described by longitude and latitude, were made by the commission to the two legislatures. Both state governing bodies accepted the commission's recommendations and passed acts which defined a positive boundary.

My resolution, adopted by the House in March and by the Senate a month later, gave the consent of Congress to the establishment of the boundary that had been agreed upon by the states of Alabama and Florida. Being signed by the President on last Thursday, this resolution has now become a law.

A STATEMENT BY

HUGH SIMS

Leading Candidate for Sheriff

To the People of Shelby County:

In seeking the important office as sheriff of this great county my only desire is to serve you in the profession which I have chosen and which I have followed for the last eleven years. Since qualifying for this office I have been able to meet and talk with many of you and will make every effort to see many more before the election on June 1. However, I know that it would be impossible for me to see and talk to all of the citizens of this county and I am using this method to tell you of some of my plans if elected as your sheriff.

In my opinion it is most important that the sheriff make every effort to obtain the very best men possible to serve as deputies and when elected this shall be one of my aims. These men must be of good character, honest, sober and have a sincere desire to serve the people of our county. These men, also, must be recommended by the citizens of the community in which they live. I have promised no one a commission as a deputy when I am elected and I will not even consider such appointments until after I am elected.

After I secure the proper men as deputies I plan to hold periodic training courses within the county in order that all deputies shall be properly informed as to the most efficient and modern ways to enforce the laws and to properly protect the people of our county. This can be done without any expense whatsoever to our county as all federal and state law enforcement agencies are anxious to assist in training local officers.

When elected it shall be my aim for the sheriff's office to maintain close contact with every section of our county in order that crimes might be prevented as well as criminals apprehended. Crime prevention is a most important part of the work of the sheriff's office.

It is my plan to work closely with the solicitor's office in order that the sheriff's office might give prompt and effective attention to all complaints in our county.

It is my plan as your sheriff to enforce all laws fairly but firmly for the best interest of our county. I am not and will never be obligated to enforce the laws for the interest of any individuals or any group in our county but will always uphold the laws for the interest of all our people.

It is the obligation of the sheriff of our county, just as it is the obligation of every citizen of our county, to work toward making our county a better place in which to live. This I shall always do to the best of my ability.

I earnestly solicit your consideration and sincerely promise that a vote for me to be your next sheriff will be A VOTE FOR HONEST, DECENT AND FAIR LAW ENFORCEMENT IN OUR COUNTY.

BACK TO FLORIDA

Ferman Moore returned to Eustis, Florida, this week after spending several days in Montevallo and other "points of interest" in Shelby County. "I was mighty busy fishing and picking oranges in Florida," said he, "but I just had to be back in Shelby County to see the political pot boil over on May 4. Well, she 'biled' over all right; so now I am going back to my fishing and leave you good home folks in the hands of Big Jim."

Blood Mobile

You can secure a blood-donor card which insures you and the blood dependent members of your family for any transfusions you may need in the next six months, by visiting the Bloodmobile when it comes to Calera Monday, May 24, between 1 and 6:30 p.m.

You can not only secure this valuable health insurance for yourself and family, but you can also have a part in the nation's fight against polio and many of the other dangerous diseases that threaten all children.

It will save time if you can secure an appointment from Mrs. Minnie Mae Hokanson, Calera, telephone 8271, but if you have not made an appointment, come anyway. Let's make this the best day the Bloodmobile has had in a long time.

Recent research shows that more than 75 per cent of growth in pigs depends on how well they are fed during the gestation period and on the feeding and management they receive during the suckling, growing and fattening periods.

Light Up Your Kitchen

Now that Spring is here and our thoughts are turned to re-decorating, let's look at our kitchen. Is it attractive? Does it have plenty of light? To have a bright, cheerful, and attractive kitchen, one needs to use both general and specific lighting.

A good central ceiling fixture is a must for general lighting in the kitchen. For soft, pleasant lighting throughout the room, this fixture should carry a bulb of the proper size for the size of the kitchen. This bulb should be shielded from view, and can be either incandescent or fluorescent.

For the kitchen of average size it is recommended that a 150 or 200 watt bulb in incandescent lighting be used in the ceiling fixture. Two 40 watt, or four 20 watt bulbs may be used in fluorescent lighting. If the kitchen is a large one, two ceiling lights should be used.

Ceiling lights are not adequate for good lighting. Each principal work—center the sink, range, and work counters—needs a light. These should provide from two to four times as much light as the ceiling fixtures. The only way to meet this need is to put in specific lighting at these areas.

Good lighting at every spot where work is done in the kitchen adds to the homemakers efficiency and saves time in meal preparation. Good general lighting adds beauty and makes the kitchen more pleasant and comfortable. Adequate general and specific lighting together add attractiveness to the kitchen and joy to cooking.

Calera Schools Hold Hobby Show

The elementary and high school of Calera held its first annual hobby show in the auditorium on Friday afternoon.

The exhibits were under the sponsorship of Miss Lorraine McLaughlin, fifth grade teacher. Miss McLaughlin said "This hobby show was so successful that we plan to make it an annual affair."

The success of the show, Miss McLaughlin stated, was due to the manner in which the interest expanded. First, it was to be a class project, but developed into a school and community exhibit. Funds from this show, she pointed out, are to be used on new auditorium chairs.

Thirty-five collections were entered in the show and they covered a wide range of interest from buttons to airplanes, from paintings to old time Boy Magazines and stamps.

Three ribbons were awarded in the adult division. Mrs. Virginia Williams received the blue ribbon for a collection of 15 oil paintings. The white ribbon was given to Mrs. O. C. Farris for a collection of African violets.

Old magazines of boyhood days displayed by E. M. Smith, won the red ribbon.

Candy was awarded to the winners of the student collections. The following received them: Zolie Cowart III, for plates, airplanes and boats. Danny Carrol for foreign money. Betty Jean Collum for salt and pepper shakers.

MR. WILTON LYONS

Funeral services were held Monday from Ridout's Funeral Home. Interment was at Elmwood.

To The Voters of Shelby County:

I have conducted the Sheriff's office for the past four years in a fair, honest and diligent manner. I will continue to do so if you re-elect me. It will be BUD NORWOOD, SHERIFF, with no dictation from any selfish or designing individual.

The best interests of ALL the people of Shelby County has been and will continue to be my only guiding influence.

You save time in traffic. New truck Hydra-Matic transmission gets you off to smooth, time-saving starts without shifting or clutching. Imagine how easy this makes driving in traffic and on delivery routes! It's optional at extra cost on 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton models.

You save time on the highway. New high-compression power gets you up to highway speeds from a standing start in less time, and saves you time on hills, too. You make trips faster—and the new Comfortmaster cab makes them seem shorter. It's got everything!

You save extra trips, too. That's because of the extra load space you get in the new Advance-Design bodies. New pickup bodies are deeper... new stake and platform bodies are wider and longer. Also, they're set lower to the ground for easier loading.

You save on operating costs. High-compression power saves you money! The "Thriftmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235," and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost), deliver greater horsepower plus increased operating economy.

You save with lower upkeep. New Chevrolet trucks are built stronger to last longer and save you money on maintenance. There are heavier axle shafts in two-ton models... bigger clutches in light- and heavy-duty models... stronger frames in all models.

And your savings start the day you buy. In fact, they start with the low price you pay—and they never stop. Chevrolet, you know, is America's lowest-priced line of trucks. And it's also the truck that has a traditionally high trade-in value.

Bloodmobile Receives 75 Pints of Blood During Visit to Calera

Seventy-five pints of life-saving blood went into the bank and about 100 people went home with donor cards to insure their families for the next six months. (The number of persons who were rejected is not known exactly, but each of these was given a card). People came from all the surrounding communities to renew their donor cards. This is an excellent showing and everyone who helped to bring it about is to be congratulated.

Supplies for the canteen were donated by the following merchants:

Red Diamond coffee and Belle-Meade cookies by the P & T; Dixie Cups by Yellow Front; sugar by Calera Flower Shop; cream by L & H Grocery; the fruit juices were provided by the O. E. S. chapter; ice by the King Grocery and Service Station.

What Is The National Guard?

Just what is the National Guard? What does it do? How does it benefit and help the community? These are some questions asked me every day right here in Calera where we have a new National Guard Armory.

First of all, the National Guard is a volunteer organization of citizen-soldiers with one unit right here in Shelby County, located at Calera. It is a military organization, but its members are civilians. They are local citizens who go to school or work in offices, in factories, in stores, in banks, on farms. But whatever their civilian occupation, they give a part of their time every week to train in defense of their community and country.

The National Guard is actually older than our nation. Young men of the early colonies organized into units and trained to defend their settlements. Many of our present day National Guard units began with those early groups of citizen-soldiers. An example is the 182nd Infantry Regiment of the Massachusetts National Guard, which has been in continuous existence since 1636 when it was organized as the Middlesex County Regiment.

At the head of the National Guard of Alabama is the Govern-nor of the State. The local unit here in Calera is commanded by Capt. E. B. Nickerson, an outstanding officer, who lives and works at his civilian job right here in your own community, as do the other officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the unit. Only in time of grave emergency, when our country is attacked or our safety is threatened, does the local guard leave home for active military service.

What does the guard do? It helps to preserve the freedom and security of our nation. It is the responsibility of every young man of this community to defend their homes and country, not only against foreign enemies, but also against natural disasters, such as flood, tornado, hurricane, blizzard, forest fire.

How does it benefit and help the community? It protects the homes against foreign enemies and natural disasters listed above. It gives the young men of this community top training at home and it brings $1,000 extra income to this community every month.

Why not come by the National Guard Armory and find out the many more advantages of the organization, such as retirement benefits, education opportunities, and other features? — C. E. Tidwell, WOJG.

ANOTHER PAVED ROAD
FOR WEST SHELBY

We understand that the County Board of Revenue "resolved" at its meeting Monday to put on its program for paving, the road from Dogwood east to Highway 31.

This proposed road will connect with the present Bessemer Road at Dogwood, cross the Siluria road at Moore's Cross Roads and tie into 31 about Dagin.

This proposal is in line with plans expressed by our Road commissioner, Fred McClendon, several months ago, and we are glad to see it actually put on the program. Our thanks to Mr. McClendon and his fellow-members of the Board of Revenue.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

The headlines in Washington last week, as well as all over the country, announced the Supreme Court's unanimous decision declaring segregation in the public school systems unconstitutional. This decision invalidates the doctrine under which Alabama has operated to date; namely, that Negroes are entitled to "separate but equal" facilities.

This ruling will eventually affect a total of 17 states which have laws requiring separation of the races in schools. It will also affect four other states having laws which permit, but do not require, segregation.

The Times-Herald received the following telegram from Congressman Armistead Selden Tuesday:

"House Public Works Committee approved today the bill to permit Alabama Power Company to develop Coosa River. We hope to get special rule on the bill next week in order to bring it before the full House for vote."

Much has already been said and written about the Supreme Court decision. But to those of us who live in Alabama and the rest of the South, it is apparent that we face problems far greater than can ever be imagined by those who live in other sections of the United States.

Funds for Warrior Lock and Dam

As I predicted earlier, the Senate Appropriations Committee has increased the appropriation for construction of the Warrior Lock and Dam to $2 million. The House had already approved $1.5 million to begin construction of this modern installation that will eliminate antiquated locks and dams 8 and 9 on the Warrior River.

I feel certain the Senate will approve the committee's recommendation of $2 million, probably this week, and I am in hopes that House-Senate Conference Committee will also retain that amount. If not, I feel sure the conferees will be able to agree on a sum in the vicinity of $1.8 million. In any event, construction of this important dam seems assured and work on it will probably begin during the coming fiscal year.

Testifies for Coosa Bill

On Tuesday of last week I was one among several witnesses who testified before the House Public Works Committee in support of legislation to provide for further development of the Coosa River by the Alabama Power Company.

trists, architects, certified public accountants, funeral directors and professional engineers. The committee has also approved the extension of coverage to self-employed ministers.

Committee members have agreed to extend coverage to farm operators on the same basis as other self-employed persons. Whether or not coverage should be extended to some two million part-time farm workers has not been decided.

The committee has also adopted a provision extending coverage under prescribed conditions to employees covered by state or local retirement systems. As a prerequisite to such coverage, an agreement must be executed between a state and the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare. The employees affected must also, through a referendum by two-thirds vote, with a majority of those eligible voting, express a desire for such coverage.

These extensions of social security coverage have been agreed upon only tentatively by the Ways and Means Committee. Further changes will probably be made before the bill reaches the floor of the House for a final vote.

FFA Boys Visit Frank Baker Farm

All 84 of the Montevallo vocational agriculture boys visited on the farm of J. Frank Baker on last Wednesday and observed the latest in ensilage equipment. Mr. Baker was operating a cutter in the field and with three specially built trailers he was able to keep a continuous stream of chopped silage to the blower. One was being filled behind the cutter while one was being unloaded at the silo. The third trailer was in transit and exchanged at one end for an empty trailer and at the field for a full one. The trailers held around 4 to 5 tons and it was possible to unload three loads per hour.

With the group working 10 hours per day approximately 120 tons could be placed in the silo in a day. Mr. Baker has six large silos and keeps over 130 dairy animals. Mr. Baker was able to do this complete operation by using six workers. One operated the cutter in the field, one operated the jeep to pull the trailers, two were at hand to help with unloading, and two were in the silo to keep the silage placed.

The agriculture class will attend the state Guernsey sale at Joe Sargent's farm June 2. Forty-three Guernseys will be sold and 15 exclusively to FFA and 4-H boys.

Montevallo FFA boys are planning their annual field day for May 29 at the farm of Robert O'Neal just north of Montevallo. It is expected that the boys will do some ridin' and ropin' and the community has been invited.

Ed Hicks, FFA president, and Robert O'Neal, a Montevallo FFA member, are already making plans to attend the National FFA Convention in Kansas City next October. Ed and Robert are serving as officers of the chapter and will attend the state convention in Auburn June 7, 8 and 9.

There is considerable talk over Shelby County about "rings and cliques." Since I do not belong to any of these, I do not know too much about them; but I do know that, in elections, I stand for the democratic principle of voting with no pressure of any kind being placed upon the voters. I solicit the support of all citizens who agree that the above mentioned principle will mean better elected officials.

To every one who has helped me in this campaign, I wish to express my sincere appreciation, and I shall ever be grateful to each of you for your continued help through June 1.

To The Voters of Shelby County:

This campaign is now rapidly drawing to a close, and I realize that a majority of you have already, probably, made up your minds as to your choice for your next sheriff.

My opponent has painted you a glowing picture of what he will do if he is elected sheriff, and I would cast no aspersions as to his sincerity or his motives. I would call your attention to the fact that he has been connected with law enforcement in our county for many years. He was a deputy practically all of the term of my predecessor, and was chief deputy for a considerable length of time. His past record is subject to review, along with mine.

The policing of our county is a rather difficult task with the facilities now afforded the sheriff's office, but under my administration we have attempted to give you a balanced, efficient program. We have attempted to put first things first, and to protect our citizens from the depredations of the lawless without prejudice, vindictiveness, or oppression. As to how well we have succeeded, you will now judge. Whatever your verdict, I shall ever be grateful for your cooperation, and the confidence you have reposed in me.

Respectfully,

A. E. (Bud) NORWOOD

Scrapbook Yields Report of Theatrical Program Given in Montevallo in 1890

Mr. Pat McConaughy brought us a report of the following social event, "Theatricals at Montevallo," which was found by Mrs. Mary Gilmore Lee of Camden, N. C., in the scrapbook of her aunt, the late Mrs. W. C. McMillan of Aberdeen, Miss.

Theatricals at Montevallo

Montevallo, May 28, 1890.—"Ye Old Folks' Concert" last night, rendered by the young people of Montevallo under the management of that accomplished musician, Miss Hattie Lyman, was the most enjoyable entertainment given here for years. All the country around had been searched for the oldest and quaintest gowns, bonnets and costumes worn by "ye old time ladies."

The young men all wore powdered wigs and knickerbocker suits made up of velvets, trimmed with silk and laces. The songs were all the songs of our grandmothers and great-grandmothers.

Space forbids mention of all the participants. The sweet old ballad "Ben Bolt" was well rendered by Miss Lince Bell North.

"The Suwannee River" was sung by Mr. Fred Davis in the character of an old-time Negro slave.

Mr. Charles Cary, the well-known tenor singer, delighted the audience with "Mary of Argye." "Far Away" by Misses Della Latham and Emma Wilson, a vocal duet, was perhaps the sweetest song of the evening. Mrs. Anna Lawrence, one of our best soprano singers, sang "Kathleen Mavourneen," and was much applauded.

The most taking comic song was "Grandma's Advice" by Miss Mary McCosky. She wore the wedding dress of her grandmother. The sad but sweet old song, "John Anderson, My John," by Miss Lalla McConaughy, with Dr. Jeff Davis as John Anderson, was beautifully sung and perfectly acted.

"Old Rossum the Beau," by Mr. A. J. Lee, brought down the house. Mr. Lee is becoming noted for his fine voice.

"Sister Ruth and Simon," a Quaker love song, by Miss Pauline Acker and Mr. E. S. Lyman, elicited great applause.

"Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" was represented by a number of soldiers in old Confederate uniforms, under their tents and around the camp fires, with sentinel marching in front. Mr. W. P. McConaughy sang the old familiar song, "Tenting," with much pathos and feeling.

A recitation by Miss Mary Hold (?) during the same scene was well received. Mr. W. S. Cary, who possesses considerable oratorical talent, recited "Ye Return of Ye Old Man to the City of Derry." His acting and recitation were good.

Quite a crowd came from Calera, Brierfield and Aldrich, all went away well pleased.

In the early days Alabama had plenty of rich land for growing cotton and laborers came to the state by thousands.

Calera First Grade Visits Birmingham

The first grade of Calera Elementary School with Mrs. Joyce B. Mabry, their teacher, made a trip to Birmingham. Those who made the trip were Vivian Baer, Joyce Barnette, Jimmy Kelley, Terry Fields, Wayne Murphy, Roberta Ford, Nancy Duncan, Steve Tate, Sara Northcutt, Faye Farris, Robert Earl Bozeman, Betty Sharpe, Walter Peters, Linda Ann Langston, Dan Crowson, Catherine Jones and Patricia Garrett. Their guests were Carol Crowson, Van Comer and Robson Mabry. The mothers who rode the train were Mrs. R. L. Ford, Mrs. J. L. Barnette and Mrs. Dewey Crowson.

They left Calera at 9:48 and arrived at the L. & N. station at 11 a.m. From there they walked to the corner of 2nd Avenue and 19th Street and boarded the bus out to Kiddieland Park. There they had rides and saw the animals. Mothers Mrs. O. C. Farris, Mrs. George Spencer, Jr., and Mrs. Jack Comer, guest, met the group for lunch. They spread the picnic lunch in the pavillion where Mr. R. H. (Dick) McIntosh, manager of the Alabama State Fair, had reserved their table.

After lunch they got in cars and rode to Vulcan Park where the children saw Vulcan. The last stop was at the Homewood

Fire Department. A fireman on duty led the tour of the firehouse. The children saw where the firemen eat and sleep while on duty, and three big fire engines. The fireman let them all slide down the pole, sound the siren and ring the bell.

It was an enjoyable and educational trip. It was too bad that some of the members of the class were sick and unable to make the trip.

Montevallo Methodist Church

Chiropractic is a philosophy, Science and Art of things Natural, a system of adjusting the articulations of the spinal column, by hand only, for the correction of the cause of disease.

The Neurocalometer used in my Clinic is a scientific instrument designed to detect very minute temperature differences along the spine. It locates accurately the point of spinal nerve interference. The detector used is a very delicate thermometer which makes a comparative heat reading that is registered through the medium of a galvanometer. With the use of the Neurocalometer, the Chiropractor is able to determine the point of nerve pressure in the spine, and, after a chiropractic adjustment has been given for the purpose of releasing such pressure, further use of the instrument provides accurate knowledge as to whether the nerve pressure has been released and in what degree. The correct adjustment given and the patient regains health.

PORTER

The voters of Alabama are urged to study carefully the backgrounds and associations of the two candidates in this all-important race for Attorney General of Alabama!

You'll find that clean, sincere LEE PORTER has always stood on the side of law and order (look at his record!) . . . You'll also find that the PHENIX CITY POLITICAL MACHINE has always backed the other candidate! (This machine won for the PHENIX CITY CANDIDATE in 1946, in 1950 and again on May 4, 1954 in their county) . . . and YOU DON'T WIN IN PHENIX CITY WITHOUT THE MACHINE'S BLESSINGS!

Vote for the man whose record proves that he is on the side of LAW AND ORDER: LEE PORTER, the man who served his country well in two wars and who'll serve Alabama well as Attorney General! . . .

To The People Of Shelby County:

Four years ago you elected me Sheriff, for which I was and am yet grateful. In return for your honor and confidence, I have endeavored to execute the duties of Sheriff efficiently, unselfishly, and without fear or favor. You, the citizens of Shelby County, are to judge whether or not I have succeeded in my efforts. Should question or doubt be suggested to your mind, let me introduce an humble and honest suggestion: Survey the records. I believe the records will justify you in voting for me to re-elect me to the office of Sheriff.

Much progress has been made in enforcement of prohibition laws. Observing citizens in all parts of the county report to me that there is less "moonshine" distilling, much less transportation of whiskey and beer, than has been done for many years. No enforcement officer or officers could have accomplished so much without cooperation of the good citizens. Thank you for your loyalty in cooperating with the law enforcement officers of your county. When the people of an American democratic community want a clean community in which to live, than can have it by working as allies with the law enforcement services of our county, state and country.

Among all nations, all states and counties, among all free peoples, there appears from time to time a wave of law violating as burglars, robbers, cattle rustlers, rapists, embezzlers, and so on, migrating from place to place. In almost every case, during the last four years, we have been able to apprehend and successfully prosecute such law violators. Many of them are now serving sentences. Qualified, well trained personnel working with the Sheriff have made this a reality in Shelby County.

Shelby County covers a huge territory. To police the county throughout so as to prevent all crime by frightening criminals and law violators out of the county and preventing all migrants from entering the county would require an army, and could not be done by any mere force of the county sheriff and his deputies from the county seat. Shelby County provides the sheriff with two salaried deputies. My opinion is that the people of Shelby County need more help in their honest effort to maintain peace, law and order. More man power is needed by your sheriff, that you may be further aided in your honest efforts to keep your communities clean of crime. The amount paid as salary to two deputies makes it almost impossible for the sheriff to engage and keep deputies of qualifying abilities, with training and experience.

As sheriff I have employed the best men available for deputies. They have done a good job. Those who have been loyal and have remained in service with the sheriff have done so at a sacrifice, and through loyalty to both you and your sheriff, for which I am grateful, and for which I think you should also be grateful.

As sheriff I have gone to great expense to equip and maintain two automobiles with two-way radios. This has never before been done in Shelby County. By means of this radio equipment we have been able to communicate with law enforcement agencies, including the FBI, throughout the state and have been able to render efficient cooperation with other state and county law enforcement officers.

My opponents are promising much in the matter of hiring and training deputies. This can be done only by a trained leader, and with appropriate funds to engage qualified assistants. My honest opinion regarding such a proposition is that your present sheriff, now a candidate for re-election, is the only candidate who has such technical training, and proof of it. Many years in the service of training and law enforcement give me a solid foundation on which to make this statement.

If re-elected, I shall do all in my power to give you impartial, unselfish and efficient enforcement of the laws of your county and state. To do this, I intend to use another full-time deputy.

YOUR active support and your vote on June 1 will be appreciated.

Wilton To Enforce Traffic Regulations

Mayor George Ewing of Wilton requested us to print this note of caution and reminder that his town means business in enforcing the traffic regulations that have been set up.

"Speeding through Wilton has become intolerable," said Mayor Ewing, "and we are going to put a stop to it. Proper warning signs have been set up so that all who run may read. Those who violate these regulations will be dealt with in Mayor's Court."

That's it. Mayor Ewing's warning is short and sweet. But it may not be so short nor so sweet if you have to face him in court on a charge of speeding.

WHO'S HAT?

The Mayor of Montevallo has unintentionally swapped hats with somebody. While I got decidedly the best end of the bargain, I am willing to "rue back" if the other party will make himself known. No need to return my old hat. It is not worth anything and I would only lose it or swap it off again if I had it.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

A telegram to The Times-Herald from Congressman Selden Wednesday afternoon says: "House of Representatives approved today bill that will allow Alabama Power Company to further develop the Coosa River."

To those who have always realized the potentialities of the great river systems that traverse the Sixth District, the development of these waterways over the years must certainly have seemed slow, if not altogether stymied. There is every indication, however, that 1954 will prove to be a banner year in the further development of at least two of these great waterways.

Coosa River

The Coosa River, located on the eastern boundary of the Sixth District, is in line for the addition of five hydroelectric dams by the Alabama Power Company, provided Congress enacts legislation necessary to allow the power company to go forward with its plans. This legislation, introduced in the House of Representatives by me and by seven other members of the Alabama congressional delegation, advanced another important step when it received favorable report last week from the House Public Works Committee. There is a good possibility we may get a special rule on this legislation so that the members of the House can vote on it in the very near future.

In appearing before the Public Works Committee in favor of my bill and the seven other identical bills, I pointed out my reasons for favoring the Alabama Power Company's proposal. First, Alabama's present need for additional electric power will be answered and at no extra cost to the taxpayer. Second, the construction of the proposed dams will give added impetus to the economic development of the Coosa River Valley. Third, additional county, state, and federal taxes will be provided. Fourth, the lakes to be formed will provide additional recreational facilities and home sites. Fifth, by reducing the cost of overall development of the river, the possibility of obtaining federal funds for the addition of navigational facilities will be enhanced. Sixth, there is no choice at the present time between the use of federal funds and private capital in the further development of the Coosa. This choice is between development by private capital or no development at all.

I do not anticipate any real difficulty in the enactment of this legislation in the House of Representatives. Both Senators from Alabama have introduced identical legislation in the Senate, and I feel certain they will urge early Senate approval. If this legislation is enacted by Congress before we adjourn, we can expect a tremendous construction program to begin on the Coosa River within the next 12 months.

Warrior-Tombigbee Waterway

On the western side of the district, further improvement of the Warrior-Tombigbee is assured. The Senate approved last week a $2 million appropriation for the Warrior Lock and Dam to be located between Hale and Greene Counties. The House of Representatives had already approved $1.5 million to begin construction of this modern installation that will eliminate locks and dams 8 and 9 on the Warrior River. The Senate also approved an appropriation of $3.4 million for the Demopolis Lock and Dam that is scheduled to be completed next year.

Warrior Headwater Dams

Progress has also been made this year towards the possible authorization of improvements on the headwaters of the Warrior River. Less than two months ago the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors recommended as an ultimate plan for the headwaters of the Warrior River the construction of New Hope, Dorsey Creek, and Smith Ford Reservoirs, and power installations at dam 17 and new dam 13 when constructed. The Board further recommended the immediate construction of the New Hope Dam and Reservoir and the power plant at dam 17, both to include initial power installations. The report of the Board of Engineers has now reached the Bureau of Budget. If the Budget Bureau has no objection to the submission of the report to Congress, it is then sent by the Secretary of the Army to the House Public Works Committee who print it as a public document to be presented as a part of the next Rivers and Harbors appropriation bill.

It should be emphasized at this point that after a project is authorized, the next and most difficult step is to obtain funds to build the project. Many projects have been authorized for years where funds for construction have never been authorized. Improvements on the Coosa River, for example, have been authorized since 1945. Yet, no federal funds have ever been obtained for actual construction. Now it is necessary for Congress to de-authorize the proposed federal improvements on the Coosa River before the Alabama Power Company can construct the five additional dams that will so greatly benefit the Coosa River Valley and the State of Alabama.

Final PTA Meeting Hears Panel Discussion of Recreation Program

The Montevallo P. T. A. held its final meeting of this school year in the high school auditorium on May 10, with Mrs. Jesse McGaughey presiding.

Mrs. McGaughey, on leaving office, made several recommendations for next year's P. T. A. She suggested that it appoint a finance committee with the treasurer as chairman, to handle and carry out all projects for raising money; that the publications chairman should have a display table at every meeting; that the P. T. A. keep a procedure book; and that it assume a water-cooler project.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Leslie Hubbard, recreation committee chairman, and program leader for the evening. Mrs. Hubbard presented the program on "Recreational Activities of the Community" in the form of a panel discussion, assisted by Mr. S. M. Mahan, Mrs. W. G. Robinson, Miss Rebecca Behannon, Mrs. Eddie Watson, Mr. Theron Fisher and Mr. Guy Milford. Before the panel began to answer questions given Mrs. Hubbard before the meeting, Mr. Mahan gave an informative discussion on the history of the Recreation Board. The following summarizes questions and answers by the panel:

How and by whom in what organization are the Recreation Board members appointed? Members are appointed by the Town Council. Membership can be recommended by the board. Who will be in charge of recreation activities this summer? Mr. Theron Fisher, director; Miss Rebecca Behannon and Mr. John Mader, assistants. Are there any fees to children who take part? No. What age children may participate? Plans are to divide the groups—7 to 13 and teen-age. Who furnishes equipment which the children use? The children provide their own racquets, but the recreation board provides most of the play equipment. Could there be a "Community Sing" night about every two weeks? Yes, if enough are interested in it. Is there a recreation program for the colored? Yes, a program is planned with a director. Early iron furnaces and foundries were located in Talladega, Calhoun and Bibb counties.

Your Health . . .

Dr. Norville

Are you singing the migraine blues? "Migraine" (sick headache) has its origin in the nervous system and many suffer untold agony with this incoordination. Chiropractic research through the years has convinced chiropractic authorities that migraine headaches would not be possible without the interference of the normal flow of life force through the spinal cord and nerves. Of the hundreds of cases of this type cared for by chiropractors, not one case has failed to show a definite pattern of interference to the normal life force flow when scientifically checked by chiropractors to determine if nerve interference exists.

It is logical that the individual suffering from the incoordination called migraine should seek out the cause of this condition and have it corrected.

Chiropractic care is the most reliable means of removing the cause of sick headaches. This fact is attested to by thousands of testimonial letters written by grateful people who now enjoy complete freedom from the incoordination: migraine.

If you are suffering from this condition, seek out the cause and have it corrected. Ask a chiropractor to help you.

This is another of a series of Scientific Chiropractic public interest articles appearing in this paper through the courtesy of Dr. L. Alfred Norville, Chiropractic Nerve Specialist, Hicks Building, Montevallo. Tuesdays and Saturdays. "Where the Sick Get Well."

Songs selected by the bride were "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "My Happy Day," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore white duchess satin with train. The bodice was of Chantilly lace and pearls, with long pointed sleeves, finger tip veil with seed pearls. She carried a white orchid surrounded by tuberose, on a Bible, and carried a Chantilly lace handkerchief.

The candles were lighted by the ushers who were Wilbur Askins, Jr., Delmus Anthony, R. L. Anthony and Don Hicks. The best man was Edward McElroy.

Flower girls were little Nancy and Sharon Askins, sisters of the bride. They wore pink organdy dresses trimmed in flowers and lace. They carried white baskets of pink rose petals.

The bride's mother wore a blue sheer dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue crepe. Their flowers were orchids.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. A three tiered white cake with pink decorations and wedding bells with topping of miniature bride and groom centered the table, which was covered with crocheted cloth over white satin. Pink and white flowers and greenery decorated the parlors. Iced punch was served by Mrs. Harry Anderson. Mrs. C. D. Cowart cut the wedding cake. Future Farmers Have Field Day

Over 200 spectators witnessed what was said to be one of the finest field days and contest ever held in the Montevallo vicinity last Saturday when W. J. O'Neal and his son, Robert, made the entire farm and herd of cattle available for the Montevallo FFA boys to use in roping, bulldogging and steer riding. Just like the real thrill of western cowboys, over 20 FFA and 4-H boys entered the various contests.

Montevallo merchants and the friends of the FFA provided the prizes given the winners. Dave Sanford and his two cowboys assisted the boys with all the rodeo and contests. Mr. Sanford is from Wyoming and owns a large farm south of Montevallo. He is also a member of the veterans farmer class which meets at the Montevallo vocational agriculture department each Thursday evening.

Winners of prizes were: Best steer rider, Robert O'Neal and Jackie Rasberry; best trick rider, Buster Compton and James Hallman; best half mile race, Bobby Wilson and Sonny Lucas; best jumper, Sonny Lucas and James Hallman; best bulldogging, James Hallman and Gerald Lucas; best bridling of horse, Buster Compton and Gene Reed; best quarter mile, James Hallman and Bobby Wilson; best final race, James Hallman and Bobby Wilson.

IF YOU ARE BUILDING A HOME

- Remember the advantages of DRY lumber. If uncertain have the lumber checked on the job site.
- Deal only with reputable contractors and reliable lumber dealers.

IF YOU ARE BUYING A NEWLY BUILT HOME

- Request the specifications for the job, to see if properly seasoned lumber was called for—and used.

IF YOU MAKE UP THE SPECIFICATIONS

- Specify the following: For framing and sheathing — 19% maximum moisture content; for finish, wood-work and flooring—12% moisture content.
- If unable to judge lumber grades or the condition of seasoning, require that lumber be certified with a grade-mark of a recognized inspection agency, or have it competently inspected when it is delivered.

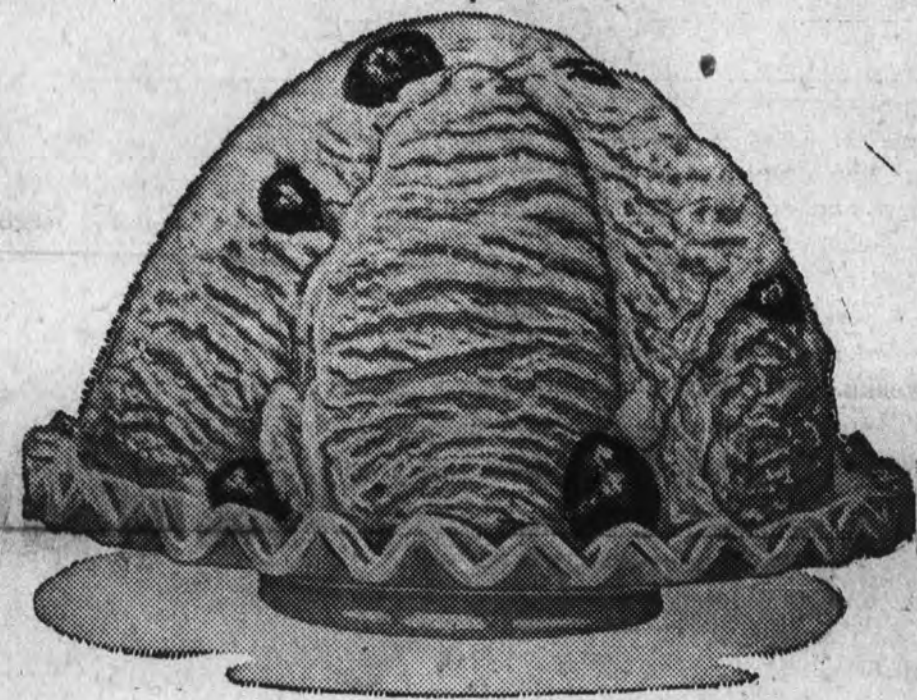

IF THE JOB CALLS FOR BIG DELIVERIES

- When there is a constant flow of incoming lumber, it is wise to employ qualified graders to check each delivery before unloading. Electrical instruments known as moisture registers or meters are now commercially available for testing lumber to determine the moisture of each piece.

A Montevallo community picnic and fish fry will be held at Big Springs Park on Wednesday afternoon, June 16. The event is sponsored and promoted jointly by the Montevallo Recreation Board and the Montevallo Volunteer Fire Department.

Each Tuesday and Thursday night at 7:30, beginning June 15, recreational activities at the high school for all age groups.

This year, instead of taking a fishing trip for their annual outing, the fire boys decided to use their money to join with the Recreation Board to provide a fish fry and picnic at home so everybody can attend and enjoy it. A commendable idea, we think!

Coach Fisher and Miss Behannon, directors of the summer recreation program, will be there to supervise the fun features which will begin about four o'clock. Swimming will continue to five o'clock. Then for an hour or so there will be various entertainment features; such as sack races, cracker eating contests, string band, quartets, horse shoe games, volley ball. These features will be available to everyone who chooses until about six o'clock when the fish eating will start.

Everyone in the community is urged to attend this event. It is all free and strictly for fun and fish eating.

In order that the sponsors may have an idea how many people to prepare for, you are requested to say that you will be there and how many others you will bring with you. Do this by phoning or drop by in person at the City Hall, McClure Drug Co., or Chism's Clothing Store between now and Monday night and say how many persons you will have with you at the picnic.

Harry Kendrick has been fishing for the past month in preparation for this event. Mitchell Young started in to help him on Monday of this week. Let's find out how many will be there so they will not stop fishing until there is enough fish for all.

Hewitt Bid Is Low For Highway 31 Construction

Among the low bids received by the State Highway Department for road construction is reported the following in Shelby County: 2.870 miles of grading, drainage, bituminous treatment and plant mix from Saginaw to Alabaster (Highway 31) by Hewitt Construction Co. of Columbus, Ga., for $454,505.

As explained by Road Commissioner Fred McClendon some time ago, we understand that this project calls for construction of a new route of Highway 31 from Alabaster to Saginaw that will be on a straight line, cutting through the hills to the east of the present road.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

The social security revision bill that passed the House last week extends insurance coverage to over 9 million additional people. As a result, three-fourths of all persons over 65 will be eligible for insurance benefits by 1960 as compared to half at present.

The bill follows President Eisenhower's recommendations in all major respects. Yielding to opposition from the American Medical Association, the Ways and Means committee rejected the President's proposal for compulsory coverage of physicians. It was also decided to leave out half the farm workers which the administration had sought to bring under the program.

Those who will be under social security for the first time (if the House bill is adopted by the Senate) include about 3.6 million self-employed farm operators, 400,000 lawyers, dentists, accountants and other self-employed professionals (except physicians); 1.3 million farm workers; 250,000 household employees; 150,000 federal employees; 100,000 industrial employees who work at home and 50,000 commercial fishermen.

About 3.5 million state and local government employees (except firemen and policemen) will be eligible at their option, provided a majority vote on the question and two-thirds favor coverage. About 250,000 ministers and members of religious organizations will be covered under a similar optional basis.

According to the bill minimum monthly benefits will be raised to $30 and maximum benefits to $98.50. Limitations on earnings for beneficiaries will permit as much as $1,000 per year.

Social security taxes will continue at the present rate of two per cent for employers and employees alike until 1960. After 1960, taxes will increase about one-half per cent every 4 years until 1975 when employer and employees will be paying 4 per cent. Self-employed will pay one and one-half times these rates.

The measure now goes to the Senate with excellent prospects of passage in this session.

When you're buying your new tractor, here's a tip...

BE SURE YOU CAN GET THE IMPLEMENTS YOU'LL NEED!

When you buy a tractor there are certain things to look for in the tractor itself—power, performance, economy and convenience. The new Ford Tractor has them all—plus low price!

But before you pay out your money for any tractor take a good look at the implements that go with it. How many modern quick-attached tools are there to choose from? Just a handful, or over 50 as there are in the Dearborn Line?

Naturally you need only a few implements to make the Ford Tractor pay off but you can get more whenever you see new ways to increase profits.

Yes, you'll find in the Dearborn Implement Line another reason why the Ford Tractor is a highly profitable investment for modern farmers. Let us demonstrate how Dearborn Implements and the Ford Tractor get more work done, faster. Credit terms available on both tractor and implements. See us soon.

New Procedure Brings Improved Telephone Service

New procedures to enable Montevallo and Calera telephone subscribers to receive even better and faster long distance service on calls not completed on the first attempt were announced today by B. F. Lunsford, group manager of Southern Bell Telephone Co.

When the "called party" here is not available to talk on a long distance person-to-person call, the operator at the originating point of the call leaves her number, the number of the calling telephone and the calling party's name, if volunteered. This will continue to be done.

The changed procedure involves what will happen when the called party is ready to talk. At present, he contacts a Montevallo or Calera long distance operator, gives her the details of the call and she relays them to an operator in the distant city. Effective June 1, in order to provide faster service, the called party will give the operator here only the number of the operator in the distant city and, when the distant operator comes on the line, he should give her the details of the call. This means the operator here will not have to make a record of the call and can handle it faster.

The efficiency of modern telephone service is dependent upon the public's understanding how to use it best, said Mr. Lunsford in urging cooperation with the new procedure.

Mr. Lunsford also pointed out that since World War II the number of telephones in Montevallo and Calera has been more than doubled. This larger volume of local usage also has resulted in much larger long distance usage. In order to meet these demands for fast and dependable long distance service, much new equipment has been installed here and in other exchanges—including coaxial cable, radio relay, carrier systems and other facilities.

The large expenditures for additional long distance facilities, and improved operating procedures have enabled the telephone company to constantly provide faster and more dependable long distance service to more and more people, Mr. Lunsford said.

Your Health . . . "Arthritis" Cases Not Identical

Dr. Norville

"Arthritis," sometimes called Articular Rheumatism, is an inflammation of the joints. The condition is characterized by changes in cartilaginous and synovial membranes, and deformity of bones, which later become nodular and ankylosed.

This condition is caused by a disturbance in the calorific (heat) function, over nerve fibers supplying the parts affected, combined with subnormal activity in organs of elimination, especially the kidneys.

The Chiropractic approach in Arthritis is to locate the cause of mal-expression of normal calorific nerve impulses. The cause of this irritation is frequently found in the spinal cord. Cord tension or pressure here also usually affects the kidneys. The Doctor of Chiropractic aids in the restoration of normal quantity transmission of nerve energy to the nerves supplying affected areas and the body responds with normal function.

In acute stages of Arthritis restoration of normal nerve force is the first step necessary to bring prompt recovery. Where the condition has persisted for many years, frequently little or no help is possible—yet in many chronic cases results have been phenomenal. No two cases are identical. See your family Chiropractor.

Siluria Road To Be State Highway

The Times-Herald received information this week through Representative Karl Harrison and Senator Tom Phillips that the State Highway Department has agreed to take over the county farm to market road from Siluria to Montevallo and make it an official connecting state road between Highway 31 at Alabaster and Highway 25 at Montevallo.

We are pleased to hear of this action. Traffic on this road has increased enormously since the Town of Montevallo a few years ago built a new bridge over Shoal Creek and paved a street that completed through the city a connection between the Siluria Road and Highway 25. Thus the road from Siluria to Montevallo became a much used route by traffic between Birmingham and Selma and Mobile.

Another important feature of this action, we hope, is that the state will take over maintenance of this road, relieving the county Board of Revenue of this responsibility. And we hope that it will also result in the placing of the standard traffic signs, markers and warnings along the road. These are greatly needed for safety, since the route has become so heavily traveled.

Swimming Clinic To Be Held Monday

The Alabama State Swimming Clinic will be held on the campus of Alabama College Monday, June 21.

In the afternoon session Mr. R. V. Barnes of the state health department, will discuss health problems in and around the swimming pool.

Coosa River Bill Passed By Senate

The bill authorizing the Alabama Power Company to build 5 more power dams and plants on the Coosa River passed the U. S. Senate this week. It is now ready to go to the President for his signature. The measure passed the House last week.

The power company states that as soon as the bill has cleared all the hurdles in Washington, they will at once begin preliminary surveys toward starting construction. It is indicated the first of the five dams will be at Leesburg on the upper portion of the river, which they hope to get started in a year. Under the bill the government requires that all five of the dams be built in 10 years.

Gaddy Family Holds Reunion

The family of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Gaddy gathered at the home of their parents in Wilton for an all-day reunion Sunday, June 13. At noon a big dinner was served buffet style. Besides general conversation and games for the entertainment of the children, the group enjoyed songs by the Melody Four Quartet.

Rain Fails To Dampen Fish Fry Enthusiasm

Although it rained intermittently throughout Wednesday afternoon and into the evening, the enthusiasm of the people of Montevallo for the community picnic and fish fry was not perceptibly hindered.

More than 500 people attended to consume 300 pounds of fried fish dished out by the Montevallo Volunteer Fire Department and other features supplied by the Recreation Board.

The event was the big opening gun of the summer recreation program at Big Springs Park. It was sponsored jointly by the Fire Department and the Recreation Board.

Everybody had a good time, plenty of fried fish and other appropriate edibles to go with it.

We will have a more detailed account of the event next week.

Recreation Notes

Tuesday night was the first of the summer recreation programs at Montevallo High School. About 75 young people and adults joined in the following activities: Arts and crafts, ping pong, checkers, canasta, dominoes. The majority group participated in party games, novelty relays and contests.

Thursday night of this week is dancing night with square and round dancing.

Tuesday night, June 22 is the community sing on the front steps of the high school. Some special numbers will be an added attraction.

Thursday night June 24 groups will participate in a scavenger hunt. This will be a contest between groups for the number of articles collected in the shortest time. Dancing will follow in the high school auditorium.

The recreation directors urge all age groups to join in these activities on each Tuesday and Thursday night.

Plans Are Made For Distribution of Government Surplus Food in County

At a meeting in Columbiana Monday night representative citizens and town officials from all parts of Shelby County voted unanimously in favor of setting up the program for distribution of government surplus foods in Shelby County.

The program as designed and approved will be headed by the County Board of Revenue on the county basis, and will be carried out in the various localities by municipal officials and by community leaders in places where there is not an incorporated town.

First step in promoting the program is registration of those who are eligible to receive the commodities. Registration should be done at once in order that this important detail may be finished by the time distribution plans and facilities can be worked out.

Who Is Eligible?

Following is the classification of people eligible to register and participate in the distribution of surplus foods:

1. One person with a monthly income of less than $55.
2. Two persons in the same family in the same household with a monthly income of less than $90. (Head of family will register.)
3. Three persons or more in the same family in the same household with a monthly income of less than $115. (Head of family will register.)

Persons already receiving public assistance will not be required to register. They will be automatically certified by the public welfare department and placed on the list in the community in which they live.

Only Two Questions

There are only two questions to be answered by those who apply for surplus commodities:

- (1) How many persons in your own family?
- (2) How much is the total income per month of yourself and your family?

The following commodities are available and will, with some possible exceptions, be distributed to those eligible to receive them:

Canned beef and gravy, butter, cheese, non-fat dry milk, shortening, beans, potatoes.

Registration Begins Monday

It is expected that registration will begin next Monday and be completed as rapidly and quickly as possible. We are able to give now the arrangement for registration at the following places in West Shelby County.

Montevallo, at the City Hall and at the Mayor's office in the Masonic Building. People of the Aldrich area will register in Montevallo.

Dogwood, at the Dogwood public school building.

Calera at the Town Hall.

Pea Ridge community will have a registration place, but we do not know the exact location.

We have no information as to arrangements at Wilton.

Plans are in the making to set up local distribution centers at Montevallo, Calera, Dogwood and Pea Ridge. Definite information about this will be given as soon as plans are completed.

Road Commissioner Fred McClendon is in charge of county organization plans for the Board of Revenue. He states that carloads of some of the available commodities were ordered Wednesday. It will perhaps be a few weeks before they arrive.

PORTER INGRAM

Porter Ingram Now With Central State Bank

Central State Bank feels fortunate in being able to add Porter Ingram to its staff.

Porter is a graduate this year from Calera High School where he was an outstanding athlete. He was captain of the 1953 football team, playing quarter back.

He made the all-county basketball team. During the 1954 baseball season as pitcher he won 8 games and lost 2. For his fine record in baseball he was given a trophy.

Montevallo Auxiliary Elects New Officers

The Montevallo unit of the American Legion Auxiliary met at 7:30 p.m. June 10, at the home of Mrs. Sam Klotzman with Mrs. Robert Holcomb co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Cooper Shaw, who led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Following a prayer by Mrs. M. P. Jeter, the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. A. E. Baumgartner. After the treasurer's report, committee reports were heard and new projects discussed and approved.

Mrs. Fred Miller presented the nominating committee's panel which was accepted and the following officers for 1954-55 were elected:

President, Mrs. Fred Frost, Jr.; first vice president, Mrs. A. L. Chambers; second vice president, Mrs. Fred Miller; secretary, Mrs. A. E. Baumgartner; treasurer, Mrs. Victor Scott; chaplain, Mrs. M. P. Jeter; historian, Mrs. Don Lovelady; sergeant at arms, Mrs. Walter Johnsey and Mrs. Bill Alexander.

Vocational Funds Increased

The House passed and sent to the Senate last week a bill appropriating for fiscal 1955 just under $2 billion for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and the Department of Labor. Before passage of this legislation the House adopted several important amendments.

The first of these provided $23.7 million for vocational training and education for the coming fiscal year. This was an increase of $5.3 million over the amount recommended by the Appropriations Committee.

Funds providing for vocational rehabilitation grants to the states were increased from $21 million to $23 million.

A third important amendment added $10 million to the Public Health Service Funds for grants for hospital construction. This increases to $75 million funds for Hill-Burton hospital construction for fiscal 1955.

Trade Agreement Extended

The House approved a one-year extension of the Trade Agreements Act which permits the President to enter into trade agreements with foreign nations. Approval of the measure came only one day before the Act was scheduled to expire.

Air Academy Rules

Several months ago I discussed in this column the passage of legislation that authorized the establishment of an Air Force Academy.

Details for selection of cadets for the Academy have now been released and members of Congress have been requested to submit their nominations as soon as possible. Deadline for nomination for the first class is February 18, 1955. Alabama has been allotted five places for the first class of 300 cadets who will be enrolled in July, 1955. Each Alabama Congressman will nominate not more than 10 to compete for the vacancies. Based on competitive examinations, the five appointments will be made from among qualified candidates in order of merit.

I have available in my office applications for those interested in taking the entrance examinations for the Air Force Academy. I am anxious for the Sixth District to be represented in the new academy's first class, and I will be very pleased to hear from any young men in the District who would like to obtain additional information.

4-H Members Serve Cream Puffs at Meetings

Shelby County 4-Hers proved they are good cooks when they served delicious cream puffs at their June neighborhood meetings. The neighborhood girls gave the demonstration on making cream puffs and filling for cream puffs. They may be served as a refreshment, dessert, or as a main dish when filled with chicken or tuna salad.

The girls giving this demonstration were: Calera, Barbara Findley; Vandiver, Linda Watson and Estelle Brasher; Chelsea, Mildred Headrick; Davis Chapel, Jean Brasher and Joyce Brasher. Linda Booth gave the demonstration, "Do Your Shoes Fit?" to the Boothton group.

Presiding at the meetings were Calera, Barbara Findley; Vandiver, Linda Watson; Chelsea, Mildred Headrick; Davis Chapel, Jean Brasher and Edna Whitfield; Boothton, Linda Booth.

After the 4-H pledge and the pledge of allegiance were said, the roll was called and a short business session held. The song leaders led the group in singing. After the meeting was adjourned, the boys and girls joined in the group games for fun.

Home Club Leaders Attend Leadership School

Thirty-five leaders from 17 clubs recently attended an all-day leadership school on reseatting chairs. This school was conducted by B. F. Hatchett, soil conservationist, and home agents.

They worked in groups of 3 or 4 on 2 chairs and 6 small squares prepared for reweaving. During the afternoon the group was taught to reseat chairs with sea grass. They finished or nearly finished 7 chairs and stools. The leaders will give this demonstration in clubs in July.

Miss Lavada Curtis, food preservation specialist, conducted a leadership school, "Tomatoes The Year Round" to 35 leaders from 16 clubs. This demonstration will be given in the clubs in June.

On The Farms In Shelby County

Signs purchased by several of Shelby County farmers, proud of their membership in the North Central Soil Conservation District, have arrived.

"I want you fellows to come over soon and help me put up mine in a good, prominent spot," said Lester Stansel, Dargin dairyman. "I will have everything ready." That's typical of Lester and it shows in his farming and conservation work when he tries to do each job right.

Speaking of his Chapel Hill rescue grass, he said he got a heavy silage crop off his original 5-acre patch and now thinks he can save 5,000 pounds of seed on the second growth. This is his first volunteer crop.

Other cooperators getting that "District Cooperator" sign this week include F. C. Ellis, Columbiana; R. W. Kent, Siluria; O. M. Perry, Bethel; L. W. Wooten, Montevallo; Alex Etrass, Shelby; Melford Cleveland, Wilton and Burdette Bates, Vincent. These are unusually nice signs with the farmer's name as well as the District.

Newest farmers to become cooperators with their farm acreage are: H. A. Lester, 213, Columbiana; L. B. Riddle, Jr., 87, Columbiana; Ernest Falkner, 80, Pelham; Floyd Atkinson, 70, of Moore's Cross Roads; A. T. Blankenship, 120, Wilsonville; J. B. Reynolds, 178, Calcis; H. B. Reeves, 48, Mostellers; Harry D. Lee, 20, Helena.

Miss Anita Bradley and Allen B. Williams Are Married in Wilton

Miss Anita Bradley and Allen B. Williams of Selma were married at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 13, at Wilton Methodist Church. The altar decorations of ferns, white gladioli, lillies and shasta daisies with smilax interwoven in the altar rails, and triple candelabra made a beautiful setting for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. O. Kyle Lamb of Montevallo, assisted by the Rev. Billy Prickett.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bradley of Wilton. Mr. Williams' parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Williams, of Selma.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's ballerina length dress of valenciennes lace over taffeta featured a fitted bodice and standing scalloped collar. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was attached to a scalloped tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and satin streamers looped with tuberoses.

Miss Ouiga Byrd, maid of honor, had a ballerina length dress of lime taffeta with fitted bodice and bolero. The bandeau of pink carnations in her hair matched the flowers she carried.

Miss Doris Cunningham and Miss Ann Cox, in identical dresses of glazed orchid shantung with matching slippers and wearing a bandeau of white carnations, lit the candles.

Music was presented by Mrs. Sara Ervin, pianist, and Mrs. Lynn Naish, vocalist.

James Ellison of Selma was best man. Ushers were Johnny Litton and Donald Litton, uncles of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bradley chose a mid-town blue shantung dress. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue nylon. Their flowers were purple orchids.

For traveling Mrs. Williams selected a navy blue linen suit trimmed in white with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

After a wedding trip to Florida Mr. and Mrs. Williams will be at home in Selma.

Miss Mary Smith, Bob Montgomery Wed in Columbus

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Toy L. Smith of Russellville. Mr. Montgomery is the son of Mrs. W. E. Montgomery and the late Mr. Montgomery of Montevallo.

For her wedding the bride wore a flared princess coat and dress ensemble of white embossed cotton featuring a sweetheart neckline. For something odd and something borrowed, she wore a string of pearls which belonged to the bridegroom's late grandmother, Mrs. Alice Yeager.

After the wedding the mother of the bridegroom entertained with a supper at the Gilmer Hotel.

Within a few weeks Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will be at home in Demopolis, where he is employed by The Demopolis Times.

Suggestions Given On Avoiding Polio

While polio may occur at any season it is much more prevalent in hot weather.

A new vaccine against polio is being tested this year in selected sections of the country and this gives promise of being a safe and effective means of controlling polio in the near future.

Gamma Globulin, which is not a vaccine, and which provides protection against polio for five weeks, is, in the meantime, being distributed to health authorities by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

It has been found that this is effective only if given before exposure to the disease. Therefore, it is not recommended for contacts within a family when a case has already occurred but is recommended for groups and neighborhoods which appear to be threatened with an outbreak.

Gamma Globulin, when it is deemed advisable to use it, still must be ordered by the physician or health officer from a central distributing point, on special order forms giving each individual's name, address, age and weight.

It is given only to children under 15 years and to pregnant women.

The following suggestions are made by the National Foundation:

1. Keep children with their usual companions; don't take them in crowds.
2. Avoid fatigue and chilling.
3. Follow your doctor's advice about mouth and throat operations.
4. Teach children to wash hands carefully before eating and after going to the toilet. Do not use another's soiled towels, eating or drinking utensils.

Tell your doctor if these symptoms appear: headache, fever, sore throat, upset stomach, stiff neck or back.

Mental melodies and strains of sweetest music supersede conscious sound. Music is the rhythm of head and heart. — Mary Baker Eddy.

Social Security Provisions Explained by Manager

How much covered employment or self-employment income will you need in order to be eligible for social security benefits when you reach 65?

According to Mr. L. E. Brannon, acting manager of the Birmingham social security office, there is better than an even chance that your answer, if you have one, will be wrong. Why?

Mr. Brannon explains it this way: Because thousands of older workers have already qualified for benefits with as little as a year and a half of covered earnings, many people have assumed that any person can do the same. Actually that is true only where the individual is already 65 or will attain that age before July 1, 1954.

Anyone reaching 65 after June 30 of this year will need two more quarters of covered employment or self-employment for every additional year up to the time he reaches 65. Thus, a person who will be 65 three years from now will need 6 more quarters in addition to the 6 already required, or a total of 12. The maximum coverage requirement is 40 quarters and the minimum is 6.

A pamphlet explaining fully the eligibility requirements and other social security questions is available upon request at any social security office. Request for the pamphlet No. 35 should be sent to the Social Security Administration, 1825 First Avenue North, Birmingham. Persons approaching 65 who have any doubt about their ability to meet the employment requirements are urged to obtain a copy.

Mrs. Willie Hughes Tarpley Saluted As "Pride of the Valley" by Paper

In a recent issue of the Shades Valley Sun, Mrs. Willie Hughes Tarpley was saluted as the week's "Pride of the Valley." This story about Mrs. Tarpley will be of interest to people of Montevallo, as Mrs. Tarpley is the mother of Mrs. A. R. Garrett.

"Pride of the Valley"

A Birmingham product, with a background of Birmingham fathers, Mrs. Willie Hughes Tarpley came to the Valley in 1921 when there was no Hollywood, and 21st Avenue was a trail. The nearest store was Five Points. She remembers Birmingham when there were only three free schools and no paved streets.

Her father, C. A. Hughes, owned the first store in Birmingham and her grandfather, William P. Barker, laid off the City of Birmingham in 1871 for the Elyton Land Company.

Mrs. Tarpley made a name for herself in the writing field thru Forecast Magazine, of which she was children's department editor for three years, and she has published more than 50 short stories, essays, editorials, features, and other writing in numerous writers' magazines, love story magazines, newspapers like the New York World-Telegram and Washington Star. She did a series on Birmingham Pioneers for The Birmingham News.

She served as editor of Birmingham Business Women from 1926 to 1930, after which she became president of Birmingham BPW. She has served as member of the board of directors of the Community Chest, has held city and state offices in UDC and the DAR, is charter member of Alabama Writers' Conclave, of which she was president from 1940 to 1945. She served as secretary of the Girls' Club for five years and at present is writing articles for the Industrial Health Council.

The interesting and engaging Mrs. Tarpley has worked for good government throughout the years, is past president of the AAUW, past president and now corresponding secretary of National League of American Pen Women, is treasurer of Birmingham Quill Club.

Enthusiastic about her garden, Mrs. Tarpley's trademark has become a flower in her hair, which she is never without. She is co-editor of the book, "Historic Homes of Alabama and Their Traditions" and is active in all phases of church work at Valley Christian Church.

Her daughter is Mrs. A. R. Garrett, of Montevallo, and her grandsons are Arthur, Jr., and Bill Bob.

Two 4-H'ers Win State Awards in Alabama

FOREMOST among 4-H Club members in Alabama are two teenagers who have high ratings in the National 4-H Tractor Maintenance and Recreation-Rural Arts programs.

Johnie Abrams, Jr.

Boy, 12, Tops in Tractor

Production on the Abrams farm near Canoe, has been kept at a high level because tractor wheels have been kept rolling by Johnie, Jr., 12, who has been named Alabama winner in the 4-H Tractor Maintenance program. He was rewarded by a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago as a guest of Pan-Am Southern Corp.

Johnie has devoted three years to the study and practice of tractor operation and maintenance. In this program, which emphasizes care—not repair, Johnie has attended three tractor clinics in the county, has been a junior leader and helped younger members in the project. He was junior tractor leader in 1952-53. He drives and services the tractor on the 185-acre farm operated by his father, J. W. Abrams.

These programs are conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.

Eleanor Cauthen

Wins Honor in Recreation

Leadership and achievement in the 4-H Recreation and Rural Arts program have brought statewide recognition to Eleanor Cauthen, 16, Luverne. She was presented a Certificate of Honor as well as a $37.50 cash scholarship for recreational training provided by United States Rubber Co.

Cash awards of $25 for the purchase of recreational equipment also go to counties in which the local 4-H Clubs have reported outstanding accomplishments in recreation and rural arts.

Eleanor, president of the county council, planned rallies and other events, for that group, for local clubs, and for neighborhood parties, for the junior class party and for the Rural Youth program. She has taught dancing and numerous party games. She is a neighborhood leader in her local club, Luverne Senior Group II, and president of the County Council.

Household Hints

Beware ironing creases in the same place in linen napkins and table cloths. It causes breaks in the thread and wears out the cloth.

To repair a knobless pot lid, push a sharp pointed screw thru the hole and twist a cork into it. The cork is heat proof.

Sticky dates, raisins or figs will come apart easily if placed in the oven a few minutes.

IF YOU ARE BUILDING A HOME

1. Remember the advantages of DRY lumber. If uncertain have the lumber checked on the job site.
2. Deal only with reputable contractors and reliable lumber dealers.

IF YOU ARE BUYING A NEWLY BUILT HOME

3. Request the specifications for the job to see if properly seasoned lumber was called for—and used.

IF YOU MAKE UP THE SPECIFICATIONS

4. Specify the following: For framing and sheathing — 19% maximum moisture content; for finish, woodwork and flooring—12% moisture content.
5. If unable to judge lumber grades or the condition of seasoning, require that lumber be certified with a grade-mark of a recognized inspection agency, or have it competently inspected when it is delivered.

IF THE JOB CALLS FOR BIG DELIVERIES

6. When there is a constant flow of incoming lumber, it is wise to employ qualified graders to check each delivery before unloading. Electrical instruments known as moisture registers or meters are now commercially available for testing lumber to determine the moisture of each piece.

Picture of health

This man is healthy today because a chest X-ray made in 1949 revealed an unsuspected lung condition. Proper action, taken in time, saved his health, his job, his future.

Every year for the past six years, Brake Shoe's mobile unit has X-rayed every employee, office and factory worker alike. We have learned that healthy men and women, working under pleasant conditions, safeguarded by modern medical facilities, promote a healthy and vigorous company. Last year alone, we invested nearly half a million dollars in our medical program.

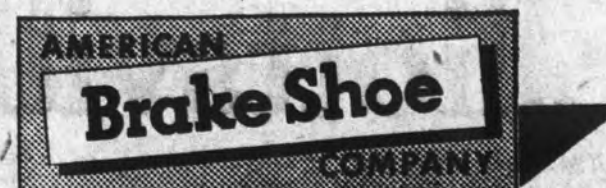

Substantial efforts to promote employees' health is just one aspect of Brake Shoe's concern for the welfare of its people and its home communities. It's another part of the Brake Shoe concept of "buying futures"—for all of us.

10,000 X-Rays a Year

Last year this special truck traveled over 11,000 miles visiting Brake Shoe plants and offices, X-raying the chests of nearly 10,000 employees and retired employees. As a result of this program 40 cases of tuberculosis were detected; and, in cooperation with the American Cancer Society, 5 instances of lung cancer were discovered in time for treatment.

Your Health . . .

What Do You Know About "Sciatica"?

"Sciatica" is an incoordination of the great sciatic nerve which supplies the muscular and bony tissues of the thigh and lower leg.

The pain in most cases is due to an inflammation of the sciatic nerve. Nerve tissue like all other tissues of the body, require a normal nerve force supply in order to function properly. A lack of normal nerve supply results in incoordination of the sciatic nerve. This fact has been proven clinically by Chiropractors on thousands of cases. In every case, the point of interference to the normal flow of nerve force between brain and sciatic nerve was located and removed and cases got well.

When an electric current passes along a wire in the amount for which the wire was designed, the electricity functions properly and does the job for which it was intended. When something goes wrong with the wire so that a blockage occurs, electrical trouble develops. It is necessary to free the obstruction so that the correct amount of electricity can move along without interference. The same thing is true of nerve force.

Chiropractors for years have been locating and removing the cause of the incoordination Sciatica. Thereby they open the avenue to complete recovery.

If you are suffering from Sciatica, have a talk with a Chiropractor. The name of your nearest Chiropractor is

600 Enjoy Fish Fry at Montevallo

The Montevallo Recreation Board and Volunteer Fire Department entertained the community with a big fish fry on Wednesday, June 16. The 600 people who attended went away well fed.

The fish was given by the firemen and the drinks, salad and bread were given by the Recreation Board. The program was planned by Miss Rebecca Behannon, John Mader and Coach Fisher, and included volleyball, sack races, ping pong, dancing, dominoes, checkers, rolling pin throwing and singing.

Mitchell Young did a jam-up job of advertising and handling the detailed arrangements for the fish fry.

We wish to thank the city fathers for help in getting equipment to the picnic area, also the ladies who helped with the salad; the young ladies who did the serving; Mr. Kendrick and Mr. Chism, who were on the dishing-out part of the fish and bread detail.

We also wish to thank all individuals who let the committee have pots and pans; the high school for the use of tables and chairs. M. C. Lovelady did a fine job with the clean-up committee after the picnic.

The picnic is an annual event of the Montevallo summer recreation program and this year, despite the rainy weather, was probably our best one. We hope to make it better each year.

Miss Wanda Farris, James W. Gentle Marry in Siluria

Miss Wanda Farris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Farris of Alabaster, was married Saturday evening to James W. Gentle of Birmingham. The 8 o'clock ritual was performed by the Rev. M. L.

Butler at Siluria Baptist Church. Matron of honor was Mrs. W. L. English, and Misses Gail Farris, Lily Gentle, Carolyn Barton and Janet Allison were bridesmaids. Janet and Jo Ann Farris were flower girls.

The bridesmaids and flower girls, who carried fans of pink daisies, had on ballerina-length gowns and stoles of pink net. Their tiny, pink headdresses were pearl-trimmed. Dressed like the other attendants, the matron of honor carried pink roses surrounded by tuberose.

Mr. Farris gave his daughter in marriage. Her wedding dress was fashioned of white silk mouseline with organdy flowers applied on the skirt. The bodice was finished with cape sleeves, off-shoulder neckline and illusion yoke.

A pearlized headpiece held the bride's veil, and the white orchid in her bouquet was surrounded by tuberose.

Jack Gentle was best man. He and the bridegroom are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gentle of Birmingham. John K. Smith, William G. Brockman, Roy Wells, Jr., and Kenneth Griffith were ushers.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The hostess greeted guests in a gown of white lace over champagne net. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

Mrs. Gentle, mother of the bridegroom, wore champagne-colored lace over bisque taffeta and her flowers were gladioli.

Reception aids were Mrs. Richard Honeycutt, Mrs. Charles Bailey and Misses Lois Butler, Ann Farris, Beverly Doyle, and Melba

Jo Brannon.

Leaving for a trip to the North Carolina mountains, the bride wore a costume suit in light blue with navy accessories. She and Mr. Gentle will live in Birmingham.

A Westinghouse Story

The word cooperation is probably used more than any other word in describing what it takes to make a successful chamber of commerce.

No greater example of cooperation between two chambers of commerce and the industry in their midst can be told than the relationship between Calera and Montevallo Chambers of commerce and the Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

Tom Turner, vice president, Buffalo, Motor and Control Division of Westinghouse, recently entertained officials of the two chambers at a luncheon attended by other Westinghouse officials. It was at this meeting that Mr. Turner presented Roy Downs of Calera a check for $10,066 and F. P. Givhan of Montevallo, a check for $10,275. The story behind the presentation of these checks is one of cooperation that is worthy of the attention of every Alabama citizen.

The best explanation of the story is given by Robert A. Deasy, Pittsburgh, Public Relations, Westinghouse. Deasy says:

"During the early days of the planning, it was apparent that grading of the proposed plant site needed to be done. When the local people offered to get it done, Westinghouse accepted the offer.

"The people of Westinghouse who were involved in the negotiations tell me that they were extremely gratified by this spirit of cooperation. When they later learned that the grading was paid for by public contributions, they were overwhelmed by such an obviously sincere desire to have a Westinghouse plant in the vicinity. To be just a member of the community is a desirable thing. But to have been encouraged and welcomed in this way was indeed a source of great satisfaction.

"Incidentally, I am told that the money repaid to Calera and Montevallo, in turn, has been repaid to the persons who contributed it. Furthermore, some of the contributors have even returned their donations to the chambers of commerce concerned, with requests that the money be kept in local funds."

"There could be no finer story of the community appreciation of the value of industry and a genuinely friendly and cooperative attitude toward new enterprise than the Calera-Montevallo action. Too, the Westinghouse action is an excellent example of good industry becoming the best neighbor a community could desire.

Here is truly a happy relationship.

(The foregoing is reprinted from "Alabama Today and Tomorrow," monthly bulletin of the Alabama State Chamber of Commerce, May, 1954.)

Your Health . . . Heart Trouble Tops List

Much is being said today about heart disease. Present day literature on heart incoordination tends to make the reader think of the heart as an organ functioning independently of all the other organs of the body.

The heart, like all the other organs and tissues, has a particular job to do to keep the body running smoothly and in perfect coordination or health.

The heart is able to beat fast or slow, pump more blood or less blood, or in other words, is able to meet the demands of the body when functioning normally. How does the heart know when to pump more blood? Does the heart have a brain? The obvious answer is no. The heart, like all other organs, is connected to the brain by an intricate nervous system. The brain is the coordinating center for all body function. The brain, in its coordinating work, utilizes nerve impulses or force which is sent over nerves via the spinal cord to the heart and all other organs.

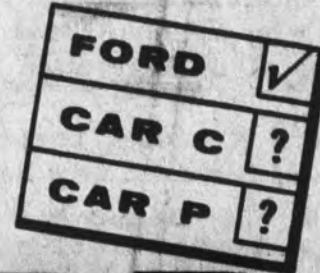

As long as the necessary amount of nerve force gets to the heart, the heart is coordinated or functions normally. When a blockage to the normal amount of nerve force flow occurs, the heart becomes incoordinated and function is abnormal.

Your chiropractor with his specialized training and scientific equipment can locate and remove interference to the normal amount of nerve force flow between brain and heart, thereby allowing that life force through to correct the incoordination of the heart.

If you are suffering from a heart incoordination, see your local chiropractor.

Dr. Hugh Linder, Vandiver, Homer L. Ray, Westover, I. A. Faust, Montevallo, and G. S. McDonald, Columbiana, are the most recent to become cooperators of the North Central Soil Conservation District in Shelby County.

Alec Etrass was in the office Monday to tell us "I planted 240 more pounds of sericea seed the other day. I had a good rain just as I got through and two since. The sericea is already up and is growing fine." Alec makes good use of sericea both as grazing and as hay.

Alabama Group Travels By Bus To San Francisco Home Economics Meet

(By Elta Majors)

We "headed west" as the highway sign said. Our destination was San Francisco to attend the American Home Economics Association meeting. We were a bus full of folk. From the Tennessee to the Gulf came homemakers, teachers, extension folk and other home economists. This morning, June 26, found us early making our way to Birmingham, the headquarters from which our group took off.

From the northwest corner of the state was Myrtle Old, home economics teacher in Florence, and Cecil Hester, home demonstration agent in Florence. While from nearby Lawrence County came Lucy Blackburn, home demonstration agent. Joining the group from Marion County was Elna Tanner, home demonstration agent.

From Morgan County came home economics teachers and homemakers, including Eloise Tanner of Falkville, Constance Pearson, Mary Frances Kilgore and Mrs. E. G. Hamilton from Decatur.

Boarding the air conditioned bus in Huntsville was our director, Mr. W. B. Whitfield, home demonstration agent Mrs. Oanone Cook, and assistant home demonstration agent, Mrs. Jo H. Walker.

In addition there was Martha Easter, representing the Alabama College Home Economics Club department, Ann Whitfield, also our college club group, and Mrs. W. B. Whitfield, one of our homemakers. As we made our way to Birmingham, we were joined in Blount County by home demonstration agent Mildred Gilbert.

Then in Birmingham we really loaded the bus. There was from

REV. WILLIAM K. WEAVER

Rev. Weaver To Speak at Wilton

There will be a series of revival services next week at the Wilton Baptist Church, the pastor, Rev. Robert G. Thompson, announces. The meeting will run from Monday, July 5, through Sunday, July 11. Services will be held daily, including Saturday, at 7:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Calera Little Leaguers Defeat Montevallo, 6-5

The Calera Little Leaguers defeated Montevallo 6 to 5 in a thrilling baseball game in Calera Park last Wednesday evening. This climaxed an evening at the park. Delicious barbecue was served by some wonderful volunteer workers. We owe a vote of thanks to all who helped to make this project a success, especially Mr. A. E. McDonough for the tremendous amount of help he supplied. He worked from 5 p.m. Tuesday afternoon until the ball game was over Wednesday evening.

Under the able coaching of Mr. James Duncan and Foozy Findley the Calera team has come along fine. The team showed us that they know how to play ball by the way they came from behind to win the game. Montevallo's pitcher, Billy Winslett, throws a mean fast ball. Due to the heavy hitting of John Wells, Calera's mighty catcher and Phil Findley, the pitcher, Calera got back in the ball game in the late innings.

Findley pitching for Calera was a little more effective in the clutch than Winslett for Montevallo. He struck out 14 and only walked two men. We appreciate the fine spirit that Coach Fisher and his boys showed.

The Calera team will go to Montevallo Wednesday evening to take on the Montevallo boys again. Be sure to support them.

Workshop Group Studies Water and Soil Conservation

Under supervision of Alabama College's Miss Ethel Marshall, a group of more than 20 ladies enrolled in the Resource Workshop spent Monday through Wednesday in an intensive study of soil and water conservation.

Mornings were spent in classroom lectures and discussion, and afternoons in field study of various conservation problems.

An annual part of the workshop, these three days are enjoyed by the ladies. Most of them being teachers, are provided with much material to take back to their classes.

Monday afternoon the group braved a hot sun to tramp over the fine Alabama College dairy to study soils and erosion.

Tuesday the 278-acre farm of Carl Overstreet near Montevallo was studied. This farm was Shelby County's entry in the Good-year conservation contest for the one making the most progress in the past year in soil and water conservation.

The final day's trip was to district supervisor R. O. Williams farm in Chilton County, near Clanton.

Mr. A. L. Harrell, area conservationist for the SCS organized the studies assisted by forester Gay of the Alabama Division of Forestry, and SCS soils scientists Perry and Kelly and Shelby County SCS work units, Hatchett and Starcher.

The supervisors of North Central SCS district alleviated the ladies' suffering from the heat and unaccustomed hiking by furnishing assorted ice cold soft drinks.

When the group had assembled around the table, George Holcombe, club president, called upon Rev. J. F. Goree to offer thanks. A splendid session of food and fellowship followed.

REV. ROBERT G. FORESTER

Alabama's Rural Minister Of the Year Named

A minister who serves three Alabama churches has been selected as Alabama's Rural Minister of the Year by The Progressive Farmer and the Town and Country School of Emory University.

Rev. Forester has been chosen for this award for his "outstanding service to his church and his community."

His story is told in the July issue of the farm magazine.

Your Health . . .

"DIABETES"

A Menace

"Diabetes" takes the lives of about 28,000 Americans each year. The people who suffer from it are almost countless. What is it? The type of which we are writing is known as "Sugar Diabetes." Normally there is approximately one-tenth of one per cent sugar in the blood stream. Blood sugar is kept at normal level by the chemical called insulin. The pancreas normally forms the chemical called insulin. When the pancreas is not forming enough insulin, there is excessive sugar in the blood stream. Some of the excessive sugar is filtered through the kidneys and is passed in the urine.

The Chiropractic approach to a condition of Diabetes is based on the fact that the action of the Pancreas in forming insulin, is controlled by impulses over the nerves. The power which is behind the manufacture of insulin in the pancreas is nerve force. If action is faulty, the nerve force which governs the action must be inadequate. Diabetes frequently occurs where there is an interference in the normal quantity of nerve force which supplies the pancreas with its working vitality.

Locating the exact point of interference on the nerve supplying the pancreas and releasing that interference to transmission permits a normal quantity of nerve force to be restored to the cells which manufacture insulin. With normal insulin supply, sugar is chemically converted to the needs of the body cells—it then is absent from the blood—and the kidneys are not burdened eliminating it in the urine. Many thousands of people are grateful to Chiropractic for the improvement it has effected in diabetes.

See your family Chiropractor for additional information on the subject.

Luther Fuller, TCI Farm Director, Retires

One of Alabama's best known farm figures, Luther Fuller, who has done agricultural work in the state for 45 years, heading the agriculture department of T.C.I., for 20 years, has retired from company work and will devote his time to an agency for developing stronger farming in the state through bringing farm buyers and sellers together.

T. C. I. abolished its agricultural division, placing Fuller on the retired list.

Mr. Fuller will continue to make his headquarters in Watts Building, Birmingham.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Last week the House approved legislation authorizing disposal of $1.3 billion of farm surpluses abroad over a period of 3 years. The bill authorizes the President to exchange $1 billion of farm surpluses for foreign currencies, goods and services over a 3 year period. Money to be so acquired will be spent abroad for strategic materials; for foreign economic and military aid programs such as bases; and for loans to promote multilateral trade and economic development. These farm surpluses will come mainly from stocks acquired by the government under farm price supports.

The bill further provides for the President to use the remaining $300 million in surpluses for foreign emergency relief. This in no way restricts the power to use farm surpluses in relieving disasters at home.

This measure is designed to improve foreign relations of the United States and to isolate a large amount of farm surpluses to facilitate the application of flexible farm price supports.

There is doubt among many members of Congress as to whether giving to other nations has made a permanent improvement in our foreign relations. Yet the measure passed last week will make it possible to remove some of our surplus farm commodities. Whether or not it will facilitate the application of flexible farm price supports is highly debatable. Not only is there strong opposition among members of congress to flexible price supports, but the House agriculture committee has already gone on record in favor of 90 per cent parity in the basic commodities. This issue will develop into a major floor fight.

State Group Feted

When I was elected president of Washington's Alabama State Society almost a year ago, it was decided that the society's final function of 1954 would be a chicken barbecue. This barbecue was made possible last week by several Hale Countians interested in the broiler industry. They shipped 300 broilers to us for the occasion. Beside contributing the main course, Hale County also furnished the cooks for the barbecue. Coming from Greensboro to prepare the chickens were two barbecue experts, John Deavours, county agent, and Clarence Lawson, tax assessor.

Included in the 500 Alabamians who attended were eight Alabama Congressmen and wives. Mr. and Mrs. George Huddleston of Birmingham were guests and Rep. Lester Johnson, of Wisc., attended with Alabama friends. Former Congressman Pete Jarman and Mrs. Jarman were present as were former Congressman and Mrs. Carter Manasco.

Air Force Academy

Air Force Secretary Harold E. Talbott announced last week that he has selected Colorado Springs as the site for the new $126 million Air Academy. He picked this location after an advisory board had narrowed the possibilities to three places — Colorado Springs, Alton, Ill., and Lake Geneva, Wis. A total of 580 sites were considered by the board.

The Air Force Academy will open with the first 300 cadets in July 1955. Congressmen are now accepting applications of those interested in competing for appointment. I hope all young men in the Sixth District who are interested will write me soon.

Veterans Legislation

The House Veterans Affairs Committee, of which I am a member, recently approved a measure that will, if passed, increase pensions and compensation to former servicemen and dependents. It would be an increase of nearly 10 per cent by a sliding scale in most categories.

Warrior River Funds

As I predicted a month ago, the Senate approved the full $2 million for the Warrior Lock and Dam, and the conference committee agreed on $1.8 million. Both houses have approved the conference report and the bill for the Warrior Lock and Dam is now awaiting the President's signature.

The Eagle or the Oyster?

© Fritz Henle—Courtesy Cities Service Company

Now comes the season of the year when the Red, White and Blue is glorified in oratory throughout the land. Plaudits flow. Washington, Lincoln, Franklin, Patrick Henry, and Jefferson are quoted. For speakers bold enough to break with this tradition, we suggest the examination of a speech written by Merle Thorpe, editor of SERVICE Magazine, for the July issue. Theme—"The Eagle or the Oyster?"

For a people . . . who elect opportunism rather than opportunity, who dream of security rather than success; who believe political charity is a virtue; who mock the frugal and plunder the thrifty; who adopt the rule that if I don't succeed you are to blame, that what you have is as much mine as yours; who contend that property is a shameful sign of success; who whimper that failure is the nobler cause; well-being is wicked; prudence, out-of-date; sacrifice silly—for such a people a fitting emblem is the Oyster.

For a people . . . who faced nature in the raw, with privation the rule and hardihood a virtue; who endured defeat, disease and disaster for a hundred years in order to get a foothold on the Eastern Seaboard, the while with one eye on the interior, a no-man's land, a cockpit for settling international rivalries and private grudges, disputed by wild animals and wilder redmen; who sacrificed thus for a belief in the worth and dignity of the individual; who believed that economic freedom was as important as political freedom; who substituted "In God We Trust," for the Old World motto "In Government We Trust"; for a nation built by men who dedicated their lives to achieve the realization of these beliefs,

I give you, fellow citizens—the Eagle!

Miss Commander Weds John H. Edwards

Miss Helen Gwendolyn Commander and John H. Edwards were wed Friday evening at 7:30 at Ruhama Baptist Church. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Carl G. Campbell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Commander of Pensacola. Mr. Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards of Calera.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Pheroba Ann Thomas. Miss Dorothy Amos served as bridesmaid. The attendants' late day length dresses of antique mint silk were full-skirted and fashioned with fitted Empire bodices with bateau necklines. They wore small matching flower bandeaux and carried hand bouquets of assorted summer flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was gownned in a dress of organdy and lace, Swiss lace edges, the off-shoulder neckline and sleeve caps. The very full gathered skirt sweeps to a train. The bride carried a small hand bouquet of gardenias. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a small coif cap of pleated tulle and lace matching the dress.

Robert Edwards, brother of the groom, served as best man. The groomsmen were James A. Brown and the ushers were Neil Sheppard, Percy Pentecost and Danny Newman.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Assisting were Mrs. G. Stanley Powell, Miss Bernice Camp, Miss Pauline Jackson, Miss Ann Tisdale, Miss Gail Nall, Miss Martha Ann Jennings and Mrs. Robert Holley.

County Home Clubs Hold Dress Revue

Thirty-one Shelby County Home Demonstration Club members modeled cotton, work, all purpose, and dressy dresses at the county dress revue Thursday.

Mrs. W. G. McClendon, Helena, was county winner. Mrs. John A. Kent, Siluria, was alternate winner. Mrs. McClendon will represent Shelby County in the statewide dress revue in Birmingham in November.

Judges for the revue were Mrs. Evelyn Fuller, instructor of vocational home economics; Miss Leacy Newell, supervisor vocational home economics; and Miss Mildred Meroney, dean of home economics at Judson College.

The dresses were modeled in a skit centered around "Making Plans for a June Wedding." Other characters in the skit were: Mrs. J. Frank Baker, mother of the bride and Mrs. Earl Morgan, critical, overdressed old maid aunt of the bride.

Twenty dresses from Avondale Mills wardrobe were modeled by Nancy Harrison, Joan Nichols, Gwendolyn Farr, Shirley Sims, Hertha Stone, Columbiana, and Amelia Frost, Calera. Miss Ann Shaw, 1953 Shelby County Maid of Cotton winner, assisted the models.

A simple garden tea followed the revue. Mrs. W. A. Jones and Mrs. Mable Brannon furnished the cookies. 4-Hers Barbara Findley, Jane Lee and Janice Barefield made and helped serve delicious cream puffs. Mrs. Clyde Lawrence, assisted by other Calera club members, prepared the punch.

Mrs. R. J. Mabry, Mrs. Dean Holcombe, Mrs. J. T. Thornton, Mrs. T. E. Sinor and Mrs. Robert Holcombe collected properties and flowers and arranged a lovely garden for the revue.

Responsible for the planning of this lovely, unusual presentation of cotton dress revue contestants were: Mrs. J. Frank Baker, chairman; Mrs. Earl Morgan, Mrs. Robert Holcombe, Mrs. George Holcombe, Mrs. H. W. Dearing, Jr., Mrs. Joe Hodges, Mrs. Robert Waites.

Championship Race Scheduled at B'ham Track

There were thrills galore in last Sunday's car racing events at Fairgrounds Speedway in Birmingham. Ralph Bradford spun and turned his No. 9, the Black Widow, over 4 times. Ed Samples wrecked his record holding Cadillac in the main event. Hub McBride and Hooker Hood went sailing through the fence.

The championship race will be run next Sunday at the west side oval. Drivers from all over the South are expected to be on hand to try for the large cash prizes.

Next Sunday's event will include the first elimination of the famous Miss Stock Car contest, featuring 20 of the South's most beautiful young ladies competing for the title.

Another promising event for next Sunday will be a special match of all 1954 main event winners. This should set an all-time blistering pace as champions try to beat champions.

Time trials are set for 1:30 p.m., with the feature program getting under way at 2:30. Fairgrounds Speedway has free parking space and shaded grandstand seats with top entertainment between races by radio and TV stars.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

In passing the Mutual Security Authorization Bill and the Agricultural Act of 1954, both controversial measures, the House was in session many hours during the past week.

Price Supports Debated

By a vote of 229 to 170, the House approved a compromise price support plan calling for another year of supports at variable levels between 82½ and 90 per cent of parity. This, of course, was the most controversial amendment in the Agricultural Act of 1954 passed by the House of Representatives last Friday.

This amendment evolved as a compromise between the request of President Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson for a sliding scale of supports between 75 and 90 per cent of parity and the House Agriculture Committee's recommendation of a one-year continuation of rigid supports at 90 per cent of parity.

The Eisenhower-Benson plan was defeated decisively by the House. The compromise plan, then offered in the form of an amendment by Rep. Harrison (R., Neb.), received strong support by the Republican leadership.

The proponents of the Harrison Amendment made several claims in support of it which, in my opinion, were not substantiated by their arguments. For example, the argument that flexible price supports will solve the surplus problem is not borne out by the record. As a matter of fact, the record reveals that many of the surplus troubles with certain farm commodities have occurred at a time when they were under a program of flexible supports. Potatoes were under a flexible program several years ago when we had such a tremendous surplus. A similar experience was had with eggs under a program of flexible supports.

The claim that flexible price supports will reduce the cost to the consumer was not substantiated. Secretary of Agriculture Benson stated to the House Committee on Agriculture that there would be practically no change in the price of a loaf of bread or in food prices generally if flexible price supports are imposed. As you know, Secretary Benson is the chief advocate of flexible supports.

The argument that the inclusion of the basic commodities under a system of flexible price supports will save billions of dollars for the taxpayers is refuted by the facts. Rep. Harold Cooley, senior Democrat on the House Agriculture Committee, pointed out during debate on the floor of the House that on the basic commodities, which are involved in the 90 per cent support program, the sum of $21 million has been lost over a period of 20 years, a total of only $1 million a year. This amount seems ridiculously small when compared to the $3.3 billion authorized by the House earlier last week for the foreign aid program.

While many of the claims of the proponents were not substantiated by their arguments on the House floor, there were convincing arguments presented to the effect that the adoption of a sliding scale of supports would further reduce the income of the farmer. Seeing few advantages and many disadvantages in the adoption of the Harrison Amendment, I cast my vote in opposition to it.

Foreign Aid Voted

Approximately $3.3 billion has been authorized by the House for foreign aid during fiscal 1955. This authorization for the Mutual Security Program was approved by House members last Wednesday by a 260-126 vote.

After the Senate approves the measure, it will then be necessary for both houses to pass legislation which actually appropriates the money for mutual security. Authorization bills, such as the one the House just passed for foreign aid, are separate from the appropriations bills which actually provide the funds that are authorized or permitted. Appropriations can be less, but not more than the authorizations.

As approved by the House, the foreign aid authorization bill includes approximately $1.4 billion for military aid; $464 million for defense support economic aid; $224 million for development assistance; $241 million for Korean rehabilitation; $131 million for the point-four technical assistance program; and $321 million for the construction of ports, pipelines and airfields in Europe during the next three years.

Eight hundred million dollars of the military aid funds is authorized to support the French war efforts in Indo-China. The House refused to adopt an amendment to eliminate those funds and also defeated a motion to eliminate $85 million in aid for India.

This multi-billion dollar authorization bill was adopted despite the fact there is $9.7 billion of unexpended funds at the present time in the foreign aid program. Of that amount $2.6 billion is still unallocated. There was an effort made to delay further foreign aid authorizations until our entire program of foreign aid can be re-examined in the light of present international developments, but this effort was unsuccessful.

Calera Splits Twin Bill With West Blocton

In a Sunday afternoon league double header with West Blocton, Calera had its pennant chances dampened by splitting the decision. The first game was a slugfest match of wide open baseball. Genry, Calera pitcher, got the win but Porter Ingram had to relieve for the last two innings. Armstrong, Calera's catcher, was the hitting star as he drove in 4 runs with 2 singles and a double.

The second game was tighter, Calera losing 4 to 3. Hamic, the starter for Calera, was shelled out in the third and Bill Davenport finished the game. Hamic was the loser.

Jack Comer, Calera center fielder, was injured in the foot in a last week's ball game and will be out of the lineup for a while. The team welcomed back little Manuel McCarty, slugging second baseman.

Calera has three more league games in which to catch Belcher, leading by one and a half games.

Plant Is First of Kind In South

The first carload shipment of welding electrodes, vital link in America's steel construction projects, today will leave Westinghouse Electric Corporation's new ultramodern manufacturing plant near Montevallo.

R. E. Ballentine, plant manager, said the shipments are following by less than a month the final phases of installing equipment in the one-story steel and brick structure.

Westinghouse on TV

A film of Westinghouse operations at the Montevallo plant is to be shown on WBRC-TV on Thursday, July 15, between 9 and 10 p.m. on "Panorama" program.

The new plant, located about 35 miles south of Birmingham between Montevallo and Calera, on State Highway 25, is the first welding electrode plant in the South. Its products will be shipped to points throughout the South and Pacific Coast states.

Today's shipment is going to the Gulf Welding Equipment Co., of New Orleans.

"This plant will be capable of producing welding electrodes by the millions of pounds a month," Mr. Ballentine said. "A month's output at peak production would fill a freight train approximately 100 cars long."

Westinghouse, in its own plants, is one of the largest users of welding equipment, and has pioneered many new developments in the welding industry. These have included the use of alternating current welders and electrodes, and the direct current selenium rectifier welder which changes a.c. power supply to d.c. for welding — a process that offers great cost savings.

The new Montevallo plant was included in the current Westinghouse 296-million dollar expansion program because of the expanded market for welding electrodes and the increased activity in metal working industries in the South. These "rods" are used in virtually every type of steel construction work through the arc welding process.

Use Birmingham Steel Rod

Explaining the plant's production operations, the Westinghouse manager said hot-rolled steel rod of the type manufactured in the Birmingham area will be used as the basic raw material. This rod is mechanically drawn to the specifications requested, and then is cut, straightened, coated with flux, baked and packaged.

STAIRWAY TO AN OVEN—Delmar Williams of the Westinghouse plant here, checks the endless flow of electrodes as they pass from flux-coating machine to conveyor and up to baking oven. First car-load shipment of these products leaves the plant today.

ed near its center from a Southern Railroad siding which extends inside the building. The materials are carried by conveyors through a complete cycle of manufacturing operations. The finished products, ready for shipment, come out at a loading point near a railroad siding parallel to the incoming tracks.

A unique feature of the 402-foot-long plant is a mammoth overhead baking oven, also fed by the conveyor system. By using this overhead oven, maximum accessibility is afforded on the ground level. Seven huge ventilating fans above the oven maintain fresh air circulation at all times.

In addition to the welding electrodes, brazing alloys also are manufactured at the plant. These are shipped throughout the United States and to points around the world.

Mr. Ballentine said about 100 persons will be employed with the plant's present facilities in operation, resulting in an annual payroll of approximately one-half million dollars.

If it becomes desirable in the future, the plant can be expanded on its 54-acre tract of land.

Expanding Southern Market
Commenting further on the new plant, Mr. Ballentine declared: "The industrial growth of the South, along with the expansion of southern markets for our products were among the main factors influencing Westinghouse to locate in Alabama."

tors influencing Westinghouse to locate in Alabama.

"The site between Calera and Montevallo was chosen not only for its location on the Southern Railroad near the steel mills, but also because of the efforts of the Chambers of Commerce of the two towns and their extreme interest in our welfare."

"An adequate supply of capable labor in the area added a further argument for our choice."

"We have received excellent cooperation from people in the two towns, and their original enthusiasm to have Westinghouse as a neighbor seems to be growing all the time."

Hired Local People

Mr. Ballentine pointed out that with the exception of some supervisory personnel, all of the employees were hired from the immediate area. In order to afford the families and friends of employees an opportunity to inspect the new plant, an open house will be held at a later date.

The Montevallo plant was the third to be constructed by Westinghouse in Alabama in the last two years. Others are a lamp plant at Reform and a manufacturing and repair plant in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. (Ham) Wilson (Louise Lovelady) of Montgomery are happy to announce the birth of a daughter whom they have named Nancy Louise.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Mahaffey and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Klotzman are vacationing in Panama City.

Following a prayer by the chaplain, Mrs. Hal Anthony, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. R. L. Visitors were introduced and Mrs. Frances Thomas, fifth district president, was asked to be sergeant at arms during the installation of the following officers for next year:

After thanking Mrs. Shaw for having served as unit president and commending her achievement during the past year, Mrs. Woolley presented the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Fred Frost, Jr.

While a buffet supper was made ready by the hostesses, Mrs. Will Fullman and Mrs. Lee Wilson and other members, interesting reports from Girls' State delegates Bobbie Dee Galloway and Carleen Lind were heard.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Thomas; Mrs. J. C. Sharrock, past fifth district president; Mrs. W. A. Stewart, secretary and treasurer of the fifth district; Mrs. Mary B. Church, vice president of the fifth district; Mrs. Esther Calder of Denver, Colo.; and Mrs. H. C. Wells of Selma.

Mrs. Will Fullman acted as mistress of ceremonies while supper was being served. Her "come and get more chicken" won the unanimous approval and response of everyone present.

Two eggs laid before Christmas usually bring more money than three laid afterwards. That's why it pays to develop big, early-laying, heavy-laying pullets on PURINA GROWENA. Costs no more to feed than many poorer and cheaper rations — because it takes less PURINA to put a pullet on the nest.

"DO-IT-YOURSELF" isn't always as easy as it looks, is it, Dad? We know—because the railroads have been getting things done the "do-it-yourself" way ever since we were knee-high to a handcar.

Tax dollars don't build the "roads" we use or keep them in repair. We do it ourself!

Public funds don't buy and maintain our bridges and tunnels and signals... our freight yards and our passenger stations. We do it ourself!

It hasn't been easy—especially in recent years when we've been faced with ever-increasing competition from "grown-up" air, water and highway carriers still subsidized as "infant industries" by your tax dollars—and ours. But take it from us, Dad—there is a special satisfaction when you do it yourself that the let-George-do-it folks will never know!

Home Economist Continues Report of Of Bus Journey Through West

And so our bus has rolled along with all the folk we told you about a week ago. Our first night was spent in Shreveport, La.

We had a very exciting and comfortable day on our air conditioned bus. All the thinking and planning of our director and chairman began to pay off. From the very beginning it was a delightful experience.

Sunday we were up early and on our way. We slept that night in a motel in Lamesa, Texas. Soon after sunrise on Monday we had lost an hour of precious time (we crossed a time zone) but that was all right because we were Carlsbad Caverns bound.

There we could hardly believe the ever changing beauty our eyes beheld. We were filled with a glorious sense of awe and reverence of the mighty handiwork of God.

Monday afternoon found us in Old Mexico seeing the sights and spending our pesos. That night we rested our weary heads in El Paso, Texas. For the young members of our group there was night life and window shopping. For those of us who could not take as much, a warm bath and a good bed.

From El Paso we turned northward on U.S. highway 85, going through radio's famed town of Truth and Consequences. The broad sweep of wide mesa, spikes of flowering yucca, the purple haze of majestic mountain ranges told us we had indeed reached the colorful west. Here we found ourselves wanting to click the camera shutter almost every minute.

Reaching Socorro, we turned west on highway 60. Here we entered the native land of the Navajo, Hopi and Yavapai Indians. We marveled at the beautifully colored sands of the Painted Desert and stood stunned as we gazed at the wonders of the petrified forest.

Our night at Flagstaff was delightful. Here we looked to the northeast and saw the snow-capped San Francisco peaks.

Wednesday morning found us up early. We rubbed our eyes and said, can it be possible we have come so far and seen so much in so short a time? We were standing on the rim of the Grand Canyon. It reminded me of a question asked by one tourist. "How long does it take to see the Grand Canyon?"

The guide replied, "It all depends on the person, Miss. Some can see it all in one hour; for others, a lifetime is not enough."

What we saw this day, we will never forget. Above the sky was a deep blue. We were especially grateful for the beauty of floating white clouds. The ever changing panorama of color was something indescribable. We are sure every member of our group will be trying to describe it for all the days to come. To many of us it will always be a place to which she will want to return. Grand Canyon grips, humbles, and is indeed the ultimate in silent grandeur and beauty.

More of our travelogue for my family and yours next week.—Elta Majors, Extension Family Life Specialist.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

Recent action by the House extended aid to the physically handicapped, extended unemployment insurance to an additional 4 million workers, and stiffened our sabotage laws.

Aid To Handicapped

The House approved a measure that will restore more of the physically handicapped to self-sufficiency. This expanded program is designed to increase the number of rehabilitated from the present 60,000 a year to 70,000 in 1955 and eventually to 250,000.

The bill set up a new formula increasing the federal government's share in the cost of the program. The present law calls for a 50-50 split with the states on the cost of actual rehabilitation, while the federal government pays all of the administrative and job placement costs. The bill will boost the federal share to an average 60 per cent for basic grants.

A similar measure was approved by the Senate last week, and possibly this week a conference committee will iron out the differences.

Unemployment Compensation

The House has passed a bill extending unemployment benefits to approximately 4 million additional workers.

This measure entitles 2½ million federal employees to jobless benefits. It also brings in 1.3 million workers in firms which hire four or more employees for as long as 20 weeks during a year.

Sabotage Laws Stiffened

Another measure passed was a bill to revise and broaden the statutes relating to espionage, sabotage, and the registration of foreign agents.

The House bill will permit the death sentence or any prison term up to life for espionage committed either in war or in peacetime. The present maximum peacetime penalty is 20 years, although the death penalty already applies in time of war.

The bill also requires the registration of any persons "who have knowledge of or have received an assignment in the espionage, counter espionage or sabotage service or tactic of a foreign government." Failure to register could bring penalties up to $10,000 in fines and five year imprisonment.

Calera Little Leaguers Defeat Montevallo, 12-6

In a game of the Calera Little Leaguers vs. Montevallo Wednesday, June 30, Montevallo won by the score of 12 to 6. The game was not as loosely played as the score might indicate. The Calera pitcher was trying for his second win. Due to illness he had not been able to throw a ball since a week before.

The game was livened up several times by some sensational plays. Bobby Turnbloom came up with a sure-fire hit. I don't believe he knew that he had the ball himself.

Unions battling for the right to represent the Westinghouse employees are the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL, and the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, CIO.

Attending the Atlanta meeting were: R. E. Ballentine, Westinghouse plant manager; William N. Miner, manager of industrial relations at the plant; Howard T. Durand, international representative of the IBEW; F. C. McGinnis, of the IUE, and F. D. McKinney, of the CIO staff.

Voting will be held in the welding laboratory at the plant between the hours of 6:30 to 7:30 a.m. and 2:30 to 3:15 p.m.

There will be three spaces on the election ballots. The IUE-CIO will be listed on the left. The column on the right will carry the name of the IBEW-AFL, and the center column will be used if the voter desires no representation.

The 36 Westinghouse employees eligible to vote are production and maintenance employees, including shipping clerks and janitors. Not eligible to vote are plant guards, professional, and office and clerical employees.

The election takes on added significance in the light of recent labor difficulties reported from certain other Westinghouse plants in other parts of the country.

Production was seriously hampered or completely shut down in at least three Westinghouse plants in the past five weeks as the result of slowdowns or contract-violating work stoppages on the part of local bargaining units of the IUE-CIO.

In addition, thousands of dollars in wages were lost by Westinghouse employees who were affected either directly or indirectly by these production curtailments.

At East Pittsburgh, Pa., site of the largest Westinghouse plant more than 5,000 production and maintenance employees left their jobs during working hours to attend union meetings. There meetings were called by officials of Local 601, IUE-CIO, to permit union members to vote their disapproval of a company wage and salary offer made in current national contract negotiations. (This same increase, averaging about five cents an hour, has already been put into effect for some 20,000 Westinghouse employees not represented by unions.)

The employees who attended the union meetings were handed (Continued on page 4)

Bill Bob Garrett Is Host To Cub Scouts

On Thursday afternoon Wolf-cub Bill Bob Garrett was host to the Cub Scouts of Den 2 at his home. Each one displayed scrap books they had made about oil, its discovery and uses. The meeting was opened with singing of America, then each cub repeated the Cub Scout promise. At the beginning of the year the cubs wearing their uniforms to the meetings were offered a prize by their Den mother, Mrs. Arthur Garrett.

Cub Scouts Guy Milford and Bill Bob Garrett were presented with a gold square on which are inscribed the Cub Scout promise on one side and the motto of the Cubs on the other side. These two boys had worn their uniforms to every meeting of the year.

After the meeting, refreshments were served. The meeting was dismissed with the grand howl, after which games were enjoyed on the lawn. This was the final meeting for the year. Cubs nest Blankenship, Guy Milford, and Bill Bob Garrett.

Western Theatre Program

Recently the Cub Scouts of Pack 59 of Montevallo were the guests on the Western Theatre Program. There were 20 Cubs participating in this event. Much to the Cubs' enjoyment, Benny Carl, master of ceremonies, presented them with cold drinks and suckers. Several mothers accompanied the boys on this trip.

Also at this time Mrs. Arthur Garrett, Den mother of Den 2, presented each of the cub scouts in den 2 with a gold star button which they are privileged to wear for having been a cub for a year. Cubs of Den 2 receiving this award were Bear Cub Bill Bob Garrett, Wolf Cub Guy Milford, Bear Cub Robert Eddings, and Bear Cub Ernest Blankenship.

The Cub Scouts appearing on TV were: Jimmy Wyatt, Lee Barclay, Bob Bearden, Ernest Blankenship, Robert Eddings, Bill Bob Garrett, Guy Milford, Chas. McGehee, Leslie Hubbard, Jimmy Wyatt, Herbie Milstead, Wayne Smitherman, Rickie Miller, Harry Moreland, Rickie Frost, and Bud-dy Scott.

OUR APPRECIATION

The faculty, students and parents wish to express their sincere appreciation to the Park and Recreation Board of Calera, Mr. Roy Downs, chairman, for their generous contribution toward a six-swing set for our playground in May, 1953.

I am asking that the Town Council, headed by Mr. O. C. Farris, and the white citizens at large, share in these expressions and again, thank you.—John A. Cade, Principal, Calera Elementary School.

Try the newest ride in 20 years!

With its revolutionary new Ball-Joint Front Suspension (exclusive to Ford in its field), the '54 Ford gives you smoother riding and far easier handling even on the roughest roads.

Ford's new Ball-Joint Front Suspension is the greatest advance in chassis design in twenty years. In place of the kingpin and "hinge" system found in most cars, Ford has simple ball joints. Front wheels move both up and down and right and left around these same ball joints for easier steering and riding.

Ball-Joint Suspension also keeps your wheels in line longer... helps retain "new-car feel" much longer. And 12 points of wear are eliminated, so there are only 4 instead of 16 lubrication points.

Only V-8 In the low-price field

It's the industry's most modern "V-8". Its deep-block build gives you less vibration, quieter running. Its low-friction design gives you more usable power, from every drop of gas—and longer engine life, too!

A host of "Worth More" features make Ford your best buy

Ford alone in its field offers you a Y-block V-8 and I-block Six, the two most modern engines in the industry. For power assists*, Ford brings you the finest in the low-price field. They take the "work" out of shifting, steering, stopping... lift all 4 windows and move your front seat up, down, forward and back. It's because of many advances like these that Ford returns more of its original cost than any competitive make when you're ready to sell it. So, all in all, you can own this smooth-riding, style-setting honey for the lowest cost of any full-size car.

Daily Newspaper

The many friends of Charles G. Dobbins in Montevallo will be keenly interested to know that he is expanding his Montgomery Examiner from a weekly to a five-day afternoon newspaper. In announcing this forward step, Mr. Dobbins says:

"We are simply expanding the Examiner from one issue a week to five issues a week, in the conviction that there is room in Alabama's fast growing Capital City for more than one point of view. This is not a hasty decision. The loyal and generous support by both readers and advertisers of our weekly Examiner during nearly seven years has made our decision for us."

"The daily Examiner will have the leased wire of United Press, the full NEA service, and other features," Dobbins said.

Mr. Dobbins started as police reporter on the old Birmingham Age-Herald in 1929. He published the Anniston Times from 1939 to 1943, folding it while he was away for four years in the Navy. He served as president of Alabama Press Association in 1942. During the incumbency of President A. F. Harman, Dobbins was Executive Secretary of Alabama College for a few years, during which time he and his family lived in Montevallo. Presently in addition to being one of the leading newspaper men of Alabama, he is a member of the State Board of Education.

B. P. W. MAKES PLANS

The Montevallo Business and Professional Women's Club, Mrs. Marcia Sears, president, presiding, met Tuesday evening, July 20, for a picnic supper at Big Springs Park, to plan for their 1954-55 club year.

disciplinary furloughs by the company for the illegal work stoppage. The Pittsburgh Press, in a news story July 14, 1954, the day production returned to normal, said:

"Wages lost after the company's laying off the employees as a disciplinary measure following their walkouts are estimated at about $82,500."

At Columbus, O., where Westinghouse recently put into operation a giant electric appliance plant, the company found it necessary to furlough about 1,000 persons for what was reported to be an organized production slowdown which resulted in the shutdown of assembly lines.

At Metuchen, N. J., where Westinghouse operates its Television-Radio Division plant, more than 1,800 production employees represented by IUE-CIO lost a total of nearly a week's pay after the company gave disciplinary furloughs to about 65 shipping and receiving department employees who refused to work any overtime.

In a statement to the press the plant industrial relations manager, Hugh W. Arnett, Jr., termed the 65 employees' refusal to do overtime work "a violation of the contractual agreement between our company and the IUE-CIO" and consequently disciplinary furloughs without pay were ordered for those involved in the illegal stoppage.

Mr. Arnett said large quantities of new model television receivers must be assembled and shipped in early summer if a TV producer is to have sufficient numbers and varieties of television sets moving through distribution channels by the early fall season when consumer sales demands are high.

The Montevallo plant is part of the company's Buffalo, N. Y., welding department. The Buffalo plant was the scene of a severe three-month strike by IUE-CIO several years ago.

The Montevallo plant is now operating at about one-half capacity. Training time for the local employees has been considerably longer than anticipated. Therefore, it is understood that the company will not hire additional personnel in the next two or three months until the present new employees have been thoroughly trained on their respective jobs. After that time the hiring of additional workers for the second production line will probably be done.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

As the second session of the 83rd Congress approaches the home stretch, we find that a number of bills of major importance have not been enacted into law. Several have already been defeated. Some will be lost in the jam that always occurs at the end of a session. Yet others will be passed before adjournment.

Defeated Legislation

The Bricker Amendment was killed by the Senate early in the session. The President's request for an 18-year minimum voting age was turned down flatly by the Senate, and the same body defeated all proposed changes in the Taft-Hartley labor law.

There is little or no chance of passage for the Hawaii-Alaska statehood bill. By linking Alaska and Hawaii statehood together, the Senate placed the kiss of death on this legislation.

The rejection of legislation has not, however, been confined entirely to the Senate. Only last week the House defeated President Eisenhower's health insurance plan.

Passed Only By House

Several bills of major importance have received House approval but are still pending in the Senate. Social security legislation, approved by the House over a month ago, seems sure for passage. The President's controversial farm legislation is slated for Senate action this week, and the foreign aid bill will undoubtedly be passed by the Senate in the near future.

The wiretapping bill, a key part of the President's anti-communist program, has run into Senate opposition after receiving strong House approval. Its passage is far from assured.

Legislation to raise the debt limit by $15 billion was passed last year by the House but still has not received Senate approval. Although the debt limit is nudging the ceiling, an increase as large as $15 billion may not be forthcoming.

Not Yet Considered

There are a number of bills, not yet voted on by either body, that may receive approval before adjournment.

The foreign aid appropriation bill will undoubtedly be passed. Revision of the atomic energy control act was delayed last week in the Senate but will probably be approved. Compromise pay increases for postal workers, classified government employees and possibly military personnel may be voted on. A compromise measure to increase veterans' pensions and compensation is slated for consideration.

Bills Passed

All ten of the regular appropriation bills have been signed by the President. The reciprocal trade act has been extended for one year. A measure reducing excise taxes was approved by the House and Senate and signed by the President early in the session. The St. Lawrence Seaway bill has finally become a law, and an expanded highway construction program is now on the books.

The House and Senate have both passed the tax revision bill and the 1954 housing act. These measures have been in conference committees for some time and should receive final approval in this week.

Recreation Program Offers Wide Variety of Facilities and Activities

Offering a variety of recreational facilities appealing to the "small size, middle size and big size" Montevallians the recreational program is shown in full swing at one of the night sessions at Montevallo High School . . .

Engrossed in the fascination of "making things" with clay in the Art Room at Montevallo High School are Gregory Ballentine, Montevallo, and Jo Ann Erickson, Wilton. Elaine Fisher, Montevallo, also is busy on an art project.

A group at one of the six tables of games in progress during the Recreation Program Game Night night are, left to right, Jade Higgins, Sigrid Lund, Albert Mahaffey and Gene Givhan, all of Montevallo.

With two volley ball games going simultaneously in the Montevallo High School gymnasium on Game Night it is easy to see the recreation program is filling a long-felt need in the community. Following these hard-fought games the floor was cleared and a square dance took place, with no let-up of enthusiasm.

Polio Foundation Faces Emergency

A critical emergency has arisen with the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The January goal was to raise $75 million in order to spend $25 million for testing the new vaccine plus supplying the gamma globulin for critical areas.

The January campaign yielded only $55 million, which means that in order to carry on the program of testing out the vaccine and also supplying enough gamma globulin wherever epidemics occur, it is necessary to raise the other $20 million.

How do we plan to meet this emergency in Shelby County?

Under the leadership of Dr. Katherine Vickery as county chairman, the mothers' march organization will direct the campaign. March of Dimes cans will be placed in various stores and places of business all over the county, and contribution cards will be mailed to everyone owning a telephone in the county. Others who wish to donate may send contributions directly to Dr. Vickery, Montevallo.

Please give now that the fight may continue.

Surplus Commodities

The next distribution day for surplus commodities in Montevallo will be Saturday, August 14, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Sen. Hill Opposes Benson Plan For Sliding Scale of Farm Prices

Senator Lister Hill has declared that the best insurance Congress can provide against a depression is to defeat Secretary of Agriculture Benson's sliding scale farm price plan and extend the existing program which guarantees that farmers will not receive less than 90 per cent of parity for cotton, corn, peanuts and the other basic crops.

"The farmer is today caught in a severe price-cost squeeze," Hill declared. "His farm operating costs are way up and his prices are way down. His share of the national income is today at the lowest point since the depression. Farm income has fallen some $2 billion 400 million this past year. The Benson sliding scale prices and modernized parity will pull his income down another 25 per cent," Hill continued.

"The farmer cannot stand such a loss in income. Neither can the rest of the people of the country. The purchasing power of the farmer is absolutely essential to keep the wheels of business and industry turning at a healthy pace and to keep jobs for all of our people."

"Secretary Benson has," Hill said, "appealed to consumers to back his efforts to cut price supports, stating that such cuts will result in much lower consumer prices. The facts simply do not bear him out."

Hill cited the example of a $3.95 cotton shirt which contains about 30 cents worth of cotton. "Thirty cents," Hill pointed out, "is all the farmer gets. Cutting the price of cotton 10 or 20 per cent would do great harm to the cotton farmer but would not save the consumer enough to even pay the average state sales tax on a shirt, even if the saving was actually passed on to the consumer." Hill added:

"A loaf of bread that costs 16c to 20c contains about 2 1/4c worth of wheat, according to government figures. If the price of the wheat is cut 25 per cent, it will ruin tens of thousands of farmers, but the reduction in the price of the wheat in a loaf of bread would not be a sufficient fraction of a penny to pass along to the consumer."

Hill pledged an all-out fight to defeat the Benson plan "and to preserve to our farmers and to American agriculture the protection that the strength of our national economy and the security of our country demand."

Employees Feted
With Fish Fry

Employees of the Montevallo plant of Westinghouse Electric Corporation, their families and friends, were participants in a most enjoyable fish fry at Big Springs Park, Montevallo, July 24. The event was given by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL, who are at present engaged in a campaign to organize the employees of Westinghouse at the new plant near Montevallo.

Mr. Howard Durand, International Representative for IBEW, stated that the event was attended by approximately 100 people. Among this number were wives, sweethearts, children and parents of Westinghouse employees. Many of the group, especially the children, took advantage of the big cool spring swimming pool to cool off.

Special thanks went to the committee who worked so hard to make the event a success. The committee, M. C. Lovelady, Hubert Lucas, and Dalton Presley, assisted in obtaining the food and doing the cooking. "Love," as he is affectionately known, was in charge of cooking the fish, and a greater outdoor cook has never been "invented." Of course, the ladies deserve a lot of credit too. They most energetically entered into the task of preparing the french-fries and cold slaw. Representative Durand and Hubert Lucas did credit to the lemonade, while Dalton Presley did a lot of footwork between the icehouse, the fish-pot, the grocery store and the can-opener.

If the IBEW-AFL is successful in its campaign to install a local charter for the Westinghouse employees, this fish fry will become a regular event.

Every employee who attended expressed his appreciation for a most enjoyable evening of food, friendship and fun. The IBEW-AFL is to be commended for its forethought in providing such a nice program for some of our citizens of Montevallo and vicinity.

Mrs. Woods and Frances Plan Move to California

Mrs. Laura Lyman Woods and daughter Frances, are busy at packing these days. They have three more weeks before leaving for their new home in Palmdale, California, where Frances will be employed as secretary to the personnel manager of Northrop Aircraft Corporation.

Preparations for the move have been under way for some time, but there remain countless things to be done, such as going through boxes of keepsakes collected by three generations of Lymans.

Mrs. Woods, daughter of the late Judge and Mrs. E. S. Lyman, is the last of the family to pull up stakes and move to new fields. Her grandfather and grandmother Lyman came by stagecoach from Connecticut for a honeymoon visit with friends in 1850. Instead of returning home, they established residence and Mr. Lyman went into the mercantile business here.

Her mother was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. French Nabors, natives, and once owners of what is now known as Main Street. Their home was King House, an historical building on the campus of Alabama College.

Mrs. Woods and Miss Frances will be greatly missed by relatives and a host of friends in and around Montevallo.

Eleven Marines from the southeast won the nation's highest decoration for valor, the Medal of Honor, for heroism above and beyond the call of duty in World War II.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Although the Senate was tied up in debate last week on the atomic energy bill, the House continued to grind out legislation with daily sessions that began early and ended late. The House was in session last Friday for 17 continuous hours, our longest legislative day of the 83rd Congress.

Measures were approved by the House to provide supplemental funds for various departments of the government; to increase veterans' compensation; and to take away U. S. citizenship of persons convicted of advocating overthrow of our government. Also approved were conference reports on the housing bill and on the bill to provide additional assistance for vocational rehabilitation. The "package" measure calling for postal rate increases, a 5 per cent pay increase for postal employees and reclassification of postal jobs and salaries failed of passage.

Veteran's Bills Approved

Veterans who draw compensation for service connected disabilities will be granted a 5 per cent increase if a bill passed by the House receives Senate approval. Dependents of service connected group will receive increases ranging from 15 to 25 per cent. Senate approval is likely.

The measure approved by the House was the best compromise that could be worked out by the Veterans Affairs Committee with the Republican administration.

The compromise bill differs from the original bill offered by the committee in that it permits only a 5 per cent rather than a 10 per cent increase in compensation for service connected veterans, and it does not grant any increase for non-service connected veterans and the widows and children of such veterans.

The House approved a measure to give Korean veterans an additional year to take advantage of their GI educational benefits.

Supplemental Appropriation

The House approved a $1.3 billion supplemental appropriation bill last week and now has only the foreign aid appropriation bill to enact before adjournment.

In passing the supplemental bill, the House restored 14 of the 40 per cent cut recommended by the appropriations committee. An amendment was approved to restore $22 million for construction of airports under the federal aid

These five young men are attending or have attended Montevallo High School.

The men will also be given time off so they can see the sights in and around Jacksonville. They will return to Birmingham in time to make the trip to California the 14th of August.

Fugitives Sought by the FBI

NICK GEORGE MONTOS

Nick George Montos and Lila May Nail, federal fugitives being sought by the FBI, may be active in this area.

A complaint charging Montos with unlawful flight from Georgia to avoid prosecution for the brutal robbery and beating of two elderly persons was filed before a U. S. Commissioner at Waycross, on August 23, 1951.

On September 8, 1952, Montos, who had been convicted previously for violation of the national motor vehicle theft act, possession of burglar tools, burglary, receiving and concealing stolen property and escape, was added to the FBI's list of "ten most wanted fugitives."

LILA MAY NAIL

Montos widened his flight and continued his criminal activity. On March 4, 1954 a federal warrant was obtained for Montos at Chicago, Ill., charging him with a violation of the interstate transportation of stolen property statute in connection with the $150,000 robbery of an art dealer in Kenosha, Wisconsin on February 8, 1954.

Investigation has reflected that Montos has frequently been accompanied in flight by Lila May Nail, who is charged in a federal warrant obtained at Chicago, on May 14, 1953, with harboring Montos, a federal fugitive.

Montos has channeled his recent activities between the Great Lakes region and the Florida Keys, using Chicago as a base of operations. He has used high-powered late model cars to traverse this area, and may have a young boxer dog with him.

These fugitives may be armed and should be considered dangerous.

Radio Aids in Forest Fire Fighting

The fire season this fall promises to be less nerve wracking for the woodlands people at Coosa River Newsprint Company. Their newly installed two-way radio system means better control in the prevention and fighting of forest fires.

Kahatchee Mountain, site of the main station, is the control center for this fire fighting network. Kahatchee is 1300 feet above sea level, and the transmitter is located atop a 100-foot lookout tower on its crest. It is connected by remote control with the woodlands office, nine miles away, at Coosa Pines. Miss Joyce Strickland, operator at the office, maintains direct contact with a field force of 17 area and conservation foresters.

The radio network has a maximum operating range of 75 miles in all directions from Kahatchee. Thus, it provides immediate contact with field representatives in the event of fire or other emergencies throughout the 12-county area from which the mill draws most of its pulpwood.

Here is how the system operates in case of a forest fire: The woodlands office is notified by a telephone from a private individual or by the Alabama Forestry Service through its radio

Organization Meeting Planned for Montevallo Jr. Chamber of Commerce

Something new is coming to Montevallo tonight with all its vigor, enthusiasm to contribute to the civic growth of our city. It offers opportunities of leadership and civic training not available elsewhere.

This something new is variously referred to as young men paying their civic rent, Jaycees, and young men of action. Our newcomer is all this. It is a local Junior Chamber of Commerce, an affiliate of the greatest organization of its kind in the world.

Upon receipt of its charter in the near future, the local Jaycee club will become affiliated with the Alabama Junior Chamber of Commerce, comprised of 58 local clubs with a total membership in excess of 3,400; the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce comprised of more than 2,500 clubs with a total membership in excess of 175,000, and the Jaycee International organization with local clubs in more than 30 foreign countries. The Jaycee movement began in St. Louis and has attained its present stature in the short time of 34 years.

Bill Alexander, who was elected temporary chairman of the prospective Jaycee group at a preliminary meeting last week, says that the organizational meeting will be held tonight at which time State Junior Chamber of Commerce officials will be present to more fully explain this fine organization, its objectives and its functions.

Much interest and enthusiasm was exhibited at the meeting last week, and it is expected that the meeting tonight will be the kickoff for one of the most effective and enthusiastic service clubs in the city.

Many potential Jaycees have been contacted during the last week and a large turnout is expected. If you are a young man between the ages of 21 and 35, inclusive, who is interested in the opportunities and fellowship offered by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, you are invited and encouraged to attend the meeting tonight at 7:30 at the City Hall. Even if you are not of Jaycee age, Chairman Alexander invites you to come out and see first hand what makes this great organization "click."

The Montevallo club is being sponsored by the Sylacauga Junior Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Robert A. Wickersham is chairman of their extension committee.

NLRB Schedules Second Vote For Westinghouse Employees

The National Labor Relations Board will conduct a run-off election at the Westinghouse Electric Corporation's Montevallo plant Tuesday, August 10, in a second attempt to decide which of two unions will represent the plant's 35 hourly employees in collective bargaining.

The first election, which was held July 27, resulted in a virtual stalemate when neither the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL, nor the International Union of Electrical Radio and Machine Workers, CIO, was able to capture a majority of the votes.

The new election comes as Westinghouse continues national contract negotiations in Pittsburgh, and shortly after a number of large IUE-CIO locals authorized the national officers to call a strike to enforce the union's demands. The IUE-CIO local at East Pittsburgh held the strike

County To Take Part in Festival

Shelby County will be a major participant this year in the sixth annual Bessemer Corn and Livestock Festival to be presented September 16-18. Adults, 4-H club boys and girls, and F F A members from this county will show cattle in the dairy show, which is the highlight of the festival.

Five other counties will participate. They are Blount, Chilton, Jefferson, St. Clair and Walker. "Indications are that this will be both the biggest and best festival yet," said chairman John V. Self in announcing the three-day schedule of events.

The festival will open with a spectacular parade at 5 p.m. on September 16. Gala floats, the "best high school bands in Middle Alabama," farm equipment, and approximately 85 lovely girls competing for the title of Queen Bess VI will make up the parade. "We are proud, indeed, of the fact that our festival is recognized throughout the state as one of Alabama's outstanding agricultural events," said Mr. Self. "We extend a most cordial invitation to all the citizens of Shelby County to join us in our annual celebration."

County Fair Planned At Columbiana Sept. 6

"Come to the Fair" will be the cry in Columbiana September 6. The Shelby County Fair will continue through September 11. It is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Columbiana. A midway show has been booked.

The Shelby County schools will open September 7, Supt. Woodrow Elliott announced. A few vacancies in teacher personnel are yet to be filled, he said.

National attention has come to the recreation program now in progress in Columbiana. Roy Mann, Hugh Smith and Miss Carey Luttrell, who are in charge of activities, will be recognized with an article in the October issue of The Town Journal.

Strand Theatre Presents "The Robe" As First Cinemascope Production

Beginning next Sunday, August 8, local moviegoers will get their first view of Cinemascope, the new picture process which has caused a revolution in Hollywood studios, even greater than that created 27 years ago when motion pictures found their voice. The event is to take place at the Strand Theatre, Montevallo, when Twentieth Century Fox's Cinemascope production of "The Robe" in technicolor makes its local debut Sunday.

Cinemascope, with its revolutionary new anamorphic lenses, achieves the illusion of depth without use of glasses. Its life-like panoramic scope, plus stereophonic sound effect provided by strategically placed speakers permitting sound to originate from the part of the screen where the action takes place, combine to make the audience experience a complete engulfment and participation in the action.

In order to bring about this film presentation as up-to-date as the big city theatres, it was first necessary to install a new large screen, followed by a complete new sound system which is deluxe 4-track hi-fidelity sound called stereophonic sound and finally, the installation of new anamorphic lenses which enables the local patrons to witness the very finest in movie production. Montevallo is one of the few small town theatres that has installed complete equipment, not only for cinemascope but the ultimate in sound effects as well.

Following a three-day run of "The Robe," other cinemascope pictures such as "Hell and High Water," "How to Marry a Millionaire," "King of the Kings," "Beneath the Twelve Mile Reef," "River of No Return," "Three Coins in the Fountain," in addition to the very finest and latest in movie productions, will be presented for the entertainment of the patrons of the Strand.

Admission to the first cinemascope picture, "The Robe," which ranks as the entertainment event of the year, will be 60 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. However, in most instances, prices for many cinemascope pictures will be lowered to 52 cents for adults and 20 cents for children in keeping with the theatre's policy of bringing the best in entertainment at the very minimum of prices.

authorization meetings on company time — a violation of the union contract — and the 5500 persons who left their jobs to attend were given disciplinary furloughs for the rest of their respective shifts.

It was reported that these 5500 lost an estimated $82,500 in wages as a result of their attending the meetings on company time.

Results of the first election at the Westinghouse Montevallo plant showed that 17 employees preferred the IBEW while 16 voted to affiliate with the IUE-CIO. One employee voted for neither union and one person failed to cast a ballot.

To win a collective bargaining election a union must get a majority of the votes cast. In the case of the election at the Montevallo plant at least 18 votes constitutes a majority.

The new election will be held in the welding laboratory at the plant. Voting will be between the hours of 6:30 to 7:30 a.m., and 2:30 to 3:15 p.m.

Labor Vote of Westinghouse Employees Is Vital Concern to Montevallo, Calera

Whether or not Westinghouse will operate peacefully and successfully, or, in fact, whether it will operate at all in the Montevallo-Calera plant, depends upon the vote of 35 employees of the company when they cast their ballots in the choice of labor union affiliation next Tuesday.

The question is as simple and important as that, in spite of all the pulling and hauling, argument and counter-argument that has been done on the subject.

This further simple truth should be stated: If the employees of Westinghouse will set up a basis of labor negotiations in which they, as a unit, will be able to bargain with local management of the plant as a unit, the deal will work out to the successful and satisfactory operation of the plant. If they go into a union that will control them and the operation of the plant by leadership and dictation from some other place, then they will have destroyed their own peaceful and profitable employment and will have canceled out every hope this community has for economic benefit from operation of Westinghouse here.

The people of this area, Montevallo and Calera, are deeply concerned about the portents of the choice which will be made by 35 employees of Westinghouse. The employees themselves are vitally concerned. We hope they realize this sufficiently to cause them to seek diligently for the right course of action. They can determine the right course if they will face some undeniable facts and not be swayed by designing, mercenary organizers who want to use them as pawns.

The IUE-CIO and IBEW-AFL both are seeking to get employees of Westinghouse to vote for these unions to set up collective bargaining contracts with the company.

Just what will be the difference between IUE and IBEW affiliation? The answer to that question should be established clearly and truly in the minds of those who will decide the question.

Here is a bit of history of Westinghouse and its dealings with the two unions that should be considered in finding the correct answer to the question of what is the difference between the two unions:

The overall work stoppage record of IBEW with 43 bargaining units in Westinghouse operations for 1953 was one work stoppage at the Elmira, N. Y., plant.

For IUE with 30 bargaining units in Westinghouse operations for 1953, there were 72 work stoppages at plants at Bloomfield, N. J., Buffalo, N. Y. (parent plant of Montevallo), Cleveland, Ohio, East Pittsburgh, Pa., Fairmont, W. Va., Lima, Ohio, Mansfield, Ohio and Sharon, Pa.

In our opinion, these figures do not very well recommend IUE in comparison to IBEW where men are interested in having a job with steady and uninterrupted employment.

What about job security? The IUE has a record of frequent strikes, pulling employees off the jobs whenever CIO attempts some new maneuver in national politics or "big labor" strategy. The other union, IBEW, has a cleaner record of gaining desired benefits for its members without costly strikes.

Would Montevallo employees be willing to walk off the job, lose thousands of dollars in wages, just because some CIO negotiator in Pittsburgh was demanding the right to bring outsiders into the new plant and take jobs away from home people? We do not think so.

Concerning a news article we published July 22, in which was pointed out some of the difficulties Westinghouse has had with IUE-CIO operations, Mr. McGinnis, organizer for IUE, charged us with being unfair by our failure to relate what had happened under IBEW operations at the Vicksburg, Miss., Westinghouse plant.

Mr. McGinnis said: "If you had checked the records you would have found that six weeks ago, IBEW called a strike at Vicksburg—the employees walked out—the plant was shut down—and is still shut down."

This was not a true statement by Mr. McGinnis to us. He may have used that same misrepresentation in his efforts to sway employees here to vote for IUE and against IBEW.

We have checked the records of the Vicksburg case referred to by Mr. McGinnis and find the facts as follows:

On July 7, a Wednesday, at 2 p.m., approximately 175 out of 350 employees walked off the job because, they said, it was too hot to work. The walk-out was illegal and Westinghouse gave each of the 175 workers a disciplinary furlough of one day, covering Thursday, July 8. On Friday, July 9, the same workers walked off the job again to attend a meeting—another illegal walkout.

IBEW officers said they recognized the difficulty as far as the heat was concerned, but that the walk-out was illegal and that the people should go back to work and they would settle the grievance. Thereupon, IBEW negotiated the following agreement with Westinghouse:

1. Despite the illegal walk-out Friday, no additional disciplinary furlough would be issued.

2. The company agreed that the ventilating conditions could be improved, and further agreed to install immediately 15 large Mobilair fans; accepted a recommendation that $31,000 worth of roof ventilating fans be purchased and installed; and that ducts from the heat treating ovens, at a cost to the company of $7,000 be installed.

Thus, the local IBEW leaders stopped the walk-out, and effected a satisfactory settlement of their peoples' grievance.

This instance at Vicksburg emphasizes our contention that employees should have a union affiliation that will permit them and the company to deal with each other and settle differences locally and free from control of labor czars elsewhere.

Now let's compare the Vicksburg story with what happened at Bowling Green, Kentucky, where the IUE-CIO sought to use Bowling Green workers as guinea pigs for the personal glory of the CIO leaders to attain something that had nothing to do with the actual relationship of the workers and employers. A long, senseless series of illegal slowdowns and strikes ensued, and the end result was that Westinghouse closed the plant and moved out of Bowling Green.

The IUE-CIO screamed to all who would listen, appealed to Congressmen, ministers, and others, in an attempt to salvage the ship they had wrecked. Courts and neutral state agencies flatly told the union it was wrong. The employees learned—but too late—the danger of following the wrong leaders and listening to false promises.

That same thing can happen at Montevallo if a union can succeed in putting the employees under the power and control of labor officials in far-away places, and

"Grandma" Gets "Limbered Up"

We have been waiting for the day when Grover Hall of The Montgomery Advertiser would get his editorial guns set on the Phenix City political-gambling-murder scandals. He cut loose the first salvo Wednesday, as follows:

"NO CONTRIBUTIONS" AMOUNTING TO $22,600

On May 22, Lee (Red) Porter of Gadsden, a candidate for attorney general against Albert Patterson and MacDonald Gallion, appeared to comply with the law. He filed an affidavit upon his honor with the Secretary of State, giving his campaign expenditures. Porter swore he received contributions of $5,700 and spent $4,819.

On June 15, after his defeat by Patterson, Porter again complied with the law and filed an affidavit that in the runoff he received "no contributions," and spent only $1,081.

Yesterday, a Phenix City gambler took flight before a Jefferson County grand jury and testified that he himself gave Porter the sum of $22,600 with which to defeat Patterson.

The gambler, Godwin Davis, Sr., is one of several gamblers being summoned before the grand jury. Davis had no intention of "singing," but faced with a contempt citation, he decided to protect his own hide.

Davis told the grand jury that he gave Porter $5,000 on two occasions, $3,000 another time in the Redmont Hotel, and $4,600 on still another.

It is droll to record that at the time Porter was receiving these Sodom bankrolls into his moist mitts, he was accusing Albert Patterson of being the candidate of the Phenix City gamblers.

It is also droll to note that as news of this $22,600 satchel hit the news wires, we were reading who actually don't want a Westinghouse plant operated here in the first place.

Our people in this area surely have had enough of the effects of unreasonable, long-distance labor control. That very thing is what closed down our coal mines. If our miners had been free to bargain with the operators on the basis of purely local physical and natural conditions, they would not have quit their jobs nor would the operators have been forced to close down the mines.

If this kind of long-distance labor control is accepted by workers at Westinghouse, the company could be forced to "call off the dogs" and leave. Don't let anybody fool you by saying such a thing is impossible. Westinghouse has too much to do and too many places to do it to be bothered with a labor situation here that would waste their time in useless and irrelevant labor squabbles.

Now, there you have it, straight from the shoulder as we see it. We have the Westinghouse plant and are proud of it. We need it to help in the economic improvement of this area. We can keep it and operate it with good jobs for many of our people if the employees will keep their freedom, do their work satisfactorily, and refuse to listen to seductive and destructive influences that seek to control them from afar-off.

that a Lawrence County grand jury had summoned Porter to get some details on his post-election complaint that he was a victim of ballot box fraud.

We imagine that Porter will be given a full and official opportunity to explain the $22,600 suds bucket take from Phenix City. If he can't explain it, he is guilty of falsifying his sworn statement of campaign expenses to the secretary of state.

Alabama may soon be seeing how Phenix City dice, narcotics, and bawdy houses have influenced state politics. For example, Patterson came up to the run-off with an all but invincible lead of 80,000 over Porter. But with an indorsement from James E. Folsom, support from Folsom's leaders, ballot theft, and Phenix City gold, Porter came very close to winning the office of attorney general.

No doubt Alabama will be indignant over these revelations of the Phenix City gambler.

But there may be much more to come. Davis may have further disclosures to make concerning contributions of Phenix City gold to candidates in other races. Who did Phenix City gamblers support in the race for governor? What contributions were made in past elections?

Then Hoyt Shepherd, the leading Phenix City gangster, and others are to go before the Jefferson grand jury. If they talk, what will be their tale? So far, Davis has told only of the money he himself passed.

However, to be realistic, it must be said that public opinion is likely to make a goat of Lee Porter. The Advertiser did what it could to oppose Porter because of his flabby stand on the issues, but he is entitled to his embittered reflections that in taking Phenix City help, he was only doing what the public had already approved.

Folsom was the favored candidate of the Phenix City gang. Arch Ferrell, the acknowledged political boss of Phenix, was Folsom's campaign manager in Russell County. Ferrell and 305,000 Alabamians gave Folsom a thunderous victory in one primary.

And at last, we have the grotesque spectacle of the Democratic committee voiding the election as solicitor of Folsom's campaign manager, Ferrell, in the same session it gave Todd the office of commissioner of agriculture as a "personal favor" to Folsom!

Westinghouse

A review of current contract negotiations between Westinghouse and the various unions with which it deals shows that the United Electrical Workers (independent) have signed a new contract covering the 15,000 Westinghouse employees it represents. At least two IBEW-AFL locals also have signed new contracts. These are located at the Westinghouse plants in Baltimore, Md., and Bellfontaine, O., where the IBEW locals negotiate their own contracts with local management as would be the case should IBEW win bargaining rights at Montevallo.

Both the independent electrical workers union and the IBEW-AFL locals have agreed on a wage increase ranging from 3½ to 7 cents an hour and increased pension benefits. The wage offer follows the national pattern set by the steel industry.

Montevallo employees of Westinghouse and some 20,000 other Westinghouse employees not now represented by unions already have received the pay boost effective July 1, as well as the pension increase effective November 1.

In sharp contrast, the IUE-CIO is busy taking strike votes at its locals, refusing to accept the "national pattern" offer. To bring "pressure" on the company, the IUE has been conducting "slowdowns" at the new Westinghouse refrigerator plant in Columbus, Ohio. At the company's television plant at Metuchen, N. J., the IUE for a time refused to permit its members to work any overtime in an effort to hurt the company business in the very season when the firm was trying to get as many TV sets as possible into hands of its dealers for the "new line" selling season.

At East Pittsburgh, Pa., in addition to the demonstration mass walkouts in violation of the contract, IUE-CIO tactics also called for more walkouts in the welding rod department—the identical product being made at Montevallo.

Should the IUE-CIO make good its threats and call the strike, observers point out that any Montevallo local of IUE (should IUE win the election here) would be striking for a wage increase it already has received.

Can't Bluff a Boy, Even With a Pole Cat

When something unusual and adventurous presents itself as an opportunity to a teen-age boy, it arouses in him a challenge that is hard to overcome. Even the advice and pleading of parents sometimes fails to deter him from taking a try at it.

This observation is prompted by an occasion when C. D. Galloway recently came across a family of baby skunks (pole cats) and his first impulse was to catch them and tame them for pets.

Remonstrance by his parents and enumeration of all the hazards involved in the precarious undertaking did not deter C. D. from his wish to catch the kittens. Even the presence of their belligerent mother, apparently in readiness to go to war, did not phase C. D.

"You have nothing to put them in," said Mr. Galloway, whereupon C. D. said he could easily use his shirt and sister's dress to make a sack to put them in.

"If I miss these kittens, daddy, I will miss the opportunity of a lifetime," said C.D., "and I will never have this chance again. I bet you never had such a chance, did you daddy?" That was the clincher in the argument.

With no regrets that he never had such a chance, Mr. Galloway had to give in, realizing that he had lost the argument good and proper. While it was not reported, we guess Mrs. Galloway was about a quarter of a mile down the road by this time.

Anyway, C. D. got the kittens, even if he did lose his shirt. He took them to Mr. Bailey's laboratory where they were "deodorized," and they are now well on the way to being domesticated.

Funeral Held for Mrs. Greer, Native of Calera

Mrs. Mamie Davidson Greer, 70, died Monday at her home in Spartanburg, S. C. Mrs. Greer was one of the first woman telegraph operators in Alabama and one of the first students at Alabama College.

She and her husband, the late Palmer A. Greer, were associated with the Southern Railway at Fair Forest, S. C., at the time of his death, 20 years ago. Mrs. Greer continued her career with the railroad after her husband's death until poor health forced her retirement.

A native of Calera, her girlhood was spent at Montevallo where she became one of the first students to enroll at Alabama College. Nearly 50 years ago she went to Birmingham as a telegraph operator for Western Union. There she met and married Mr. Greer, a fellow operator.

Surviving are three sons, Chas., Dudley and Palmer Greer, Jr., all of Spartanburg; a daughter, Mrs. Graham Query, also of Spartanburg. Funeral services and burial were at Wellford, S. C.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

A conference committee is attempting to iron out the differences in the House and Senate versions of the atomic energy revision bills approved last week by both bodies.

This measure contains the first revisions to the atomic energy act since it became a law in 1946. The bill has three broad objectives: (1) To permit the negotiation of bilateral agreements for cooperation with foreign nations in the area of peacetime use of atomic energy; (2) to encourage the participation of private enterprise in development of peacetime atomic power; and (3) to authorize the passing of limited information on atomic weapons to allies in the common defense against communist aggression.

The major differences between the House and Senate bills involve provisions to permit the development of atomic-electric power by private industry. The House approved the plan for private development, but the Senate placed limitations on the bill's provisions for non-government participation in the atomic energy program.

Foreign Aid Voted

In the foreign aid bill the House approved $2.9 billion in new cash for the program. This is about $400 million less than the limit set on new funds for foreign aid by the authorization bill that the House approved earlier. Appropriations can be less but not more than the amount authorized.

Although a large amount of the funds appropriated is to be used for direct military assistance in the form of aircraft, tanks, and other weapons, a substantial part is still earmarked for economic aid.

At this date, the Senate has not completed action on either the authorization or appropriation bill for foreign aid. The House took unusual action by passing the actual appropriation measure before the Senate had even finished the authorization bill.

Tax Laws Revised

Last week the House and Senate approved and sent to the President the compromise of the general tax revision bill. It provides an estimated $1.3 billion in tax relief for individuals and businesses. It is the first general revision of the internal revenue code since before the turn of the century.

Bobby Wood Visits

Bobby Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest K. Wood of Tuscaloosa, stopped by for a visit with me last week when he was in Washington as a delegate to the American Legion sponsored Boys' Nation. Bobby was elected Alabama's Governor at this year's Boys' State in Montgomery and, as a result, received the trip to Washington.

Still another honor was captured by Bobby at Boys' Nation. Despite stiff competition, he was elected to serve as President Protem of the Senate—one of only three officials elected by the 94 delegates.

During his Washington visit, Bobby met President Eisenhower, FBI director J. Edgar Hoover and other top government officials.

Miss Mable Walton was hostess to Yellow Leaf Club Wednesday, July 28. Mrs. John McRae assisted by Mrs. Nelson Archer, of the Westover Club, gave a most interesting demonstration on weaving chair seats of grass and fiber.

Miss Linda McClinton was selected as our representative to the 4-H camp in August.

Our annual picnic was planned for Saturday afternoon, August 7, at Lakeview. A large crowd is expected for this occasion and it is looked forward to by young and old.

Bazaar items were on display and plans were made for a spend the day party at Mrs. F. R. Wall's home in September. This is to be a workshop, and everyone is requested to work on items for the bazaar to be held in November.

Ten members and three visitors were recorded at this meeting, enjoying hospitality of Miss Walton.

He attended the weekly luncheon of the Alabama Congressional delegation.

When school resumes this fall, Bobby will take over his duties as president of the student body at Tuscaloosa High School.

Bobby Wood's friends in Tuscaloosa and the Sixth District have every reason to be proud of his outstanding record.

Dargin Dairyman Has Success With Rescue

Lester Stansell, who operates an efficient dairy farm near Dargin, gives these facts and figures on his experience with volunteer Chapel Hill rescue grass.

"The 5-acre seed patch of rescue grass from which I harvested seed for sale last year came up early last fall to a very thick stand. Since the field was not fenced, I did not fertilize for winter grazing, but applied 600 pounds per acre of 6-8-8 fertilizer in February and 200 pounds of ammonium nitrate in March. When the first seed was in the dough I cut 14 two ton to two and one-half ton truck loads of silage (about 30 tons of green weight). Later I combined 1500 pounds of seed from the 5 acres and baled 225 fifty-pound bales of good hay."

There is another cutting of rescue grass and Johnson grass hay on the patch now. In addition, a fall fertilizer application would give early and ample fall grazing.

Planting this area was just a small part of Mr. Stansell's overall plan for his farm as developed when he made an agreement with the North Central S C S district. He did this immediately upon purchasing the farm.

Phone Company Sets Safety Record

Personal injuries suffered on the job are few and far between among the Birmingham district employees of Southern Bell Telephone Company, according to the utility's semi-annual accident review issued this month. The Birmingham district includes Jefferson, Shelby and Bibb counties.

Among the 1644 employees whose job is to operate the telephone business in the 12 other exchanges in the district, 26 injuries were reported during the first six months of 1954.

Of the injuries, only four were serious enough to cause the hurt employee to miss time from his work.

The injury rate for the Birmingham district was about average for the company's Alabama division.

During the six months covered by the accident review, 85 personal injuries were reported as having been incurred among the 6300 telephone workers in the state. Of the total accidents, only six caused employees to take time off the job.

The safety performances, considered outstanding, is attributed to the emphasis placed on safety training by telephone company officials.

PFC. B. S. POWELL IS SERVING IN GERMANY

Furth, Germany — Pfc. B. S. Powell, 26, whose wife, Ruby, lives at Calera, is currently undergoing intensive field maneuvers with the Army in Germany.

He is a truck driver in Co. A of the 9th Infantry Division's 39th Regiment, which is training as part of the Seventh Army's defense force for western Europe.

Powell entered the Army in November, 1952 and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C., before arriving overseas in April of last year. His mother, Mrs. Estella Powell, lives on Rt. 1, Siluria.

On The Farms In Shelby County

Preston Bristow, Shelby dairyman, who is already a cooperator of the soil conservation district, is planning to intensify production on his pastures thru irrigation. He expects to build about four ponds in key places to hold water for this use.

Lester Stansell and W. C. Martin, Montevallo, and J. O. Brady, Calera, got S C S workers to help them select fields and take samples of soil to be sent to the state laboratory for testing. Mr. Stansell plans 6 acres of alfalfa and about 4 acres of Bahagrass seed patch. Brady and Martin will use fescue and ladino, plus the fertilizers recommended by the soil laboratory.

"Doug" Kent, Siluria, said he thought silage he made on a volunteer ball clover and oats field was the best quality he has seen. Doug and his father, R. W. Kent, have more silage than silo room, despite the drought. They use irrigation, plus a balanced fertilizer each application.

"We have found it pays to put down fertilizer each day over only that area we can wet during the day," Doug says.

Clearing of bottom pastures is order of the day on many county farms. Jos. Dickert of Chelsea has contracted with his pulpwood cutters to cut all other growth, and he will stump the fields. Maurice Poe is clearing with power saw in the Kingdom. Jim Mabry and others are clearing with bulldozers.

All the men mentioned above are carrying out district cooperator agreements.

FFA Boys Attend Forestry Camp

Representing every county in the state, 103 farm boys are spending a week studying such topics as tree identification, tree planting, forest fire prevention, harvesting, utilizing and marketing forest products, timber management and other topics related to woodland management.

When not busy with their studies, the FFA'ers enjoy such daily activities as swimming, athletic events and other supervised recreation. In addition, they have morning and evening vesper services and flag raising ceremonies.

Foresters from the leading pulpwood companies and from the Division of Forestry serve as instructors for the camp. Also several teachers of vocational agriculture are present.

Calera Civitans Expect 1,000 at Labor Barbecue

A thousand tickets will be sold for Calera's annual Civitan Club Scholarship Barbecue, general chairman, Bill Minor, announced today. All local Civitan members have been given tickets with instructions, Minor said, "to reach the 1000 goal for 1954."

"We came close to this goal in 1953," he said, "so if every member gets on the ball, our goal this year will be reached easily."

Officers and members have promised to make the 1954 barbecue the best put on by the local club, Minor stated. To do this, it is necessary for every member to put a little "umph" into their efforts, as each of the past Labor Day celebrations have been a success.

Chairman Minor, Z. S. Cowart, Sr., and George Holcombe, committeemen, point out that all the committees have a green light to go ahead with all plans for this big annual event. With all stops pulled, with nothing being held back, we must and will reach our goal of 1000 in attendance for 1954, they declared.

Remember the date, Labor Day, Calera High School campus, and plan to attend.

Shelby Farm Bureau To Have Barbecue

The annual meeting and barbecue of the Shelby County Farm Bureau has been set for Wednesday, August 18, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Highlights of the program will include devotional, recognition of charter members, information on insurance, business, women in Farm Bureau, Joe Mooney, vice president of state 4-H Council, report of nominating committee and election of officers, group singing, talk by the Hon. George Wallace, judge of the third judicial circuit, and the Maid of Cotton contest.

A barbecue plate will be served members and their families at the noon hour. All members and their immediate families will receive tickets to the barbecue.

A meeting and barbecue will be held for colored members later in August.

It is reported that as a result of the two fires, most of the clothing and other effects of the Harrison family were either destroyed or seriously damaged.

The house also was badly damaged. It belongs to Tom McGaughy.

Montevallo Methodist Church

Rev. and Mrs. O. Kyle Lamb have returned from Lake Junaluska, N. C., where they have been in attendance on the school for pastors for the southeastern jurisdiction of the Methodist Church. Rev. Mr. Lamb will fill his pulpit at both services Sunday at Montevallo Methodist Church. Subject of the morning sermon will be "Keeping on the Main Line," and for the evening service, "What Was the Difference?"

Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock. Fellowship groups will meet at 6:30.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock circle one of the SCS will meet at the church with Mrs. M. Thornton and Mrs. W. L. Lawler as joint hostesses.

The senior choir will hold rehearsal at 7:30 Wednesday. The junior choir will rehearse at 7 p.m. Thursday.

Soil Conservation Districts Play Important Part in State's Economy

(By F. E. Williams, Supervisor)

Soil conservation districts are an important part of our state government. They do a good job conserving natural resources, especially soil and water.

The districts are a subdivision of our state government. They were formed by vote of farmers within the districts. After they are voted in, they become units of government similar to counties and cities.

The districts are governed by a board of supervisors of local land-owning citizens. They draw no pay. Local people, through the board of supervisors, formulate their own soil conservation program. The districts are not in any way responsible to the federal or county governments. It is the aim of the supervisors to cooperate with all branches of government in building a better conservation program.

Districts normally apply to the U. S. Department of Agriculture for the facilities of the soil conservation service which furnishes technical help to the district on the basis of an agreement with the board of supervisors.

In addition to technical help, districts get educational and other assistance from local, state, federal and private sources. The services of the district are free to farmers for the asking. All the farmer has to do is to make application.

Soil conservation districts are popular because they help farmers to make a profit. There are

F. E. WILLIAMS
Supervisor North Central Soil Conservation District

2,500 districts in the United States, 12 in Alabama.

In our own north central district we have 6,531 farmers who are cooperators. More are applying for assistance every day.

We are making great progress but we need to move faster. The district needs the support of every individual in it. It merits your support.

The local district has as its program the conservation of our soil and water. All the people in the country, towns and cities will benefit from this program.

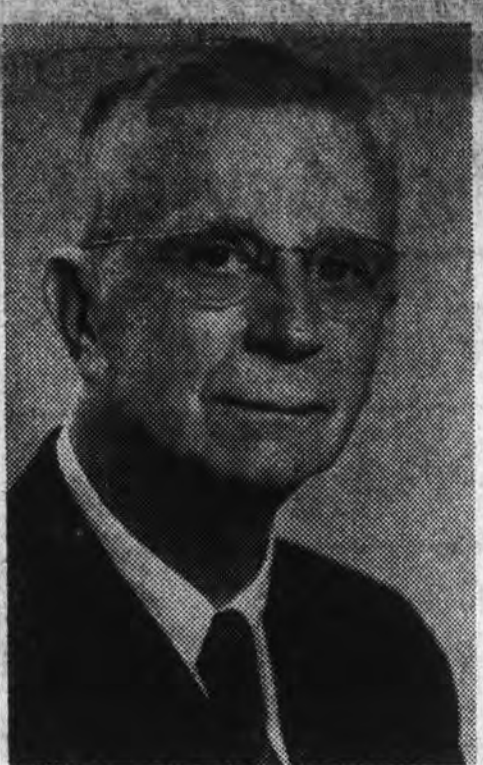

John Davis To Speak At Montevallo Church

John Arkie Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Davis, former residents of Montevallo, is scheduled to preach at the Montevallo Church of Christ next Sunday at eleven a.m.

John was born here, went to high school here, and worked at The Times printing shop while he went to school. He is now married, and lives at New Boston, Texas, where he is minister of the Church of Christ.

We hope the friends of the Davis family will turn out and fill the church next Sunday to hear John preach.

We call him John Arkie, because he is a grandson of the late Arkie Mahan who was, during his very active life, one of the most beloved citizens of Chilton County. We don't know exactly if the "Arkie" is a part of John's name, but he should be glad to own it if it is.

Rose Palmatier, of Mobile, and Ruth Scott Parker, convention chairman of local work. Rebecca Sandlin White of Alexander City, and Alma Hall of Birmingham, state chairman and convention chairman of piano, have arranged several musical interludes.

Westinghouse Workers Choose AFL Union

An earlier election two weeks ago resulted in a deadlock when 17 voted for the AFL union, 16 for the CIO union, one voted for no union, and one did not vote.

Howard Durand, international representative for the IBEW, served as organizer with the workers.

Recollections of Montevallo in 1895

How many present-day residents of Montevallo were living here in the year 1895?

T. L. (Leslie) Williams of New Smyrna Beach, Fla., could locate only about half a dozen while here on a visit the past week-end.

Mr. Williams is a retired railroad man now living in Florida. He had been to Detroit to see a son and decided to take a look at his native town of Montevallo on his way back home. He put up at the St. George Hotel last Friday and stayed here until Monday morning.

As we sat on the porch at the St. George, he said, "There's my old home when I was a boy," pointing across Main Street to the George Elliott residence. He continued, "There's where my father, Col. Thomas J. Williams, lived. He owned a tract of land that extended all the way back to Shoal Creek. We left Montevallo in 1895. I came back once since that, about 1902, for a visit of a short while."

There were 4 boys and 2 girls in the family of Col. Williams. Leslie was the youngest son. His father, who was a Colonel in the Confederate Army, was in the cotton brokerage business here.

Mr. Williams said there are a very few buildings here which he remembered in 1895. Among them he named the F. W. Rogan residence which was then the home of Capt. Henry Clay Reynolds; the Kroell home; and the present Elliott home where he was born.

The Kroell livery stable where the Ford place is now, he said, was one of the best known places in this part of the state, as it provided horse and carriage travel to places far and near.

"See that street there coming up by the Ford place. That was the only road into Montevallo from the east. It crossed Shoal Creek at a ford right down there a little ways. Just below that ford was our old swimming hole. We called it John Dock. There was a bridge above the dam that was near the grist mill. At the foot of Main Street there was a foot bridge where the new bridge is now."

"I have seen all I could of the people who lived here in 1895," he said, "and I enjoyed talking over old times with them. I had rather you would not mention the names of any of them, because it might give away the ages of some of them. They might not like that, especially the ladies."

AEA Leadership School To Be In Montevallo

Featuring group discussions and addresses by professional and lay leaders, the annual leadership school of the Alabama Education Association meets in Montevallo on the afternoon of August 13 for a week-end conference on school problems. Association president Laura Gaines Sprott, Troy, explains that the sessions will be concerned with three major topics: improved professional leadership, desirable school legislation, and lay participation in school improvement.

Included among the speakers are Dr. Karl Berns, of the National Education Association; Dr. Willard E. Goslin, of Peabody College; Hon. Karl Harrison of Columbiana; Attorney W. J. Williamson, Greenville; State Superintendent W. J. Terry; Superintendent-nominate A. R. Meadows; Raymond Fowler, Cecil Simpson and W. T. McKee; Dr. E. B. Norton, Florence; and Miss Kay Stevenson, Jacksonville.

Alternating with addresses are discussion periods during which ten groups, aided by a leader and recorder, will talk informally about problems developed by the speakers.

Special administrative clinics have been provided for the officers of local and district associations of teachers, and planning meetings for five of the AEA standing committees have been scheduled. These are the committees on legislation, on tenure, on retirement and federal relations, AEA-PTA joint committee, and on the NEA building fund. At the final session the important work of the Future Teachers of America here in Alabama will be discussed.

Throughout the conference, plans have been made for recreation and fun. These include a reception on Friday night by the college unit of the AEA and the Shelby County Teachers Association, swimming, a watermelon cutting, and a hill-billy square dance on Saturday night.

On Sunday morning a special religious service will be held at which Mrs. Gordon Ussery, of Roanoke, will be the speaker.

Calera Coaches Attend Clinic

Four athletes and coaches of Calera High School left Wednesday for the University of Kentucky at Lexington to attend a four-day coaching clinic.

While at the University, they will hear lectures by Coach Rupp on the Kentucky system of basketball. The football lectures will be handled by Coach Blanton Collier, new head coach of Kentucky. Rupp and Collier will be assisted by staff members.

Saturday night they will witness the Kentucky all-star basketball game and the all-star football game.

Calera players attending the school are Donnie Jacks, Joe Don Woods, Hugh Tomlin, George Holcombe; coaches E. M. Smith, Dan Carroll. Mrs. E. M. Smith and Mrs. Dan Carroll round out the party.

Railroads Seek To Discontinue Service PTA Leaders Meet At Indian Springs

There appears to be a widespread effort on the part of railroads in Alabama to discontinue non-profitable passenger service.

The Alabama Public Service Commission has recently granted the Central of Georgia Railway permission to discontinue caretaker ticket seller service at Vandiver. In another order the APSC authorized the Atlantic Coast Line to discontinue Chelsea as a prepay non-agency station for receipt and delivery of less carload freight.

The Commission also told the ACL it could dismantle and remove the station building at Chelsea, continuing that point only as a prepay non-agency station for receipt and delivery of carload freight.

We understand the Southern Railway will soon go before the Public Service Commission with a request to be permitted to discontinue passenger trains 19 and 20 between Birmingham and Mobile. This would discontinue the last remaining railway passenger service through Wilton and Aldrich.

Tommy Anderson and Billy Rutherford have been fishing this week from the bank of the creek in Mrs. Brewer Carpenter's back yard. They doubtless have worried the fish a great deal—and Mrs. Carpenter too. They finally did catch three punkinseed apiece on Wednesday morning—"all by ourselves," said Tommy, "except grandmother did help me bait my hook." Maybe, however, Mrs. Carpenter was not worried too much. We know some grandmothers who like for the kids to go fishing so they can have an excuse to go too.

It is not too early to be planning for both early pigs and early grazing next spring.

"Visit your school, stay long enough to find out what is happening. Talk with the principal, teachers and other school officials. Be willing to give enough time to finding out what the schools are doing and the reasons why they teach as they do today. Then, if you are not satisfied, complain to the proper authorities," said Supt. W. W. Elliott as he spoke to the Shelby County PTA leaders who met at the Indian Springs School August 5.

Dr. L. E. Armstrong, director of the Indian Springs School for boys, welcomed the large group of parents and teachers to the school. The meeting was held in the large dining room overlooking the lake.

Mrs. T. B. Hill, Jr., Montgomery, gave some helpful suggestions to the committees on program planning. Mrs. Harry Nelson, Montgomery, worked with the local officers. The county chairman of different committees held conferences with local committee chairmen on publications, magazine, record books, by-laws and procedures, civil defense, legislation, membership, parent education, publicity, and citizenship.

At noon a picnic lunch was enjoyed on the grounds near the lake. The hospitality committee, with Mrs. J. C. Lacey serving as chairman, arranged for the picnic.

In the closing speech of the afternoon, Mrs. Nelson said:

"Christ said, go forth thou good and faithful servant. He did not say successful servant. If we want to be successful in our parent-teacher associations, we must be faithful and be willing to work. I challenge you as PTA members to go forth and work faithfully for better schools for our children."

The following local PTA groups were represented: Calera 9, Siluria 9, Vincent 8, Columbiana 5, New Hope 5, Chelsea 4, Wilsonville 3, Montevallo 3, Camp Branch 1, Helena 1, Pelham 1.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

The Legal Debt Limit

An effort was made by the Administration during the closing hours of the first session of the 83rd Congress last year to secure $15 billion increase in the legal debt limit. This increase was granted by the house but killed in the Senate finance committee.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey argued at that time that the administration could not spend during the past fiscal year as authorized by Congress, without spending over the $275 billion limit. Of course, the fallacy in Mr. Humphrey's argument was that there is no law making every department of the government spend every dime authorized. As a matter of fact, the action of the Senate finance committee undoubtedly assisted the administration in curbing certain expenditures in government.

Time has proved the wisdom of the Senate finance committee action. The increase was quite obviously not as urgently needed as the administration and the Secretary of the Treasury would have had members of Congress and the public believe. Not only has the debt ceiling not been reached yet, but Secretary Humphrey's request has now been reduced from $15 billion to $10 billion, with only one-half of this increase to be permanent. These developments certainly vindicate the vote of those of us in the House who cast our votes against a debt increase during the closing days of last year's session.

Of course, the national debt limit still remains dangerously close to the legal limit, and some action may be necessary before adjournment. With this in mind, the Senate finance committee has approved a temporary increase of $6 billion in the statutory limit until June 30, 1955. The vote for this temporary increase came on a motion made by Senator Byrd of Virginia who has been the strongest opponent of the $15 billion increase. Senator Byrd pointed out that the temporary $6 billion increase will "make up the hills and valleys" which are created by heavy collections of corporate taxes during the early months of the year. Under the Byrd proposal, the debt ceiling will automatically drop back on June 30, 1955 from $281 billion to the present $275 billion.

A debt increase of $6 billion on a temporary basis will be more palatable to the House members who opposed a permanent increase of $15 billion.

Anti-Subversive Measure

A measure was passed by the House last week that will give investigating committees of the Congress the means of loosening the tongues of key witnesses who resist all inquiries into their activities by taking refuge behind the fifth amendment. Under this bill, a witness can be granted immunity from possible self-incrimination if he gives information concerning subversive activities of another person or group. Immunity in such cases will be granted only if it is believed the witness can furnish exceptionally valuable facts relative to crimes of treason, sabotage, espionage, or conspiracy. Witnesses can be promised immunity from prosecution only after a two-thirds vote of a congressional committee prior to notice to the Attorney General, and approval by a U. S. District Court. However, witnesses can still be prosecuted if they refuse to answer after being given immunity or if they make false statements.

The Senate version of this legislation was passed during the first session of the 83rd Congress. Although there is a good deal of similarity between the House and Senate bills, there are several outstanding differences. Under the terms of the Senate bill, Congress has the final power to decide who will be granted immunity, whereas, the House bill leaves the final decision to the courts. Also, the House measure limits the granting of immunity to cases affecting the security of the United States, while the Senate bill relates to all crimes. It should be pointed out here that the House bill permits the use of immunity in courts as well as Congressional committees but it stipulates that the cases must concern alleged subversive activities. In court cases, the application for immunity must be made to a district judge by the United States Attorney.

The House and Senate versions of the immunity bill will probably be sent to a conference committee. However, there is a possibility the Senate may agree to the House changes without a conference so that the bill can be assured of final action before adjournment.

Meeting to Plan Country Club

An open meeting for the purpose of organizing and establishing a country club in Shelby County will be held at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, August 25, at the Calera City Hall.

Since January of this year, the possibilities of establishing a country club and golf course in Shelby County have been discussed by a group of about 30 people from various Shelby County towns and communities. Sufficient exploratory progress has been made to go ahead with plans for such an undertaking.

Location of the proposed country club is between Calera and Montevallo, just off Highway 25. Plans call for an 80-acre site, club house, dining facilities, indoor-outdoor recreation facilities and a nine-hole golf course.

Designed for memberships from the entire county, the country club, when completed, is expected to be an economic and social asset to Shelby County.

It has been proposed that a non-profit club be organized and incorporated and officers and a board of directors be elected to work out details for the development of such a country club.

Purposes of the Wednesday night meeting are to explain present plans, discuss future plans, point out advantages of a country club to the community, and proceed with organizational plans.

Anyone interested is invited and urged to attend.

Ronnie Johnson Attends State Forestry Camp

Ronnie Johnson, a sophomore at Thompson High School, attended the state forestry camp at Camp Grist near Selma, August 1-7, as representative of the Siluria Chapter of Future Farmers of America.

Ronnie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson of Helena, and enrolls in his second year of vocational agriculture this year at Thompson. He has undertaken several forestry projects, including setting pine seedlings, pruning and thinning existing stands of timber, and constructing fire breaks. He feels that attending the camp has given him new information as to how he can better develop and care for his timber projects.

All of the activities at camp were not work. Ronnie was winner in the casting contest and placed second in the swimming contest.

This is the second year that the Thompson chapter has had a representative at this camp. Jerry Moore attended in 1952. Both of these young men agree that the camp is a fine experience for a boy interested in forestry. The camp is conducted on a cost free basis for FFA members throughout the state by the Southern Pulpwood Association in cooperation with the State Forestry Division.

Rev. O. Kyle Lamb, pastor of Montevallo Methodist Church, will preach at both services Sunday. He will use as his subject for the Sunday morning service "Goodness" and for the evening service (7:30) his subject will be "When a Man Is a Man."

There will be a business meeting of the Society of Christian Service Monday evening at 8:00 at the church.

Senior Choir rehearsal will be Wednesday evening at 7:30 and Youth Choir rehearsal will be at 7:00 Thursday evening.

You may worship in a comfortable air-conditioned church at the Montevallo Methodist Church. A cordial invitation awaits you at all of the services.

Miss Marshall Is Party Honoree

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hawkins, located off the Montevallo-Siluria highway, was the scene of a delightful party last Friday night, when members of Dr. Napier's Sunday School class and the choir of Montevallo Methodist Church joined Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins in honoring Miss Ethel Marshall, who is leaving soon for a year's study at the University of Florida.

The spacious lawn was beautifully lighted for the occasion, and chairs were arranged so that everyone could be comfortably seated. The setting was enchanting, with a bright moon shining through the majestic pines on the lawn, and the lovely flowers in bloom surrounding the beautiful home.

After the guests arrived and were seated, several of the members joined in contests, having lots of fun themselves and entertaining those who were watching.

Mrs. Lon Dunstan, who was co-hostess with Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins, made a short talk, telling why the happy group was assembled to honor Miss Marshall, who had meant so much to the church and the choir, of which she is a member.

Mrs. Dunstan introduced Rev. O. Kyle Lamb, minister of Montevallo Methodist Church, who made a cunning speech, during which he tried to extract a promise of Miss Marshall's return to Montevallo in exchange for the gift which he presented to her from the class and choir, a handsome handbag and matching gloves.

Miss Marshall expressed her appreciation for the gift and of the spirit which prompted the gathering in her honor. She passed the gift around in order that everyone could see it and admire it.

During the social hour, punch, home-made ice cream, cakes, mints and nuts were served from tables placed on the lawn. Fifty grown-ups and five children enjoyed the gracious hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Dunstan and were happy to have had an opportunity to express appreciation to Miss Marshall for her loyalty, faithfulness and devotion to her church.

Dr. Paul Bailey Receives Research Grant From National Cancer Institute

Dr. Paul C. Bailey, professor of biology at Alabama College, has been named recipient of a $4,500 research grant for continuation of the study dealing with the natural factors influencing cell division from the National Cancer Institute, division of the National Health Institute, of Washington, D. C.

Dr. Bailey's research will be done at Alabama College and will emphasize the natural factors, such as temperature, hydrogen ion concentration and other factors in controlling cell division.

One of the chief problems in the struggle to combat cancer, according to Dr. Bailey, is basically a problem of cell division. His research will be aimed at discovering natural factors which may affect the basic processes which take place during the division processes of the cell.

Dr. Bailey will use the plant trillium and chick embryo as sources of material.

Editor of the Journal of the Alabama Academy of Science, Dr. Bailey joined the Alabama College faculty in 1947. He is past chairman of the biology and medical section of the Alabama Academy of Science and is a member of Sigma Xi; American Association for the Advancement of Science; American Genetic Association; Beta Beta Beta; and the Army Aviation Courses For High School Grads

M/Sgt. Emmett E. Wooten, non-commissioned officer in charge of Army recruiting in the Montevallo area, announced today that recent amendments to regulations now authorize enlistment of high school graduates for schooling in the Army aviation field.

He said that service rendered by helicopters and light aircraft in supply, observation, reconnaissance and evacuation of wounded in the Korean conflict is well known, and that the increasingly widespread use of these aircraft is being accompanied by a corresponding increase in necessary qualified personnel to maintain them.

The sergeant said this change in regulations offers an opportunity to high school graduates for training as airplane repairman, aircraft instrument and electrical systems repairman, rotor and propeller repairman, helicopter repairman, aircraft powertrain and engine repairman.

Full information on these courses can be obtained at the Army Recruiting Station in the Calder Building, Birmingham.

Baseball, Barbecue Are Features of Calera Festival

Baseball and barbecue will be the menu at the Civitan annual scholarship festival Labor Day on the Calera High School campus.

Hickory cooked barbecue and thrilling baseball played by the Little Leaguers and the town team against opponents to be selected will be part of the day's activities, according to Bill Minor, chairman.

Minor stated that Civitan Cecil Cowart will again produce that outstanding tantalizing punch "drink" to go along with the delicious barbecue dinner.

The kids loved this "punch" and have been asking daily if it would be served again this year, Minor explained. He added we wouldn't think we had a barbecue without this splendid drink.

Tickets are moving fast, Civitan Z. S. Cowart, Sr., pointed out. A goal of 1,000 tickets sold several days in advance of the barbecue on Labor Day is expected to be reached.

Committeeman George Holcombe said, "This will be the greatest Civitan Labor Day Festival in the history of the local club. Nothing is being left undone in order to provide excellent food and good entertainment this year."

If you have not secured your ticket, a Civitan member will see you soon, Minor said. This scholarship fund is a worthy cause and the ticket purchasers will more than get their money's worth in the barbecue, baseball games and other activities, he added.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Although the 83rd Congress was scheduled to adjourn on July 31, it now appears that the earliest possibility of adjournment will be this week end. The House has virtually completed its work, but it is necessary for House members to stand by so that they can act on House-Senate conference reports and certain Senate-approved bills.

In an effort to adjourn by this week end, the Senate last week stepped up its schedule. Convening early and adjourning late, the upper body voted on a number of major bills.

Bills Sent to President

Several important measures received final Congressional approval last week and went to the President for his signature.

The Senate passed the House-approved bill increasing by 5 per cent the pensions of veterans with service connected disabilities. It also passed a separate House-approved measure increasing the pensions of veterans with non-service connected disabilities by the same amount. Both measures have gone to the White House.

The House and Senate agreed on a compromise bill extending until June 30, 1955, the veterans direct home loan program. The compromise measure makes available to the Veterans Administration an additional $150 million to be used for this program during the current fiscal year. While the House bill provided $100 million, the Senate increased this amount to $200 million. The conferees split the difference and recommended the $150 million that was adopted by both sides. The President is expected to sign the measure.

Another proposal passed by the Senate is a House-approved bill to extend by one year the period in which Korean veterans can apply for an complete their GI education.

In addition to veterans legislation, the House and Senate endorsed and sent to the President a compromise $3.2 billion foreign aid authorization bill.

Still another measure to receive final Congressional action last week is a bill which grants immunity in Congressional hearings and court trials to certain persons who testify in cases involving subversive activities. This proposal, discussed in my column last week, is designed to encourage testimony concerning suspected spies and traitors from persons who might otherwise invoke the Fifth Amendment to avoid possible self-incrimination.

Conference Groups Busy

The Senate acted on a number of bills last week that have been sent to House-Senate conference committees. It is hoped the conferees can iron out differences in the two versions of these measures early this week so that a final vote can be taken before the week end.

The farm bill, passed last Monday by the Senate, sets price supports on the five basic commodities during 1955 at 82½ per cent of parity. This provision, adopted earlier by the House, constitutes a major administration victory over the farm bloc.

There were several significant differences in the House and Senate farm bills which must be worked out before Congressional action on the bill can be completed.

Although the House had approved the conference report on the atomic energy bill, the Senate sent it back to conference by a vote of 48 to 41. If the conference committee cannot solve the differences, new House and Senate conferees can be appointed, time permitting.

Last Friday the Senate passed by a voice vote the House-approved social security bill, and on Saturday the Senators completed the foreign aid appropriation bill. Conferees must iron out differences in the House and Senate versions of these two proposals, but the measures will most likely be sent to the President before the end of the week.

A temporary $6 billion increase in the public debt limit also received Senate approval last week. Although the House approved a $15 billion permanent increase shortly before adjournment last year, general agreement by both chambers on the $6 billion temporary increase is expected.

Shelby County Visitors

It was a pleasure to see Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Holliday of Dunnavant during their recent visit to Washington. Another Shelby Countian in Washington last week was Eugene Carter of Calera. Eugene was visiting his sister, Miss Doris Carter, and they both stopped by my office on Saturday.

Whereas, it is recognized that this is a most worthy objective and commendable effort on the part of the Lions Club; and

Whereas, it is a movement that should have the hearty response, active interest, and effective cooperation of all our citizens;

Now, therefore, I, W. M. Wyatt,

Montevallo FFA Wins Award

Because of the participation and record made by the Montevallo FFA chapter in the state chapter contest, Montevallo has been awarded the Gold Emblem for 1953-54. Each chapter participating in the contest is scored at the beginning of the year, based on the planned activity program for the year. Near the end of the school year the chapter is again scored, based on the accomplishments of goals and items planned in the program. Among the items contributing to the Montevallo award are: large enrollment, making chapter budget and securing funds for it, attending FFA meetings and livestock shows, making field trips for study and observation, home projects of boys, demonstration areas, home gardens, home orchards, home improvement, livestock improvement, citizenship training, chapter meetings, school improvements, participation in the total school program, and other agricultural items.

NOTICE

Children will be registered at the Montevallo School on Monday, September 6.

County Teachers Meeting to be Held At Columbiana

The "school bell" will ring for Shelby County teachers at eight o'clock Wednesday morning, September 1, when they will go to Columbiana for a work conference.

Supt. W. W. Elliott announced that this pre-school work conference will be held in the Shelby County High School building on September 1 and 2.

Dr. Kermit Jemison, superintendent of the Tuscaloosa County Schools, will make the keynote speech Thursday morning. His topic is "A Good School Environment and How It Affects the Learning Process."

All teachers will meet each day in their special interest study groups to make plans for improving the instructional program in their classrooms.

Thursday, September 2, will be designated as School-Community Day. Parents and other citizens who are interested in the schools are invited to meet with the teachers on that day. At 11 o'clock a County Board of Education member, a PTA leader, a principal and a teacher will discuss the progress the schools have made within the past few years, and point up some of the things the schools need to do to continue making progress. The people in the audience will be given an opportunity to join in the discussion.

Topics brought up in this general assembly meeting, and perhaps others, will continue to be discussed after lunch when parents and teachers meet for small group discussions. Special consultants for these discussions will be: Miss Martha Smith of the State Department of Education; Mrs. Harry Nelson, State P T A general secretary; Miss Louise Foshee, supervisor of attendance in Chilton County schools; and Mrs. R. M. Denty, Jr., president of the Shelby County Council of Parents and Teachers.

On Friday, September 3, all the teachers will meet in their local schools. They will make plans, under the leadership of their principal, for the work in their local schools.

After these days of work, the teachers will have a holiday on Labor Day, September 6, and the schools will open for the children on Tuesday morning, September 7, at 9 o'clock.

New Equipment Aids Local Telegraph Service

The Montevallo Western Union telegraph office, located in the Western Auto Store operated by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mahaffey, has recently installed new equipment which will greatly improve the Western Union service here.

The addition of a teletype machine for sending and receiving is certain to insure more rapid delivery. Heretofore telegrams have been relayed into and out of Montevallo by telephone to and from Birmingham.

The most important step forward is the addition of money order sending and receiving. In the past, money which has been wired into Montevallo was cleared by the Birmingham Western Union office through the First National Bank of Birmingham and the Merchants & Planters Bank of Montevallo. This slowed delivery considerably. Never before has it been possible to wire money from Montevallo. The sender had to travel to Calera or Birmingham in order to send money.

Under the new operation, money may be dispatched and received through the Montevallo office at the Western Auto Store.

Lions Sponsor "Clean-Up Week"

In order to get our city looking "sharp" before the visitors and students arrive for opening of college, the Montevallo Lions Club is sponsoring a clean-up week starting next Monday. All citizens of the city are urged to cooperate in this effort. If you can't find any trash around your place that needs to be moved, call a Lion and he will help you make a survey.

The Mayor has proclaimed the week beginning August 30 as official "Clean-Up and Paint-Up week." The city truck crew will make special pick-ups of trash on Tuesday and Thursday. All trash and rubbish should be placed between the sidewalk and the curb so the truck can get to it.

Some of the local merchants are featuring specials on paints, brushes and other materials that may be used effectively in this effort to make our city have a better appearance.

Everyone is urged to clean up eyesores about your place, such as old scrap lumber, trash, weed patches and so forth.

In cooperation with this project the city will repaint traffic and parking markers on the streets.

A group of Lions have volunteered to paint all fireplugs in the city and remove some duplicated traffic signs under supervision of city authorities.

Calera Prepares for Labor Day Festival

Calera is busy preparing for the third annual barbecue scheduled for Labor Day on the high school campus.

A highlight of the festival will be the baseball games played in the morning and afternoon.

The hickory cooked barbecue will be prepared by a cook who is famous throughout the state for preparing barbecue. He has been doing nothing but cooking barbecue since his 16th birthday. Civitan Chairman Bill Minor recommends him highly. Minor says he knows "his stuff" when it comes to preparing a wonderful meal.

Civitan President Eddie Downs reported that tickets for the Labor Day festival are moving fast, while Henry George, top ticket seller for the past two years, declared he would surpass last year's sale of 110 tickets.

From all indications, Minor said, members will sell 1,000 tickets before Sept. 1. He also predicted the 1954 barbecue will be the most successful in the history of the local club.

If you haven't bought your tickets, don't wait until Labor Day. Call Eddie Downs at Central State Bank, tell him how many "ducats" you want, and he will get them right out to you.

So all Calera says join the crowd on the Calera High campus Labor Day for a delicious meal and two fine baseball games.

Chamber of Commerce To Hold Dinner Meeting

The Montevallo Chamber of Commerce is planning a special event for its regular meeting time on September 20. For the first time the Chamber will have a dinner meeting and a speaker from out of town along with other special events. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. and dinner will be served by the American Legion Auxiliary. Tickets are now on sale by a ticket committee of which W. E. Lovelady is chairman. The price of tickets is $2 and everyone who is a member of the chamber of commerce or interested in becoming a member is invited to attend.

It is planned that this will be an annual affair and will help to stimulate interest of local people.

Scallop Potatoes With A Soup-Sauce

FALL brings a tide of fresh enthusiasm for things domestic. Mrs. Homemaker looks for improved ways to do things, from cleaning the house to preparing meals.

New ideas in the cooking department are always welcome. With gusto, the homemaker clips recipes from newspapers and magazines and tries them out on the family. When a dish meets their approval, she tucks the recipe into her file or cookbook to be used again real soon.

A "family-tested" recipe with a slightly different twist is scalloped potatoes made with condensed soup. A can of cream of chicken, celery, or mushroom soup makes a smooth flavorful sauce for the potatoes. Once the family has tasted them prepared this way, they'll never want them any other. As Susy says, "They're scrumptious!"

A cup of cooked chicken or turkey (from can or roast) goes into the dish, too, as well as a bit of onion, pimiento, and seasonings. When all ingredients are combined in a casserole, they are whisked into the oven to bake for 30 minutes. That allows time for the homemaker to toss greens for a salad and warm some cheese-topped English muffins. Dessert could be fruited gelatin or apple brown Betty.

"Extra-Special" Scalloped Potatoes
 1 can (1½ cups) condensed cream of mushroom soup
 ½ cup milk
 ½ teaspoon salt
 Dash black pepper
 1 small onion, minced
 5 cups sliced, cooked potatoes
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Blend soup, milk, salt, pepper and onion. Arrange alternate layers of potatoes and sauce in a greased 1½-quart casserole; dot top with butter. Bake in a hot oven (400° F.) for 30 minutes. 6 servings.

*Cream of celery or cream of chicken soup may be substituted.

School Daze

Vacation's over. Our rural schools are open and our city schools and colleges are soon to start.

School enrollment is increasing at a rate of over a million a year with no let-up in sight. But we are short 340,000 classrooms. We need 88,000 more elementary school teachers. Young people today don't want to become teachers because of low salaries, poor working conditions, morals shattering investigations, and curbs on freedom to teach. And they will continue giving the schools as wide a berth as long as we let trouble makers blast our educational system for their own selfish purposes.

In these critical days we can't afford to "economize" on school buildings, or whittle down the curriculum to the bare 3-R's. Instead, we must act promptly to modernize the plant and enrich the program that's providing the training of tomorrow's citizens.

There are two urgent items on the agenda. First, we must give our school enough money to cope with their increased needs. Second, we must restore the teaching profession to the position of public trust it deserves.

Now, there's plenty of room for honest questions and discussion about the public schools. In fact, that's the only way to improve them — by keeping posted on school affairs, talking to teachers, administrators and board members, and then being outspoken in praise or criticism. That's the constructive way. But some self appointed critics aren't interested in finding out what the public schools are doing or what their needs are.

Because they want one hundred percent conformity with their notions on domestic and international affairs, they blast educators who encourage free, open discussion of all points of view.

And because they know they haven't a chance to sell their ideas to people who can think for themselves, they want to keep our kids from learning how to think, if they can.

President Eisenhower says: "The pursuit of truth, its preservation and wide dissemination; the achievement of freedom, its defense and propagation — these purposes are woven into the American concept of education."

Well, that concept will be wrecked unless we wake up and save it.

How? By coming to the defense of our schools every time the trouble-makers go into their song and dance. By insisting on higher pay and better conditions for teachers. By working through citizens' committees, clubs and community organizations to insure academic freedom. By letting school boards know we are backing them in their efforts for better schools.

Yes, school days are back for the youngsters. It's high time we adults snapped out of our school daze and made school days we like to think back to a reality for our own youngsters. — Florence Herald.

The wedding will be an event of September 18 at the First Baptist Church in Jasper.

SECESSION OF ALABAMA

In spite of arguments in Alabama and the rest of the South to the effect that if Abraham Lincoln should be elected President in 1860, the South would no longer remain in the Union, Lincoln was elected.

The Alabama legislature in February 1860, adopted a resolution saying that if a Republican president were elected, it would be the duty of the governor to call a state convention for the purpose of considering secession.

One mass meeting was held in Montgomery after Lincoln was elected. At that meeting Governor A. B. Moore, W. L. Yancey and others addressed the group, all agreeing that the time was at hand for Alabama to withdraw from the Union.

In compliance with the resolution adopted earlier in the year by the legislature, Governor A. B. Moore, after Lincoln's election, called a state convention to meet in Montgomery to discuss secession. The date was set as January 7, 1861.

While probably a majority of Alabamians favored secession, there was a difference of opinion as to when the action should be taken.

After Lincoln's election, there were some Alabamians who favored immediate withdrawal from the Union, others wanted to wait until other Southern States had acted, and still others wanted to wait to see what the new president would do.

Central and south Alabama were the areas where sentiment for immediate secession was the strongest.

It was in North Alabama that sentiment was strongest against immediate secession from the Union. While there were many slaves in the Tennessee valley, their owners were closely attached to Tennessee, because it was there that much of their trading was done, and they wanted to wait to see what Tennessee was going to do.

South Carolina had already withdrawn from the Union by the time the Alabama convention met in January 1861, and had invited other Southern States to join her in the formation of a Southern Confederacy.

Following four days of heated debate, the delegates to the convention voted for Alabama to secede from the Union and other Southern states were invited to send delegates to Montgomery on February 4, 1861 to set up a Southern Confederacy.

Our Schools

Special effort is being made on the part of school people this year to get as many parents and other interested citizens as possible to study the schools during the year. Many of the problems confronting administrators and teachers will become evident as a study is made of our schools and the problems facing the schools.

Teachers are encouraging visits from parents, and they will also be making visits to homes of the children in order that some of the school problems can be better understood and approached.

Estimated school enrollment in Shelby County for 1954-55 is 7,200 students. This figure is about 200 over last year.

The July 1954 school census shows that there are in the county, 6 to 20 years of age, 6,241 whites and 1,875 Negroes.

The total number of teachers in Shelby County schools is 182 white and 53 Negro.

While it may not be the biggest public business operation in dollars and cents, the public school system is certainly the most important of our public functions.

No phase of our future public interest can possibly exceed that of the education and training of 7,200 of the boys and girls of today who will be our citizens and leaders of tomorrow.

None of us can properly exercise our full duty and obligation to our schools unless we make it our business to understand the problems that face those who are our administrators and teachers.

When those who are trying to do the job of educating our children come to us with problems which should interest us and which should have our sincere consideration, let us not put the matter aside lightly. Let us consider it as an important obligation of our own, which it certainly is, and make sure that we find out the facts and then act on the same in accordance with the true weight of our own responsibility for the future welfare of our children.

Remember, when you evaluate your interest in your school, you are also evaluating your interest in the future of your children. There is nothing more important to you.

The special features in this issue of The Times-Herald focusing attention upon the public schools of Shelby County were compiled by M. Thornton and his FFA boys of Montevallo High School.

In this effort they secured the cooperation of many of our business firms and leaders in our public school system.

We commend this effort to our readers, most all of whom are naturally concerned with the great program of educating and training our youth of today. We hope that it will, in a great measure, accomplish the purpose—to bring people generally to think seriously and act forcefully to manifest their deep concern about the obligations that lie in the hands and upon the hearts of all of us and those whose job it is to run our schools and educate our children.

Clean-Up Week

We commend the Lions Club of Montevallo for its energetic efforts in sponsoring "Clean-Up and Paint-Up Week" which is to begin next Monday.

Our citizens should certainly join in this program to the end that it may accomplish the desired improvement in the appearance of our city.

We will have many visitors for the opening of college in a few days. We should want our city to impress them as a clean, progressive and attractive place. And we too should have enough pride in our home town to want it to look good to us instead of ugly and slovenly.

The City Council Tuesday night passed a resolution assuring its all-out cooperation in this most worthy movement, and the use of the city's facilities to help carry out the plan.

Let's all now roll up our sleeves and get in the game with the Lions and help to make this a clean-up program such as we have never had before.

Jade Higgins Is FFA Entrant in Bessemer Contest

Already beginning to see some of the goals in the annual activity program become reality, FFA members this week selected Jade Higgins to represent the chapter in the Queen Bess contest at Bessemer during the annual festival there. Jade will ride in the parade on one of the floats of the Bessemer Chamber of Commerce, and will participate in the queens' ball which will be held as a part of the festival program. It is expected that the chapter will also send a judging team and special skit for the general program.

Practically all the 84 members of the vocational agriculture classes had a part in setting up the goals for this year's program. Among the items in the program will be that of improving the vocational shop and equipment. The chapter hopes to see at least a thousand dollars spent for additional equipment this year.

Planting home orchards, improving poultry flocks, planting shrubbery and improving home surroundings, improving livestock and crops will be among the items to get some major attention this year.

Much of the leadership of the chapter members will come from Bobby Wilson, assistant chapter adviser, Willis Hamaker, vice-president, Tinker Underwood, secretary, Purvis Smitherman, treasurer, Gerald Lucas, reporter, and Robert O'Neal, sentinel.

During last week Robert O'Neal, Lewis Hughes and Bobby Wilson were active as a special committee to work up materials for the special school issue of the Shelby County Times-Herald. This same group will serve as a committee for the Bessemer Festival and will make the necessary arrangements for Montevallo chapter participation.

Robert O'Neal and Lewis Hughes have already worked and saved sufficient funds to attend the National FFA convention in Kansas City in October. Plans are also being made to attend the state fair as a group on school day there.

Rochester Will Not Give Away Pony

Mr. Harvey Rochester, merchant of Montevallo, announces he will not be able to give away the pony as planned in October.

He said: "I have been informed by reliable legal authorities that my plan to issue trade tickets and have a drawing for the pony would be a violation of the laws of Alabama. Therefore, I regret to say that I will not be able to go through with my plan, as it is my desire to obey and abide by the laws in all respects."

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

By M. Thornton
Voc. Agr. Teacher, Montevallo

Vocational education is an integral and significant part of the total program of education. It has as its purpose to meet the educational needs of persons who are preparing for employment and to supplement or extend the training for those who are employed.

If vocational education is to discharge its full responsibility as a part of the public education program in this state, it will be necessary that its services be extended more rapidly into areas and to individuals not now reached. There is a great need for the further expansion of all phases of vocational education in Alabama. The rapid industrialization of the state has outstanding significance for this program. The public school, through vocational education, has much to offer in this rapid change from rural to urban life. Through a sympathetic understanding on the part of school personnel and through them a better understanding of vocational education by the lay public, the public school in general and vocational education specifically will be able to serve the needs of the citizenship of the State in a more effective way. One of the greatest needs of education today is understanding, both on the part of school people and the lay public. It is evident that vocational education is making a tremendous contribution to our community life and it could mean even much richer contribution if it were better understood and more adequately supported.

It serves farm boys in high school, young farmers and adult farmers in developing an appreciation of farming; and understanding of the problems in farming and the development of the necessary skills and techniques to solve these problems and become successful farmers.

It serves high school pupils and adult homemakers in preparing for and assuming the responsibilities of homemaking and parenthood through developing the understandings and abilities needed for effective home living.

It serves in-school youth in preparation for wage-earning employment; out-of-school youth and adults desiring to prepare for wage-earning employment and employed workers to improve the quality of their work.

It serves crippled children by improving or removing the disability and aiding in educational and social adjustment.

It serves disabled adults by removing the vocational handicaps by physical improvement, vocational training and placement in suitable jobs.

These five areas of service are represented by departmental work under five major divisions:

(1) Vocational agriculture, present enrollment 23,105. (2) Vocational home making education, present enrollment 23,356. (3)

Vocational industrial education, present enrollment 4,132. (4) Vocational rehabilitation, 6,352 referred cases, 3,555 cases remaining June, 1953. (5) Crippled children's service, 10,082 children receiving service, 17,009 on register at end of year.

Our Needs Now in Alabama

The Vocational Education Department in Montgomery has requests on file as follows as of May 1, 1954: 54 additional vocational agriculture units with 60 teachers needed; 98 additional vocational home making units with 117 teachers needed; 82 additional vocational industrial units with 82 teachers needed; expansion of all home making units to 12 months instead of 9 months; increased funds for rehabilitation and crippled children to take care of additional handicapped children and adults; also funds are needed to balance present funds with increased costs of present services.

Miss Davidson, Bride-Elect, Given Shower

The home of Mrs. H. C. Espy, Helena, furnished the beautiful setting for a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Hazel Davidson, bride-elect of Mr. James Harvey Rochester, on the afternoon of August 14.

Throughout the spacious living room and dining room, pink garden flowers and forget-me-nots were arranged. Guests were greeted by Miss Elizabeth Espy, Mrs. W. I. Compton, and Mrs. G. H. Myrick. Entertainment was presented by Mrs. Joe Davidson and Mrs. John H. Dearing, Jr. Gifts were arranged by Miss Elizabeth Espy. Refreshments were served by Jo Ann and Janet Farris. Forty-two guests were registered.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Jack Gault, Mrs. Jimmy Lee, Mrs. C. B. Smith, Miss Kate Kroell, Mrs. Mary Creagh, Mrs. Buddy Nix, Miss Betty Pickett, Mrs. Henry Pickett, Mrs. W. A. Cowgill and Mrs. C. W. Davidson.

Mysterious Malady Kills Fish at Capps Pond

The heretofore very successful stock water and fish pond of J.I. Capps, Calera, was surrounded with thousands of dead bream when we saw it August 18. Mr.

Capps called to ask us to see if we could determine what was the trouble.

Mr. Capps, who lives near the pond, showed us the fish which he is raking up and burying by the bushel. An average of 40 dead fish to the foot of shore line was counted.

No cotton or cropland is in the watershed or near. Woodland surrounds the pond. Our guess is suffocation, but it is only a guess.

We hope that no other district cooperators have a similar misfortune. It seems that plenty of fish will remain to grow and reproduce.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Congress passed a number of important measures before adjourning sine die last Friday.

The farm bill was finally approved after a conference committee agreed to leave dairy price supports at 75 per cent of parity. The two-price wheat plan of the House and the grazing rights of the Senate were discarded, however. The bill in its final form, sets price supports on wheat, corn, cotton, peanuts and rice at 82½ to 90 percent of parity during 1955.

The House approved the temporary $6 billion increase in the public debt limit that had been passed earlier by the Senate. Under the terms of this legislation, the ceiling can rise to $281 billion, but will have to go back to the present $275 billion by next June 30.

A compromise atomic energy bill was approved and sent to the President last Tuesday after it had twice been to conference. The bill is designed to permit the US to share its atomic information more widely with its military allies and to encourage participation by private industry in the atomic energy program.

Both House and Senate passed a compromise $2.3 billion foreign aid appropriation bill for fiscal 1955. The use of $2.4 billion of previously appropriated but unspent funds was authorized in this measure. Congressional action was also completed on a billion dollar rivers and harbors authorization bill.

After several days of legislative hassle, the House and Senate passed a revised "anti-communist" bill. This measure does not make communist party membership a crime, but it does remove the party's legal rights and privileges and imposes stiff penalties on members of "communist action" groups who do not register under the subversive activities control act.

On the day of adjournment, the House and Senate agreed on a compromise social security revision bill which extends coverage to nearly 10 million additional individuals. The bill increases benefit payments for those who retire at 65 and it permits retired persons to earn up to $1200 a year without losing their social security benefits. The new bill also reduces from 75 to 72 the age limit at which a retired person may earn any amount and still draw a pension.

A measure providing a 5 per cent pay increase for postal employees and classified federal workers also received final approval on the last day of the session. The postal rate increase provision was not included in the final bill. The measure provides a minimum raise for classified workers of $170 and a maximum of $440. Postal employees will receive $200 minimum and $440 maximum increases.

Returns to District

This will be my last "Report From Washington" during 1954. I plan to return to the District this week. When Congress reconvenes in January, I hope it will be possible for me to continue my reports.

I would like to again express my appreciation to the editors of all newspapers in the Sixth District for their fine cooperation in will be spent visiting the other counties of the District. For those who would like to get in touch with me, I suggest your letters be mailed to Tuscaloosa.

I hope I shall have the pleasure of seeing many of you while I am in the District. In the meantime, please continue to call on me whenever I can be of assistance.

Local Residents Visit Antebellum Home in Daton

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Massey and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crawford visited Selma and Daton Wednesday afternoon and evening. At Daton they visited Terrell Hill, an antebellum home built by an Alabama planter, John T. Catlin, for his daughter. Architects and craftsmen were six years building it. It has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Waters of Birmingham and is being restored to its original grandeur.

Terrell Hill has been described by a University of Alabama authority as "a magnificent example of a plantation home in antebellum times."

Also while in Daton they visited Mrs. Mattie Prowell, charming lady of eighty-six years. Mrs. Prowell's home was built in 1827, and has a most interesting history. The Methodist church in this little community was built in 1849 by slave labor.

ABOUT OUR OPERATIONS?

OUR FREIGHT TRAIN OPERATIONS, we mean. For we've speeded up most of Southern's scheduled freight service. It's now better than ever, and constantly being improved.

For example, our freight train No. 153 travels the route of our fine passenger train, "The Crescent," from Washington, D. C., to Atlanta, Ga., and its schedule is only 2 hours longer. Shippers save a day!

Many other stepped-up freight schedules now in operation benefit not only Southern Railway shippers but you as an individual, too.

For even though you may never use it directly, the kind of mass transportation that serves your community can affect your home, your family, your job. Inadequate transportation is a drag on economic development. Good, dependable, all-weather service helps a locality prosper and grow. That's why aggressive, on-its-toes railroading like this is so important to the growing Southland. And to you!

Shelby County Teachers Association Works For Effective Education Program

The Shelby County Teachers Association is a working worthwhile organization. Article II of its constitution sets forth its purposes in these words:

(1) to develop an effective educational program for Shelby County; (2) to participate in local, district, state and national affairs which have as their aims the raising of standards of the teaching profession and the promotion of welfare programs; (3) and to work in conjunction with the public in establishing educational goals and methods of securing these goals.

Shelby has a good school system, the best teachers available, and an able, progressive superintendent of education. Teachers do their best when they know their patrons, whether parent or not, are informed, interested and willing to share the responsibilities of educating the hundreds of children who attend our schools.

Educating the other man's child for an uncertain future is indeed a serious responsibility, and the teachers deserve honor, credit and cooperation of every able bodied and thinking citizen in every community. If such be the case, all will be happier, the child, the parent, and the teacher.

Shelby County Teachers Association officers for the next year are president, Mrs. M. Thornton; vice president, Mr. Lewis Blackerby; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Frederick.

Board of Control: Miss Alice Harris, Miss Alene Pope, Vance McCauley, Mrs. Carrie Dailey, James Curtis, Mrs. Inez Underwood.

Standing Committees
Professional relations and the teachers' welfare, D. B. Smith, Mrs. Annie Lou Fancher, Mrs. Fannie Mae Carden, Miss Louise Farley, John Ramsden.
Ethics, Miss Elizabeth Mays,

Miss Elizabeth Bentley, Mrs. Annie Adams, Simon Blackerby, Miss Mamie Hill.

Legislation, M. Thornton, Mrs. Nannie Dee Durden, Mrs. Barbara Horn Joiner, Mr. Borden, Elvin Hill.

Public Relations, Marvin Smith, Miss Susie DeMent, E. B. Turner, Mrs. Louise Douglas, Mrs. Sarah Walker.

There are other committees to be appointed.

Miss Marshall Leaves For University of Florida

Miss Ethel Marshall, Mrs. Georgia Marshall and Mrs. Ethel Potts, Miss Marshall's aunt, closed the doors of their apartments Tuesday and bade farewell to Montevallo for a while. They will reside in Gainesville, Fla., next winter where Miss Marshall has a fellowship at the University of Florida.

All Montevallo regrets seeing these good people leave, even for just nine months. They will be greatly missed here for they carried much of our "sunshine" with them.

We will miss Mrs. Marshall's warm friendly smiles, her traditional southern gentleness and graciousness.

Miss Marshall will be missed in many places on the Alabama College campus, in the Methodist Church and the community. Her magnetic personality was cherished by all who knew her.

Mrs. Potts, although here for a short while, charmed and endeared many friends.

We wish for the Marshalls and Mrs. Potts a very pleasant stay in Gainesville; but we hope they will not find the pastures too green there, and that by this time next year they will turn their eyes toward Alabama and will find paths leading back to Alabama College and Montevallo.

NOTE OF THANKS

I would like to express my appreciation for the prayers, cards, flowers, phone calls and visits received during my recent illness. Your concern and thoughtfulness have helped cheer and gladden my stay indoors.—Nellie Gandy.

Mrs. Dudley Pendleton left on Friday for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vest in Chicago. Before returning she will spend two weeks at Ft. Benning where her husband is in the Army hospital.

Circus Schedules Local Performance

The circus is coming to town! Tooting of calliopes, blare of the bands, lumbering elephants, the clumsy camels, roaring lions, prancing horses, pretty aerialists, funny clowns, peanuts and lemonade — The Circus is coming to town!

Jack Turner, advance representative of the Famous Geo. W. Cole Wild Animal Circus, was in town recently making preliminary arrangements for the exhibition of the circus in Montevallo for two performances, afternoon and evening, on Friday, September 10 sponsored by Legion Post 98.

Many of the best acts in the circus world will take part in the circus program. Among these are The Flying Pursells, Cole's herd of performing elephants presented by Miss Shirley Walters; the Cordellos from Old Mexico, the Gallagher troupe, the sensational riding Grubbs, Allen Bros. performing bears, Manuel Ortiz, the king of tight wire; Miss Diane's Canine Revue, an aerial ballet of beautiful girls, and clowns galore. Stressed in the circus advertising is the greatly reduced prices of admission this season.

A large collection of animals is featured by this well known circus, and the public is invited to see the feeding of them free at 10 a.m. circus day.

"Goliath," a monster hippopotamus from the River Nile, weighing over four tons will be on exhibition daily on the grounds.

Miss Margaret Day, Roy Owens Wed in Wilton

Miss Margaret Clyde Day and Roy Walter Owens said their marriage vows Sunday at 4 p.m. The Rev. M. E. Lazenby of Montevallo officiated at the Wilton Methodist Church.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Day and Mr. Owens is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Owens of Centerville.

Candle lighters were Misses Mary Day and Donnie McRae. Miss Frances Belle Day was maid of honor and Misses Elizabeth Holland and Rita Day were the bridesmaids. They wore dresses of rainbow colors of lace and net and carried bouquets of white and pink carnations surrounded with tuberoses.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in lace and tulle featuring a sweetheart neckline. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book with cascading tuberoses. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was caught to a lace cap.

William McGaugh of Ackerman, Miss., served as best man. Bobby Day of Atlanta, brother of the bride, and William Henderson of Centerville, were ushers.

The mother of the bride was dressed in black linen trimmed in white. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of navy blue crepe. Their corsages were white carnations.

After a reception in the parlors of the church, the couple left for a wedding trip to the Ozark Mountain in Missouri. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Owens will live in Montevallo.

To keep slices of apples from turning brown, put in cold, slightly salted water until ready to use or serve them.

Committee chairmen who are making plans for the coming year are program, Mrs. J. H. Wyatt; membership, Mrs. Denson Elliott; hospitality, Mrs. W. E. Robinson; publications, Mrs. Alvin McGaugh; finance, Mrs. H. Erickson; recreation, Coach Fisher; spiritual, Mrs. R. P. Holcomb; legislation, Mr. Albert Scott; preschool, Mrs. George Nix; publicity, Miss Susie DeMent.

Green Grazing

Green Grazing Means Increased Profits for Shelby County Farmers

Practically every farmer in Shelby County will need good grazing this winter as a part of his year-round green pastures program. And those who do the best job of producing winter grazing will make the highest profits from their livestock.

Recently quite a few farmers have told me they are going to plant grazing crops on as many acres as possible because of these reasons:

1. Winter grazing saves feed and cuts cost of producing meat, milk and eggs.

2. Winter grazing helps keep livestock in a healthy, thrifty condition.

3. Winter grazing saves the labor and cost of harvesting and storing feed.

These are sound reasons. I am sure you agree not only with these points but also with the fact that we in Shelby County must plant more land to grazing crops so we can have more livestock and products to sell.

Perhaps you have already planned for a good acreage of winter grazing. If you have not, think about this fact: Experience of many of our best farmers and research results prove that every farm, large or small, needs ample winter grazing for all types of livestock—milk cows, beef cattle, hogs, sheep, and chickens.

We in Shelby County are fortunate to have a fairly large number of crops and mixtures that grow under our conditions. Some of these crops are:

Crimson clover-rye grass. This is one of the oldest and very best winter grazing mixtures. If fertilized right, with favorable weather, the mixture furnishes grazing from November to May.

Vetch and either oats or wheat. Both of these mixtures have been standbys for nearly half a century. In addition to being good grazing crops, they make big growths to save as hay or silage if top-dressed with nitrogen in the spring.

Oats alone. Every farmer in Shelby County can grow oats. The crop can be grazed from fall until March and then be allowed to make a grain crop. The grain can be either harvested or left in the field for hogs to graze.

Winter legumes alone. Crimson clover, vetch, and calee peas may be seeded alone for grazing. The crops are especially good for hogs and poultry. If animals are taken off the grazing by early in March, enough growth is normally made to turn under ahead of a corn crop.

Other grazing plants. Other grazing plants we can use include rescue, rye, Austrian peas, and bur clovers.

Some of the pointers that must be followed to succeed with any of the crops listed are: (1) plant on suitable, well-prepared land; (2) fertilize according to county agent's recommendations or soil test; (3) seed on time, late August or early September in this county; (4) Use plenty of well-cleaned seed, preferably certified seed; (5) be sure to inoculate legumes and treat grains.

It will pay to cut drouth-damaged corn and cure it for roughage. This will give you extra land on which to seed winter grazing.

POLIO CAUSED 26 DEATHS IN ALABAMA LAST YEAR

Poliomyelitis caused only 26 deaths in the state last year, although a far greater number of persons suffered attacks of the dread disease.

Only 10 counties reported poliomyelitis deaths, the State Health Department said today. Those counties and the number of deaths reported in each were Montgomery 7, Jefferson 6, Macon 5, Barbour, Calhoun, Chilton, Etowah, Lauderdale, Mobile and Morgan, one death each.

One other death was recorded in an institutional district, the department said.

These figures, taken from provisional reports prepared by the department's Bureau of Vital Statistics, may differ somewhat when final reports are available.

Calves and other cattle showing symptoms of worms may be treated with phenothiazine in emulsion or powder form.

Food burns on enamel pans can be cleaned with a solution of soda and water.

The Marine Corps has its own correspondence school and instruction in the arts, trades and sciences is given Leathernecks anywhere they may be stationed. The school is one of the oldest of the service schools.

Guarding the mails was one of the odd duties performed by U. S. Marines. In 1921 and again in 1926, Leathernecks were assigned this task at the request of the Post Office Department.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN WIRING IS AT FAULT

The wiring in most homes, even many relatively new, is inadequate. There may have been enough circuits and the wire may have been sufficient when the house was built, but so fast has been the development of labor-saving and convenience-giving electrical devices that the wiring in most houses cannot carry enough current to properly operate appliances.

"Strangler" plugs are not an answer to the problem. They just make it worse.

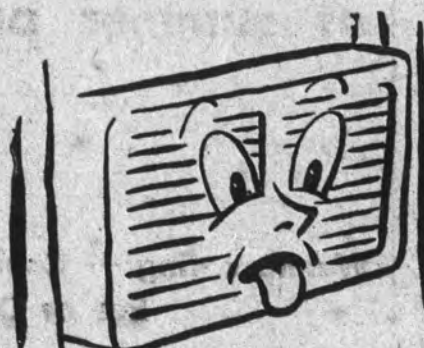

THE HOME OF TODAY should be wired to make it possible to use satisfactorily, without strangler plugs, all the following:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| One or more radios or television sets | Coffee makers, toasters, mixers |
| Automatic washer and clothes dryer | Ironer |
| Electric range | Outdoor lighting |
| Electric water heater | Some electric heating |
| Ventilating and other fans | Automatic heating equipment |
| Room air conditioners | Electric tools |
| Refrigerators | Mechanical power work shop |
| Quick freezers | Sewing machine |
| Improved lighting | Electric roaster |
| Garbage disposal unit or incinerator | Electric razor |

Very often radio and television interference is caused by faulty wiring in the home, loose connections typical of "strangler" plugs or frayed cords. Adequate wiring will help eliminate this trouble.

Refrigerator runs all the time and yet doesn't get cold enough? It likely is not getting enough current because of inadequate wiring. This could result in serious damage to the motor.

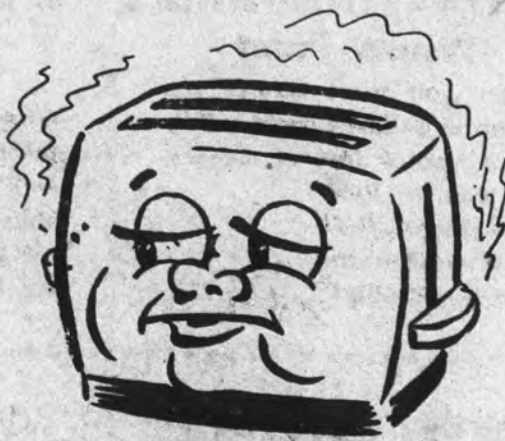

Window air conditioners just won't do the job they're supposed to if wiring is inadequate; efficiency is greatly reduced and damage may result to the mechanism.

Fuses blow frequently when circuits are overloaded. Misuse of "strangler" plugs similar to this contribute to the trouble. Oversize fuses do not remove the trouble and create a fire hazard.

When electric irons won't get hot enough, chances are that's an indication of inadequate wiring. Another indication is cords burning out frequently.

Toasters fail to toast bread quickly and satisfactorily when wiring is inadequate.

A Plan to Make This Possible In Your Home

Alabama Power Company has worked out a plan with electrical contractors in its service area whereby its customers can finance a partial or complete home re-wiring job over a period of 24 months and have a home as up to date as a brand new one in so far as electric wiring is concerned, so that they may use additional appliances to their hearts' content.

Calera Schools Get Improvements

Many improvements are being made at Calera schools in preparation for the fall semester to open September 7 at 8 a.m.

In the cafeteria a window fan has recently been installed which is expected to add to the comfort of the students and lunchroom workers. A new aluminum hood with exhaust fan has been placed over the new gas range.

New equipment added to the lunchroom in addition to the window fan and hood includes new plastic dishes, new water heater, new tables, chairs and electric mixer with appliances.

The entire school is being re-wired and new fixtures are replacing the single cord drops in the halls and classrooms. A new switch panel, being installed in a recess outside the office, will eliminate the eight unsightly switches which manned the east wall to the side of the English department.

The PTA has given money for new auditorium chairs. These are ready for use. The school needs 350 more chairs to eliminate all of the old wooden seats. Several of the classes indicated last year that they will contribute toward securing additional seats.

E. M. Smith, principal, indicated with the continued aid of the PTA, classes, and funds raised by the school store, this auditorium project can be completed at an early date.

Audio-visual aid equipment is gradually being secured by the school. This program was started three years ago and strip films, slides, projector, record players, globes, 16-mm sound movie projector have become available.

Meeting Is Held to Plan Country Club

On Wednesday, August 25 an open meeting was held at Calera Town Hall. Its purpose was for organizing and establishing a country club here in Shelby County.

The following officers were elected: President, Bill Flynt, Montevallo; vice president, Ralph Sears, Montevallo; secretary, Mrs. Z. S. Cowart, Jr., Calera; treasurer, Roy Downs, Calera.

Tentative plans of the club house and golf course were discussed. Mr. Flynt presided at the meeting. Mr. Sears outlined the proposed golf course. Mr. Downs gave an estimate of the cost of grading the land. Mrs. Alvin McGaughy displayed sketches of the club house plans.

Anyone interested in this project may contact Roy Downs or any of the officers for further information.

New Phone Directories Delivered in County

A new telephone directory for Montevallo and Calera is out.

Delivery of the new book to subscribers will be completed this week, according to B. F. Lunsford, local manager of Southern Bell.

Included in separate sections of the book will be telephone listings of subscribers at Montevallo, Calera, Columbiana, Siluria and Vincent. An estimated 2500 copies of the book will be delivered in the five towns.

The latest edition of the five exchange directory carries about 328 more telephones than the one published in September last year.

Mr. Lunsford said the old directory with the green cover should be discarded immediately upon receipt of the new one. "Many numbers have been changed and new ones listed during the past year," he said.

MR. LAWRENCE EDWARDS

Tennessee Writer To Join College Faculty

Mr. Lawrence Edwards, noted Tennessee writer, will join the Alabama College faculty in September as a new instructor in English.

He is a member of the American Dialect Society, South Atlantic Modern Language Association, and the Tennessee Folklore Society.

Fisher Reviews Football Prospects

(By Coach Fisher)

After one week of hard practice in 100 degree weather, the word was fair for the 1954 team. The team will be lighter than in the past two or three years, but faster, especially in the line.

Lost by graduation were Alton Smitherman, Pat Kelly, Charles Knowles, Jimmy Busby, Heyward Blair, Harold Pickett and H. G. McGaughy. Because of grades we lost six good prospects. To the Army we lost Frank Hamric who looked good in spring practice.

One boy who was with the squad last year has decided to give up football. All of these will be hard to replace, but with 38 boys trying as hard as they have the past week, nothing but good can come out.

Our backfield looks like it will cause some trouble to our opponents along the line. Nannini seems to be the number one quarterback at present, but Doyle Burdette, a rugged youngster, is keeping Marshall in high. E. Smith, R. L. Anthony, Billy Joe Mills are fighting it out for fullback, and at this writing it is a toss-up. E. Hicks is running regular at right half with Ronald Smitherman trying to win the number two place behind Hicks.

C. D. Galloway, after a long summer of illness that is making it hard for him to round into shape, should be the regular left half, getting help from Bobby Bunn and Jimmy Lemley.

Ends prospect is fair with Pete Pickett and J. T. Smith running a shade ahead of the field but making it very interesting are these boys: Tink Underwood, who will do some punting, Billy Joe Pickett, Frank Norris, Jamie Houditch, Nolan Bearden and Billy Mac Lee.

Tackles prospect is fair. John Hallman, also punter, Two-Ton Knowles, Jimmy Rochester, Gerald Lucas, Willie Hyde, Johnny Lemley.

Guards fair to good. It looks like our guards will be able to move this year with these boys: Bobby Wilson, David Eiland, Kenneth Oglesby, Robert O'Neal, James Hallman, John Kirby taking care of the guard situation.

Centers fair. P. Woolley and B. Logan are running neck and neck at this spot with both boys likely to see service on defense.

Other boys out or have been out at least once include Leroy Winslett, guard; Wailon Blair, right half; Lewis Hughes, tackle; Barclay Fisher, quarter back; Whatley, guard; Tommy Green, end.

Anyone missing five practices before the Isabella game will not dress out.

We should win four or five games this season.

MISS HELEN NEWTON

Miss Newton Named Alumnae Secretary

Miss Helen Burns Newton, Alabama College Field Representative, will become Executive Secretary of the Alabama College Alumnae Association this week. She succeeds Miss Eloise Lee, who has served as Alumnae Secretary for the past six years.

A graduate of Ramsay High School, Birmingham, and of Alabama College, Miss Newton served as a teacher in the public schools of Opp, Alabama and Sarasota, Florida, before joining the staff of the college in June last year.

As a student at Alabama College, Miss Newton was editor of the Montage; College Night leader; member of the student senate.

Miss Lee is the daughter of the late Judge Alton V. Lee, a well-known Gadsden attorney and a former trustee of Alabama College. She resigned her position as Alumnae Secretary to return to her home in Gadsden.

County Farmers Eligible For Emergency Loans

Mr. James T. Lunsford, state director of Farmers Home Administration, has notified Mr. S. S. Pierce, county supervisor, that Shelby County has been designated as a disaster area, and authorized the making of emergency loans to eligible applicants who suffered drought damage in 1954.

The primary purpose of the production emergency loan program is the extension of credit to farmers and stockmen who have suffered substantial damage as a result of a production disaster and who are unable to obtain from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies or other sources the credit required to carry on their farming or livestock operations.

Before a loan is made the local county committee must certify to certain required facts of eligibility of the applicant. The local county committee is composed of Lester Stancil, Frank Lowe, and Jesse Barnes.

Farmers interested in making application for production emergency loans should contact the local Farmers Home Administration office which is located in the old courthouse, at Columbiana. All applications will be given prompt attention.

MONTEVALLO P T A

The first general PTA meeting is planned for September 7 at 7:30 p.m., in the Montevallo High School auditorium. At this meeting an effort will be made to enroll a record number of members. The social hour will honor new teachers in the elementary and high school grades.

Enlistment week will be observed September 6 through 11.

CALERA P T A MEETING

Calera P T A will have the first meeting of the year Wednesday afternoon, September 6 at Calera High School. All parents are urged to be present.

Calera Ready For Labor Day Festival

All highways lead to Calera on Labor Day for the third annual Civitan Scholarship Barbecue. The 1954 festival is to be held on the Calera High School grounds. It will embrace a well-rounded entertainment program plus the finest hickory cooked barbecue plate and sandwiches.

Tables and benches will be arranged among the oak and pine trees in the park area. There will be swings, slides and merry-go-round for the children to play on.

The Calera Little Leaguers will battle the Clanton little fellows in a hot contest beginning at ten a.m. This will be baseball at its best, as these tiny mites ask no quarter and battle each other down to the wire.

Calera's town team will take on an opponent not yet named in the afternoon. The local manager is dickering with several strong teams and will select the outfit expected to have the greatest spectator appeal.

So all citizens of Calera are singing this week, "Take Me Out to the Bar-B-Q, Take Me Out To The Park." It will be baseball and barbecue and lots of entertainment and fun for all.

Be sure to come and bring a friend.

Mr. Walter L. Randolph, president of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation, says the new Farm Act continues 90 per cent cotton loans, and adds that "the agricultural Act of 1954, passed by the U.S. Congress in August, is sound and constructive."

He says it returns farm price support and adjustment legislation to the basic principles of the Farm Bureau policy.

One of these principles, Mr. Randolph points out, is that farmers must share in adjustment of supplies to demand in return for price supports.

According to Mr. Randolph, the Act of 1954 is an improvement over previous legislation in that it gives greater recognition to the difference between grains and cotton and peanuts. This, he says, gives great promise of providing a sound price support program which applies in different ways to the basic commodities.

Looking to the future, the Farm Bureau president says that experience will most likely show that the new act will need improvement; if so, this can be done if we maintain a strong Farm Bureau organization to represent the best interests of farm people.

"The loan rate for cotton in 1955 will be 90 per cent of parity," said Mr. Randolph.

Montevallo Clean-Up Week Makes Progress

With the Montevallo Clean-Up Week just a little past the halfway mark, it looks as if a jam-up job is being done.

Streets have been re-marked for parking and safety zones, the fire plugs are sparkling with new coats of red and silver. A great many weed patches have been cut over and much trash has been picked up and hauled away.

A group of representatives of the Lions Club will tour the city during the latter part of the week to spot places that have been missed, and to see if some action can be taken about them.

Everyone is urged to take a last look around your place and make sure you have done your very best to get your premises looking spic and span.

Remember, you should call the city hall and ask for the truck to pick up and carry away your collection of refuse.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

The direct loss figure of $92,809.65, shown above, will explain why we have asked the Alabama Public Service Commission to authorize the discontinuance of passenger trains Nos. 19 and 20 between Birmingham and Mobile.

Four years ago, in 1950, we ran three-column by 10-inch display advertisements in all newspapers along the route of these trains. We called attention to the lack of patronage of these air-conditioned, diesel-powered trains, and the heavy losses they were incurring. And we urged the readers to show, by using the service, that the trains were needed and wanted. "Otherwise," the ad said, "we will be forced to conclude that you no longer need the trains and their operation should be discontinued in the best interest of all concerned."

With yearly losses continuing, and increasing, we now feel that the trains should be removed. And we believe that even a quick examination of the facts will convince you and all other fair-minded persons that this is the only proper and business-like course for us to take.

DIRECT LOSS $92,809.65

We have been operating these two trains at a loss year after year. In fact, for every gross dollar these trains brought in during the 12 months shown above we paid out $1.77 in direct expenses alone!

Please note that total gross revenues during the year were only $120,699.30. But direct expenses alone were $213,508.95. This means that we had a direct loss of $92,809.65. Losses of this sort will continue year after year and will continue to increase—unless we are given permission to "stop the leak." The simple truth is that these trains are little used by the public and there is no need in the public interest for their continued operation.

You will note that we have not included in the "direct expenses" shown in the table such properly chargeable items as supervision, dispatching, maintenance of way and structures, interest, depreciation and taxes other than payroll taxes. Thus, our actual loss is much greater than the direct loss shown in the table above.

Revenue From Passengers Handled $ 46,531.24
 Cost of Wages and Fuel 141,890.92

Two items of direct expense alone—train fuel and wages of the train crew, including payroll taxes—add up to $141,890.92. That's $95,359.68 more than the total revenue received for carrying passengers. Stated another way, for each dollar paid in by the passengers using these trains, we paid out more than three dollars for wages and fuel alone. This indicates how impossible it is to make these trains pay their way.

BURDENS SHIPPERS

Losses from the continuation of unwanted passenger service have to be made up from freight revenues. Shippers everywhere in Alabama are helping to pay for the losses incurred by these trains. This isn't fair to them. In fact, shippers already are vigorously protesting that their freight rates are now required to carry the burden of losses from unused and unneeded passenger operations.

PLENTY OF OTHER SERVICE

The route over which these trains operate is well served by fine hard-surfaced highways over which now moves by choice—in buses, private automobiles and trucks—the traffic that formerly enabled these trains to "pay their way."

Nearly everyone has an automobile nowadays. This fact, plus the abundant common carrier highway bus and truck service available, means that the discontinuance of trains Nos. 19 and 20 will result in no inconvenience.

As to the mail and express now carried by these trains, arrangements are being made to provide adequate service.

IN YOUR BEST INTEREST

Today the people don't want, and won't buy, local passenger train service. And losses such as shown above are a serious matter to us, and to you. They cannot be justified and should not be permitted to continue.

Viewed from any angle it is definitely not in your best interest—or in the best interest of the public generally—to require railroads to continue passenger service that isn't used. Everybody benefits when railroads are encouraged and helped to eliminate such burdens that unnecessarily increase costs and undermine the railroad services that you do need and want.

Won't you please give us your sympathetic understanding? J. B. Singleton, Superintendent, Southern Railway Company, Selma, Alabama, will be glad to answer any inquiries concerning the above.

Mr. David L. Roberts of Calera who retired after 10 years service with Railway Express, was presented with an engrossed certificate of service by division supervisor, W. P. Dailey, on August 28. Mr. O. C. Farris, Mayor of Calera, and several of his friends attended the presentation and offered their best wishes.

Something to Remember.

Mr. Roberts relates: "The thing I remember most during the time I was agent came in on the L&N train just a short time after I was checked in as agent. I felt new and was not sure of myself. A bull weighing 1270 pounds was to be unloaded at Calera. I immediately secured help. He was the biggest thing I had ever seen, and was to be transferred to the Southern train. During his lay-over in Calera I noticed on a placard instructions to feed and water the bull and to tie him in the crate. Everything worked out OK and the bull was sent on his way promptly."

Veterans Loan Program Extended for One Year

The authority of the Veterans Administration to make direct loans for the purpose of buying or building home or farm houses has been extended to June 30, 1955, according to word received from Washington by Harley A. Smith, regional manager of VA.

The direct loan program which has been in effect for several years had expired, Smith said, but was revived by Congressional legislation approved by the President on August 21.

The new legislation makes available enough money so that about 50 loans a month can be made to veterans in Alabama, the announcement said. These loans are available only in small towns and rural areas where money from private lenders is usually not available, which has been a requirement of the law since the beginning of the direct loan program, the VA said.

For several years there has not been enough money available to make a loan to every veteran who applied and applications can not be processed as received. There are still about 1700 applications on file that will be considered as active and will be processed as they are reached. New applications will be considered in their turn, Smith said.

Supt. Elliott Backs Educational Drive

County Supt. of Schools, W. W. Elliott, today added his voice to the national back-to-school campaign.

"Both children and community should take that campaign seriously," he said, "for both certainly stand to benefit directly from it."

Supt. Elliott pointed out that education (1) increases the earning power of an individual, and (2) raises his standard of living. This combination, he said, results in more local business for the community and more personal satisfaction for the individual.

As proof of his position, he pointed to a recent national survey by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce which shows that the more schooling people have, the more they buy. As the educational level comes down, retail sales decrease in proportion.

The federal wage-hour law, he said, generally establishes a 16-year minimum age for employment in industry and generally forbids the employment of children under 16 years of age in agriculture during the hours when the local school is in session. Upon conviction, willful violation of the law can result in a penalty of up to $10,000.

Alabama's investment in school property is over $150 per pupil in average attendance. Expenditures per pupil is more than $117.

"In view of such facts," he said "we certainly ought to have the interest and concern to urge all boys and girls who have not graduated to return to school this fall. Education is something which adds its values and benefits both to the individual and to the whole community in which he lives."

Funeral Services Are Held for A. H. Caddell

Mr. A. H. Caddell, 45, died suddenly of a heart attack at his home August 25.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Cleo Armstrong Caddell and three sisters, Miss Troy Caddell of Brent; Mrs. A. M. Purdue of Anniston; and Mrs. William Spurgins of Oklawaha.

Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon from the Calera Methodist Church, Rev. L. B. Stewart officiating, Rev. J. F. Goree, Rev. Walker and Mr. H. E. Timmerman assisting. Burial was in the new cemetery at Clanton.

Southern Trains 19 and 20 Operate at Tremendous Loss, Railway Officials Say

Southern Railway trains 19 and 20 (The Goldenrod) between Birmingham and Mobile, are operating "in the red" at a yearly clip of more than $92,000, according to J. B. Singleton, superintendent of the railway at Selma.

"Passengers on these trains are as 'scarce as hen's teeth' and there is no need in the public interest for their continued operation," he said. "The enormous deficit incurred in the operation of trains 19 and 20, plus the lack of use by the traveling public, led to our recent petition to the Alabama Public Service Commission for permission to discontinue them."

Train No. 19 leaves Birmingham at 8 a.m., and arrives at Mobile at 5 p.m. No. 20 leaves Mobile at 7:10 a.m., and arrives at Birmingham at 3:20 p.m.

Mr. Singleton said that arrangements are being made to handle mail and express, now carried on trains 19 and 20, "to provide adequate service."

"Nearly everyone has an automobile nowadays. This fact, plus the abundant highway bus service available, means that the discontinuance of trains 19 and 20 will result in no inconvenience to the public," Supt. Singleton said.

Mr. Singleton stated that "for every gross dollar these trains bring in we are paying out $1.77 in direct expenses alone."

"Total direct expenses for the year ending May 31, 1954, not including such items as supervision, dispatching, maintenance of roadway and structures, and depreciation, were $213,508.95. The total of all revenues for the same period was only $120,699.30. This resulted in a direct loss of $92,809.65."

Commenting on the impossibility of making the trains "pay their way," Supt. Singleton pointed out that the wage and fuel costs alone for the year's operation were "three times greater than passenger revenues."

"Today people don't use, and will not buy local passenger train service. And losses such as those piled up in the operation of trains 19 and 20 are a serious matter to the public and the railway. They cannot be justified and should not be permitted to continue."

"Everybody benefits when railroads are encouraged and helped to eliminate burdens that unnecessarily increase costs and generally undermine needed railroad services. Shippers are vigorously protesting that their freight rates are now required to pay for the losses from unused and unneeded passenger operations."

Mr. Singleton pointed out that the line over which these trains operate "is well served by improved highways which are now used by traffic that formerly enabled the trains to pay their way."

Removing non-loaders from the flock is one of the best ways to increase profit, reduce feed cost and raise the percentage of production.

Circus To Feature Wild Animal Show

The monster hippopotamus is one of the thrilling things to be seen with the Geo. W. Cole Wild Animal Circus when it exhibits in Montevallo for two performances afternoon and night, on Friday, September 10, sponsored by the American Legion Post No. 96.

This well known American institution features a fast moving circus program starring many of the headline acts of the circus world. A large menagerie of animals will be seen with the Geo. W. Cole circus, including a herd of elephants, lions, leopards, baboons, camels, apes, guanacos, chimpanzees, kangaroos, hyenas, and many others. The public is invited to witness the feeding of these animals free at 10 a.m. on circus day.

"Goliath," a monster hippopotamus from the River Nile, alive and weighing over four tons, will be on exhibition daily on the circus grounds.

Greatly reduced prices of admission are stressed by the circus this season.

FROM THE MOORES

The Times-Herald has received a note from our friend, Ferman Moore, at Eustis, Florida, saying he is getting along fine. He is running the ice plant (except at times when it interferes with his fishing). Lillian is working in a cafe.

He hints that some fine, fresh, juicy oranges will be coming up this way as soon as the new crop gets ripe.

He didn't say anything about coming back to vote in November. Guess he feels that Big Jim will win without his vote anyhow. I feel the same way. Election day would be a good time to go fishing, I think.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me, I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

Cooperative Plan Offers Dental Technician Course

One of the first cooperative programs of study offered by institutions of higher learning in Alabama and leading to a recognized college degree was outlined today in a joint announcement made by Dr. F. Edward Lund, President of Alabama College and D. Joseph F. Volker, Dean of the University of Alabama Dental School in Birmingham.

The program of study for women, leading to a bachelor of science degree with major concentration of study in dental hygiene makes it possible for students to receive their basic liberal arts education on the Montevallo campus and then receive their two-year dental hygiene training at the University of Alabama Dental School.

Under the coordinated plan of study, a student will attend Alabama College for two years, then the University Dental School for two years. Tentative arrangements are for the University Dental School to grant a certificate in Dental Hygiene and for Alabama College to grant the bachelor of science degree.

The new program of study will help ease the demand for qualified dental hygienists and will be available to students at the opening of school next week.

G. C. LONG, JR.

Long Resigns As Publicity Director

Montgomery — Gov. Gordon Persons has accepted the resignation, effective January 1, of G. C. Long, Jr., as director of the state bureau of publicity and information.

At the same time it was announced in Birmingham by Joe Vance, president of the Alabama Hospital Association, that Long would become executive secretary of the hospital group January 1.

Long has been state publicity director since March 1 of this year. Prior to taking the state position he had been a political writer for the Montgomery Advertiser and Alabama Journal for eight years.

When he takes over his new duties, with offices in Montgomery, he will have as his primary duty the interpreting of hospital services and problems to the citizens of the state, Vance said.

Long, 37, a native of Calera, is a graduate of the University of Alabama, where he received an A.B. degree in journalism in 1940. He is married to the former Sylvia Appleton of Montevallo. They have three sons.

DAR FIRST MEETING

The first fall meeting of David Lindsay Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Lyman at 7:30 on Monday evening, September 13.

Harrison To Be C of C Speaker

Shelby County's Representative in the state legislature, Hon. Karl C. Harrison, of Columbiana, will address the Montevallo Chamber of Commerce at its first annual dinner meeting on September 20. The meeting will be held in the American Legion Hut at 7:30 p.m. All business and professional people in the Montevallo area are invited to attend. Tickets are now on sale and may be obtained from a committee consisting of W. E. Lovelady, chairman; C. H. Chism, and Earl McGaughy.

The officers of the Chamber of Commerce hope the dinner will become an annual affair and will serve to stimulate membership and active interest on the part of all concerned with the work of the organization in this area.

Agriculture Classes Enroll 80 Students

Vocational agriculture classes at Montevallo High School will have a total of 80 or more students this fall, according to M. Thornton, local vo-ag instructor. Nationally, Mr. Thornton said, more than 400,000 farm boys attending rural public high schools throughout the country will enroll this fall, or continue their studies in vocational agriculture courses designed to fit them for the complex job of modern farming.

Boys selecting vocational agriculture spend two classroom periods each day during the first year studying agriculture under a teacher who is an agriculture college graduate specially trained for the job of teaching. Each student is required to carry out projects of their own in their farms and in their homes and are encouraged to develop these projects of their own and build up an equity that will see them well established in farming.

Vo-ag students are probably best known as members of the Future Farmers of America, or FFA, their national organization. FFA has approximately 8,500 local chapters sponsored by the high school vocational agriculture departments. The national organization is sponsored by the agricultural education branch of the office of education, department of health, education and welfare.

Activities sponsored by FFA provide a powerful stimulus to the farm boys to study and work harder. At the same time, the Future Farmers are meeting and working with people outside their usual small circle of friends and gaining confidence in themselves, and learning more about the complexities of modern citizenship. They pick up many new ideas on farming also. Through these activities and their regular chapter meetings, they learn how to speak in public and to follow parliamentary procedure.

It is the first church building ever erected in Calera. H. E. Timmerman is minister.

Adult Farm Class Meets Wednesday

A group of farmers will gather at Montevallo Vocational Agriculture Department next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock to organize a program of evening meetings devoted to agriculture which will be held throughout the fall and winter months.

The meeting grew out of a desire on the part of a number of farmers for developing a program of evening discussions devoted to farm problems.

The course is to consist of weekly meetings at which time current problems related to farming will be discussed.

This is the first meeting of a series and every farmer is invited to attend, bringing along some of the problems he would like to have discussed during the course.

According to M. Thornton, vocational teacher, local farmers are taking the responsibility for organizing the program and Lester Stancil, a dairy farmer, will be temporary chairman. Mr. Thornton will handle the discussion periods and assist with the planning of the program. It is expected that each community within the Montevallo area will be represented.

Clean-Up Week Is Successful

Congratulations are in order for the Montevallo Lions Club, sponsors of "Clean-Up Week" in Montevallo, and for the many citizens who responded and helped in this movement.

As has always been the case, in such community efforts, there were some on whom the appeal failed to register.

But on the whole, it should be said that the movement did result in the desired effect — to make Montevallo look better, neater and cleaner. You can see the difference, and that is proof of success to a reasonable extent.

There was a great quantity of trash and rubbish collected and removed, as attested by the extra work done in this respect by the city truck and workmen.

The Lions did a good job of repainting the fire plugs. The red and silver combination is a departure from the conventional, and catches the eye. The firemen say you can now find 'em better in the dark. This added a noticeable accent to prove that a little paint can do a whole lot to improve appearance. You can believe what the paint ads say.

Members of the Lions Club had to take scythe and swing blade in hand and do it themselves to get the grass and weeds cut in some places. They didn't complain, however. They were only determined to prove that they were sincere in their efforts to make the city put on a better appearance.

Karl Harrison Salutes Shelby County Teachers

To the Teachers and Students of Shelby County Schools:

As president of the Citizens Advisory Educational Council of Alabama, I am happy to join in this salute to you. I wish to commend our teachers for the fine job they have done. I want to join in wishing for them more help and support in the future from the people of our state than they have had in the past.

To our students, I wish to say that I feel you too are doing a fine job in equipping yourselves so as to hold your own out in life with students from other states where the schools have had more financial support and backing than they have had in Alabama.

Even so, I feel that both the teachers and the students have made real progress and we parents and interested citizens promise to do our part to make the schools of the future materially better than they have ever been before. — Karl C. Harrison, President, Citizens Advisory Educational Council of Alabama.

Members of the Jasper (Ala.) Crescent Club honored Miss Emily McGown, bride-elect, with a tea at the club from 5 to 7 p.m. Wednesday. Guests attending from Montevallo were Mrs. Roy Hicks, Becky, Mrs. Robert Norris of Auburn and Miss Mary Katherine Hicks.

ARE YOU GETTING THE MOST FROM YOUR HOME'S ELECTRIC SYSTEM?

Electrical appliances and lamps give best service when receiving the required amount of electricity. When electric wires in the home are not large enough or there aren't enough circuits, lights burn with less than full brightness...

- ... lights flicker as an appliance starts
- ... there may be radio and television interference
- ... refrigerators run excessively
- ... air conditioning units do not perform well
- ... fuses blow out
- ... irons and toasters heat slowly

Alabama Power Company has worked out a plan by which you can finance a re-wiring job over a period of 24 months. This offers you an opportunity to have a home as up to date as a brand new one in so far as wiring is concerned so that you may get full performance from the electrical appliances you have now or expect to have. (Electric water heater? Range? Dishwasher? Clothes Dryer?)

For a booklet describing the plan, mail this coupon or inquire at your nearest Alabama Power Company office.

Lions Entertain With Boat Ride

On Wednesday, September 8, the members of the Montevallo Lions Club honored their wives and guests with a trip to Tuscaloosa for a voyage on the E-Z-Kraft, luxury excursion boat of the Gulf States Paper Corporation on the Warrior River.

The trip up the Warrior River was thoroughly enjoyed by the 40 persons in attendance.

Adding to the thrill of the cruise, the E-Z-Kraft anchored just below Lock 13, where a most enjoyable and sumptuous dinner was served aboardship.

Mr. Black, a representative of Gulf States Paper Corporation, who accompanied the party, expressed a warm welcome to the visitors on behalf of the company.

Don Lovelady expressed the appreciation of the visiting group in these well-chosen and most fitting words:

"This is the story of the nautical life of a hill-billy in the high country of the Black Warrior—and it is of few hours, but full of fun.

"The beauty of the story is not in the telling of it, but in the enchanting experience of making the trip and enjoying the few delightful hours made possible by our superb hosts, the Gulf States Paper Corporation."

Blood Donor Cards May Be Renewed

Opportunity to renew blood donor cards, or to secure new ones, will be provided to residents of Montevallo and surrounding communities at the Montevallo High School auditorium Tuesday, September 28 from 1 to 7 p.m.

The schedule of visits to Shelby County has been planned to provide easy opportunity in each community for regular six-month renewal of donor cards. The 1954-55 schedule is as follows:

Tuesday, September 28 at Montevallo; Monday, November 22 at Columbiana; Monday, March 21 at Alabama College; Tuesday, May 17 at Calera.

Please make note of the dates and plan to keep your blood-donor insurance in order. Anyone is welcome at any of the centers. In order that plans for handling people can be made to best advantage, your committee urges you to make an appointment for your blood donation if at all possible. Watch for announcements.

Transfusions have come to be increasingly important in the treatment of illness. None of us knows when he may require one or more pints of blood, or how difficult it might be to find a matching type. Your blood donor card is your insurance—the cheapest insurance you carry—against such an emergency.

Please give your name to someone on the recruitment committee or fill out and return the blank found elsewhere in this paper—Marcia Sears, local chairman; Laura Hadley, county chairman.

Grid Prospects Good at Calera

The Calera High Eagles open the 1954 season with Vincent at Calera Thursday at 7 p.m. It will be the first time Calera has opened at home under the lights.

The Eagles, who lost five lettermen from the 1953 squad, expect a much better season this year. The line boasts of seven of eight lettermen returning.

The lone backs returning are fullback Bucky Askins and right halfback Jerry Cosby. Both are showing improvement in practice sessions.

The line should be improved with veteran captain Fred Sims, Don Jacks and Howard Cannady. Ends co-captain Hugh Tomlin, Sidney Godfrey. Tackles Jim Carden, Don Woods, George Holcomb at guards and center.

The backfield, despite inexperience, should show much improvement as the season progresses. With boys like quarterback Wright Ingram, halfbacks Larry Sinor, Wayne Lambrecht, Wayne Ellison and Walter Ingram, it should be faster than the 1953 backfield.

Calera's schedule is as follows:

Sept. 16, Vincent at Calera; Sept. 24, Goodwater there; Sept. 30, Jemison at Calera; Oct. 7, Verbena at Calera; Oct. 15, Thompson there; Oct. 22, Isabella there; Oct. 28, Montevallo at Calera; Nov. 5, open; Nov. 12, Columbiana there; Nov. 19, Reeltown at Calera; all home games start at 7 p.m.

IN THE SCHOOLS

(By A. H. Bearden)

Is there a need for citizenship training in our schools? One has only to read the daily newspapers which give the accounts of election frauds, vice and corruption in Phenix City, or in the Birmingham police force to see the crying need for more training in citizenship by the school, the home, and the church. Being a high school principal, I am very deeply concerned with development of better citizens. The schools are no longer concerned with the teaching of the three R's, but with the six R's, reading, riting, rithmetic, rights, responsibilities and relationships.

Many means and facilities are used in the school for teaching citizenship, such as talks by outside speakers, participation in the school clubs, audio-visual aids, library reading, lunchroom behavior, and athletics. Good citizenship is inspired by the study of great people, both past and present. Some courses have as their primary objective the development of citizenship.

Training in citizenship, however, comes as an indirect result of good teaching and not so much the result of lessons from textbooks on citizenship.

Parents, ministers, and teachers can assist in the citizenship training program but we, as the teachers, must accept more responsibility in the training of good citizens. We must somehow, some time, somewhere, put forth our utmost effort to inspire these future citizens to higher ideals if we are to hear our Maker commend us with the words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Herring of Spring Hill were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Cowart Wednesday evening.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP DAY
SEPTEMBER 17

Why do we observe Good Citizenship Day? Are we honoring our good citizens, or are we asking for more citizens of the right kind? Are we, as parents and as teachers, training our children to be the citizens they should be?

We have some definitions of good citizenship as they were given in the citizenship group of the Shelby County Teachers Association during the teachers workshop at Columbiana September 1 and 2. Will you evaluate these, then share with us, through this paper or otherwise, your ideas on this subject?

One teacher said good citizenship is harmonious living.

Another teacher said citizenship is character, plus cooperation and consideration for others.

To me, good citizenship is doing the right thing at the right time in the right way.

From Miss Lavada Harper's fourth and fifth grade group we get this paragraph:

A good citizen always practices the Golden Rule in the classroom and on the playground. He carefully abides by the rules made by the group. He shares his ideas and materials with his fellow classmates. Last but not least, he keeps busy and does not waste time.

The fifth grade of Mrs. Smitherman's room wrote this paragraph:

Good citizenship means doing what you should do. We should listen to the one who is talking, work quietly in our own desk, and keep everything in order. A good citizen treats others as he would like to be treated. In all things we should try to make the best better.—(Sent in by Mrs. Lexie Smitherman, fifth grade teacher, Thompson High School.)

DAR Chapter Observes Constitution Day

David Lindsay Chapter, D A R, began its 1954-1955 year by observing Constitution Day at its meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Willis H. Lyman.

Mrs. T. H. Napier distributed the new Year Books, with splendidly arranged programs.

The resolutions passed by the 63rd Continental DAR Congress were read and commented upon in a most interesting manner by Mrs. W. J. Kennerly, who attended this Congress in April.

Mrs. Lyman reported that David Lindsay Chapter has been assigned the following high schools in connection with the selection of Good Citizenship Girl: Montevallo High, Shelby County High, Calera High, Thompson High and Vincent High.

Language Program Set For Elementary School

"Merci", "mademoiselle", "monsieur". Such words pronounced in high pitched voices are the first evidences of a new experimental program in teaching modern languages in Alabama College's elementary laboratory school.

Dr. Lorraine Pierson, professor of foreign languages and head of the foreign language department at Alabama College, will be in charge of the program which starts this fall teaching French to all children enrolled in the school's second grade.

College students majoring in elementary education may take advantage of the practice teaching situation involved in the experimental program this year.

If the program proves successful, additional languages will be taught and the program will be expanded to other grades, according to Dr. Richard Powers, dean of the college.

Sports Trophy Is Offered to Schools

"Sportsmanship" was the topic for discussion by representatives of the five Shelby County high schools Wednesday, September 15 at Calera school auditorium.

Mrs. Joyce Mabry of the Calera faculty served as moderator for the panel made up of coaches and students from Vincent, Columbiana, Montevallo, Thompson and Calera.

"Sports have an appeal for almost everyone. Next to weather, people probably talk about sports more than any other topic. In Shelby County we have fine schools composed of fine principals, coaches, teachers, and boys and girls, but we can improve our sportsmanship," Mrs. Mabry, the moderator, said. "For this reason the 'C' Club at Calera is offering a trophy to be won by the school exercising the best sportsmanship, according to the judges. These judges are anonymous. The scores will be compiled at the end of the school year after football, basketball and baseball. At graduation the winning school will be announced and the trophy will be awarded. If the trophy is won by the same school for three successive years, it will be retired and a new trophy put into action."

These are the points on which the schools (and this includes the spectators, student body, cheerleaders, players and the school personnel) will be graded.

The question discussed by the panel were: (1) How can you as a coach, football player, cheerleader and member of the student body promote better sportsmanship? (2) What are examples of good sportsmanship? (3) What are examples of poor sportsmanship? (4) How can a school be penalized for unsportsmanlike conduct?

The assembly of Calera students and panel were reminded that a school can be fined and suspended from playing other games by displaying acts of poor sportsmanship.

For devotional Mrs. Mabry read the verse "As ye would that men should do unto you, do ye also to them likewise." In school athletics, sportsmanship is the Golden Rule applied to contests. It means distinctive qualities of gentlemen and ladies, fighting courage, determination, fairness, and modesty. Mrs. Mabry read the poem, "Playing the Game."

Taking part in the panel were: Shelby County High, coach Ray Mann; cheerleader Shirley Sims; co-captains Tommy Hatchett and Charles Knowles; president of the student body, John Avery.

Vincent, coach, Don Acton; cheerleaders Dot Moore and Wanda Harnn; captains Billy Sorrel, Berney Howard; president of the student body, Ed Garner.

Thompson, coach Byron Chambliss; cheerleader Dixie Jones; captain Howard Mooney; president of student body, Paul Yeager.

Montevallo, coach, Theron Fisher; cheerleader, Gail Jones; captain of football team and president of the student body, C. D. Galloway.

Calera, coach, Dan Carroll; cheerleader, LeClare Cowart; captain, Fred Sims; representative of student body, Ruth Stewart.

B AND P W CLUB

The Montevallo Business and Professional Women's Club held its first full meeting of the new club year on Tuesday evening. The program was a travel talk by Miss Lelah Brownfield on her trip to Egypt this summer. The officers for the year are: Mrs. Ralph Sears, president; Mrs. E. P. Hood, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Madge Carpenter, treasurer; Mrs. Joe Doyle, secretary.

NEW BUSES PROVIDED

Montevallo schools have two new buses, replacing Wilton's No. 28 and Dry Valley's No. 7. The remainder of the buses have been put in good condition. Bus service should be greatly improved this year.—The Spotlight.

HOW THEY DID IT — Here are three Montevallo Lions as they were caught in the act of painting a fire plug. They are Bill Pendleton, Bill Alexander and Pat Wyatt. Painting all fire plugs in town in an attractive combination of silver and red was a part of the "Clean-Up and Paint-Up Week" recently sponsored and successfully accomplished by the Montevallo Lions Club.

Shelby County Farmers Can Apply For Drought Assistance Under Emergency

Rep. Armistead Selden points out that farmers in Shelby County and the other seven counties of the Sixth District are now eligible to apply for drought assistance under the emergency hay and feed grain program. This form of drought assistance was made available on September 16 when the President and Secretary of Agriculture designated the entire Sixth District as a drought disaster area.

"The feed program is designed to give more help to farmers who are forced to buy supplemental feed supplies to maintain their foundation herds of cattle and sheep," Congressman Selden explained. Application for feed grains at reduced prices can be obtained from the local offices of the Farmers Home Administration or the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee offices. After the application is approved, farmers can buy surplus feed grains such as wheat and corn at a reduced cost of $1.00 per hundred below the regular local price. When a farmer is declared eligible to buy the low-cost feed, he is issued a certificate which he presents to his feed dealer. The Commodity Credit Corporation pays off these certificates with grain from its surplus stocks.

Congressman Selden pointed out that cottonseed meal is not now available at reduced prices since there is no surplus of this crop. When a mixture of a surplus grain and cottonseed meal is purchased, the farmer pays the reduced price only for the surplus grain and must pay full price for the proportion of cottonseed meal which is used in the mixture.

"Hay will also be included under a similar program as soon as the Governor of Alabama and the Secretary of Agriculture have completed a contract for the hay distribution program," Rep. Selden stated. The hay program is worked out so that federal funds can be used for paying transportation costs, as long as the cost to the government does not exceed one-half the actual cost of transportation or $10, whichever is less.

Detailed information concerning the hay and feed grain programs, as well as other types of government drought assistance, is now available to farmers of the Sixth District and can be obtained from the county agents, Farmers Home Administration offices, and the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee offices.

"I am very pleased," Congressman Selden said, "that our efforts to have all eight counties of the Sixth District declared eligible for emergency assistance have been successful. I hope that this assistance will alleviate to some extent the critical conditions confronting the drought-stricken farmers of the Sixth District and of other sections of our state."

Cow's Digestive Process Is Subject of Film Picture

What takes place inside the stomach of a cow?

The mystery of this complicated process will be revealed in a motion picture sponsored by the Shelby County Farm Supply, local Purina Feed dealers, Wednesday night, September 29, at the vocational agriculture building in Montevallo.

The Ralston Purina Company has sponsored the filming of this amazing picture. It was made by actually placing lights and camera in the stomach through a little window in the side of the animal. Then while the actual digestive processes were taking place, they were recorded on the film.

This picture should be of great interest to all people interested in the raising of cattle.

RECORD ENROLLMENT

According to the Spotlight, the school newspaper, the enrollment in Montevallo schools on opening day, September, reached a record number of 720 in both elementary and high school grades.

Givhan and McGehee Get Chamber of Commerce Award

Eagles Win, 13-6, In Season Opener

Opening its first home game under lights, the Calera Eagles took Vincent by a score of 13 to 6. It was a scoreless first half, as neither team could unroll a scoring punch.

Vincent, unable to make first down until late in the second quarter, had to punt the first four times they had the ball. One punt was blocked by Sidney Godfrey, tackle.

The half ended with Calera in possession of the ball on their own 3 yard line, where they had held Vincent for downs.

Calera kicked off to Vincent to open the second half. Unable to move with the ball, they punted. Calera took the ball on their own 40 and moved sixty yards to a touchdown, climaxed by Bucky Askins going wide around end for the final 20 yards. The extra point was good on a Wright Ingram to Don Jacks pass.

Calera marched for another touchdown in the 4th quarter on a pass from Ingram to Jacks. Don Jacks gathered in a 10 yard pass and ran 20 yards to score.

Vincent scored after they recovered a fumbled punt, and marched 35 yards to score. Ronnie Thomas went the last 12 to score.

Halfback Jerry Cosby and quarterback Wright Ingram showed up well on offense as well as Jacks and Askins. Standouts on defense for Calera were Sims, Askins, Godfrey and Sino.

The game ended with Calera again holding Vincent on their own 3 yard line. Jacks averaged 40 yards on his punts. Wright Ingram completed 9 passes out of 12 attempts.

USN, chief of naval air training, during ceremonies held at the Naval Air Station here. Eddings was designated and commissioned directly from helicopter training without going through advance training at Corpus Christi, Texas.

The scheduled dinner meeting of the Montevallo Chamber of Commerce at the Legion Hut on Monday night was acclaimed a success from every standpoint. It evinced the vigor and enthusiasm that continues to spur this important organization for activity toward progress and development of this area. There was an attendance of about forty members and a dozen visitors.

The dinner served by the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary was just what it took to put the finishing touch on the pleasurable features of the meeting, and the program fully emphasized the dignity and purpose of the occasion.

Pete Givhan and Murphy McGehee, two of the king pins in the activity and accomplishments of the Chamber of Commerce for the last two years were given awards on behalf of the membership for their devoted service and unselfish sacrifice in carrying forward the objectives of the organization. They served respectively as president and chairman of the industrial committee during the period that saw the location and construction of the plant of Westinghouse Electric Corporation in our vicinity.

The awards, beautifully engraved and appropriately inscribed desk clocks, were presented by president James A. Wyatt with appropriate words of appreciation to the recipients on behalf of the membership.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Hon. Karl C. Harrison of Columbiana, Shelby County representative in the legislature of Alabama. He was presented by the Mayor of Montevallo. In his address Mr. Harrison reviewed some of the important trends in the field of legislation in Alabama, with special emphasis upon education in general and Alabama College in particular.

Prominent visitors attending the meeting were L. M. Smith, president of Alabama Power Co.; B. F. Lunsford, group manager of Southern Bell Telephone Co., of Bessemer; L. O. Farris, mayor of Calera; R. Robinson and Philip Kyser of Southern Cement Co.; Albert Scott of the Alabaster Lime Co.; W. L. Lawler, Sr., and W. L. Lawler, Jr., of the Lawler Machine & Welding Co.

Calera P T A Study Group Has Meeting

You would think that having reared 21 children and starting on the 22nd—nine of her own and thirteen that she has mothered as her own — would give any mother enough experience that she would not think she needed any advice from books or study groups. But not so with Mrs. Lillian Giattina of Calera.

When the Calera PTA Study Group met Wednesday for the first time this year, Mrs. Giattina was among the mothers enrolled and participated in the discussion that followed.

This group will meet the second Wednesday of each month at 3:15 p.m. Mrs. C. L. Lawrence is chairman and urges all mothers in this vicinity to take part in this study course. Outline of the year's topics is as follows:

Oct. 13, Some get along, some don't—why; Nov. 10, When children blow off steam; Dec. 8, Forewarning of delinquency; Jan. 12, Frank answers to straight questions; Feb. 9, What job for Junior?; March 9, Moral values and religious roots; April 13, Sex education that makes sense; May 11, Don't deny them discipline.

School Girls May Enter Homemaking Contest

High school girls in the senior graduating class are eligible to participate in the national search for the Betty Crocker All-American homemaker of tomorrow, which was announced this week. The search is designed to emphasize the work being done by public and private schools in training girls for successful family life after marriage and to glamorize homemaking as a career.

It has been conceived by General Mills as a public service and, the company stressed, is neither a beauty nor popularity contest.

"Anything we or anyone else can do to help encourage and strengthen homemaking talents among our high school senior girls," says Charles H. Bell, president of General Mills, "will be an important contribution to the stability and perpetuation of our American way of life."

Girls participating in the contest for which a list of awards for both students and schools will be announced later, will take a written examination. The test has been developed by Science Research Associates of Chicago, which will also grade the papers.

Jesse and Hoot Want To Be 'Salt Water Cowboys'

Birmingham—Jesse James and Hoot Gibson in the same week is almost too much, but that's what showed up at the Marine recruiting station here last week.

First came Hoot Gibson who brought affidavits proving his name was just that. Then came Jesse James Boulter. Jesse says he's not chasing Hoot, but since Hoot doesn't know that Jesse is right behind him, a special dispatch has been requested to have Hoot on the lookout for Jesse when the two come face to face in boot camp at Parris Island, South Carolina.

According to the way they get around, both of these young men could easily be descendants of their famous namesakes. Hoot traveled all the way from Perry, Fla., to enlist, while Jesse started life in New Jersey and wound up at the recruiting station in Mobile which sent him to Birmingham for enlistment.

Hoot says he got his name because his father was an admirer of the famous movie cowboy. Jesse says that he is named for his father and an uncle.

Both are currently in boot camp at Parris Island, and it's a good bet that they will make good as "salt water" cowboys.

New Law Extends Social Security

The sweeping changes in social security which were signed into law by President Eisenhower on September 1, will affect virtually every family in Alabama, according to J. W. Overstreet, Jr., manager of the Birmingham office of the social security administration.

"The protection of old age and survivors insurance is now extended to 9 out of every 10 families in this state," Mr. Overstreet said, "and the benefit payments, not only for future beneficiaries but also to those now on the rolls have been substantially increased."

Mr. Overstreet went on to explain that persons now receiving monthly payments do not have to take any action to get these increases. They will be made automatically and do not need to be applied for. He suggested that those persons already receiving benefits wait until October 3 to see how much their increase will be because the increases are not figured by his office. He did say, however, that the present minimum payment of $25 to a retired worker has been raised to $30; the maximum $85 has been increased to $98.50. Dependents and survivors now getting monthly benefits will get proportionate increases, with every family unit assured an increase of at least $5. The maximum family payment has been raised from $168.75 to $200.

The above changes are only a few of the many important provisions of the new amended social security act. Mr. Overstreet said that a representative who is at the U. S. employment office in Calera each Thursday at 9:30 a.m. will be glad to answer any questions you have.

Calera Girls Plan Homemaker Club

Officers of the Montevallo Chapter of FHA, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Rebecca McGaughy, visited the Calera High School girls last Friday for the purpose of helping Calera organize an FHA chapter.

Mrs. McGaughy introduced the girls and told briefly the meaning of FHA, Future Homemakers of America. She then turned the meeting over to Martha Jane Mahaffey, who was moderator of the panel discussion. Martha Jane called on each girl to present a phase of FHA work. Jade Higgins showed the group a yardstick with a large emblem of the FHA at the top and explained how each girl measures her growth in the organization and what the emblem means. Mary Katherine Hicks told about the projects their chapter had chosen for the year. Mary Thornton gave a summary of the state convention and all the activities that take place during those days.

Other items in the panel discussion were: Goals the girls may choose in working toward the junior degree of achievement; the flower, which is the red rose; the colors, red and white; the motto, "Toward New Horizons"; and the chapter constitution.

The Calera girls enjoyed the discussion and seemed enthusiastic about organizing their own chapter. They plan to have their first meeting Friday, October 1.

A short social hour followed the discussion, during which cake and cookies were served.

We feel that this organization will be another step forward for Calera High School and that it will mean much to the school and the community as well as to its members.

Home Ec Students Study Fashions

The Home Economics II clothing class of Montevallo High School made a trip to Birmingham with their teacher, Miss Sara Nell Lightsey, on Tuesday of last week to study what is new in fall colors, fabrics and ready-to-wear.

At Pizitz, the group was graciously received by Dolly Dale, fashion coordinator, who arranged a guided tour of the ready-to-wear department for them. During the tour Miss Dale and other members of this department told the girls what is new in colors, lines, styles, and accessories. In class the girls had formulated a number of questions concerning their individual clothing problems. These they discussed with the fashion coordinator. At the end of the tour refreshments were served through the courtesy of the management of the store.

One of the highlights of the trip was the fashion show at Loveman's featuring Gloria Swanson. The girls were charmed by Miss Swanson, her French maid, and handsome gendarme, who provided atmosphere for the "Chez Swanson."

Later the class visited the piece goods department of several stores to study materials and patterns for the garments which they are to make in the clothing class. — Chita Hodges, student teacher, Montevallo High School.

The Association will also ask that the funds to be used for public elementary and secondary schools be allotted on the teacher unit basis as calculated under the state minimum school program.

In announcing the decision, president Laura Gaines Spratt explained that the AEA board of trustees and legislative committee understand that the above amount will not meet the building needs as determined in the federal-state survey of school buildings completed last year. NO COMMENT

A news release by A. A. Lauderdale, County Agent, about the cotton marketing situation this year says:

"The improved cotton marketing situation has already resulted in some price increases. Prices average about one cent a pound higher in August this year than last. This year's loan rate is also higher."

When the present farm program was under discussion in the Congress, our Senator Lister Hill rared up on his hindlegs and declared, in effect, that the adoption of the Eisenhower farm plan would put our cotton farmers in the "poor house" immediately and without further ceremony.

Letter to Editor

Mrs. Grady L. Alexander (Ruth Horne) of Greer, S. C., writes to The Times-Herald:

"While I visited my parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Horne, of Dry Valley, this summer I read your paper. I am enclosing an article I want published on behalf of my father.

"Since I am a native of Dry Valley, I have many friends in your section. I have been in South Carolina since 1941. Many of them have never seen our boy. Also they perhaps do not know of my father's illness. I felt that this letter to the paper is a good way to reach Dad's friends and to introduce to them my son, Ronald Meredith.

Ronald Meredith Alexander

He is the son of Grady L. and Mrs. Ruth Horne Alexander of Greer, South Carolina. He recently returned home from a trip to Charleston with other members of the Sunday School of Greer Wesleyan Methodist Church who were winners in a contest for the Sunday School building.

While in the historic city of Charleston the group visited the many places of interest, ancient churches, the museum and the zoo. They enjoyed the beach and brought back a pile of seashells for playmates and teachers.

His father, a World War II vet, and a truck driver in the famed "Hell on Wheels" outfit of the 2nd armored division, laughingly told Ronnie to try to see across the ocean, but of course he failed to do this. His father crossed the Atlantic eleven years ago in an LST with Patton's boys.

Ronnie is now in the third grade. His real reason for this "visit" is to tell you about his sick Grand-daddy Horne out on Route 1, Montevallo, whom he visited in June and July. This otherwise happy visit was somewhat marred by discovery that grand-daddy has tuberculosis. As Ronnie can't visit often, he appeals to grand-daddy's friends to visit him and send him cards and well-wishes. He has about four months in bed and a "close-in" winter. His days could be made brighter by papers, magazines and other "little things that will mean so much."

M. C. Lovelady, Jr., With Marines in Turkey

Sixth Fleet (FHTNC)—Marine Pfc. Milton C. Lovelady, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Lovelady of Montevallo, participated with 1500 other Leathernecks in an amphibious landing on the beaches of Dikili, Turkey, on September 4.

As members of the landing force of "Exercise Keystone," the Marines stormed ashore in support of Turkish troops defending the area against an airborne "enemy" invasion. It was designed to improve the efficiency and teamwork of the participating NATO units.

Mrs. Donald Springen Entertained With Tea

Complimenting Mrs. Donald K. Springen, recent bride, Mrs. Ralph Sears entertained with a tea at her home in Montevallo Sunday from 3 to 4:30 p.m.

Pink roses with pink tapers burning in silver holders accented the color motif for the lace-covered tea table. Mrs. James A. Wyatt and Mrs. Gideon E. Nelson served. The honoree and hostess received the guests.

Mrs. Springen, the former Miss Phyllis Jones, and Mr. Springen, Alabama College faculty member, were married in Montgomery on the ninth of September. The young couple are residing at Gray Gables on Moody Street.

No glass eye for Kirk!

Kirk Buddington still has both eyes. You can see why for yourself. When a machine sent a metal chip flying his way, those safety goggles proved just the protection he needed.

Safety is no accident. Foresight, care, constant searching for hazards—these all help make Brake Shoe plants safer plants to work in. And because the best safety device is a safe worker, Brake Shoe supervisors constantly instill habits of safety in employees and visitors alike.

What has this meant? Our figures show that injuries are down 34% this year. And that's bettering an already fine record: Last year, the National Safety Council granted Brake Shoe fourteen separate awards for improvements.

Going "all out" to maintain an enviable safety record is still another reason why Brake Shoe is a good place to work... a good neighbor in the community. It's another aspect of the Brake Shoe concept of "buying futures"—for all of us.

IN CALERA . . . SOUTHERN WHEEL DIVISION OF

Miss Patricia Ann Cauthen and Sidney M. Bird, Jr., Wed in Montgomery

The marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Cauthen and Sidney Maurice Bird, Jr., took place Sunday afternoon at 4:30 in the Capitol Heights Church of Christ with minister Clyde E. Fulmer officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cauthen of Montgomery, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Bird of Calera.

On the church altar was a massive arrangement of specimen white chrysanthemums flanked by branched candelabra holding white candles. In the chancel a background of greenery was made of Kentia palms and smilax, interspersed with white candles.

A choir sang "O Promise Me," "Because," "I Love You Truly," "The Lord's Prayer," and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore ivory antique silk fashioned with a fitted basque waist overlaid with scalloped French lace and scallops outlining the portrait, neckline. Long fitted sleeves making petal points over the wrists were trimmed in tiny silver-covered buttons and some of the same buttons highlighted the waist back. The full gathered skirt featured insets of matching imported lace scallops extending to the hemline forming a border for the cathedral-length train. The bride's finger-length veil of illusion fell from a jeweled coronet, and her flowers were white carnations and tuberoses.

Miss Agatha Cauthen, sister of the bride, and maid of honor, wore aquamarine crystalline over taffeta and held an arm bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums tied with bronze ribbons.

The bridesmaids, all wearing bronze crystalline, were Misses Mary Frances Stacey, Barbara Phelps, and Emily Collins. Each carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

Martha Jean Bird, sister of the groom, and flower girl, wore aquamarine crystalline over taffeta and held a bouquet of tiny feather bronze chrysanthemums tied with bronze ribbon.

The bridegroom's father served as best man, and ushers were Roger Everett of Mobile, Alvin Bird of Columbus, Ga., Fred Cauthen of Montgomery, Charles Kiely of Birmingham and Richard Reese of Pensacola.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a waltz-length dress of mauve Peau-de-soire beaded in rose-seed pearls, and corsage of Talisman roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore blue lace over pink taffeta and trimmed in pink velvet. Her flowers were pink carnations.

After the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in their home on Brevard Avenue. The reception rooms were decorated with arrangements of all white flowers, palms and white candles.

For their wedding trip to Cape Cod, the bride traveled in a wedgwood blue light-weight wool suit, navy blue accessories, with white orchid corsage. In November the bridegroom will enter the service and will be stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J., where he and his bride will reside.

America's most talked-about V-8

It's the FORD Y-block V-8
... the only V-8 in the low-price field!

An extra-deep cylinder block keeps Ford's 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 rigid ... and that keeps it smooth and quiet. A new shorter piston stroke means that you travel 21% farther for a given amount of piston travel ... and that means longer engine life, greater gas savings. Free-turning overhead valves wear evenly ... which keeps power sealed in. And Ford's new Manifolding and wedge-shaped combustion chambers make sure that gas is evenly distributed ... that you get the most "Go" from the least gas. Remember that Ford also offers a new 115-h.p. I-block Six—the industry's most modern six-cylinder engine. And both engines are built to star with Fordomatic Drive*. Then, too, only Ford cars offer you the smooth ride of new Ball-Joint Front Suspension! *at extra cost

Lights Are Amber During Fire Alarms

A device has been rigged up so that all traffic lights in Montevallo will be amber when the fire alarm is sounded and will remain so until the firemen get away with the fire truck.

This means that no one other than members of the fire department and city officers may drive past one of the amber lights.

This is most important safety measure, and its observance by the public will be rigidly enforced. If you drive into an amber light and get your block knocked off by a fireman rushing to the fire, you will not only violate the law, but you will have no claim for damages. This should be fair and sufficient warning.

$25 Reward

The Negro man prowler who entered the home of Mr. Denson Elliott last Saturday night (4 a.m. Sunday), ran away and left his hat when he was chased by Mr. Elliott.

Policeman Harry Kendrick has the hat and offers $25 reward to anyone who can tell him who the hat belongs to.

Hint—It is a better hat than a prowling, good-for-nothing Negro would ordinarily be expected to own. It came from Loveman's in Birmingham and was most likely given to the Negro by a white man—or it may have been stolen by the Negro.

Schools Get Audio Visual Equipment

Supt. W. W. Elliott announces that the Shelby County Board of Education has purchased over $5,000 worth of audio visual equipment for the schools of the County. Each school is now equipped with a 3-speed record player and a 500 watt film strip projector and large screen. Several of the larger schools also have a 16-mm movie projector. The delivery of this equipment to the schools was completed on September 30.

The purpose of this equipment was made possible through the cooperative effort of the Civil Defense Administration and the County Board of Education. It is to be used in making learning more effective in the classrooms and by parent-teacher groups. Special emphasis will be given to training in civil defense.

Studies have been made of how children learn, and the results of these studies show that where the children see, hear, touch, taste, help plan and make, as well as read and study, they remember much more of what is taught them. With the addition of this equipment the schools of Shelby County will be in position to operate one of the very finest audio visual instruction programs to be found in the state.

From Vincent 19-13

The Montevallo Bulldogs evened up their season's record at 2-2 by defeating the Vincent Yellowjackets 19-13 on the home field last week.

The Bulldogs got off to a fast start by breaking Hicks loose on an 80-yard punt return that went all the way in the opening moments of the game. The try for the extra point failed. After kicking off, the Bulldogs covered a fumble on the enemy 35 and began moving toward pay dirt as the period ended.

The second quarter began with the Bulldogs in possession and the ball resting on Vincent's 25-yard line. On first down, Galloway passed to Norris in the end zone. After the extra point, on end run by Galloway, the score stood 13-0 with the Bulldogs in front.

The remainder of the second quarter was played within the 40-yard lines, with neither team gaining much. The half ended with Vincent on the Montevallo 48-yard line.

At the start of the second half, the Yellowjackets received on the 20 and, showing a strong running attack, moved deep into Bulldog territory. Jerry Raley, Jackets left half, sped through the Bulldog defense from the 25 for the Jackets' first score. The attempt for the extra point was wide.

The Montevallo squad received the kickoff and in only five plays were in the enemy end zone with Anthony carrying the last yard. The extra point was no good, and the score was 19-6.

Sorrell returned Montevallo's kick to the Bulldogs' 25 as the third quarter came to a close. From there the Jackets gained very little until, aided by a 15-yard penalty, they moved the ball to the 4-yard line. At that point the Bulldogs set up a goal line stand that held the Jackets for three downs but gave in to the fourth attempt with Vincent scoring from the two. This time the kick was good and the score was 19-13.

The remainder of the game was nip and tuck with the Bulldogs protecting their lead by staving off a late Vincent rally.

YELLOW FRONT STORE
Alabaster, Ala.Newsprint Company To Distribute Pine Seedlings

More than one million loblolly pine seedlings will be made available for free distribution this winter by the Coosa River Newsprint Company.

Officials of the company have announced that the trees will be given to 4-H Club members, FFA boys, and small landowners in the 12-county area which supplies wood to the newsprint mill.

The seedling pines are being grown in the company's modern tree nursery near Childersburg. Shelby County's allotment will be lifted from the seedbeds in December for distribution through County Agent A. A. Lauderdale. The maximum number of trees to be given to any one person has been set at five thousand. Persons desiring to place an advance order should contact the County Agent's office within the next few weeks.

Coosa River Newsprint Company foresters will be on hand at the tree distribution points to instruct the recipients in the proper care of stock and planting methods.

The purpose of this program is to aid in the reforestation of idle and poorly stocked timberlands and to encourage the practice of good forestry by small landowners.

Forest products constitute one of Shelby County's leading crops. This income can be greatly increased through tree planting and the protection of woodlands from fire.

White Elephant Sale October 30

What is a White Elephant?

A White Elephant is: That lovely but utterly useless (to you) gift that Aunt Hepzibah gave you last Christmas!

Those darling earrings that do not match a single thing you own!!

Or those salt and pepper shakers that clash with your china!! That bowl that is too large or too small for your table!!

Do you really need that table? How about the lampshade for that lamp your clumsy husband broke??

Those souvenirs that looked so enchanting in Florida but are just gathering dust on the shelf now!!

Those books you no longer want — maybe someone else would enjoy!!

We need these and similar items for our White Elephant sale as soon as possible in order to sort and price them.

THE OLD AND THE NEW

ALABAMA COLLEGE CELEBRATES its 58th anniversary with Founders Day, October 12. A veteran of all Founders Days is King House which was erected in 1823 and is the oldest building on the Alabama College campus. Originally the home of Edmund King, first owner of the land on which the college is built, King House now houses the offices of the Alumnae Secretary and the Department of Psychology, Philosophy and Religion.

Observing Founders Day for the first time is the newest building on the campus, the College's Nursery School. An ultra-modern "world for little people," the nursery school building will be equipped with small scale furnishings appropriate for children age two to four. The building is scheduled to open in early November.

Huge Tire Placed on Market by U. S. Rubber

A tire that weighs as much as an automobile and costs more is now on the market, Mr. R. E. Bowdon, Jr., of Bowdon-Pontiac of Calera announces.

It contains enough nylon to make 3000 pairs of women's hose, enough rubber to make 125 standard automobile tires, and enough bead wire to go around a 200-acre farm.

The 2600-pound tire, made in the Detroit plant of the United States Rubber Co., and called U. S. Royal Con-Trak-Tor, has a 30.00-33 size, stands eight feet tall, and has a 40-ply rating. It is used on huge earth-moving and strip mining equipment, bottom dump trucks, and self-loading scrapers.

Price of the giant tire is $4,949.50 without excise tax.

Power Company Pays School Taxes

On October 1, Alabama Power Company paid more than half a million dollars into the Alabama special educational trust fund at Montgomery in taxes on kilowatt hours manufactured at hydro plants and sold in Alabama. The entire sum of $582,291 will be apportioned by the state to county school systems, institutions of higher learning, and cities which operate their own school systems.

Including the 1954 payment, the company will have paid a total of nearly $11 million in the 28 years this tax has been levied.

Of the approximate half million dollars paid by the Alabama Power Company, institutions of higher learning will receive about $83,000; elementary and high schools $444,300; and other educational services $55,000.

Shelby is among the counties that will receive over $5,000 each from the kilowatt tax.

The tax on kilowatt hours manufactured at hydro plants and sold in Alabama is separate and above advalorem and other state taxes. The Alabama Power Company's total tax bill for 1954, including federal taxes, will approximate $16,500,000, of which around $1,750,000 will find its way into educational systems and other educational activities.

On The Farms In Shelby County

The 100-acre farm of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kunz, at Dargin has been getting a face lifting as a bulldozer removed unsightly and unprofitable hedgerows last week.

Brown Acres Farm is also using a bulldozer extensively for that type of work. Johnny Brown has asked us to help with some W-type meadow outlets as soon as the clearing is through.

E. M. Mullen says he is going stronger than ever for winter grazing, as he has had to feed hay since June. He recently bought 400 pounds of cleaned and treated Chapel Hill Rescue grass seed. His Montevallo farm is always a beautiful picture and is now, despite the drought.

All the above are cooperators of the North Central Soil Conservation District.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davis, of Simsville are taking the first steps to join the district. Mr. Davis is at present a Sears employee, while Mrs. Davis is an art instructor, both in Birmingham. Now owners of an 80-acre farm west of Simsville, they hope to transfer all their activities to Shelby County.

Montevallo Wins, 48-19, at Jemison Homecoming Game

Jemison's annual homecoming game last Friday night was marred by the Bulldogs' outstanding offensive playing.

The Bulldogs chose to receive and took the kickoff back to their own 45. A series of good runs set up for a TD and David Eiland, on guard around, carried over for the first six points. Galloway passed for the extra point.

After Hicks' long kickoff the Panthers gained short yardage on the ground. Then suddenly they pulled a long pass play that went all the way. The extra point was good.

Montevallo received the kick, and immediately plunged deep into enemy territory. Again Eiland on the ground went around and over for the second touchdown. The extra point was good.

The second quarter opened with Jemison on the Bulldogs' 48. The Panthers' right end made a long run and after several short drives, the ball was carried thru the center for Jemison's second TD. The extra point failed.

After setting up for another touchdown, Hicks went around right end for the Bulldogs' third touchdown from the 28. The extra point was also good.

Jemison took the kick and drove until they were on the MHS 20. They fumbled and the Bulldogs recovered on their own nine. The half ended without either team scoring again. The score stood 21-13 at the half.

The Panthers' desperate try to make a comeback by passing was stopped when Hicks intercepted one and went for a touchdown. The try for the extra point failed.

After taking a long kickoff, the Panthers failed to make a first down and were forced to kick. Montevallo took over and Hicks again went over from the 30. The extra point was good.

The Panthers again tried to pass and Hicks, playing outstanding defense as well as offense, intercepted another pass.

Early in the fourth period, Mills took one over from the 32-yard line and the extra point was good, making the score 42-13.

Jemison scored their last TD in the fourth quarter. Montevallo's final touchdown came on a pass from Hicks to Nannini. The extra point failed. The final score was 48-19.

Change Planned For Mail Route

Postmaster M. F. Watson announces a change to be made in the rural free delivery mail service from Montevallo, effective on November 1. The change has been approved by the Post Office Department and all minor details will be worked out by the effective date.

Briefly stated, the change merely means that the present route served by the veteran carrier, P. D. Pendleton, will be divided into two parts with two carriers instead of one. An extension will also be made to serve about 85 additional families at Dogwood. Pendleton will continue to serve one route and Billy Rotenberry, his present substitute, will serve the other.

It is indicated that the change will put Montevallo rural mail service back to where it used to be with Route 1 and Route 2. That's the way it was until the death of Percy Lee. After his death the two routes were combined into one and has been served by Mr. Pendleton ever since.

The new arrangement will provide for each carrier to leave the Post Office about 10 a.m. This will make it possible for all the morning mail to be delivered on the routes the same day it arrives here. In past the carrier was able to take only mail of the day before, because he had to leave the office early in order to make the long trip of over 70 miles.

The new arrangement will be welcomed by the rural route patrons as it will mean more prompt delivery of mail.

Wallaces Celebrate 65th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Wallace of Montevallo observed their 65th wedding anniversary Wednesday, October 6. They were married in 1889 in Chilton County. Ten years later they moved to Montevallo where they have lived in the same house for 55 years. A retired cattleman and farmer, Mr. Wallace is 86 years old. His wife is 82. There are 8 children, 5 sons and 3 daughters living, 19 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, and 3 great-great-grandchildren. The sons are W. L. Wallace, Jacksonville, Fla.; C. G. of Montevallo; V. L. of Sylacauga; C. V. and W. A. of Montevallo. The daughters are Mrs. Bonnie Mitchum, Montgomery; Mrs. Winnie Mitchum, Bessemer; Mrs. Myrtle Ware, Birmingham.

For a number of years after the school now known as Alabama College was founded, Mr. Wallace butchered from his own farm herds and supplied the beef for the school kitchen.

About that time Aldrich coal mines were in operation and the people there were supplied with meats by Mr. Wallace.

Another large market he supplied was Wilton, which then was a hustling railroad town with car repair shops and a big hotel.

We guess that if Mr. Wallace had received present-day prices for all the meat he sold then, he would be a millionaire.

A day or two before farrowing, the brood sow's ration should consist of bulky feeds such as oats, alfalfa, or bran and plenty of water.

1200 Top 4-H's To Attend Club Congress

These 4-H members, planning a group discussion with a leader, are typical of serious-minded 4-H'ers everywhere. Their capacity for leadership, well developed through local club organizations, enables them to share responsibility for many of the educational events of the 4-H Congress.

THE Nation's top 4-H Club members, 1,200 strong, will be honored delegates to the 33rd National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 28-December 2, 1954. The delegates—mostly farm boys and girls—will come from the 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, and will represent more than 2 million members.

Most of the all-expense trips to Congress for the state, sectional and national winners are provided through the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, a citizens group which has been helping 4-H work 33 years.

In 1954, a record year, the Committee spent $1,000,000 to help the Cooperative Extension Service further the influence and membership of the 4-H Club program. Grants from private sources are used for merit awards such as trips, medals, scholarships, savings bonds and leader training.

Among the corporations and foundations providing grants are Allis-Chalmers, American Forest Products Industries, Carnation Co., Chicago Board of Trade, Coats and Clark, Inc., Cudahy Packing, Elgin Watch Co., Ford Motor Co. and Ford Tractor and Implement Division, General Motors, Hercules Powder, International Harvester, Kellogg Co., Kelvinator, Kerr Glass, Massey Harris, Montgomery Ward, Agricultural Chemicals Division of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Sears-Roebuck Foundation, Simplicity Pattern, Standard Brands, Toni Co., United States Rubber, Westinghouse Educational Foundation, and Wm.

Wrigley Jr. Co. and Gene Autry. Railroads cooperating include Burlington, Illinois Central, North Western, Rock Island, Milwaukee, and Santa Fe.

Nine oil companies collaborate in the program, including American Oil, General Petroleum, Pan-Am Southern, Pure Oil, Standard Oil Foundation, Inc. (Chicago), Standard Oil Co. (Kentucky), The Standard Oil Co. (Ohio), Stanolind Oil and Gas Co. and Utah Oil Refining Co.

Individual donors include The President of the United States, Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen, Thomas E. Wilson, Edward Foss Wilson, and Conrad Hilton.

"A modern farmer, to be successful, must be an economist, engineer, mechanic, chemist, biologist, as well as a practical person with a love of the soil and growing plants and animals," points out G. L. Noble, director of the National Committee. "Likewise, today's homemaker must be a nutritionist, interior decorator, textile specialist, horticulturist, and an operating engineer if her home is to be modern and efficient, and her family healthy, happy and well dressed. 4-H Club members, by training in agriculture and homemaking, are ready to engage in a practical and profitable farm and home life."

"Too, each 4-H Club is a tiny democracy, and club members, trained in the operation of the club, are potentially our most solid citizens of the future. For these reasons, 4-H is receiving wide-spread support from many organizations and civic leaders."

Calera PTA Holds Membership Drive

Mrs. R. M. Denty, Jr., was the speaker when the Calera P T A met in the school auditorium on Wednesday. Mrs. Denty, president of the Shelby County P T A Council, spoke on the PTA membership drive taking place during the month of October. She pointed out membership in the PTA organization gives an opportunity for service to school and community.

Miss Mamie Bishop gave the devotional which preceded the business meeting. Mrs. D. M. Carroll presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Carroll appointed the chairmen of the committees to work on the Halloween Carnival which will be sponsored by the PTA on October 29. The following were named: Mrs. Wilbur Askins, general chairman; Mrs. B. A. Findley, publicity; Mrs. Margie Davis and Mrs. D. Crowson, decorations; Mrs. E. B. Nickerson, food; Mrs. Sid Bird and Mrs. Dot Cobb, drinks; Mrs. E. G. Aldridge, cakes; Mrs. Ruth Rogers and Mrs. J. D. Bean, pies; Mrs. Margaret Woods and Mrs. Pete Hill, candied apples; Mrs. Bill Williams, popcorn; Mrs. P. A. Garrett, peanuts; Mrs. B. H. Cadle, fish pond; Mrs. J. R. Edwards, apple bobbing; Mrs. J. E. Wallace, monkey game; Mrs. Z. S. Cowart Jr., movie; Mrs. Gertha Kelly and Home Ec Girls, candy; Mrs. R. E. Bowdon Jr., costume contest; Mrs. Ellis Gentry, darts; Mrs. John Gates and Mrs. C. Faris, fortune telling; and Mrs. Joyce Mabry, house of horrors.

Mrs. Margie Davis' fifth grade was awarded the prize for having the most mothers present.

"Join The P T A"

"Join The PTA" is the slogan in Calera during the month of October. To the officers and the members of the local association this drive for new members is the "biggest event on earth."

The National Congress of Parents and Teachers has designated October as membership month.

So, with children needing better schools, more classrooms, and more teachers, it's full steam ahead for better informed parents. The best way they can be informed is by joining the PTA.

Mrs. D. M. Carroll, president, points out that the PTA arranges group meetings where parents can discuss mutual problems. Teachers also attend these discussions to aid parents to reach an understanding of the school's side of the question.

If you are a parent and interested in your child's educational welfare, join the thousands of other parents who want their children to have better educational opportunities.

Farm Bureaus To Hold Membership Drive

County Farm Bureaus throughout Alabama will hold a concerted membership drive October 18-23 with the aim of building an organization with a total enrollment of more than 75,000, according to Walter Randolph, president of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation.

With both a new legislature and a new Congress to take office in the next few months, it is important to farmers to keep well organized in order to compete with other organized groups in legislative matters, the state president said. Farm Bureau also takes a leading part in promoting all other movements for the wellbeing of rural people.

Polio caused only 26 deaths in Alabama last year, although a far greater number suffered attacks of the disease.

House Suits Any Lot

This three-bedroom ranch home suits either a level or sloping lot. It is plan AB195N, American Builder magazine, 79 West Monroe St., Chicago 3, Ill.

The plan as shown is for a sloping lot, with the rear basement wall exposed. The large basement is devoted to recreation. On a level lot, the dinette window can be changed to a French door for access to a back porch or patio.

American Builder notes that the stone facing on the front enriches the exterior. The overhead wood panel garage door and the shutters are painted a cool green to contrast with the pale green sidewalls and pastel gray asphalt shingle roof specified by the architect.

Persons Proclaims Legion Week

Declaring October 10 to November 11, as American Legion Weeks in Alabama, Governor Gordon Persons has issued the following proclamation:

Whereas, the American Legion has performed valiantly in the fields of community service, rehabilitation, national security, child welfare and Americanism, and has earned well-deserved commendations as a proven friend of the veteran, the community, state and nation; and,

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the State of Alabama salute the American Legion for its activities and accomplishments over the years; and,

Whereas, a basic belief of the American Legion is maintaining the freedom we hold so dear while at the same time opposing to the utmost the forces that would destroy that freedom.

Now, therefore, I, Gordon Persons, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby proclaim October 10 to November 11, 1954, as American Legion Weeks in Alabama, and urge all citizens to note well the record of accomplishments of the American Legion; and I further ask that Alabama citizens as individuals, join civic, patriotic and other such organizations and service groups in honoring the American Legion.

Thursday night the cheerleaders led the first of two homecoming rallies. Among the boosters of good spirit were the band, part of the student body, and the faculty.

Friday there was a parade at 1:45 which included floats from every homeroom, candidates for queen, the band, the cheerleaders, Girl Scouts and Cub Scouts, marchers from the student body, and decorated cars. First prize for the best float went to Miss Walker's Sr. III's. Second and third places went to Mrs. Anthony's Jr. II class and Miss Harris's Sr. I class, respectively. A prize was awarded Annette Hooper for the best decorated car and a prize went to Joe Moody for the best marcher.

A pep rally was held on Main Street with Miss Betty Phillips acting as master of ceremonies. Harry Kendrick and Coach Fisher were speakers for the occasion.

At 7:30 p.m. on the home field a football game was played between Montevallo and Columbiana. Columbiana defeated Montevallo 13-0. At the game alumni were recognized according to the year they graduated.

Following the ball game a tea was held in the library for all alumni of MHS. The class of '52 had more of its members returning for the homecoming. Fourteen of that class returned while nine of the class of '53 and eight of the class of '54 visited during the hour.

Climaxing the evening was a dance in the high school gym. The leadout featured the candidates for homecoming queen and the cheerleaders. Proposed Constitutional Amendments

(By Dr. Hallie Farmer)

I. Local Amendments

On November 2, Alabama voters will be asked to vote on some amendments to the State Constitution. And, as is true in most elections on amendments, the attention of the voters has been centered on other things. They know little or nothing about the questions which they will be asked to decide.

There are six proposals for amending the Constitution to be submitted to the voters in the coming election. Three of them are local amendments — that is, they affect specific counties or towns in Alabama. As the constitution now reads, local governments are not permitted to use their own judgment in these local matters. They must secure the approval of the people of the entire state before they can tax themselves or borrow money. If Alabama is to have a new Constitution, one thing which should be examined by the constitutional convention is the right of local governments to manage their own affairs without so much state interference. Something ought to be done about this.

Amendment No. 1 relates to Hayleville and Double Springs, municipalities in Winston County. The amendment is divided into 10 sections and is very detailed and complicated. It is difficult to see how any voter who does not have legal training could understand it.

However, the purpose of the amendment is quite clear, stripped of all the confusing legal phraseology, the amendment is designed to permit the governing bodies of these two towns to use public funds to engage in private business. They may use both the credit and the general revenues of the towns for this purpose. They may also levy an additional two per cent tax to secure funds.

The Constitution of Alabama is very clear in its statement concerning the right of municipalities to engage in private business. It states flatly that the legislature "shall not have power to authorize any county, city, town or other subdivision of this state to lend its credit, or to grant public money or thing of value in aid of, or to, any individual, association, or corporation whatsoever, or to become a stockholder in any such corporation, association, or company by issuing bonds or otherwise." (Art. 4; sec. 94)

It is proposed to set aside this section of the Constitution so far as Hayleville and Double Springs are concerned. In addition, it is proposed to allow these two municipalities to levy taxes and contract debts in order to invest in private enterprise—ignoring the constitutional limits upon the power of municipalities to levy taxes and create a debt, fixed in sections 216 and 225 of the Constitution.

This type of amendment to the Constitution of Alabama is not new. It is a part of the vigorous campaign which is being conducted in all parts of the state to increase our industries. In 1950, an amendment similar to this one was passed for Marion County. Since that date every session of the legislature has seen amendments proposed to permit either counties or municipalities to invest public money in private enterprises. Two of them (relating to Blount County and Fayette County) have been added to the Constitution. At every session of the legislature, amendments such as this one continue to be passed and sent to the people for their approval.

I have repeatedly commented on such amendments and I do not have anything new to say about them. I shall merely repeat what I said when similar amendments were proposed in 1953: "Citizens voting on these amendments should recognize them for what they are. This is not 'creeping socialism.' It is socialism rampant. It is hard to see how any proposal to put government into business could go farther. The governments of the municipalities may become stockholders in private enterprises. They may lend the public credit or borrow as much as half the assessed value of the property of the municipality to invest in such enterprises. They may then levy increased taxes to pay off the debt which they have contracted."

"This amendment is based on the assumption that there is no risk in business and that enterprises in which these municipalities invest their money will inevitably succeed. There is little in the history of past experiments of this kind to encourage this belief. Depression, bad management, fraud and corruption have affected such enterprises in the past. For every record of success, there are multiplied records of failure."

The citizens of Alabama are asked to mortgage the present and the future of the citizens of Hayleville and Double Springs by supporting this amendment. Voters would do well to think carefully before they vote for it.

Fortunately for the voters, the other local amendments are short and simple. Amendment No. 2 permits the legislature to regulate the cost of courts in Madison County. The trouble with such an amendment as this is that no voter knows what he is really voting for. The amendment does not do anything. It permits the legislature to do whatever it pleases concerning the cost of courts in Madison County. More specifically, it will permit the two representatives and the senator from Madison County to do whatever they please to do, for such legislation will be local legislation, which is left in the hands of the local delegation. Voters must decide whether they want the courts to be regulated in this fashion.

Amendment No. 3 would permit the tax payers of school districts in Morgan County to vote additional taxes on themselves for the support of the public schools. It would seem that if the taxpayers of Morgan County want to tax themselves for the benefit of the schools, they should be permitted to do so.

So much for the local amendments. Next week I propose to discuss the three general amendments.

"ONE NATION, INDIVISIBLE"

America's number one veteran and Legionnaire, President Eisenhower, has issued a formal proclamation calling upon "all citizens to observe Thursday, November 11, 1954, as Veterans' Day."

"On that day," he says, "let us solemnly remember the sacrifices of all those who fought so valiantly, on the seas, in the air, and on foreign shores, to preserve our heritage of freedom, and let us reconsecrate ourselves to the task of promoting an enduring peace so that their efforts shall not have been in vain."

The President's proclamation cites our custom of memorializing November 11 as the anniversary of the armistice ending World War I and suggests the greater appropriateness of the name, Veterans' Day (as approved by Congress last June) since "in the intervening years the United States has been involved in two other great military conflicts that have added millions of veterans, living and dead, to the honor rolls of this nation."

In directing government officials to see that the flag is displayed on all public buildings on this day, the President is at least hinting at what the rest of us should do on this occasion when "all veterans, all veterans' organizations, and the entire citizenry will wish to join hands in the common purpose."

Across the land, in cities and towns and villages, observance arrangements, parades and other programs will be in the hands of committees representing the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Amvets, and Disabled American Veterans.

It is appropriate that all Americans participate in Veterans' Day.

John W. Wilson Dies in Birmingham Hospital

John Wesley Wilson, member of the faculty of Prentice High School in Montevallo, died Tuesday night at Jefferson-Hillman Hospital after a brief illness.

He was born and reared in Marengo County. At an early age he enlisted in the U. S. Army, served during World War II and received an honorable discharge after the close of the war.

He came to Montevallo in December, 1945, as manager of the Montevallo Funeral Home. After serving in this capacity for some time, he enrolled at the Alabama State College where he received his Bachelor of Science degree and studied toward a Master of Science Degree.

He was affiliated with the Shiloh Baptist Church and was a loyal and faithful member until his death. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 726.

In 1951 he became a member of the faculty of the Prentice High School and since that time has served as instructor in social studies.

The town of Montevallo, our neighboring communities, faculty and student body of the Prentice High School mourn the passing of such a friendly, respectful, loyal and faithful citizen.

School Supervisors To Meet Oct. 26

Miss Anita King, Supervisor of Instruction in the Shelby County Schools and state president of the Department of Supervisors of Instruction, announces that this group will hold their annual conference at Alabama College on October 26-29. The theme of the conference is "the responsibility of the supervisor of instruction in the secondary school."

Dr. A. Harold Alberty, professor of education at the Ohio State University, and a renowned authority on secondary education, will be the guest consultant. Dr. Alberty will make two major addresses entitled: "The changing design of general education in the secondary school," and "Developing a secondary school curriculum based on adolescent needs and problems."

The supervisors will participate in study groups centered around scheduling in the schools, reporting to parents, individual school study programs, use of consultants, work of the planning committee, and development of curriculum materials.

This group will be entertained at a tea on Wednesday afternoon by the faculty of the Alabama College Laboratory School. An informal reception will be given Thursday evening honoring Dr. Alberty.

Miss Peggy Johnson Honored With Shower

A lovely bridal shower was given by Mrs. Clarence Barnett for Miss Peggy Johnson at the home of Mrs. Odie Littleton on Thursday night, October 14. Miss Jean Barnett kept the bride's book.

The dining table was lovely, centered by a tiered wedding cake, white, trimmed in pink roses with green leaves. Mrs. Littleton served the cake. Mrs. Barnett poured coffee. Overseas Packages Must Conform to Regulations Shelby countians who plan to send Christmas gift packages to relatives and friends overseas this year, other than those in the armed services, are urged first to get in touch with the Atlanta field office of the U.S. Department of Commerce for copies of regulations covering the importation of gift packages into foreign countries.

According to information received from Merrill C. Lofton, manager of the Commerce Department office in Atlanta, nearly every country in the world has some kind of regulation of that kind, and if the package does not meet those regulations, it may be held up.

The Basic Idea Behind the All-New 1955 PONTIAC

On Display October 29 and 30

ABOUT 30 years ago General Motors Corporation presented to America a new car called Pontiac. This new car was the direct result of a very specific idea.

The idea was this: to create a car which took its style, its engineering principles and its features from the very best and most expensive in America—and to build these into a car priced just above the very lowest!

Naturally, such an idea produced a wonderful and highly popular car—a car which millions of satisfied owners have driven with outstanding pride and pleasure.

Now, nearly three decades later, an entirely new Pontiac has been created for 1955—a car completely new from the ground up!

One thing, however, about the 1955 Pontiac remains unchanged—its basic idea—to offer the American public the very finest car that can possibly be built to sell at a price within easy reach of any new-car buyer.

When you see the new Pontiac on Friday or Saturday—Oct. 29 or 30—you will be immediately impressed by its remarkable new styling. No other car in the world looks like this new Pontiac!

When you drive it you will be astonished at its performance. For the 1955 Pontiac introduces the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8, an all-new engine that has already been proved in more than 3 million test miles!

When you price the new Pontiac you will come face to face with the basic Pontiac idea—you will be agreeably surprised that so much car, so much sparkling newness, so much luxury, so much downright goodness can be priced so near the very lowest.

We cordially invite you to come in on Friday or Saturday and see for yourself what a superb all-new General Motors masterpiece has been created to carry the wonderful name "Pontiac" for 1955.

New Dining Hall at Shocco Springs

Pictured above is the new dining hall to be built at Shocco Springs, state Baptist Assembly, near Talladega. Baptists throughout the state will give special emphasis to this project on state missions day, Sunday, October 24, and an offering will be taken to secure the additional funds needed for this purpose. Shocco Springs has proven to be one of the greatest investments of Alabama Baptists. More than 6,000 people attended the assemblies there the past season. Every loyal Baptist will want to have a part in this important program.

Farmers Concentrate On Pond Construction

At "Meadowview" on Highway 91 D. R. Meadows is completing a dam that will make a 6-acre lake where he had a one-acre lake for several years. This dam was already under construction when Mr. Meadows decided to become a cooperator of the North Central Soil Conservation District and called on SCS for technical help on the dam. Calculations by SCS caused him to make the new dam 20 feet wider than it was begun and a 56-foot spillway was laid out.

A preliminary survey on the H. B. Reeves farm at Mosteller shows that his proposed lakesite will require a dam over 500 feet long. This is a very long dam, and may not be practical. Such a preliminary survey caused cooperator J. E. Ferguson near Chelsea to give up on his first location and led to his picking out a new site. This new site turned out much better. A smaller dam will make a larger pond.

Discouraging reports on sites for ponds are as valuable as favorable reports, or more so, since money spent on a dam that will not be satisfactory is a dead loss.

If our recent columns are mostly about ponds, it is because the drouth has held down other conservation work while being ideal for pond construction. A dozen dams are in process at the present on cooperators' farms.

Calera High School Observes Religious Emphasis Week

"Finding God" was the theme of Religious Emphasis Week observed at Calera High School October 11-15.

On Monday the program opened with the student body singing "Holy, Holy, Holy." Special music for the program was rendered by the Glee Club which sang "Ivory Palaces" under direction of Mrs. Thornton. Fred Sims introduced Rev. L. B. Stewart as our speaker for the day. The topic he chose was "Finding God Through the Christian Home."

When the student body assembled Tuesday the opening song was "Sweet Hour of Prayer." Glenda Askins furnished the special music by singing "The Love of God." She was accompanied by Betty Ruth Franklin at the piano. Donnie Jacks introduced Rev. J. F. Goree, the speaker for the day, who used as his subject "Finding God Through Prayer." Rev. Goree gave the closing prayer, after which the student body sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

Wednesday's program opened with the student body singing "Onward Christian Soldiers." The Glee Club sang "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say." Amelia Frost introduced Rev. H. D. Yeuell of Montevallo, who used as his subject "Where to Find God." After the closing prayer the audience again sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

"Give of Your Best to the Master" was the opening song for Thursday's program. Special music was given by the following students: Laura Edwards, Pat Lawrence and Hazel Willis, accompanied by Betty Ruth Franklin. Rev. Charles Howard from Camp Branch was introduced by Ruth Stewart. He sang "Ivory Palaces," and then delivered his message which was "Religion and the Youth of Today." The closing song was "Take Time to be Holy."

Friday's program, "Finding God Through Christian Service," was presented by the student body. Jeanette Smith led in singing "Following the Glean." LeClare Cowart read the scripture, after which Betty Jean Collum led in prayer. Norma Jean Phillips, a sixth grade student, sang a solo, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus." Joanne Park discussed the subject, "Faith in God." Other members of the panel were: Carolyn Sample, whose subject was "Christian Service in the Home"; Ruth Stewart discussing "What Service Youth Can Render the Church"; Blair Mabry discussing Christian service at school; and Betty Franklin concluding with "Christian Service Through Social Life." The Glee Club, directed by Mrs. Thornton, sang three numbers. Closing song was "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

At Calera school the students have been benefitted during this series of programs placing emphasis on "Religion in our Lives and in Our School." The school was fortunate in having speakers who could lead the students and faculty in "Finding God in Our Lives."

The week's program brought the fact that students could think seriously and were also willing to discuss the value of religion to them and others.

Passing Grades Required Of High School Athletes

The Spotlight, Montevallo High School student newspaper, prints the following regarding school athletes and the scholastic requirements imposed upon them:

"It is a regulation of the school and the athletic association that athletes and cheerleaders make passing grades in school work in order to maintain their positions.

"Each Monday, blanks are sent to the teachers and they send to the office the grades which athletes and cheerleaders have made during the past week.

"Athletes are required to pass three out of four subjects in order to participate in any sport. Cheerleaders must make a 'C' average in all subjects.

"It is important, not only to the individual, but to the school as well, that each person keep his grades high."

How Does FARM BUREAU Do The Job?

"COOPERATION BEGAN WHEN TWO MEN DISCOVERED THAT TOGETHER THEY COULD TURN A LARGER STONE."

That is the philosophy of Farm Bureau. The spirit of cooperation that binds men together in the universal tie of brotherhood—and self-protection—the desire to help their neighbors and themselves to a higher plane of living by joining hands to do those things that can not be done alone.

Farmers have developed their own organization and delegated to it the responsibility to represent them constantly in the unending struggle for equal opportunities in a better state, nation, and world. No one else can know their problems and desires.

Farm Bureau members insist that they are in better position than any other group to think clearly about national problems. It is true that agriculture has from time to time turned to government for some degree of assistance in educational and self-help programs, such as extension education, Rural Electrification, and other necessities requiring national effort.

Even the farm price support programs we have had so far have been largely devices to match in part the government protection and subsidy aids so commonly granted industry and labor. Self-improvement, not government gifts, has been the foundation of our progress.

FARM BUREAU ENABLES FARM PEOPLE TO WORK TOGETHER IN THE SOLUTION OF THEIR PROBLEMS. YOU CAN HELP "TURN A LARGER STONE" BY YOUR MEMBERSHIP! SEND IN YOUR $3.00 NOW!

Jaycees Begin Safety Projects

The sale of Scotch-Lite by the Jaycees officially begins next Saturday, October 30, in front of McClure Drug Company and Montevallo Drug Company. It will be sold 5 feet for $1.00 or 25 cents per foot.

Montevallo Jaycees are sponsoring the Elementary School Safety Patrol to consist of a captain, two lieutenants and two squads with four patrolmen each. Mrs. Annie Lou Fancher, sixth grade teacher, has been selected as safety supervisor and will work with Mrs. Charlotte Peterson, principal of the Elementary School, in supervising the functions of the patrol.

Proceeds from the Jaycees Scotch-Lite tape sale will go toward securing equipment for the Junior Safety Patrol. Several Jaycees will be on the corner Saturday with plenty of safety tape. You are urged to help the Jaycees support the Elementary Junior Safety Patrol by buying some Scotch-Lite safety tape.

Methodists Plan Homecoming Day

Montevallo Methodists are planning one of the biggest days of the church year Sunday, which is home coming day. At the 11 o'clock service the resident membership roll will be called, recognition made of the oldest, youngest and newest member, largest family present, etc.

Church vows will be renewed and after the sermon by the pastor, everyone will have an opportunity to make a pledge to the 1954-55 church budget. The church has over 350 resident and affiliate members. A record-breaking attendance is expected for this service.

The official board met in a special meeting Friday night to approve the new church budget. A resolution was read commending Dr. T. H. Napier for his 26 years of service as board chairman and for Mr. C. H. Mahaffey for his 44 years of service as the church treasurer.

Preston Hughes, Jr., preached at the home coming service at the Arab Methodist Church. Mr. Hughes also dedicated the new Arab Methodist parsonage Sunday afternoon.

"Wilson Sundries" Is New Business in Montevallo

"Wilson Sundries" on Middle Street, a new business owned and operated by Bloomer Wilson, was opened up last Saturday.

Mr. Wilson, popularly known as Bloomer or "Cuz" by his many friends, came to Montevallo from Clanton in 1918. He was with his brother, P. C., from that time until Wilson Drug Co. was sold a while back.

Many of us remember the good old days when young and old gathered at Wilson's for a coke, a tasty serving of ice cream, a little gossip, and good music by the Bama Skippers, an orchestra of local talent with Mrs. Eddie Mahaffey, pianist; Mac Vincent, drummer; Charles Mahaffey and Taylor Hardy, trumpets; Eddie Mahaffey, Julian Hardy, Bully Fowler and Clifford Fulford, saxophones; James Hardy, trombone and John May, tuba.

Wilson Sundries is an attractive place with ultra-modern fountain. It may in the future boast of the popularity enjoyed by the Wilson Drug Co. Our best wishes for a successful business.

Howard J. McGaughey, Jr., chairman of the projects committee of the Montevallo Jaycees, sells to Mayor W. M. Wyatt the first five feet of Scotch-Lite Safety Tape.

Foreign Students Speak to FHA

The Montevallo FHA Chapter met in the high school vocational home economics department on October 20. The president, Martha Jane Mahaffey, called the meeting to order.

After the roll call, reading of the minutes and reports from the different committees, the program was turned over to Sigrid Lund, program chairman.

Since the theme of the Future Homemakers is "Builders For Better Homes," the program chairman brought out that the foundation of a home should be built around understanding, love, and consideration. In order for the group to get a better knowledge of the customs and habits of the people from other countries, Sigrid presented three foreign students who are attending Alabama College.

These students, Widad and Leila Salem from Palestine and Keika Kakada from Tokyo, Japan, told the group about "family life in my country." Each discussed the various interests of the chapter members who asked questions throughout the meeting. Some of the more important questions discussed were related to the clothes, dating and marriage customs, food habits, and refugee problems.

From this discussion each FHA member seemed to have derived a better understanding of the lives of girls in foreign countries. The idea was re-emphasized, however, that all homes in all lands should be built around understanding, love and consideration. — Ella McCrory, Student Teacher.

Miss Harris Attends Ornithological Society

Miss Ethel Harris from the Montevallo chapter of the Alabama Ornithological Society attended its meeting at Valley Creek State Park near Selma on October 23 and 24. Fifty members present identified a total of 63 species of birds, many of them being migratory birds.

The most interesting experience was banding 50 birds. A mist net was set up and demonstrated by Dr. Oliver Austin of Maxwell AFB. The silk net about 30 feet long and 6 feet high, was stretched near the edge of the lake. The group walked away from the net and drove the birds toward it. The birds caught in the net were removed and small bands were placed on their legs. The purpose of banding birds is to study their migratory habits.

According to Mrs. D. M. Carroll, president of the PTA, and Mrs. Wilbur Askins, general chairman of the carnival, this year's Hallowe'en party promises to furnish a good time for both children and adults.

Calera Students Celebrate United Nations Founding

"The United Nations is a beginning for better things among nations," students of Calera High School were told Monday in celebration of the founding of this world organization.

"It is an old story, because man's longing is old," Fred Sims, discussion moderator told the assembly, "but more important, it is man's story, because it is happening today."

"Nine years ago on October 24, the United Nations came into being. But the men who signed the charter were not merely entering into a legal agreement between states. They were trying to answer an anguished world. They were expressing man's deepest hope, the right to live in peace and human dignity," he pointed out.

The devotional was given by Betty Collum, and Miss Mamie Bishop spoke on a visit to a session of the UN.

Students entering into the panel discussion were LeClare Cowart, Joanne Parks, Sidney Godfrey, Carolyn Sample, Wayne Lambrecht, Ellwood Edwards, Glenda Askins, Betty Bowdon, Amelia Frost, Blair Mabry, Don Jacks, Ruth Stewart.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

(By Dr. Hallie Farmer)

II. General Amendments

Last week we discussed the three local amendments. This week we are to consider the three general amendments, i.e. the proposed amendments which apply to the entire state.

Amendment No. 6

There are three of these amendments. One of them (No. 6 on the ballot) is very simple. It proposes that persons who are deaf and blind shall not be required to pay poll tax as a prerequisite to voting.

The Municipal Amendments

The other amendments (No. 4 and 5 on the ballot) are much more complicated. They propose to make it easier for municipalities to expand publicly owned utilities in order to meet the needs of our rapidly expanding urban population.

Many municipalities find it difficult, if not impossible, to finance the expansion of gas, electric and water lines under the limitations imposed by the Constitution of 1901. One of these limitations is that found in section 222 of the Constitution which requires that before bonds may be issued, a majority of the voters in the municipality must approve the bond issue in an election.

A second limitation is found in section 225 of the Constitution, which limits the indebtedness a municipality may contract to a fixed percentage of its taxable wealth. Since property in Alabama is notoriously undervalued for tax purposes, cities may quickly reach the debt limit fixed in the Constitution and find it impossible to borrow money which they need to expand their public utilities.

The proposed amendments are designed to relax these limitations.

Amendment No. 4

Amendment No. 4 proposes to allow cities to borrow money beyond the debt limit fixed by the Constitution under the following conditions:

(a) Such borrowing shall be only for the purpose of expanding or improving gas, water, sewer, or electric lines already owned by the city.

(b) The bonds issued shall be revenue bonds, i.e. they shall be payable out of money earned by the utilities and not be paid out of taxes.

If these conditions are met, the bonds issued shall not be a part of the debt of a municipality and therefore, sections 222 and 225 of the Constitution shall not apply. In other words, municipal governments may issue these bonds, over and above the constitutional debt limit, and they may do so without consulting the voters.

This amendment has the support of the Alabama League of Municipalities, and Mr. Ed Reid, executive director of the league, in a letter to the Montgomery Advertiser, points out that there is already a Supreme Court decision stating that revenue bonds issued to finance a new public utility are not a municipal debt as defined in the Constitution. The proposed amendment would merely extend that power to permit financing of expansion of the utilities on the same terms that now apply to new utilities.

The principle of permitting the issuing of bonds for expansion, on the same terms as bonds are issued for new utilities, would seem to be sound and seems to arouse no question.

The proposal which is arousing concern among some voters is the proposal to set aside section 222 of the Constitution and permit public utility debts to be contracted without consulting the voters. The argument in favor of this part of the amendment seems to be that since the revenue bonds are not to be paid by taxes, the voters are not concerned. However, voters use the utilities. If these utilities are burdened with debt, the debt can only be paid by increasing the rates charged for use of the utility. The money comes from the pocket of the voter as payment for gas, electricity, or water, rather than in a payment of taxes. To the voter

Mechanical Advances and Restyling Are Features of New Chevrolets

Pronounced mechanical advances, plus new riding comfort and a complete re-styling of bodies give Chevrolet for 1955 its most spectacular model announcement.

No major part of the car has been overlooked in the broadscale improvement program. Driving ease and riding comfort benefit, along with the creation of fresh automotive design. The accomplishment, says the company, has been possible only because of a thorough job of product re-engineering and the tremendous new plant facilities Chevrolet adds this year.

The 1955 models are on display at Montevallo Motor Co. today. From an extraordinarily long list of new features the public will see at that time, these are particularly outstanding:

1. First automobiles in the low-price field to reflect the "dream car" influence of the General Motors Motoramas. All roofs have been visibly lowered with a corresponding reduction in hood and belt lines to accentuate a longer, sleeker appearance.

2. First V8 engine offered on a Chevrolet in 35 years. Named the "Turbo-Fire V8," the V8 delivers 162 horsepower.

3. Higher horsepower ratings and new quietness and smoothness in two "Blue Flame" sixes.

4. Integrated body and frame design.

5. Front and rear suspensions revamped. Added riding comfort and roadability, Chevrolet states, are assured by vastly improved suspensions. At the front, a modern version of the ball-joint design aids car handling and steering as well as comfort.

6. Increased safety through a greater visibility. Every car window of safety glass—front, rear and side—is larger in 1955 Chevrolet bodies.

7. Optional overdrive. On overdrive installation will be offered for the first time.

8. More electrical power. A 12-volt electrical system will furnish ample reserve power for the ever growing demands of accessories.

9. "Dry Air" ventilation. The feature involves an arch-shaped plenum chamber that channels fresh air from a slotted cowl vent.

10. Tubeless tires for increased safety.

11. Smoother power application. The torque tube drive is replaced by a Hotchkiss drive to deliver power more smoothly to the rear wheels and to provide a "flatter" ride in combination with the longer springs.

12. Easier steering.

Most distinguishing mark of the new Chevrolet bodies is their low-slung silhouette and vertical windshield pillars. Broad, flat hood and trunk lids are about 3½ inches longer than last year.

Future Homemakers Celebrate 'Their' Week

The week, October 31 through November 6 will be celebrated as National FHA Week by chapters all over the country. The Montevallo Chapter is one of the 264 Alabama chapters joining in the special week of activities.

The future homes of our state and our town are dependent on the youth of today. Through the Future Homemakers of America, 60 girls of the Montevallo High School are striving to learn to live better today in order that they may work toward improving their present and future homes. With this worthy aim in mind, the 60 members of the Montevallo Chapter of the FHA have been working hard to complete a special program of week-long activities.

Plans are in the making by the committees for a wonderful week of activities, beginning on Sunday, October 31. This day has been set aside as church relations day. All of the chapter members are planning to attend the church of their choice and to actively participate in the Sunday night worship service. Following the theme for the week, "Builders for Better Homes," Monday has been designated as public relations day. The chapter will use publicity as a medium for proclaiming FHA Week. Interest in FHA will be promoted by an exhibit placed in the high school. Tuesday is family relations day. During the day chapter members will improve home relations by relieving their mothers of household tasks. A party for FHA members and their parents has been planned for Tuesday night.

Wednesday will be devoted to improving chapter relations. An initiation ceremony for new members is to be held by the chapter. Thursday is school relations day. The local chapter will present an assembly program at nine o'clock. Chapter members will seek to improve school relations during the day by performing thoughtful acts for their teachers. Individual relations day Friday is to be observed as "I Made It" day. Members plan to exhibit articles which they have made at home and at school. Saturday, which closes the week of events, will be the day on which FHA members will offer their services to civic groups and to needy individuals. This comprehensive and informative program will do much to further the purposes of the Future Homemakers of America, which are:

1. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking.
2. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.
3. To encourage democracy in home and community life.
4. To work for good home and family life for all.
5. To promote international good will.
6. To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.
7. To provide wholesome individual and group recreation.
8. To further interest in home economics.

The FHA Colors

The colors of the Future Homemakers of America are red and white. These colors symbolize courage and determination to succeed, tempered with the innocence and purity of youth. The official flower is the red rose. It symbolizes vibrant glowing health which is necessary for happiness and efficiency in home and in group life.

The FHA Motto

The motto, "Toward New Horizons," expresses the primary purpose of the organization—learning to live better in the present so that future life will be improved.

The local chapter is working under the guidance of the following officers:

President, Martha Jane Mahaffey; vice president, Mary Thornton; secretary, Bobbie Dee Galloway; treasurer, Harriet Kendrick; parliamentarian, Jade Higgins; reporter, Gayle Jones; song leaders, Rue Lane Peters and Mary Katherine Hicks; historian, Carolyn Smitherman.

The advisers for the chapter are Miss Sara Nell Lightsey and Mrs. Rebecca McGaughy.

Self-feeding fattening pigs usually results in a slightly higher daily rate of gain, with a little less total feed required per pound of gain, than hand-feeding gives.

Nationally, it is estimated that 5 to 10 per cent of all hogs are affected with brucellosis.

"Builders for Better Homes"

The FHA emblem bears the name of the organization around the top and the motto, "Toward New Horizons" at the lower outside edge. The center consists of a house supported by two hands, symbolizing that future homes are in the hands of our youth.

CREED

We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage.
And high hope.
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.
For we are the builders of homes, Homes for America's future.
Homes where living will be the expression of everything
That is good and fair.
Homes where truth and love and security and faith
Will be realities, not dreams.
We are the Future Homemakers of America
We face the future with warm courage
And high hope.

Governor's Proclamation

Governor Gordon Persons has issued the following proclamation for National FHA Week:

Whereas, the Alabama Association, Future Homemakers of America is a national youth organization for pupils studying homemaking in high schools in Alabama; and,

Whereas, the Future Homemakers of America is sponsored by the Alabama public schools and the U.S. Office of Education; and

Whereas, the goal of the FHA is learning to live today in order that the 'homemaking pupils' lives and those of their families may be better tomorrow; and,

Whereas, these high school girls are learning to be homemakers and leaders for better homes and communities; and

Whereas, the quality of home life affects the success of our state and nation.

Now, therefore, I, Gordon Persons, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby join with other Governors in the United States and proclaim the week of October 31-November 6, 1954 as Future Homemakers of America Week.

LOY MILLER'S BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Fred Miller entertained a number of girls and boys at the Miller home on Pineview Road Saturday, October 23, in honor of her daughter, Loy, who was celebrating her fifth birthday. The guest list included Loy's cousin, Carol Penfield, of Birmingham, her brother Joe, and friends Betty Jane Barclay, Clay Nordan, Sherry Anderson, Lynn and Carol Frost, Susan Lovelady, Adele and Eddie Simpson, Keith Carson, Danny Wyatt and Patricia Wyatt, Peggy Whaley, Bill Muehlbauer, Eddie and Lucille Lovelady, Margie Scott, Bill Hughes, Dick Scott, Joan Anthony.

After the excitement of opening gifts and a round of games, the guests were ushered into the dining room where a birthday cake centered the table. Favors of hats and balloons afforded more fun while ice cream was served.

Verbena Downs MHS for 45th Win

Tiny but mighty Verbena rolled to their 45th consecutive victory as they defeated the Bulldogs by 27-6 on the local field last Friday night.

The Red Devils, who had been averaging 44 points per game, ran up against something they had not expected in the variety of defenses thrown at them by the spirited Bulldogs.

Verbena threatened to make a runaway of it in the early moments as they received on their 45 and marched up field for a quick touchdown.

The Bulldogs came back quickly as Naninni returned the kick-off to his own 45. Hicks passed to Norris for a first down on the enemy 45. After a series of short runs that gained little yardage, Galloway passed 37 yards to Hicks in the end zone. The try for the extra point was blocked. The score stood at 6-6.

For the rest of the first quarter and most of the second, neither team was able to penetrate deep into the other's territory. With but seconds remaining, the Bulldogs, backed up on their own goal line, were forced to punt. This proved disastrous as Hallman back to kick, fumbled and could not get the punt away. Verbena took over and crashed into the end zone for their second tally. The half ended with the score at 13-7.

The second half began with the Bulldogs receiving on their 12. After gaining no yardage, they were forced to kick. The Devils took the ball on their 40 and mixing short passes with short chunks of yardage, moved quickly for a touchdown.

The third quarter ended with the Devils in possession on their 20.

Without losing the ball Verbena went 80 yards for their first al tally. The Bulldogs got a last chance but it was cut short by an intercepted pass. The final score was Verbena 27, MHS 6.

COUNTY 4-H COUNCIL

The Shelby County 4-H Council will hold its last quarterly meeting on Thursday, November 4 at 2:00 p.m. in Columbiana. The council will complete plans for the rally, adult leaders' banquet, and study the duties of 4-H officers.

A movie on "Safety" will be shown by the State Highway Department from Montgomery.

After the business and program, the group will have recreation and refreshments.

All mothers and adult leaders are urged to attend.

Bowdon To Show New Pontiac Friday

Pontiac's two series, the luxurious Star Chief and the sleek economical Chieftain, feature all new bodies and the Strato-Streak 180 hp V-8 engine for 1955. The new models will be shown by Bowdon Pontiac at Calera next Friday, October 29.

Lower in overall height by almost three inches, they have a low, road-hugging appearance. The rakish silhouette results from the lower center of gravity designed to safely utilize the full power of the new V-8 engine.

The new panoramic windshield gives the driver almost 180 degree sweep of uninterrupted vision. The vogue color lines add to the fleet look of the 1955 Pontiacs. The new contours meet the eye from every angle.

The radiator grille has the modern appearance of an air scoop. Starting where the hood meets the radiator grille and sweeping back to the windshield are Pontiac's famous twin silver streaks.

"Mere words can not express the full impression of the new Pontiac," said Mr. Bowdon. "You must see it to appreciate its most outstanding features. You are invited to visit our showrooms on Friday to see the new Pontiac, the greatest car in the field for 1955."

WHO killed Cock Robin?

PASSENGER BUSINESS on some of our local trains is as dead as fabled "Cock Robin". Who killed it? No one, intentionally. It died a natural death because more and more people who once needed and used these local trains switched to travel by private automobile or highway bus.

As long ago as 1939 new diesel-powered air-conditioned trains were put in local service on various parts of the railway. Their runs exceeded 2,000 miles daily. But local travel continued to decline, and some "locals" were carrying fewer passengers than train and engine crew members.

Passengers carried by the Southern have dropped from 8,800,000 in 1946 to 2,472,000 last year—a 72% decrease. And we were more than $5 million in the red on our local passenger train operations last year.

We don't want to get out of the passenger business. We want more passengers. But we do feel that it is in your interest as well as ours to eliminate losses on operations of any kind that have outlived their usefulness. We would like to spend this money on constantly improving those services that are needed and are used.

H. House, engineer; Charles Ireland, president Birmingham Slag Co.; O. C. Farris, Mayor of Calera; back row, J. H. Pigford, chief engineer; Congressman Armistead Selden; C. A. Baranoski, vice president in charge of sales.

Operations Will Begin Next April

Groundbreaking exercises were held last Thursday morning for the construction of a new industrial plant one mile north of Calera alongside the L. & N. Railroad tracks.

The new plant will be built and operated by the Stockbridge Stone Company, a subsidiary of the Birmingham Slag Company. It will engage in quarrying, processing, and marketing limestone for agricultural, commercial and industrial uses. Upwards of 100 men will be employed when the plant goes into operation about next April.

A large group of citizens of Calera and Shelby County was in attendance to witness the beginning of construction for the new industry and to extend a hearty welcome to the officials of the Stockbridge Company and the Birmingham Slag Company.

The exercises at the plant site were opened by Mr. Roy Downs, president of Central State Bank, Calera, who introduced officials of the company and several local county and municipal officials, as well as executives of other industries of this area.

Downs Extends Welcome

Hailing the Stockbridge Stone Company as another important factor in the commercial, economic and industrial development of Calera, Mr. Downs declared: "The people of Calera open their arms and hearts to welcome you to our community. All of Shelby County welcomes you because we feel that your coming here is a compliment to us and will be a direct and forceful contribution to every phase of our community life."

Following Mr. Downs, Mr. Charles Ireland, president of Birmingham Slag Company, expressed the pleasure of himself and his associates at the most cordial reception they have received here. "We plan to take our place in the industrial, commercial and civic activities of the area, and we are enthused over the prospects that appear ahead of us in this operation here," he said.

Congressman Armistead Selden was a guest at the groundbreaking exercises and spoke to the assembly. He expressed his compliments to West Shelby County in its successful progress toward becoming one of the major industrial areas of the Sixth District which he represents in the Congress of the United States.

GRAND JURY REPORT

The grand jury of Shelby County rendered the following report to the Circuit Court October 21:

We, the grand jury, having heretofore been empanelled by Your Honor, return into court our report.

We have considered 64 cases, and we herewith return into open court 53 indictments, 19 of which are for violations of the prohibition laws, and 30 of which are for larceny and burglary.

We are impressed with this large number of cases involving thefts. It appears that many of these offenders are persons young in age. We realize that such offenders are perhaps due some consideration as first offenders and we also realize that property rights of parties should receive full protection under the law. We are of the opinion that the frequency of this type of violation in our county should perhaps call for special consideration on the part of our law enforcement officials and our court.

Most of the prohibition violations involve the offenses of distilling and possession of stills. We commend the federal, state and county officers for their work on these criminal cases which we have investigated.

We have examined the county jail. The inmates reported to us that they were well cared for but they were of mixed opinion as to the quantity and quality of food which they receive. Some were critical of the preparation and the quantity of food. It is our judgment that the jail is presently in good condition, considering the age of the building. We observed conditions that needed repair, but we understand that it is the policy of the county board not to spend additional money on this building, as it is anticipated that the new jail will be occupied after the first of the next year. It is our judgment that this policy is the better course of wisdom.

We have examined the courthouse and courthouse grounds. We found this property to be in an excellent state of cleanliness and repair. We commend most heartily J. C. Walton for the manner in which he discharges his duties in caring for this building and grounds.

We, by committee, made a brief examination of the records of the public officials and the offices in the courthouse. This committee reported to us that from their examination, it was their opinion that the business of the county is being well handled. A more detailed examination we have left to the department of the State charged with this responsibility.

The following reports prepared by the auditors of the department of examiners of public accounts have been examined by us:

The County Court, Justices of the Peace, Office of the Sheriff, Feeding accounts, Board of Revenue and Control, Board of Education, Office of the Judge of Probate, Circuit Court in Equity, Circuit Court, criminal division.

We note that these examiners suggest no charges, and that but few minor incorrections or errors have been found. On the whole, we are impressed that the affairs of the offices examined have been well managed.

We have given consideration to the large number of persons who voted as provided by the absentee ballot laws in the May 4 and June 1 primaries of this year. Our investigation has been brief, and we have placed no charges against anyone for wrongful voting. It is our opinion that through ignorance of the law or other cause, perhaps a good number of the persons who voted were not entitled to so cast the absentee vote. We note that the first requirement for one to vote is that the person have regular employment outside of the county, and that by reason of this regular employment, the voter will be away from home on the election day. A fine of not less than $500 nor more than $2000 is provided for conviction of wrongful voting absentee ballot. We are of the opinion that recognition of this law should be required of our voters.

At our request, two members of the Board of Registrars conferred with us concerning the problems of registering voters. From our discussions, we recommend that our representatives in the legislature give consideration to (1) extending the period of time in which applicants may register; (2) require by law that application blanks have printed thereon the name of the county in which they will be used and that the blanks be numbered consecutively so that they may be kept under control; (3) fix by law a definite educational requirement, such as a fourth or sixth grade education.

We further, as a result of suggestions of members of this board recommend that in future, procedures be followed which prohibit application blanks from getting into the hands of others than the members of the board, and that only the duly authorized members of the board accept the applications. It has also been suggested that the law permit the members of the board to render more assistance to the applicant in the preparation of the form, because of its length and somewhat detailed nature.

We commend one election official who has appeared before us and reported evidence of an election violation. We would suggest to other officials who will serve in the future that they be diligent and cooperative in reporting the details of election violations to the end that the fairness of our elections and the sanctity of the secret ballot be preserved.

We commend our county board and the other officials responsible for the fine addition to the courthouse. We have been conducted through this building and we are impressed with its appearance and accommodations.

During our term we have examined . . . witnesses and have been in session four days. We have completed our investigation into the matters which have been called to our attention, and we now desire to be discharged, subject to the call of Your Honor.

In closing, we would like to say to Your Honor that we appreciate the fine instructions we received from the Court as we began our work. We were impressed with the seriousness of the duties which were ours, and we were assisted in our deliberations by the instructions which we received.

The foregoing report, made to Judge A. L. Hardegree, was signed by L. H. King, foreman of the Grand Jury.

CALERA PLANT

After the groundbreaking exercises, officials of the Stockbridge Company and Birmingham Slag Company gave a luncheon for their guests at Calera Cafe.

Plans Are Shown

Engineers of the company displayed plans for construction of the plant and its operation. The facilities will include quarry operations to bring limestone out of the ground; powerful crushing machines to prepare the bulk product for processing; huge storage facilities; grading and loading the products on railroad cars for shipment. For this purpose a spur track from the L. & N. Railroad will be built into the plant area.

Two large lakes will be provided on the property to conserve surface water. Several deep wells are to be drilled to secure necessary water to do construction and to begin operation of the plant. After the quarry has been opened to a sufficient depth, it will provide an excess of water.

November 7-13 Is Education Week

The 34th annual observance of American Education Week is announced for November 7-13 by its national sponsors, the National Education Association, the American Legion, the U. S. Office of Education, and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The central theme, "Good Schools Are Your Responsibility," is, in effect, a lesson assignment for every citizen. Also, some of the daily topics for AEW this year emphasize everyone's personal responsibility for good schools.

During American Education Week your school extends a special invitation to you to visit its classrooms, to see the school in action.

The plant is designed to produce a million tons of limestone a year when it is ready to begin operation. Construction will cost about $1½ million and will provide a weekly payroll of about $3,500 after operation is started on a permanent basis.

Operating Policies

The policy of the Stockbridge Stone Company will be to hire as many local people as possible. They will employ both white and colored workmen. Their products will be sold from the plant and no order will be too small or too large. Orders will be sold to individuals as well as to railroads and highways.

A contract has been let to the Wright Construction Company of Columbus, Ga., for stripping and grading the plant site and building dams for impounding waters of the lakes.

Stockbridge officials stated that they looked at many possible locations for this plant. The decision to come to Calera was made because of the natural resources available and the cooperative and friendly attitude of the people of the community as a whole.

If bulls are in a run-down condition, give them a limited ration of oats and some corn, along with regular pasture.

Methodist Church Has Homecoming

One hundred and fifty-one of the 300 resident members of the Montevallo Methodist Church were present to answer roll call Sunday morning at the homecoming service. Also present were 27 out of 39 affiliate members and several out-of-town members and friends. After the roll call, Mr. J. W. Tucker, 85 years of age, was recognized as the oldest member present, and Mr. Pat Mc-

Conaughy, 84, as the person present who has been a member of the church the longest, 58 years. Preston Hughes III, 7, was recognized as the youngest member present, and Miss Alice Stubbs, instructor at Alabama College, as the newest. Miss Nancy Weems of Atlanta was the member present traveling the farthest to the service. The Lee Barclay family was recognized as the largest family present.

After the stewardship sermon by the pastor, Preston Hughes, Jr., the budget was explained and 31 people brought pledges to the altar which totaled $5,720.60. The total budget is $12,208, and it is hoped that by the close of the Victory Service next Sunday, the entire budget will be pledged. At this Victory Service, all pledges will be laid on the altar and dedicated. All members and friends of the church are urged to attend this service and to cooperate in making it a success.

A luminous plastic prayer-reminder cross will be awarded by the pastor to the person submitting the winning name for the church news sheet, published for the first time last week. Suggested titles for the paper should be called in to the pastor or placed in the offering plate at the Sunday service.

T. E. Potts, Paul Bailey, T. H. Napier, M. E. Lovelady, Preston Hughes, Jr., and Mrs. Marcia Trumbauer met Tuesday night at the church and discussed plans for improving the church school.

A ventilating system that really works

Chevrolet's new High-Level Ventilating System takes in air at hood-high level, away from road heat, fumes and dust.

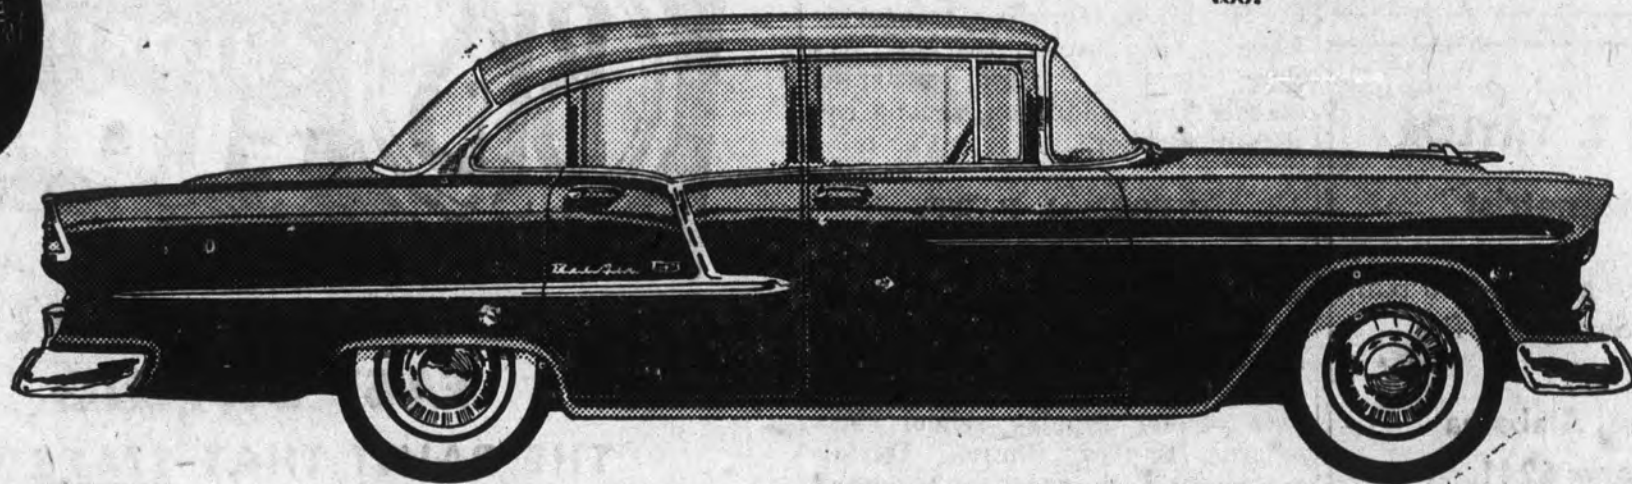

Three drives, including Overdrive

Powerglide—with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 136." New Overdrive with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 123." (Powerglide and Overdrive are extra-cost options.) New standard transmission, too!

Tubeless tires as standard equipment

You get this great tire advance at no extra cost! Proved tubeless tires give you greater protection against a blowout... deflate more slowly when punctured.

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series

Chevrolet and General Motors have started something—a whole new age of low-cost motoring—by taking a whole new look at the low-cost car. Here are new ideas, young ideas... and some of tomorrow's ideas, too! And they're all rolled up in the most glamorous package that ever wore anything like a Chevrolet price tag!

This is the car that began with a great idea—the idea that a low-priced car could be built that would have the style, the performance, the comfort and convenience features, and the fine quality "feel" of high-priced cars.

Lots of car buyers have wished for such a car. Lots of automotive engineers have dreamed about it. But there were plenty of reasons why it couldn't be done.

Then Chevrolet and General Motors designed and built a car to fit the dream—the Motoramic Chevrolet!

Come in and see how the Motoramic Chevrolet for '55 is far more than a completely new car. It's a whole new idea about cars!

Come in and meet the motoramic Chevrolet

Married Fifty Years

Fifty years ago on November 2, 1904, Mr. Jim M. Splawn of Ashby and Miss Maggie Mahan of Brierfield were married at Centreville. With the exception of one year spent in Spanish Honduras, S. A., Mr. and Mrs. Splawn have resided in Bibb and Shelby Counties, moving to Wilton in 1913 where Mr. Splawn was employed in construction work.

Due to an accident, Mr. Splawn was unable to continue construction work and he opened a wood working and cabinet shop across the street from his home on Selma Road. Here he has worked for several years.

Mrs. Splawn, known as "Miss Maggie" by her close friends, has for many years been noted for her beautiful flower garden. She shares her flowers with shut-ins, the sick, and the churches. She is a loyal and active member in Wilton Methodist Church, where she is secretary of the Sunday school and vice president of the WSCS.

During the day members of the family and close friends called to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Splawn. Their pastor, Dr. M. E. Lazenby, called and prayers were offered for this beloved and esteemed couple. Lovely gifts were presented in love and honor of Mr. and Mrs. Splawn's golden wedding anniversary, and wishes for many more anniversaries.

Mrs. Stella Robinson has returned from Carraway Hospital, where she was a patient for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Merchant of Birmingham spent the week end with their daughter, Mrs. Leon Nix and family.

Mr. J. C. Adams has been on the sick list for a few days but is better now.

Montevallo 25, Calera 6

Evening up their season record at four wins and four losses, the Montevallo Bulldogs defeated the Calera Eagles 25-6 at Calera.

A pass from Galloway to Bobby Logan was good for 70 yards and Montevallo's first tally. Ed Hicks kicked the extra point.

Montevallo's second touchdown came in the opening minutes of the second half with Hicks going over from the 1.

A bad kick that went out of bounds on the Eagles' 40 set up the third score for the Bulldogs with Galloway plunging the last six yards for the touchdown.

Bobby Wilson covered an Eagle fumble on Calera's 45 to set up the final tally of the game. Mills picked up 15 yards on an end run and from there Nannini took Galloway's short pass and went the distance.

The Eagles' lone touchdown came after they intercepted a Bulldog pass on their own 30. Larry Sinor went around right end for the last five yards.

...it needs to be MODERNIZED at once!

Pictured here are examples of dangerous and inadequate wiring. If any part of your house wiring looks like this, it is a source of danger and should be modernized at once. But even if such hazardous symptoms are not evident — and your home is more than 10 years old — chances are that the wiring is inadequate for the appliances you now have or plan to get. If you must use "strangler" plugs to connect them, that may be an indication your wiring should be rearranged and more outlets supplied.

Your electrical contractor, or our office, will gladly explain a convenient plan whereby you can modernize your home wiring and pay for it in 24 monthly payments with your light bill. Inquire about it today.

Powers Addresses Judson Faculty

Marion, Ala., Nov. 1—"Mediocrity and the 'garden type' of individual that we have been registering and graduating from our institutions are the two greatest faults of education today," Dean Robert Powers told the Judson College faculty at their monthly meeting this week.

Dean Powers was the guest speaker at the Judson meeting. He attacked the public schools for the lower intellectual level of college freshmen, intimating that high schools are accepting lower standards of intellectual achievement. Powers also discussed the overcrowded, understaffed conditions existing in the Alabama schools.

"That the masses are in college is a fact," he continued. "They come not seeking education, but seeking competence."

"I have sympathy for the mediocre," Powers said, "but this country was not built by mediocre men, nor will it grow through the mediocre. Democracy, more than any other type of government, demands uncommon men. We must educate for democracy, and to educate for democracy means to educate and promote genius."

"This means taking each individual and pushing him to the limit of his ability, whether it is retarded or unusually brilliant."

Calera Legion Auxiliary Holds Monthly Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. L. Holcombe for the monthly session. Mrs. P. E. McMahan presided.

The meeting was opened by giving the pledge of allegiance to the flag and the preamble.

Membership quota was stressed and all members are urged to get their dues for 1954-55 in by November 11. Plans were made for gifts for the veterans gift shop. Mrs. A. E. Norwood, program chairman, gave several interesting articles of the month. Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess.

The November meeting will be at the Town Hall with Mrs. A. E. McDonough and Mrs. H. B. George as hostesses.

Do the duty which lieth nearest to thee! Thy second duty will already have become clearer.—Thomas Carlyle.

1954 Agriculture Census

America's more than 5 million farmers are being asked to cooperate with the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, in the 1954 census of agriculture which is now under way. This census is the 16th in a series of nationwide farm canvasses since the first farm census in 1840.

November 8, starting date for the census, has been set for the close of the normal crop harvesting season in this area. Questionnaires to be used in different areas have been designed to cover the crops commonly produced in these areas, while a number of questions common to all farms will be included in each variation of the questionnaire. In seven of the Southern States where sharecropper system is followed, the questionnaire will be delivered in person by the enumerators to assure the consolidation of reports for multiple unit farms.

To Train Enumerators

Enumerators for the 1954 census of agriculture in Shelby County will begin an intensive training course today in preparation for the start of the census on Monday, November 8, it was announced earlier this week by field supervisor Victor S. Rice.

The training sessions will be held at the Town Hall in Calera and will be conducted by crew leader, W. W. Howell. Mr. Howell recently attended a five-day conference for training in census methods.

Prospective enumerators scheduled to take the training here are: Mrs. Drue M. Jackson, Mrs. Alta King, Festus Deal, Mrs. Ruth Cordus, Mrs. Bobby Whitten, Mrs. Mary Hill, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. Dollie Wilkerson, Mrs. Minnie Hokanson, Mrs. Vera Winslett.

Calera Guard To Present Wrestling

Starting November 6 at 7:15 p.m. the local Alabama National Guard Unit will present their first in a series of wrestling matches in Calera.

Tag Team Match

Farmer Brown will team up with Billy Joe Woods, 1953 all-state football star, a very strong and clever wrestler. On the other team Tony Vaughn of Dyersburg, Tenn., and Al McBrayer will team up to make one of the roughest and toughest tag team match partners in the business. This is your main event that promises to be a fast wild and furious match.

There will be two preliminaries. Ed Floyd will be the referee.

A message from Zollie Cowart and Jack Sims,
"Your Pharmacists"

TWENTY YEARS AGO, if you were sick enough to go to a hospital, your average time spent there would have been 21 days.

SO MANY NEW TREATMENTS have been perfected since then, that should you now go to a hospital, you probably would stay there no longer than eight days.

SOME MEDICINES cost more than you used to pay for prescriptions many years ago. The new "miracle drugs" require much money to discover and perfect, but each year most of these medicines are usually reduced in price.

THEY ARE WELL WORTH their cost because they not only give you more positive results, but usually lessen the time of your illness by many days. You get well quicker, and our physician makes less calls. You spend less money per illness. You get back to work sooner.

WE HAVE ALL these new medicines in our prescription department and price them as moderately as possible. We will be glad at any time to answer any question that might perplex you about the cost of any medicine.

Christmas Seal Sale Begins Nov. 22

Christmas Seals to fight tuberculosis go on sale November 22, according to announcement this week by Mrs. Conrad M. Fowler of Columbiana.

In appealing to the public to buy Christmas Seals, Mrs. Fowler points to some important facts about tuberculosis in Alabama:

There are 11,874 known cases of tuberculosis in Alabama as of December 31. Of this total, 2,131 were newly discovered during the year 1953. Based on studies for the nation as a whole, it is reasonable to assume Alabama has as many unknown cases of TB as are known. Death rates are falling, but the number of cases is increasing.

Alabama experienced 467 deaths from TB during 1953, this being an average of about one death every 15 hours.

Tuberculosis causes more deaths in Alabama than all other contagious diseases combined. It is the number one cause of death between the ages of 15 and 35.

Every Alabama county is infested with the active cases of the disease. The number in Shelby County, according to reports by the State Health Department, is 168 known cases. About 39 new cases were found in 1953. Dr. Sloan, county health officer says within recent weeks four new cases have been discovered.

There is no simple solution to TB. There is no miracle drug that can promptly and permanently cure. But if modern knowledge about TB and modern techniques for its control are used to the fullest extent, tuberculosis can be defeated.

Buy Christmas Seals which will help provide the money to fight tuberculosis.

of the United Nations and create a better public understanding of its aims, achievements and problems."

The President further called upon officials of the Federal, State and local governments, representatives of civic, educational and religious organizations, and all citizens to cooperate in the nationwide effort to bring our people to a better understanding of the United Nations as "man's most determined and promising effort to save humanity from the scourge of war and to promote conditions of peace and well-being for all nations."

Organized Effort

There are 30 organized groups of citizens in Montevallo, clubs, churches, societies, etc., which are helping to lend emphasis and interest to this program. It is highly desirable that the community as a whole give a good attendance at Palmer Hall Thursday, November 18, at 8 p.m. to hear Mr. Bushong's address. It will be interesting and enlightening to you upon a subject that should challenge the interest and support of every citizen.

Selden To Support Increased Acreage

U. S. Representative Armistead Selden says that the cotton farmers of Alabama are again faced with a heavy cut in cotton acreage unless Congress takes some positive action after it reconvenes in January. The Secretary of Agriculture, under existing legislation, has set the 1955 allotment at 18,133,208 acres which compares with the 1953 acreage of 25,284,600 and a 1954 acreage of 21,379,358.

"This heavy cut in total cotton acreage will be reflected in large acreage cuts to individual producers," Congressman Selden said, "and will come at a time when many areas of Alabama have suffered crop failures due to a disastrous drought."

According to Rep. Selden, legislation will be introduced when Congress reconvenes that will increase the acreage allotment. "I will not only support such legislation," he said, "but I shall urge early action by the Congress so that any acreage increase will be available well before the 1955 crop is planted."

Congressman Selden pointed out that the cotton producers were faced with a similar situation last year but that Congress passed Public Law 290 in January increasing the 1954 allotment from 17,910,448 to 21,379,358 acres.

Montevallo School To Hold Open House Friday

In observance of National Education Week, Montevallo High School will hold open house on Friday, November 12.

All parents are invited to attend an assembly program at 9:40 Friday morning and visit in the rooms all during the day. Registration will be in the front hall.

Remember: "Better Schools are Your Responsibility."

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL) has been certified by the National Labor Relations Board as the representative union for eligible employees at the Westinghouse welding rod plant here.

The Board's decision was revealed in an order mailed to R. E. Ballentine, Westinghouse plant manager. Negotiations for a local contract with the IBEW are expected to be started immediately.

The Board order dismissed all objections of the International Union of Electrical Radio and Machine Workers (CIO) to the conduct of a run-off election in which the IBEW was chosen bargaining agent by more than 60 per cent of the employees. In a previous election neither union received a majority of the eligible votes.

The Washington ruling upheld the recommendations of John C. Getreu, director for the Tenth Region of the NLRB, with headquarters at Atlanta. Mr. Getreu reported, "the various allegations of the objections do not raise material or substantial issues with respect to the results of the election."

Mr. Getreu and his staff investigated the allegations made by IUE that the employer had interfered with and influenced employees, and that "municipal officers (of Montevallo and Calera) and other agents had threatened employees." In addition, the IUE cited the Shelby County Times-Herald for a story and editorial which it claimed unfairly influenced the election.

Recommendations based on thorough investigation failed to substantiate any of the charges.

In commenting on the NLRB order, Mr. Ballentine said he welcomed the decision because it completely vindicated community leaders and citizens of the area as well as the local newspaper and its staff.

"Although the Westinghouse operation here is relatively new," the plant manager said, "we have been accepted by the people in this area, and the help and co-operation afforded by the communities has been most encouraging. To have that relation placed in jeopardy by unsupported allegations against citizens and institutions of the communities is completely unfair."

"Although Westinghouse has an excellent reputation across the nation for good employee relations, it is not unusual for the company to be subject to false allegations as a result of inter-union rivalry. However, we know such an experience is unique for the people in the Montevallo-Calera area, and I sincerely hope that any embarrassment to individuals or agencies has been erased by the ruling of NLRB."

Band To Salute All Who Helped at Games

For the final band show of the football season, the Montevallo High School Band will present a salute to all those people who participated in any way during the season. This includes, besides the team, cheerleaders, band and majorettes, those who helped at the gates, FFA boys, food booth, the boys who lined the field, the cheering section and those behind the scenes during the week before a game.

The total count is between 150 and 200 people who actively participated in making the football games interesting and entertaining to the spectators.

Methodists Will Contribute To Korean "Rice Bag" Offering

Montevallo Methodists will join Methodists throughout the U.S. Sunday in making an offering for Korean relief, which it is hoped will reach a nationwide total of $1 million. The offering will be brought to the church in little rice bags similar to those in which Koreans bring rice to the church for tithes and offerings. The offering will be used for milk and food, vitamins, medicine, beds, tents, artificial limbs, seed for farmers, bicycles and books for preachers, and to start building 762 new churches. Three-fourths of the churches in Korea were destroyed by the war, two million people were killed and 95 per cent of the factories leveled, a million homes were destroyed. There are at least half a million orphans without care, 400,000 serious cases of TB, 300,000 widows with small children. There are 85,000 adult Methodists in Korea with 700 full time pastors. Twenty-five per cent of the 621 Methodist churches are self-supporting and 128 new congregations have been established in the past 15 months in spite of tremendous difficulties and indescribable hardships. These Korean churches will give about one-third of the cost of a 3 year building and repair program. Our service men are giving ten per cent and churches overseas are furnishing the remaining 60 per cent.

The excitement of an 8 to 1 ultra-high compression ratio that squeezes more pure fun out of a gallon of gas than you ever dreamed possible! The new "Turbo-Fire V8" is so wonderfully efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five or more. Farmers Support Increased Industry

Alabama farmers, long interested in a balanced economy with industrial payrolls providing markets for their products, have commended public officials of the state government for their stepped up drive toward that end.

Support of the farmers in the industrial development of the state was pledged at the recent Farm Bureau convention in Birmingham. The voting delegates adopted this resolution:

"The Alabama Farm Bureau, in recognition of the rapid industrial development of our state, feels that such development is desirable to bring about a better balance of economy. We urge further development of desirable locations.

"We commend the governor-elect in his proposed industrial development program and urge that farm people be given an opportunity to assist in this program whenever possible.

"We also commend the chambers of commerce for their many accomplishments in improving industrial conditions and developments, and for their interest in state-wide community improvements. The Alabama Farm Bureau is anxious to cooperate with these programs.

The farmers repeated their advocacy of a national farm program to bring in a high earned income with price supports at 90 per cent of parity whenever the supply is normal in order to make farm income average parity.

Agriculture Students Study Farm Problems

Vocational agriculture students at Montevallo High School have been studying a number of subjects designed to fit them for the complex job of farming.

M. Thornton, local vo-ag teacher, says the subjects have varied from planting winter grazing to marketing farm products with some shop jobs in between. An occasional field trip was taken as a follow-up to some of the subjects taught.

Vocational agriculture is an elective course at Montevallo. Students spend two periods a day in class in addition to carrying out a project program on their home farms.

The first year students have been studying basic farm enterprises such as poultry, gardening, swine, corn, soil conservation and cattle.

Second year students spent most of their time on special interests which have been selected by each boy.

Major farm topics covered by the third year class were present economic trends and how to develop a sound program of farming.

Vocational agriculture students are also known as members of the Future Farmers of America, or FFA, their national organization. Activities sponsored by FFA provide a powerful stimulus to the farm boys to study and to work together.

"The Friendly Forester" Reappears in Paper

The "Friendly Forester"—area forester of the Coosa River Newsprint Company — is appearing in The Times-Herald again. Mr. John Raeburn, woodlands manager for the Newsprint Company, announces that the new series of advertisements will continue in the paper through January.

Purpose of the series is to reacquaint the public with the services of the company's forester located in this area. "A similar series was presented to the public last year," said Mr. Raeburn. "The program was very successful and proved to be popular among farmers, woodlot owners, and others interested in improved forest management. We are renewing the program this year with the expectation that it will be even more successful and popular than last year."

The ads will stress fire prevention, tree planting, forest management, and conservation. Throughout the series, attention will be directed to the services rendered by the company's area forester to the people of this community.

The new "600" Ford Tractor with 31 "step-ahead" features in tractor design will be on display Saturday, November 20 at Hanna Tractor Company, 1002 1st Ave. North, Birmingham, according to Lowell Stoddard, manager.

Termed the most advanced tractor on the market today, the Ford "600" features a larger capacity hydraulic system, improved carburetion and fuel feed, redesigned and strengthened power train, larger brakes and many other improvements.

"We're calling it the 'Better Than Ever' Ford Tractor," Mr. Stoddard said, "because the new features are in addition to the economical 'Red Tiger' engine, 3-point hitch, live-action hydraulic system and power meter which have proved so popular in previous models."

Lions To Launch Operation Ac'cent

"Operation Ac'cent" will be launched here next week as the biggest fund raising campaign for community service in the history of the Montevallo Lions Club, Bill Alexander, chairman, announced this week.

Lions Club members will kick off their campaign after Thanksgiving, at which time a representative of the club will sell the first Ac'cent third shaker to Mayor Wyatt at the municipal building.

"Operation Ac'cent" is a project undertaken by the local Lions Club to raise funds for community service. Members of the club will conduct a door-to-door campaign to sell three-piece kitchen shaker sets complete with a plastic rack. In addition to a full shaker of Ac'cent, food flavor accentuator, the set has a pair of matching salt and pepper shakers.

Lions Club members suggest that these sets will make very attractive and appropriate gifts for Christmas.

Net proceeds of the sale of the sets will go to the Lions Club to be used for community service projects such as Alabama Sight Conservation Association. Last year the Montevallo Lions Club spent about $1,500 in Shelby County through "Alabama Sight."

The third shaker sets are not available in retail stores and can be obtained only through Lions club members. Refills of Ac'cent are available in local grocery stores.

Manufactured by International Minerals & Chemical Corporation of Chicago, Ac'cent brings out and intensifies natural food flavors without adding flavor of its own. It is especially effective when used with meats, poultry, fish, game, soup, sauces, gravies and vegetables. It has also been proved beneficial in adding flavor and as a preservative in canning and freezing foods.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

One of these days you'll be going up to the attic or burrowing into a closet for that box of Christmas tree ornaments. It's time to test the light strings to see how many of the delicate glass baubles have escaped unharmed. It's a task I love. Each ornament has memories for me. Some—a very few—were part of my childhood. This one belongs to the first baby's first Christmas. That one to the Christmas all the children came down with chicken pox.

Christmas for most of us is a collection of traditions, some handed down for generations, some that belong to our own family group. The Christmas tree is one custom we all share, whether it's a tiny artificial tree on a table, a spruce that fills the end of the living room, or the huge community tree where we gather to sing carols on Christmas Eve.

It is this most general of the Christmas traditions that the tuberculosis associations of the United States have chosen to illustrate on the Christmas Seals this year. You've seen them, of course. You probably received a letter from the Shelby County Tuberculosis Association enclosing your Christmas Seals and asking you to contribute to its work of fighting tuberculosis in our town.

To me, a pair of the red and green Seals showing a Christmas tree and five children holding hands, brings to life the moment of all moments when the children in our house first see the tree. They've come downstairs on Christmas morning and are waiting outside the closed door to the living room, while inside the grown-ups rush through hectic last minute arrangements. At last the doors open and they come in holding hands. And then they stop in awe at the beauty of the tree which is always more beautiful than they remember from years before.

This Christmas in all parts of the world where Christmas Seals have become as much a part of the holiday traditions as the tree itself, we should thank those who have made the Christmas Seal a weapon against that old enemy, tuberculosis. All of us who buy Christmas Seals have a part in the fight which must still go on. The faces of all the children who stand before the tree on Christmas must glow with health and happiness. We must and can keep them out of the shadow of tuberculosis.

Your Christmas Seals will be mailed to you on November 22. Buy and use them to help stamp out tuberculosis.

Shelby County 4-H Club Activities

Amelia Frost, Calera, will direct Shelby County 4-H Council activities during 1955. Other Council officers selected to serve with her are: Vice president, Billy Powers, Chelsea; secretary, Danny Thornton, Montevallo; treasurer, Shirley Sims, Columbiana; reporter, Julia Davis, Siluria; song leaders, Virginia Kendrick, Chelsea and Eva Jean Bishop, Wilsonville.

Shelby County 4-Hers have planned to observe November 12 as National 4-H Achievement Day.

What Has 4-H Achieved?

In 1930, 4-H club work in Alabama had reached the stage of growth. Sixty-two counties had employed county agricultural agents and 47 counties had home agents. Of the 31,731 farm boys and girls enrolled in 4-H, 13,218

IRIS MARTIN

In her first year of 4-H club work, Iris Martin helped to start a summer club. Now, seven years and 45 successful projects later, she is state 4-H club girls achievement winner. Announcement of her selection was made in Auburn last week. Iris, along with the Alabama winners in other phases of 4-H work, will attend the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago beginning on November 28.

were girls. Practically all these lived on farms. Today we have several thousand 4-H boys and girls that live in small towns. In 1930, people thought of 4-H club work as a club for rural boys and girls only, and that town boys and girls didn't care to join.

The 4-H project has always been the "hub" of the wheel. In 1930, 4-H club girls were enrolled in the following projects:

Clothing, foods, food preservation, home improvement, gardening, poultry and handicraft. Today the girls have added lamp making, personal improvement, child welfare, beef cattle, dairy cattle, frozen foods, home management to the list. Each 4-H girl is required to complete at least one or more projects each year. Through projects and demonstrations, the girls learn more and better homemaking.

4-H Is More Attractive

Group activities, such as camps, picnics, parties, short courses, contests, cattle showmanship, medals, certificates, state council meetings, fairs, shows, barbecues, dairy maid programs, achievement day, national 4-H club week and many other activities have made the work more attractive.

Today, 4-H club work is respected and is popular. It has the interest and support of farmers, business men, school leaders, farm people, parents, civic leaders and the boys and girls. This is a challenge for us to keep the 4-H work going. It is one of the few organizations where work is the keynote. The project must stay as the "hub of the wheel" if 4-H club work is to continue to grow.

1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

By Mary Lee Taylor

Savory Spaghetti With Meat Balls

1 lb. ground lean beef
1/2 cup Pet Evaporated Milk
3/4 cup fresh bread crumbs
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 Tablespoons flour
1 Tablespoon hot fat
4-oz. can mushroom stems and pieces
1/2 cup finely cut onion
1 clove garlic, very finely cut
1 can tomato soup
1 Tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1/2 cup Pet Evaporated Milk
1 Tablespoon vinegar
4 1/2 cups hot, cooked spaghetti, drained

Mix well in a bowl the beef, 1/2 cup milk, crumbs, 1 teaspoon salt and 1/8 teaspoon pepper. With wet hands, shape mixture into 16 balls. Roll balls in flour. Brown slowly on all sides in the hot fat. Drain mushrooms and save liquid. There should be 1/2 cup liquid. If not, add water. Mix mushrooms and liquid with onion, garlic, soup, sauce, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/8 teaspoon pepper. Pour around meat balls in skillet. Cover and cook over low heat 15 minutes. Stir mixture of 1/2 cup milk and vinegar into sauce in skillet, being careful not to break up meat balls. Heat until steaming hot, but do not boil. Put spaghetti on a hot platter. Spoon the meat balls and sauce over spaghetti. Sprinkle with grated Parmesan or Italian style cheese, if desired. Folsom Appointees On the Farms Have Capitol Office In Shelby County

Montgomery, Nov. 15 — Governor Persons' offer to Gov.-elect James E. Folsom for office space in the Capitol during the time preceding the inauguration has been accepted by the latter.

Folsom has announced that certain of his appointees will spend time between now and January 17 in the state offices they will head.

The next Governor said that he would spend at least one day a week at the Capitol after his executive secretary, O. H. Finney, sets up an office.

The other officials will spend two days a week, Tuesday and Wednesday, in their temporary offices.

A good part of the time the state officials-to-be will spend at the Capitol will be devoted to "budgetary matters," Folsom said.

The legislature will meet in May for its regular session and appropriations for the fiscal biennium beginning October 1, 1955 will be made then.

Among the officials already designated by Folsom to serve in his administration are Finney; Fuller Kimbrell, finance director; L. L. Gwaltney, insurance superintendent; Murray Battles, legal adviser; Bill Drinkard, conservation director; Herman Nelson, highway director; Clarence Evans, Knox McRae and Harrell Hammonds, ABC board members; and Ralph Hammond, executive assistant and press secretary.

Pfc. Charles C. Hudson Is Serving In Korea

Korea—Pfc. Charles C. Hudson, whose wife, Azlee, lives at Wilton, is now serving in Korea in the 24th Infantry Division.

The "Victory" Division first landed in Korea in July 1950 and spent 19 months in combat before going to Japan for security duty. It returned to the peninsula shortly before the cease fire.

A machine gunner in Company D of the 21st Infantry Regiment, he entered the Army in October 1953 and received basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C. before arriving overseas last April.

Cooperator Jim Mabry, Dargin, reported Monday he had a very thick stand of reseeded rescue grass. This field was subsoiled recently, about 15 acres.

Core has been cut and the needed clearing done on an SCS designed farm pond for I. S. Odell. Mr. Odell is developing his farm near Shelby under District agreement 736. His farm manager, Mr. Bush, is proud of their new subsoil plow on wheels. Their farm tractor pulled it at a depth of 18 inches easily, and a second trip gave an open furrow 26 inches deep.

Michaelmas (Mike) clover is up to a dense stand on the F. E. Williams farm. District supervisor Williams plans to extend his Mike planting. Some reseeded is to be seen on the Columbiana FFA Mike patch, even though this patch had a bad first season.

Reports on Ball Clover are requested. Let us know how your reseeded patches are doing.

Most recent district cooperator are D. R. Meadows, Westover, 60 acres; J. E. Ferguson, Chelsea, 33 acres; Harold Miller, Childersburg, 95 acres; D. H. Holcombe, Chelsea, 107 acres; J. J. Joiner, Joinertown, 80 acres; S. S. Swinney, Chelsea, 21 acres.

HEART DISEASE IS NUMBER ONE KILLER IN ALABAMA

Heart disease remained the number one killer of Alabamians in the second quarter of 1954, the State Health Department said today.

Diseases of the heart were responsible for the deaths of 1,923 persons in April, May and June. This was more than two times the number who died of cerebral hemorrhages, the second leading cause of death.

Shelby County contributed 17 deaths to the state total, the department said.

738 ALABAMIANS TO ANSWER DRAFT CALL

Alabama Selective Service Director Colonel J. T. Johnson, Jr., said today that this state will furnish 738 men in December toward meeting a nationwide call for 23,000.

Colonel Johnson said that of the total of 738, there would be 439 volunteers, or almost 60 per cent of the Alabama quota. In November, Alabama was called upon to furnish 700 selectees.

Shelby County will be called upon for 14 men during December.

Legion Memorial Dedicated November 7

The Shelby County American Legion Memorial to the dead of three wars was dedicated Sunday, November 7, on the courthouse grounds in Columbiana. Conrad M. Fowler of the Columbiana Legion Post was in charge of the ceremonies.

The monument, 11 feet high, contains the names of 31 Shelby County service men who lost their lives in World War I; 72 in World War II; and 13 in the Korean War.

The memorial program was sponsored by the seven American Legion Posts of Shelby County.

Invocation was given by Rev. Hollis Hendon. The flag raising ceremony was done by the color guard of Talladega Post. The drum and bugle corps of General Gorgas Post of Birmingham presented several selections, after which C. C. Horton, director of the Alabama Department of Veterans Affairs, made the dedicatory address and unveiled the monument. The closing prayer was given by Rev. F. P. Richey of the Methodist Church.

It was estimated that over one thousand people witnessed the ceremonies.

COTTON GINNING REPORT

Census report shows that 4,611 bales of cotton were ginned in Shelby County from the crop of 1954 prior to Nov. 1, as compared with 5,215 bales for the crop of 1953.

This report is furnished by Ruth O. Jones, district supervisor, Bureau of the Census, Post Office Building, Birmingham.

Public School Council Organized

Taking a long step forward in the hope of encouraging and supporting better community and school relations in Montevallo, the city government has set up a "Public School Council," composed of men who are devoted to the cause of education and seriously concerned that our public schools do the very best job possible in educating the youth of our community. This step has the sincere support and approval of those in executive and administrative positions in our schools.

Official action of the City Council in establishing the "Public School Council" is given in the following extract of the minutes of the regular meeting of the Council on October 26, 1954:

"Councilman Mahan made a motion that the City Council establish and appoint members of a Public School Council, composed of the Board of Trustees of the school and the following persons: Victor Scott for 1 year; Haywood Woolley for 2 years; Arthur Garrett for 3 years; and Grady Parker for 4 years; to serve as representatives of the community in public school affairs, between the patrons of the school and the school administration.

"The motion was seconded by Councilman Jeter. The motion being put and seconded, the roll was called with the following result: For: Jeter, Mahan, Orr, Scott, Watson and Wyatt; opposed: none. Thereupon Mayor Wyatt declared the motion carried."

Members of the Board of Trustees who are also members of the Public School Council are: M. P. Jeter, Sr., F. P. Givhan and Lee A. Barclay.

The Public School Council met in an informal session at the call of the Mayor last Friday night. Dr. F. E. Lund, Dr. M. L. Orr Sr. and Mr. S. H. Hurt met with the group. Each and every person present expressed approval of the effort to promote better school and community relations.

Plans were made for the first regular meeting of the Public School Council at the high school next Thursday night, December 2 when the Council will organize itself and get ready to function.

It is hoped that the plan will have the active support and participation of citizens of the community, particularly those parents who have children in our public schools.

Fire Department Gets Contribution

Upon answering a brush fire alarm one day last week, the Montevallo fire department found upon arrival at the scene in Wilton the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant (Bobbie Brabston) on the farm known as the Ambrose place, had caught fire.

With prompt action and well-organized work, the fire was put out before extensive damage was done.

In appreciation of the good work of the fire department, Mr. and Mrs. Grant have presented the department a volunteer check for five dollars. This is duly appreciated, as it will go into the pot to provide an outing of some kind for the fire department members next summer.

It will be recalled that last summer, instead of going on a fishing trip, the fire department used their outing money to go in with the recreation board and put on a large scale fish fry for all the people of the community.

Students Learn To Renew Old Furniture

Is there an old piece of furniture around your house that looks tired and worn? Do you know how to correct this? The girls in the Home Economics II class at the Montevallo High School have been learning how to make old furniture look like new again.

The girls found in their homes some small pieces of furniture, such as end tables, desks, bookcases, and rockers that had lost their beauty. They brought them to school, and under the supervision of their homemaking teacher, they have been making these pieces come alive again.

They learned how to remove the old finish, clean the wood, and apply the new finish. They used a variety of finishes: stain, wax and varnish. The articles quickly began to come alive as the girls worked zealously to give them a face-lifting.

They know now that a piece of furniture does not have to be discarded just because it looks tired and old or scratched; but with a little work, they can make it to "live" again and look like new.—Della Baker, Student Teacher.

Christmas Seals

Children — holding hands from one end of Alabama to the other and, someday, circling a peaceful world in which all children will be safe.

This is the theme of the 1954 Christmas Seal, which shows a family of happy children joining hands to dance around the Christmas tree.

The message of the Christmas Seal, how it has been fighting tuberculosis for 48 years, is being spread throughout Alabama and the nation this week. Millions of little Seals started finding their way into Alabama homes Monday.

Fowler Shelby Chairman

In just a few short years TB can be eradicated, even by the time Alabama children like those on the Christmas Seal reach maturity, said Mr. Conrad Fowler, president of the Shelby County Seal Sale.

The tuberculosis associations throughout the country chose this symbol for 1954 as an expression of their major objective — to prevent and control the spread of tuberculosis — so that young people will grow up into a healthier and happier world.

Mr. Fowler issued an appeal to every citizen to think seriously about the plight which permits a needless disease to go on killing citizens of Alabama. He said not one county in Alabama is free of this menace. It is a threat to every home and every child because it is contagious.

Ninety-four cents of every dollar contributed in the annual drive stays in Alabama to fight TB here at home, while six cents supports the research for a lasting answer to stop the spread of germs on the national front.

"Let's make our county one of the first to answer the call — to do more than ever before to stop this killer for the sake of our children's future," our county chairman said. "Let's all buy and use more Christmas Seals than ever before."

EMPLOYEES OF COOSA RIVER NEWSPRINT CO. demonstrate modern methods of pulpwood logging. Guests at the demonstration were pulpwood producers and dealers of this area.

Newsprint Company Demonstrates Modern Pulpwood Production Methods

Coosa Pines, Ala. — The most modern and economical methods of pulpwood logging was the theme of several forestry demonstrations staged November 5 by the Woodlands Division of the Coosa River Newsprint Company. Attending the event as guests of the Woodlands Division were 125 pulpwood producers and dealers from the ten county area in which the company obtains most of its pulpwood.

The day's program of events began early when producers and dealers gathered at the Coosa Pines offices of the company. On buses they were carried to the site of the demonstrations. There they were welcomed by Mr. John Raeburn, Woodlands manager, and introduced to the day's activities. Three demonstrations were held in the Talladega Springs area.

The visitors observed ways and means of using the latest equipment for pulpwood logging. This included new types of chain saws and trucks built especially for pulpwood logging.

The group viewed latest methods in the production of wood for direct haul to the mill yard.

The third demonstration dealt with wood production for haul to rail loading yards. Woods and highway safety were stressed.

At noon the visitors were taken to the company's modern tree nursery near Childersburg where they were guests of the company at a barbecue. Mr. A. G. Wake-man, president of Coosa River Newsprint Co., spoke to the group about the company's wood procurement program and the future of pulpwood operations in this area. On a tour of the nursery the visitors saw how six million pine seedlings are grown each year. These young trees are distributed to 4-H and FFA club members and are used to re-stock company lands.

The final event of the day was a tour through the company's newsprint plant at Coosa Pines. They saw how the result of their efforts is combined with those of the newsprint company to produce over 100,000 tons of newsprint annually for the presses of Southern newspaper publishers.

Coosa Newsprint Co. To Open Local Office

The Times-Herald is happy to learn this week that the Coosa River Newsprint Company will soon establish an area office and headquarters in Montevallo.

We expect to have a story of the company's plans in this respect in a few weeks. We hope to be able to give some very interesting details of the company's operations in this area.

Patterson Tells Phenix Story in Sat. Evening Post

John M. Patterson, Attorney General-Elect of Alabama, warns that the vultures who operated the now padlocked honky-tonks and gambling houses in Phenix City haven't surrendered.

They expect to start up again when the heat is off, he declares in the current (November 27) issue of the Saturday Evening Post, where he explains it will be his job to keep them out.

His article entitled "I'll Get the Gangs That Killed My Father!" tells that the task will be easy—if he receives the help of the Alabama legislature and incoming Governor James E. Folsom. Without their cooperation, he adds, it will be all sweat and strain.

In the magazine story, written in collaboration with Furman Bisher, Patterson says that Phenix City was doing a $100 million annual trade in crime and vice when his father, Albert L. Patterson began a one-man clean up campaign.

It is reported that the mobsters knew they were licked when the elder Patterson, certified last June 10 as the Democratic party's nominee for Attorney General, agreed, on June 18, to appear before a Jefferson County grand jury and tell what he knew. That night he was shot down in cold blood.

The younger Patterson pledges to carry on his father's crusade, formulating a sound program of law enforcement throughout the state, making it a decent, law-abiding place to live.

Meanwhile, he carries a pistol at all times, a bodyguard is assigned to him 24 hours a day, other guards stand watch on his office and home, and his two children have been sent to another part of the state for safety.

"When night comes," Patterson reports, "every blind in the house is drawn. We live the way Jews lived in Nazi Germany. That's the personal side of the problem."

The Helena Junior 4-H Club is to be congratulated for its outstanding record. Every member turned in his project record for 1954. The project is the hub of the 4-H wheel. To be a good member, one must work to keep this an important part of the club. "You get out of 4-H work just what you put into it," said Miss Ann Barr, state leader.

The 4-H officers and Mrs. Carden, teacher sponsor, have worked and collected all the council dues. This is the first club in the county to turn in dues. This money will be used for county council meeting, 4-H camp and to help with other council expenses. So let's take our hats off to the Helena 4-H Club.

Norman Cooper Is Speaker at Calera Homecoming Football Banquet

Loyalty is one of the outstanding contributions of playing football, the Calera High team was told Tuesday night by Norman Cooper, former Little All-American at Howard College.

Without loyalty to school, your coach and community, a boy does not give unselfishly of his time and interest to any of these agencies, Mr. Cooper pointed out.

In referring to what's wrong with football, he said "nothing". You would not ask a good auto mechanic to perform a major or minor operation on one of your loved ones. Therefore, it is just as far fetched to ask the druggist's opinion on what's wrong with the football team. Today all schools have good men coaches and they should be allowed to coach the teams with the material available.

The theme of the 1954 "C" club banquet was "Ride Your Star to Success." The color, decorations and place cards were in keeping with the theme and the harvest season.

The 1954 squad presented the coaches, Smith and Carroll, with gifts. Letters were awarded to the following: Bucky Askins, Jerry Cosby, Wayne Ellison, George Holcombe, Donnie Jacks, Fred Sims, Hugh Tomlin, Jimmy Carden, Joe Woods, Larry Sinor, Sidney Godfrey, Billy Cone, Wayne Lambrecht, Garry Watts, Gene Goree, Wright Ingram, Kenny Farris, Ken McMillan, Samuel Adams, Walter Ingram, Ralph Thrasher, John Ireland, Howard Cannady, Kermit Robinson, Gene Mallard, Ray Tate, Bobby Joe Killingsworth, Eugene Carter, Gene Glass, Jimmy Glazner, James Pardue, Chestine Bryant, Junior Smith.

Fred Sims, "C" Club president, served as toastmaster. Coach Smith introduced Mr. and Mrs. Cooper. Coach Dan Carroll presented the letters.

Banquet committees were: Decorations, Mrs. E. M. Smith, Mrs. Margie Davis, Mrs. B. H. Cadle; china and silver, Miss Mamie Bishop and Mrs. Pearl White; arranging tables, Miss Lorraine McLaughlin, Miss Annie Dunnaway and Mrs. Hansel Brown; serving, Miss Mamie Bishop, Mrs. Mabel Thornton and Mrs. E. C. Simpson; invitations, Mrs. E. C. Simpson and officers of "C" Club; theme on curtain, cheerleaders LeClare Cowart, Carolyn Sample, Pat Lawrence, Glenda Askins, Ann Farris, June Cannady; tables and chairs, Fred Sims, Dan Carroll and members of "C" Club; menu, E. Marvin Smith, Mrs. E. Marvin Smith, Mrs. B. H. Cadle and Mrs. Dora Cadle.

The 1954 census of agriculture is about 50 per cent completed in the 15 counties covered by the field office at Demopolis, according to supervisor Victor S. Rice.

Mr. Rice stated that he is well pleased with the cooperation the enumerators received from the farmers in this area and has hopes of completing the canvass by the scheduled closing date of December 31.

Quick completion of the census will not only help in keeping the costs down, but will also aid in prompt publication of the results of the census, Mr. Rice stated.

Cardwell's Stages Big Christmas Sale

If you live anywhere in this part of the country, you doubtless have or will soon receive from Cardwell's at Alabaster, one of his 16-page color printed "flyers" announcing the biggest merchandising event ever staged around here for the forthcoming Christmas season.

Save it until you have time to gather the whole family around the fire and let everyone have a careful look at what is offered you for your Christmas buying.

Cardwell's features a superb array of every kind of item that may be desired for your comfort, convenience and pleasure in the home.

And Santa Claus will be at Cardwell's, too, with a complete toy department for the delight of the children. He will have barrels of free lollipops and toy balloons for the kiddies.

We can not begin to tell you of all the interesting things you will find at Cardwell's. In order to get the full story, you must take time to read his 16-page circular and see for yourself. Then visit the store and you will see the actual proof with your own eyes.

We think you will then agree that for volume, variety of merchandise, quality, price and easy terms of purchase, you can not find anything else anywhere that will beat Cardwell's for Christmas and all year pleasure and comfort for your home needs.

Jaycees Promote Yule Decorations

The Montevallo Jaycees urge you to say Merry Christmas with home decorations.

Christmas decorating this year may well symbolize our unalterable faith in the meaning of the bright star which shone on Bethlehem nearly 20 centuries ago. It is also a symbol of happiness and cheer of "peace on earth and good will toward men."

We can, by decorating our homes with festive lighting, bring joy to all around us and proclaim to the rest of the world our recognition of the spirit of Christmas.

We are not interested in the people going to a lot of expense to decorate their homes, but remember it is what you do with what you have, the artistry, the originality, ingenuity, and lighting technique you show, that our judges will take into account. If you can only decorate a window, door or yard, enter into it, for we are hoping everybody will enter our contest to promote the Christmas spirit.

The entrance fee is 50 cents. The following Jaycees will take your entry: David Lucas, 8495; Jack Sims, 4086; Wallace Weaver, 6431, day or night. Follow this newspaper for further information concerning the contest. We remind you again, entries will be taken from Montevallo and surrounding area from now until December 19.

Calera Team Wins Homecoming Game

The Calera Eagles closed their 1954 season by defeating Reel-ton 32-0 last Friday night.

It was Homecoming and the Eagles wasted no time in getting started. They took the opening kickoff and marched straight to score. Halfback Jerry Cosby went off tackle the last seven yards for the touchdown. The extra point failed.

Calera scored twice in the second quarter. Jerry Cosby broke loose up the middle for 65 yards and his second touchdown. He also added the extra point. Fred Sims, left end, scored from 15 yards on an end run. The extra point was again missed and Calera led at the half 19-0.

Cosby scored again in the third quarter on a pitchout around left end from 35 yards out. Wright Ingram, quarterback, added the point after. The Eagles scored again in the fourth when fullback Junior Smith broke loose up the middle for a 50-yard sprint.

The Eagles were not forced to punt the entire game. Guard Joe Woods and tackles Godfrey and Hugh Tomlin were outstanding for Calera.

This game gave the Eagles a record of 4 wins and 5 losses for the season.

Why We Should Buy Christmas Seals

By Dr. E. F. SLOAN
County Health Officer

Tuberculosis is by far the most formidable communicable disease today. No other infection is comparable to it in its impact upon a family, its devastating consequences, and its cost in lost time and income. Imagine the terrific shock to a man with a family to support, when he is told, however gently, that he will not be able to work for probably two years or more.

Of the infectious diseases, there has been no case of typhoid or diphtheria in Shelby County this year. Malaria and syphilis have become a rarity, and the other common infections can, for the most part, be prevented or controlled. Shelby County has had one case of epidemic meningitis and two of polio this year. These have never constituted a serious public health problem in this county.

Forty Cases of TB

Tuberculosis, on the other hand, is a widespread and chronic disease. It requires long term and expensive treatment and frequent check-ups after the disease is arrested. Your county tuberculosis clinic is at present treating 40 cases. This writer knows of no other county in the state which has such a clinic, with facilities for X-Ray diagnosis, for instituting and maintaining pneumoperitoneum and pneumothorax, and with a stock of anti-tuberculosis drugs, syringes, needles and everything needed to start a patient on treatment immediately after the diagnosis is made.

This clinic is made possible by the combined efforts of your county tuberculosis association, the County Board of Revenue and Control, and the County Health Department.

The county tuberculosis association obtains its funds solely by the sale of Christmas Seals. Nearly all of the proceeds of the Seal Sale is placed in a fund for buying drugs and supplies for the tuberculosis clinic. Each dollar that is placed in this fund is matched by the County Board of Revenue and Control.

Would Cost $2700 A Month

Few tuberculosis patients are able to pay $67.50 per month for sanatorium treatment or to pay for the drugs and other supplies which they need. It would cost $2700 per month to hospitalize the number of patients that are now being treated in the county clinic.

We have proved beyond any doubt that the vast majority of patients can be successfully treated at home and they are much happier in this environment. The response to treatment in many cases has been little short of dramatic. Usually, too, the positive sputum becomes negative in less than 3 months.

There are still many cases of Holidays Coming

"Light" Diets for "Heavy" Dates

Go in "heavy" for parties during the holidays and you may come out showing it.

Around the waistline, that is. Who can resist the extra tempting holiday treats offered by friends to make a gay season even more festive? But after the social round is over, about all most of us have to show for our splurge are a few more unwanted pounds.

This year, therefore, the thoughtful hostess might think in terms of calorie-counters when making snacks for guests. With the use of a natural-tasting sugar substitute like Crystallose calorie-free sweetening crystals, she can turn out a multitude of mouth-watering refreshments that will add that much more to her friends' enjoyment because they aren't adding that much more to their girth.

Crystallose is a crystal-pure sweetener that flavors food and beverages so much like sugar it is actually a pleasure to use. The crystals—one no larger than a pinhead is equal to one lump of sugar—also are easy to use. You simply sweeten to taste in cooking, canning, baking or in hot or cold beverages. And the sweet and low calorie recipes that result are delicious.

For instance, here is a simply prepared, but oh-so-good company-coming snack for cinnamon wedgies that contains only 25 calories per serving:

Set oven at 400 degrees. Remove crusts from 4 slices of white bread and cut each slice into 4 strips. Dissolve 3 Crystallose crystals in ¼ cup of skim milk. Stir in 1 well beaten egg. ½ teaspoon of vanilla and a few grains of salt.

In a separate bowl mix 2 teaspoons of cinnamon with 1 cup of ready-to-eat cereal flakes which have been well mashed. Dip the strips of bread into the milk mixture and then dust well with the cereal mixture. Place the bread on a greased cookie pan and bake 12 to 15 minutes or until crisp and light brown. Serve hot chocolate, tea or coffee, sweetened with non-caloric crystals.

Religion Professor Speaks
To Sunday School Workers

Dr. Francis Christy, professor of religion at Birmingham Southern College, spoke to a group of Sunday school workers from several Montevallo sub-district Methodist churches Wednesday night at an education workshop at the local Methodist Church. "Selfish" Oil Titan Gives Millions Away

Hardly anybody blinked an eye when Hugh Roy Cullen gave two and a quarter million dollars to the University of Houston last winter. Hardly anybody in Texas, anyway.

This big-hearted, impulsive, outspoken, ruggedly individualistic oil millionaire has given away over $160,000,000. In one 48-hour period he gave over a million dollars to each of four separate hospitals, setting an all-time record in generosity. And in 1947, he set up the Cullen Foundation to dispense his wealth in systematic if somewhat overwhelming fashion.

"My wife and I are pretty selfish about our giving," he explained recently. "We want to see our money spent while we're still alive, so we can enjoy the spending." The story of what one newspaperman called "the biggest heart in Texas" is told in a new book, "Hugh Roy Cullen, A Story of American Opportunity."

Cullen acquired his wealth as a wildcatter in oil, starting from scratch, with little more than courage, faith, obstinacy and uncanny instinct. His philanthropies started early in life. "I've always wanted to help people," he says. "I guess I was as eager to help people when I was poor as I am now. It is my conviction that unless a man is generous to begin with, the richer he gets the tighter he gets."

Years of hard work and determination made Cullen the uncrowned king of the wildcatters, a legend in his own time. By his middle years, still drilling vigorously, his unbounded wealth was matched by his unstinting philanthropies, since he felt that the riches he had extracted from American soil should be used to serve the needs of his less fortunate fellow-citizens.

As Speaker of the House Joseph Martin commented on his absorbing life story, "The story of Hugh Roy Cullen should be required reading for any pessimists who believe that America is a nation of vanishing horizons. . . . As long as our country produces men of the character of Roy Cullen, it will go forward."

mascot of the team. A rich effect was created by suspended multi-colored balloons. The party was well attended by students, alumni and faculty.

The decoration committee for the party was headed by the cheerleaders, Ann Farris, June Cannady, Pat Lawrence, Glenda Askins, Carolyn Samples and LeClare Cowart. They were assisted by Betty Bowdon, Marie Wells, Twyla Collum, Margie Woods, Charity Bean, Janice Barefield, Joanne Park, Barbara Findley, Joe Don Woods, Jimmy Carden, and Donnie Jacks.

Fifty dollars was presented to Calera High School for visual aid equipment by members of the Beta Club on Tuesday.

The school recently purchased a new 16 mm. sound projector, record player, strip and slide projector and a beaded screen.

Homecoming at Calera Features Banquet, Football

The enthusiasm displayed by the students of Calera High was at the highest peak before the Homecoming game with Reeltown Thursday night, November 18.

A majority of the students, the teachers and fans were present for the pep rally before a huge bonfire in the football field. The school spirit was in the air as the students gave yells praising the team and coaches. Each followed by talks by the coaches, E. Marvin Smith and Dan Carroll. Following the talks the players and cheerleaders led a snake dance around the fire singing the pep song. Singing of the Alma Mater closed the rally.

New record players have been added in all elementary grades, and in the music department, and new globes, maps and strip films have been purchased with the idea to improve the instructional program.

Strip films in science, math, history, geography, English, are a Recently the visual aids departments had colored slides made of the various school activities and the PTA beautification project. Mrs. Zollie Cowart Jr. took the pictures of the activities for the department.

Christmas Opera to Be Given Sunday

One of the Christmas season's most popular operas, "Amahl and the Night Visitors," will be presented Sunday, December 12, at 2:30 p.m. in Palmer Hall.

The opera will be performed by the Conservatory Opera Department of Birmingham Southern College and a section of the Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, with Mr. Arthur Bennett Lipkin conducting.

Setting of the opera is a small, shabby cottage in the Holy Land on the eve of Christ's birth. The story is about a small crippled shepherd boy, Amahl. On this particular evening Amahl returns home late, because he has been watching a brilliant new star in the heavens. Amahl's widowed mother does not believe his story and is angry with him for being late.

Later the mother discovers he was telling the truth when three kings seek a night's shelter in her humble home. The kings are bearing gifts, and tell Amahl's mother they, too, have seen the star, the sign of a new born babe who will become King of Kings.

The opera, sung in English, is climaxed when Amahl, who has no gifts for the new born child, asks the kings to take his crutches as a gift. A miracle occurs and Amahl can walk. He accompanies the kings to offer his love and his mother's love to the new King.

Tips on Mailing Christmas Parcels

Mailing Christmas packages can be either a time-saver or a headache. It all depends on how you go about it, according to Postmaster M. F. Watson.

Correct and careful mailing of Christmas packages and greeting cards is just as important as early mailing. One of the most important things to remember is to make sure you have the correct name, street number, city and state, for everyone you have on your mailing list.

Mail Early

Another equally important time saver is to try and send all gift packages and greeting cards for distant states before December 13.

All greeting cards for local delivery should be mailed at least a week before Christmas Day.

The Montevallo Postmaster advises that three cent stamps be used on Christmas cards because cards sent first class mail will be forwarded if the addressee cannot be located.

There is also the additional advantage to sending your cards with a three cent stamp, because you can include written messages when your Christmas cards go by first class mail.

A convenient way of handling your cards, especially if you have a large number, is to sort them into bundles—those for out of town delivery and those for local delivery.

To avoid having to wait in line to mail packages, try to do your mailing between the hours of 11 in the morning and 4 in the afternoon.

LEGION FISH FRY

The annual fish fry of Hendrick Hudson Post of the American Legion will be held at the Legion Hut in Montevallo December 10 at 7 p.m.

Mr. C. C. Horton, director of the Alabama Department of Veterans Affairs, will be the guest speaker.

All members of the Post and the Auxiliary are invited.

Mrs. Fred Harrison Dies In Texas Clinic

Columbus, Miss., Dec. 7.—Mrs. Fred Harrison, daughter of T. A. McGahey Sr., prominent Columbus capitalist and owner of the Columbus Marble Works, died Sunday at a Houston, Texas clinic after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Harrison, a native of Columbus, was a graduate of Mississippi State College for Women, formerly taught English at the S. D. Lee High School in Columbus. She was known as "Sister" to her wide circle of friends.

Mrs. Harrison leaves her husband, a son Ed Edmondson, her parents, a brother, T. A. McGahey Jr.; a sister, Mrs. W. L. Jones, both of Columbus, and a number of nieces and nephews. She was the niece of Dr. Goodloe McGahey of Birmingham.

The many friends of Mr. Harrison (Ike) in Montevallo and throughout Shelby County, extend their sympathy to him and his family.

Acker and Stone Lead Montevallo Goodfellows

Ross Bob Mullins of Columbiana was in Montevallo Monday in the interest of the Goodfellows Movement in this community.

He reports that Dr. Charles T. Acker and Herman Stone will be co-chairmen for the drive in Montevallo.

For several years the Goodfellows have raised by popular subscriptions a fund to provide Christmas gifts for underprivileged children. It will be done again this year.

It is a county-wide movement with a local committee pushing the drive in different localities.

We expect to hear from Dr. Charlie and Herman about their plans for Montevallo's participation in this worthy cause.

Youth Go Skating

Friday night the intermediate Sunday school class, with their teacher, Fred Miller, enjoyed a skating party at the Jemison rink, and Saturday night the junior fellowship, with their leader, Lee Manners, enjoyed a similar outing.

Teachers To Vote on Social Security Coverage

Over 27,000 Alabama teachers will vote on Friday on whether they will want social security coverage in addition to the teachers retirement system. Following the signing by President Eisenhower of the federal social security amendments permitting such dual coverage, Governor Persons designated December 10 as the date for a vote by teacher retirement members.

Plans for the election, which is being conducted by the Alabama Education Association, have been worked out by county and city superintendents, administrative heads of schools and colleges, local association presidents and the local election committees.

The state elections committee headed by Hubert Hammond, of Clayton, will meet in Montgomery to tally returns from the 135 units participating in the election.

Adult Men's Class

Christmas Seal Money Goes a Long Way in County

Christmas Seals are an insurance policy, a down payment on a gift of health, a pretty sticker to seal up holiday packages and cards.

"Any way we look at them, they're good for the individual, the community and the nation, because they fight TB," said Mr. Conrad Fowler, president of the Shelby County Tuberculosis Association.

Getting down to our home-county participation in the sale of Christmas Seals and the fight on tuberculosis, Mr. Fowler said:

"Four thousand nine hundred and twenty packages of Christmas Seals have been mailed to the people of Shelby County. The response they give will determine the extent of the Tuberculosis Association program in 1955. That portion of the money which remains in Shelby County will be matched by the Board of Revenue and Control and the combined funds will provide treatment for TB victims in the county."

"The clinical and home treatment of the Association is unique in the state. The patient is permitted to remain at home and receive treatment from members of the family who have been instructed on the procedures of isolation, medication and diet. X-ray and giving air treatment is furnished at the tuberculosis clinic. Officials report that the patient maintains a better frame of mind at home and that in practically all cases, rapid response to treatment is had. The cost per patient per month is only $11, as compared to about $67.50 per month for conventional sanatorium treatment care."

"Free X-ray service is given to the public on Wednesday morning of each week at the clinic."

"Christmas Seal money goes a long way in Shelby County. You are reminded to mail a contribution to Roy Downs, Treasurer of the Association, at Calera."

CALERA TEEN CLUB

The Calera Teen Club enjoyed a Christmas dance at the Armory December 4. Music was furnished by the McAdory High School orchestra from Bessemer. Sixty young people enjoyed the evening. Baptists Observe Mobilization Night

By far the largest crowd ever to assemble in this county for an event of this kind jammed to overflowing the Montevallo Baptist Church Monday night for the annual Mobilization Night for all Training Union forces, reports G. C. Moore, associational BTU director.

Exceeding the goal set for 550 this year as compared to 521 one year ago, 689 people from 22 of the 30-odd Baptist churches with local training unions, took up every inch of seating space and many stood to hear the 1955 BTU goals and plans set forth.

Highlight of this great meeting was the timely and forceful message on the 1955 theme, "Be Strong in the Lord and in the Power of His Might," delivered by Rev. J. Albert Hill, pastor of First Baptist Church of Wetumpka. Solos by J. R. Cline, Mt. Signal and Miss Laura Hargrove, Baptist Student Secretary, Alabama College, were enjoyed. Doing the choral offerings was the Calera Baptist Church choir under direction of Mrs. J. W. Phillips. Taking part in the 1955 promotion work were Wallace Weaver and Mrs. W. G. Hicks, Montevallo, and Miss Maggie Fowler, Columbiana.

Winning the efficiency banner for the highest percentage of its BTU enrollment present was Antioch No. 1 Church with 95 per cent. Running a close second was Prospect Church with 94.9 per cent, while Pelham was third with 89.2 per cent.

Winning the attendance banner for the biggest crowd present was Wilsonville with 85 people present, followed by Bethel with 73 and Enon with 63.

Miss Hanson To Appear On Convocation Program

Miss Betty Ruth Hanson, concert lyric soprano, will be the featured artist on Alabama College's convocation program Tuesday, December 14 at 11 a.m. in Palmer Hall.

Miss Hanson, a recent scholarship student of Mme. Lotte Lehman, has sung grand opera, appearing as Zerline in "Don Giovanni," Suzanna in "Marriage of Figaro," Cho-Cho-San in "Madam Butterfly," and Mimi and Musetta in "La Boheme". She has also appeared as soloist with the Duluth Symphony Orchestra, the University of Iowa Orchestra and the Music Academy of the West Orchestra. She has made oratorio appearances in numerous cities on the West Coast and in the Middle West.

In private life Miss Hanson is the wife of Dr. Roger W. Hanson, a scientist with the Medical College of Alabama, Birmingham.

The Tuesday morning convocation program is open to the public free of charge.

Methodists Observe Commitment Sunday

Sunday was the ninth annual commitment Sunday in Methodist churches throughout the nation. At the Montevallo Methodist Church 96 persons signed commitments pledging total abstinence from alcoholic beverages after a sermon by the pastor on "Total Abstinence."

Next Sunday morning the children and youth in the Sunday school classes will be given the opportunity to make their commitments also, which will swell the above number considerably. The official stand of the Methodist church on the beverage alcohol question is total abstinence from the individual and legal prohibition by the state.

1955 CHRYSLER WINDSOR DELUXE NASSAU

CHRYSLER'S 100-MILLION-DOLLAR LOOK! ... overnight it's a famous new fashion!

"TAILORED STEEL" is the fashion experts' term for Chrysler's exciting new styling! Sweeping design change for 1955 features noticeably lower, longer lines and ... unmistakably Chrysler ... the new swept-back Super-Scenic Windshield that "wraps around" both top and bottom for greater (and safer) vision! New V-8 engines now power all Chryslers: up to 250 hp in the New Yorker Deluxe, and 188 hp in the Windsor Deluxe series. Other Chrysler exclusives include the most automatic of all transmissions, Full-time Power Steering, and double-width pedal Power Brakes. Your Chrysler-Plymouth dealer invites you to see and drive America's newest and most smartly different car!

WIDELY HAILED is Chrysler's new PowerFlite Range-Selector... on the dash! Permitting more instant control of gear-range selection, it heightens the pleasing "cock-pit" effect of Chrysler's new front compartment styling.

TOTALLY NEW throughout, the 1955 Chrysler is easy to identify from any angle. New-styled "tumblehome" (or slope-in of the sides) emphasizes Chrysler's road-hugging look. Unmistakably Chrysler is the classic simplicity of rear deck ... longer and broader. Dominant Twin-Tower tail lights set a new trend in rear-end design.

Goodfellows Raise Christmas Funds

The Goodfellows of Shelby County are now at work raising funds for their annual role of bringing real Christmas to more than 600 unfortunate children scattered all over the county. According to Ross B. Mullins, county chairman, about $1200 will be needed this year, as the average amount spent will be about $2.00 per child.

Each child on the Goodfellows list will receive toys, fruits, nuts, candy. These items are purchased cooperatively with the Goodfellows in several other counties and this large scale buying makes the money go further.

Five Goodfellow stores will be set up this year for the distribution of toys and other supplies. They will be at Vincent, Columbiana, Calera, Siluria and Montevallo.

Mr. Mullins invites everyone in Shelby County to be a Goodfellow by making a contribution to the Christmas fund. You may give or send your contribution to any one of the Goodfellow representatives named below:

Vincent, Jimmy Sharbutt and Mrs. Miki Hassett; Siluria-Alabaster, Friendship Club, Mrs. A.R. Thornton; Calera, Roy Downs and Rev. L. B. Stewart; Wilsonville, D. F. Bolton; Montevallo, Dr. C. T. Acker and Herman Stone; and Columbiana, Elvin Hill.

Ross Bob Mullins is the county chairman and Luther McGibboney is treasurer.

Distribution of surplus food commodities for December at the Montevallo distribution center will be Saturday of this week, from 8 to 12 and from 1 to 3 o'clock.

Cards will be issued at the City Hall to be taken to the distribution center at the Shelby Laundry Building where commodities will be given out.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Junior Department of the Calera Baptist BTU will have a Christmas party Friday evening at 7 o'clock in the Junior Department. Each one will bring a gift suitable for a boy or girl. Also comic books, games, costume jewelry and puzzles for patients at Partlow Hospital. Mrs. J. E. Wallace is leader of the group.

Christmas again! With its peace, and good will, and wonder! How our spirit swells, and our kindness multiplies as the Day of Days draws near! For this little pause out of the year, we are glad to be ourselves; we are not ashamed to be good — to be kind — to be loving.

When Christmas comes, the world suddenly grows better, sin is less alluring, and Heaven is nearer. May the sweet influences of Christmas steal into thoughts and hearts of men everywhere to bring us closer to the Christ—The Christ of Christmas.

Christmas Service

The public is cordially invited to the community Christmas service Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Presbyterian Church. Rev. Preston Hughes Jr., Montevallo Methodist pastor, will preach and a community choir from the various churches will sing.

Sunday Night Services

Sunday night at 7:30 a cantata and pageant will be presented at the Methodist Church by the Junior and Youth Fellowships under the direction of Martha Cox and Beverly Doyle. The annual White Christmas offering for the Methodist Children's Home at Selma will be received at this service. Last year this offering totaled $625, and it is hoped that this amount may be exceeded for this year.

There's Still Time To Win Christmas Decoration Award

There are only a few days left for residents of the Montevallo area to enter the Christmas home decoration contest being sponsored by Montevallo Jaycees. Entries will be accepted through Sunday, December 19.

Montevallo Jaycees, in promoting this program of home decoration for Christmas, hope to bolster Christmas spirit in the community and add to the festive beauty of Christmas.

Winners will be selected on the basis of originality, ingenuity, artistry and decorating technique.

Community Chest Drive Is Completed

By Gayle Jones

The goal of the Community Chest Drive at $2,100 was left behind and the amount is still going higher with over $2,500.

The money will go for the needs of the community. Approximately $1,200 will go to the welfare for the lunches of underprivileged children at all the schools of Montevallo; $150 will go to the high school band; $300 will go to the school otherwise.

These are the approximate amounts and only a few of the needs the money will go for.

This drive, which started on November 15, was headed by Mrs. S. C. Jones, chairman, and Miss Virginia Hendrick, co-chairman. The Community Chest Board feels that the drive was very successful. Mr. Guy Milford is chairman of the Board and Mr. S. M. Mahan is treasurer.

'The Spotlight,' Montevallo High School Newspaper, Wins Statewide Award

The "Spotlight," school newspaper of the Montevallo High School, has been selected as the prize winning publication for Class B high schools of the state. This signal honor for the "Spotlight" was announced this week in a letter to Principal S. H. Hurt from C. E. Bounds, head of the Department of Journalism at the University of Alabama.

In his letter to Mr. Hurt, Mr. Bounds says:

"It is with pleasure that I notify you that the mimeographed school newspaper issued by your institution, the 'Spotlight,' has been selected as the prize winning publication for Class B high schools of the state in the annual competition of the Alabama High School Press Association.

"With this selection of your newspaper comes a handsome metal wall plaque on which, I am sure, you will want to have the name of your school engraved. The plaque will be mailed to you this week, and I will appreciate your kindness if you will present it to the sponsoring faculty member and to the staff of your publication at your next general assembly.

"This is the first time in quite a few years that a mimeographed newspaper has won this award in statewide competition. Basis of selection of the winning newspaper was the obvious good makeup of the newspaper, the quality of writing displayed by student staff and the apparent thoroughness of coverage and treatment of school news.

"The neatness of typing and reproduction of your mimeographed pages counted heavily in favor of the 'Spotlight,' and the well-written stories added to the general score. The faculty sponsor of this publication merits commendation for the good work he or she is doing with your students in producing this publication.

"I hope that a delegation of your students will be present for the AHSFA convention and workshop next year, and I regret that no representative of your school was here this past weekend to receive the award in person."

Plans are being made by the Board of Revenue and Control of Shelby County to hold open house on Sunday, January 9, 1955 from 2 to 6 p.m., to give the people of Shelby County and their friends from other counties an opportunity to go through and inspect the new addition to their courthouse.

Work on the new structure is already practically completed and with a few miscellaneous jobs to be rounded up, everything will be in readiness for the formal opening.

Every citizen of Shelby County is cordially invited and urged to come to Columbians on that day to go through the new building and see for themselves the manner in which this important project has been developed and completed.

Miss Marian Cotney, Home Demonstration Agent, and a committee from the Home Demonstration Clubs will prepare and serve light refreshments during the afternoon.

And this bit of good news will be pleasing to everyone in Shelby County: The money to pay the last installment on the contract for the new building is already laid by, and by opening day, every last dollar of the contract will have been paid. There will be no debt, no long drawn out payments with interest in the years to come.

The new addition is three stories high and has been planned to provide ample space for every agency of the county government, which for years have been housed in different buildings all scattered over town.

Everyone who has seen the new structure agrees that the contractor has done a magnificent job for the people of Shelby County. It is a building of which the people for generations to come may be justly proud.

Eagles Start Season With Two Wins

The Calera Eagles opened their basketball season by defeating the Jemison Panthers 39-38 last Friday night. It was the first of the season for both teams and both got off to a slow start. Jemison pulled ahead to lead at halftime 18-14. The Panthers led at the end of the third quarter 28-21.

The Eagles came back strong in the last quarter to pour in 18 points to Jemison's 10. The Eagles went ahead with less than a minute to go on a field goal and foul shot by Godfrey. Jemison scored again to put them ahead. But with 5 seconds left to play, Wright Ingram added two foul shots to put the Eagles back in the lead.

Godfrey was high man for Calera with 10 points. He was followed by Larry Sinor with 9 and Don Jacks with 8. Jemison's high man was Guy with 11 points.

The Vincent Game

The Eagles played Vincent on Tuesday night at Calera. Vincent jumped into an early first quarter lead but the Eagles came back to lead at the half, 18-16.

Vincent went back into the lead at the beginning of the third, 21-20. The Eagles slowly pulled away and led at the end of the third, 31-28. They continued to pull ahead in the fourth quarter.

The final score was Calera 42, Vincent 31. Godfrey again led the Calera team in scoring. He had 12, followed by Fred Sims with 8 and James Carden with 7. High man for Vincent was Sorrell, 16.

Missionary Society Meets With Rev., Mrs. Glover

The December meeting of the Womans' Missionary Society of the Montevallo Baptist Church was held Monday night of this week at the hospitable home of Rev. and Mrs. Edward Glover.

As has been the custom of this organization for many years, the Christmas season was observed by the bringing of gifts for needy families and inexpensive gifts to be exchanged with other members of the group.

The living room was lighted by the glow of a beautifully lighted Christmas tree in one end of the room and candles and a lighted star at the other end.

As the members arrived, they were conducted to a room adjoining the living room where decorated baskets were waiting to receive the gifts for needy friends. Each person was given a number to put on her gift which was then placed under the tree.

While the ladies were assembling, Christmas music was played by Miss Mary Katherine Hicks on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Jimmie Crisswell at the piano.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. L. O. Robinson. All business was dispensed with except the reading of the minutes and the report of the first vice president, Mrs. Helen Woolley.

The program was given by the Business Women's Circle with Mrs. C. D. Galloway leading. Those taking part were Mesdames Paschal Underwood, R. C. Frederick, Luther McGaughy, W. G. Hicks, and Miss Lela Rice.

At the conclusion of the program the social chairman, Mrs. Fred Frost, Sr., was introduced, and a merry time was enjoyed as the gifts were distributed and delightful refreshments served. Forty-eight ladies were present.

While the refreshments were served, records of music suitable for Christmas were played by Miss Laura Hargrove, Baptist Student Director at Alabama College.

How Christmas Seal Money Is Spent

By Dr. E. F. Sloan
County Health Officer

The major portion of your Christmas Seal money is spent for the treatment and control of tuberculosis in this county.

The best way to control the spread of this disease is to find and cure the active cases. Aside from the benefits to the patients themselves, the sputum, in the average case under treatment, becomes negative within 3 months or less, thereby eliminating the great danger of spreading the disease to members of the family and other contacts.

Tuberculosis is no respecter of persons. You may be the next victim. This writer, and many doctors of his acquaintance, has had it. About half of our patients tell us that they do not know who could have given it to them.

Three organizations in this county are leading the fight on tuberculosis—the County Tuberculosis Association, the County Board of Revenue and Control and the County Health Department.

Your help is imperative. Without your purchase of Christmas Seals the work of the County Tuberculosis Clinic could not be continued.

The purchase of Christmas Seals is not only an act for the good of humanity but a definitely good investment for your own protection. It enables those who could not otherwise do so to have chest X-rays in order to detect any disease that might be present and also enables them to have treatment without having to leave home for a prolonged period.

The county clinic is at present treating 40 cases with excellent results in the vast majority of cases. Eight cases have been allowed to discontinue treatment this year and two others have returned to light work.

As we find more cases, more and more money is needed to buy drugs and other supplies.

You can participate in this important work by the purchase of Christmas Seals. With your help, tuberculosis can eventually be eradicated.

"That's a Good Beginning!"

APSC Seeks To Lower Intrastate Phone Rates

The Alabama Public Service Commission has issued an order citing the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co. to appear before it to show cause why intrastate telephone rates should not be reduced.

C. C. (Jack) Owen, president of the Public Service Commission, stated that he and the associate commissioners, Jimmy Hitchcock and Tillie Walker had come to the conclusion after a lengthy study that the telephone company is making a higher rate of return than should be allowed. President Owen stated that it appeared from the study of the telephone company records that the rate of return has been steadily increasing for the past several months. He further stated that in order to reduce a utility's rates under the laws of Alabama it is necessary to give the utility in question a chance to be heard and a chance to show cause why, if any, its rates should not be reduced before any action can be taken.

The Commission's citation ordered the telephone company to appear before it at 10 a.m. Tuesday, December 21 at its offices in the new state office building in Montgomery.

Rep. Laurie Battle Reports on Russia

Congressman Laurie Battle, reporting about Soviet Russia, says "During the 17 days I was behind the Iron Curtain recently, I never got out of sight of soldiers and statues of the Kremlin leaders."

"The USSR has almost total mobilization of all manpower, womanpower and industrial power," he continued.

The Jefferson County representative reported that "about ten million men and women are in active military service in Soviet Russia, but to get the whole picture, we must realize every man, woman and child is subject to military type discipline."

He said "workers can be placed on any job anywhere at any time and they can not strike. Wages are low and prices are high."

Congressman Battle observed that "the citizens of Soviet Russia are kept under control by constant propaganda, by government benefits and by the unseen hand which means a one-way trip to Siberia or worse if they cross the Kremlin dictates."

Statues and pictures of Stalin and Lenin were seen everywhere, according to the Congressman. This included hotels, parks, factories, schools, theatres and the streets. "There were no statues or pictures of Stalin or Lenin in the remaining churches, which is the exception that proves the rule," he said.

Battle warned that "Soviet Russia is struggling desperately to overcome their industrial lag and keeping their people in constant readiness for possible military operations."

Adult Men's Class

Subject of the lesson last Sunday was "Yearning for the Living God." The deepest longing of the human heart is the longing for God, although it is often not recognized as such.

Our program was started by our president, Mr. C. W. Roberts reading the scripture and a prayer. Song service was led by R. E. Eddings with Mrs. Fleming at the piano.

George Howell gave the devotional, after which the ladies went to their class.

Mr. Cook passed out the class cards for the offering.

Dr. Richard Powers taught the lesson from Psalm 42.

We had an attendance of 25 of the best looking men to be found. Don't you want to join us? Come out next Sunday and help us to make this number go past forty. By doing this you will receive a blessing.

Our service was closed with a prayer by Frank Baker.

Calera Folks Rally; Help Fire Victims

In what Mayor O. C. Farris described as a real community effort, Calera folks in very short order made certain that the husband and six children of one of their teachers would not stay out in the cold.

In a matter of hours, neighbors and friends arranged rental of a house and chipped in clothing, bedding, furniture and food after fire destroyed the home of James and Gertha Mae Kelly.

Only a small amount of clothing was saved during the blaze Friday night. The Kelly's six youngsters were led to safety but just about everything the family had was lost.

"We just sort of put them back in business," said the mayor. Through the Calera Baptist Church, the Kellys got the use of the one empty house in town and received goods to substitute for the destroyed furnishings.

Mrs. Kelly teaches biology at Calera High School.

Home Economics Students Present Fashion Show

The Home Economics three class of Montevallo High School presented a fashion show Tuesday evening, December 7, featuring clothes which they had made in clothing class and as home experiences.

The parents and friends present were invited by Miss Chita Hodges, the commentator, to accompany the fashion models on an imaginary trip to Christmas Island, which was the setting for the fashion show.

Members of the class who modeled clothes for the holiday season were: Carleen Lind, Mary Katherine Hicks, Betty Lawley, Jade Higgins, Clara Young, Tommie Peete, Mary Kathryn Cox, Frances Klotzman, and Jeanette Whatley.

After the fashion show, which took place in the living room, the guests were invited into the clothing laboratory where cranberry punch and cookies were served from a gaily decorated table. A variety of Christmas decorations had been arranged in the various rooms of the department by student teachers. These, together with a display of inexpensive wrapping suggestions, added a festive note to the occasion.—Billie Ann Chism, Student Teacher.

David Lindsay Chapter Observes Alabama Day

Alabama Day was fittingly observed on Monday afternoon, December 13, by David Lindsay Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, when Mrs. T. H. Napier was hostess at a delightful tea honoring the 38 Good Citizenship girls now attending Alabama College.

The home was beautifully decorated with silvered leaves, pine branches and cones, lighted candles, and Alabama DAR and American flags.

Guests were met at the door by Miss Ollie Tillman, and were greeted by Mrs. A. W. Vaughan and Miss Josephine Eddy who kept the register. Red and white ribbon bows were pinned on the guests by Miss Sallie Ben Beeler, who is Mrs. Napier's sister.

The receiving line was composed of the officers of the Chapter: Mrs. T. H. Napier, vice-regent; Mrs. W. H. Lyman, regent; Mrs. B. F. Roden, chaplain; Miss Eloise Meroney, treasurer; and Mrs. H. D. LeBaron, registrar.

Mrs. Charles L. Gormley directed the young ladies into the dining room where the tea table was presided over by Mrs. E. H. Wills, secretary and organizing regent, assisted by Mrs. W. J. Kennerly, Mrs. E. D. Reynolds and Mrs. O. B. Cooper.

After the tea, the Chapter held a business meeting which was opened with the usual ritual and the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Mrs. Reynolds read the message of the president general, and Mrs. Gormley gave an interesting national defense report. Mrs. Gormley is related to Jennie Jerome, mother of Sir Winston Churchill.

The Alabamian's Creed was repeated in unison and a salute was given to the flag of Alabama.

The application for membership of Miss Charlene Burley was unanimously accepted. Miss Burley is transferring from Children of the Revolution to David Lindsay Chapter.

The company's total tax bill of 1954, including federal and state income taxes, is expected to be $16 million.

CALERA UNIQUE CLUB

The Unique Study Club met on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 7, at the home of Mrs. Marvin Smith. Mrs. Smith presided during the business period.

The meeting was opened with the pledge of allegiance to the flag and repeating the collect.

the magic ingredient

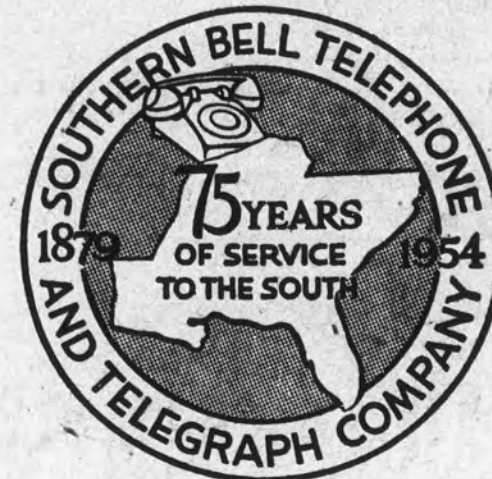

A company doesn't just happen to live for 75 years. Usually some one factor, more than others, makes it possible. In the case of Southern Bell, the magic ingredient has been the public's acceptance of good and growing telephone service furnished at the lowest possible cost.

Chartered on December 20, 1879, with 1,246 telephones, Southern Bell was formed by men of foresight, with faith in the South's future. Their faith was borne out, and the Company grew to 26,396 telephones by 1900.

Since World War II, telephone progress in the South has broken all records: From 1,863,000 telephones at the end of 1945 to over 4,500,000 today, while Long Distance circuits have more than doubled. Such remarkable scientific developments as the transistor, microwave radio-relay and direct operator dialing of Long Distance calls have opened exciting new vistas of service.

In the years ahead, the men and women of Southern Bell pledge to keep on furnishing the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost. On this, our 75th Anniversary, we express our appreciation for the opportunity of serving you.

Cattlemen Organized in All 67 Alabama Counties

Montgomery — The Alabama Cattlemen's Association, with more than 4,100 members, now has an active county association in each of Alabama's 67 counties for the first time.

Organized in 1944 to promote the fast growing cattle industry in Alabama, the association has grown rapidly in recent years until it is one of the state's largest groups and one of the largest state cattlemen's associations in the United States.

Beef cattle is one of Alabama's major cash agricultural products. Because of ideal pasture conditions, Alabama is one of the leading states in beef production. Percentagewise, Alabama has led the nation for the past several years in increasing cattle numbers.

Plans are now under way for the 12th annual meeting of the association in Mobile Jan. 28 and 29. Outstanding leaders in beef cattle production will be featured speakers at the meeting. Mobile county cattlemen will be hosts to the state association.

E. H. (Ham) Wilson of Montgomery is executive secretary of the Alabama Cattlemen's Association.

MONTEVALLO 4-H CLUB

The Montevallo 4-H Club met on December 14. The president called the meeting to order. The group stood and repeated the 4-H pledge. The secretary called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. Then the song leaders led us in a few songs.

The president called for the business which was attended to. Mr. Clark checked us on our safety projects and pine trees. He talked to the group about the cost and grades of eggs. — Teddy Bridges, Reporter.

$60 MILLION

TOTAL

PASSENGER REVENUE

$22 MILLION

amounted to about ONE THIRD of our total TAX BILL!

WHAT HAPPENED TO ALL these tax dollars? Many of them never got very "far from home". In fact $14½ million ended up in state, county and local tax treasuries along the lines of the Southern. Here they went to work for your community — helping to pay for schools and their maintenance ... police and fire protection ... highways and streets ... many other vital public services.

As a taxpayer, yourself, it is personally important to you that the railroads contribute, through their tax payments, to the support of your community. It also is important to you that the railroads pay all their own costs of doing business, without help from the taxpayers.

But the railroads cannot forever continue as taxpaying, self-supporting private enterprises if they must forever continue to compete for business with transportation agencies supported in part by your tax dollars, and ours. No industry can!

Mrs. Cooper Gives Cake And Mint Demonstration

On Wednesday evening, December 8, Mrs. O. B. Cooper gave a series of demonstrations on cake decoration and making mints at the high school home economics department.

Twelve adults were present for this demonstration. One of the participants, Mrs. J. P. Kelly, was interested in learning to make mints and decorate individual cakes for the occasion of her parents' fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Immediately following Mrs. Cooper's demonstration, each person had an opportunity to try her hand at making mints and using the cake embosser for decorating individual cakes.

The group was amazed at the speed and ease with which Mrs. Cooper decorated a large cake in colors of green and white. This cake, complete with "Merry Christmas" on top, was later given as a door prize.

After questions were answered concerning demonstration procedures, the group moved to another section of the foods laboratory and there Mrs. McGaughey and Miss Lightsey demonstrated the steps in making a large Christmas candle out of paraffin. A very attractive candle can be made in ten minutes at a cost of fifty cents.

Refreshments of punch and cake were served. The ladies toured the department which was gay with Christmas decorations.

There was a display of attractively wrapped Christmas packages which had been assembled by the student teachers.—Jean Bugg, Student Teacher.

Phone Company Has Anniversary

On December 20, Southern Bell Telephone Company observed its 75th anniversary of service to the South.

The company was founded on December 20, 1879, just 3 years after Alexander Graham Bell had obtained a patent for the telephone he invented.

Telephone service first came to Montevallo and Calera in 1905. At present there are 1061 telephones in Montevallo and 447 in Calera.

At the end of World War Two, there were only 350 phones in Montevallo and 112 in Calera.

Southern Bell president Fred J. Turner of Atlanta noted the occasion of the company's 75th anniversary as an opportunity to express gratitude to both telephone people and the public for their part in making telephone service what it is today. He said:

"Southern Bell marks this milestone as a tribute to the dynamic spirit of the South and the region's magnificent growth. Thru the years the South has turned to the telephone more and more as an indispensable instrument of progress and we are proud to have a part in the region's growth and development.

"We salute the people who pioneered telephone communications here, those who have provided and improved them over three-quarters of a century, and those whose confidence in our company and reliance upon its service have made possible the ever-widening scope of its usefulness."

Home Economics Students Organize Play School

The members of the Senior II home economics class who are studying child growth and development, have organized a play school in connection with their study of the young child. The play school pupils are children between the ages of two and four years. On several occasions they have been invited to the high school home economics class for a play period of one hour.

After studying play activities of children and how to guide them in their play, the class worked out plans for observing children, both at home and in the play school.

Students were chosen as leaders whose specific responsibilities were to guide the children's play activities and help them to enjoy books and stories appropriate to their age level.

Play school has been fun and the students have developed a greater interest in children by having a chance to work with them in the classroom.

Those children attending play school were Joe Miller, Danny Wyatt, Patty Johnson, Helen Hughes, Karion Jo Vardaman, Cheryl McClure, Sharon Johnsey, and Mary Glover.—Doris Mayfield, Student Teacher.

Suppose It Happened To You

By Dr. E. F. Sloan
County Health Officer

Suppose you were told by your doctor that you have active tuberculosis and that it will be necessary for you to go to bed and give up all activities and undergo treatment for many months or possibly years, for this is a chronic disease.

You may be well-to-do or you may be poor, living from pay day to pay day — tuberculosis does not respect your financial status. The family of moderate means does not have the money to see them through a long illness and even many of those well-to-do patients have an innate dread of the prospect of spending many months away from home and their loved ones.

Your county tuberculosis clinic supported by the county tuberculosis association and the Board of Revenue and Control, and conducted by personnel of the county health department, has proved beyond any doubt that, with the facilities at present available to us, the vast majority of tuberculosis cases can be successfully treated at home.

The county tuberculosis association under the able leadership of Conrad M. Fowler, obtains its funds solely by the sale of Christmas Seals. The Board of Revenue and Control matches these funds dollar for dollar, because they realize the magnitude of the tuberculosis problem and are convinced that tuberculosis can be eradicated just as so many other fatal diseases of the past have now become a rarity.

No single organization can do this alone. It will take the combined efforts of the three organizations named, and you. You can do your part by the purchase and use of Christmas Seals. Put one on every letter, postal card and package that you send.

We would be remiss not to mention the invaluable assistance rendered some of our patients by the Department of Public Welfare. The vocational rehabilitation service, also, has been ready always to assist in our program.

Even with all these organizations working together, we are dependent upon your help to aid in ridding the county of one of its most tragic diseases.

To buy and use Christmas Seals is a major contribution on your part.

Methodist Women
Have Christmas Party

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Montevallo Methodist Church had its annual Christmas Party at the church on December 16 with Mesdames Cooper, Mahaffey, Dunston, J. H. Wyatt and Killebrew as hostesses. The room was decorated with Christmas greenery, blue, white and silver being the color scheme.

Mrs. Parnell had arranged to bring cheer for the teen-agers at the Children's Home in Selma. As the members arrived, they placed their gifts for the girls and boys under the Christmas tree. There was a splendid array of gifts for them as they celebrate the birth of our Savior.

Mrs. Lazenby, president, presented Mrs. John Stephens, who had prepared a most interesting program of Christmas readings, prayer and songs. The participants were Mesdames Hughes, Napier, Parnell, Stephens, and two college girls, Misses Connie Lou Johnson and Jane McClain.

At the conclusion of the program, a social hour was enjoyed, at which time the hostesses served refreshments to 42 members. Mesdames Napier and Lazenby presided at the tea table which was centered with a beautiful Yuletide motif designed by Mrs. Lagrone.

Mrs. Louie Cosby spent several days last week in a Selma hospital.

Peace and contentment be yours this Christmas.

Adult Men's Class

The Adult Men's Class of the Montevallo Baptist Church was called to order last Sunday by our president, Mr. C. W. Roberts.

Mrs. Fred Frost began the service with prayer. We had three songs led by our pastor, Brother Edward Glover, with Mrs. F. J. Fleming at the piano.

Mrs. Frank Baker gave the devotional, closing with prayer. At this time the ladies went to their class room.

Brother Cook passed out the cards for our offering.

The lesson was taught by our pastor, Rev. Edward Glover. His subject was "Praise for God's Supreme Gift." The golden text was "O come let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker."

We are proud of our class of men and the ladies that meet with us for our devotional.

We had 26 men last Sunday. You are invited to come out and join us next Sunday and every Sunday.

CALERA GARDEN CLUB

The Calera Garden Club entertained their husbands and guests Tuesday evening, Dec. 9, with a covered dish supper in the recreational hall of the Methodist Church.

Rev. L. B. Stewart introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. Preston Hughes, pastor of the Montevallo Methodist Church.

Rev. Hughes used as his theme "The Real Meaning of Christmas," telling the origin of the evergreen, meaning of life which was originated in Germany; red berries a symbol of the blood; the candle in the window which was originated in England, meaning a room for Christ. Everyone enjoyed the inspirational message.

Following the supper the group sang Christmas carols. Guests were Rev. and Mrs. Hughes, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Goree and Mrs. Mary Childress.

Christmas Seals

"If you have done a little bit to help someone else, this Christmas Week will be a happy one for you and your loved ones," said Mr. Conrad Fowler, president of the Shelby County Tuberculosis Association.

"The 'little bit' you do when you buy Christmas Seals adds up to a lot of hope and promise for tuberculosis sufferers in Alabama. There are 11,874 people in Alabama right now known by the health officials to have active tuberculosis.

"They need sanatorium beds and good treatment if they are to be restored to useful lives. Christmas Seal dollars fight for facilities to bring relief and help to these unfortunates who developed TB because they caught the germs from someone else.

"Please remember them and give generously to the Christmas Seal Sale. Any of these people could be you or a member of your family. Not a single home is safe from tuberculosis as long as there is one victim left to spread the germs."

Mr. Fowler expressed thanks and appreciation for all who have bought seals and used them on holiday mail, but too many people have not yet responded with a contribution. He reminded that it is never too late to pay for the little seals.

If you forgot to send in your contribution before Christmas, it will be just as welcome and just as useful later on. All funds contributed through March 31 will be counted on the 1954 Seal Sale.

May Santa fulfill all your hopes.

President of Westinghouse Reviews Business In 1954; Predicts Future Expanding Economy

By Gwilym A. Price, President Westinghouse Electric Corporation

As open warfare was halted throughout the world for the first time in more than 20 years, the American economy during 1954 finally came face to face with the challenge of peace.

Could American industry complete the shift to a peacetime economy without stalling?

As we look back at 1954 and ahead to 1955, I believe it is safe to say that the challenge is being met successfully. With only the slight hesitation frequently accompanying a shift of gears, American industry is again picking up speed. The all-time peaks of production, consumption and employment which were reached during the first five years of this decade seem certain to be surpassed within the next two years. Although we still are producing for the nation's long-range defense program, America has proved that continuing prosperity need not depend on war.

This is not to say that 1954 did not bring difficult problems for the economy nor that they all have been solved. Production costs continued to edge upward; competition became keener; the buyer in all fields became more selective.

61 Million Employed

Despite this, however an average of 61 million people were employed and the nation's gross national product was down but two per cent from the 1953 peak. The outlook for 1955 indicates that both employment and gross national product will move upward an estimated two per cent.

For Westinghouse, 1954 saw more than $1,600,000,000 worth of products shipped, exceeding the all-time company record set in 1953. And even though new orders were down from the previous year, we have reason to believe that our production during 1955 in terms of sales billed will approach or equal the record set this past year.

Even while achieving this record production during 1954, Westinghouse gave high priority to advanced research and expansion of facilities—an investment in the near future.

New Research Center

Construction got under way on an ultramodern research center near Pittsburgh which, during 1955, will become the new home of the Westinghouse Research Laboratories. At Blairsville, Pa., work also began on what we believe will be the nation's most complete facility for the development of new metal alloys and metallurgical techniques which hold the key to advances in many important fields. At Philadelphia, a large laboratory for the development of new and improved turbines neared completion. At Sharon, Pa., a new sound laboratory for the development and test of improved electric transformers was under construction.

Atomic Power

The Westinghouse atomic power division grew to more than 2,000 people who could look back on 1954 with an unusual sense of pioneering achievement. During the year, this division completed work, under contract to the Atomic Energy Commission, on the atomic engine for the USS Nautilus—the world's first atomic submarine which was commissioned on September 30. The division took on a new job for the AEC and the Navy to design and develop a nuclear power plant suitable for the propulsion of large naval vessels.

But of perhaps greatest public interest was the atomic power division's task of building the nuclear reactor for the nation's first full-scale atomic powered electric generating station which is a joint project of the Atomic Energy Commission, and Duquesne Light Company. Ground was broken for the history making atomic power plant on Labor Day as President Eisenhower flashed the signal from Denver. Duquesne Light Company will design and construct the electric generating portion of this plant which is expected to be completed in 1957.

Meanwhile, at Cheswick, Pa., the world's first privately financed atomic equipment manufacturing plant went into operation. This plant, operated by the Westinghouse atomic equipment department, is a pace setter in the new atomic power manufacturing industry.

New Plants in Operation

Matching this expansion of research and development facilities, new Westinghouse major manufacturing plants began at Raleigh, N. C., (meters); Staunton, Va., (air conditioning); at Montevallo, Ala., (welding electrodes); and Columbus, Ohio, (appliances).

At Upper Sandusky, Ohio, a new plant was begun for the manufacture of small motors—the company's fourth small motor plant. At Muncie, Indiana, Westinghouse purchased the Schneider Manufacturing Company, a producer of torque converters. This new product line is a natural adjunct to the existing products of the company's gearing division.

In the field of television, the Westinghouse Broadcasting Company, Inc., purchased stations KPIX San Francisco and WDTV Pittsburgh, both leading TV outlets in their areas.

These plants and other facilities represent the last large outlay in the approximately $300 million expansion program begun in 1950, and which will be virtually completed by the middle of 1955. With this expansion and the $150 million expansion completed in 1948, Westinghouse productive capacity by next year will have increased 125 per cent since the end of World War II.

On completion of this major program, it will be Westinghouse policy to maintain capital expansion at a rate necessary to meet the growing demands on the electrical industry.

Is This Expansion Justified?

Sometimes we are asked "does the future justify such tremendous expansion?" I am confident that it does. Just consider the growing markets for the products of the electrical industry.

Air-conditioning, for which we have just finished a large new plant, should witness a sales increase of 1,000 per cent in the next 10 years. It is probable that 50 per cent of the new homes built in the next decade will have central air conditioning.

Some 428 million electric appliances are expected to be built in the next 5 years—an increase of 27 per cent over the past five record-breaking years. For many of these appliances, such as the electric dish washer, the market scarcely has been scratched. Fifty-four different home appliances now are on the market as compared with only 19 in 1930.

Electrical Home Servants

This ever-growing market for the electrical servants of the home was the reason Westinghouse during 1954 completed the largest plant we have ever built, a two million square foot plant for the manufacture of refrigerators and freezers at Columbus, Ohio. At the same time, we expanded our appliance plants at Mansfield, Ohio, and Springfield, Mass. Our customer products activity during 1954 also included strong emphasis on product development, a build-up in advertising and a reorganization of distribution facilities. As a result, sales in a number of Westinghouse appliance lines reached new highs.

The growing market is not limited to these products for the home. The nation's demand for electric power is doubling every ten years and this means growing demand for power generating and distribution apparatus. During 1954, Westinghouse built the world's most powerful transformer and continued construction of giant compressors for the largest rotating machine ever constructed. We received an order for the first 275,000 kilowatt turbine generator and installed the first magnetic amplifier controlled electric drive for a cold strip steel mill.

The horizons are unlimited for the atomic power and automatic machinery industries. Certainly the problem is not over expansion. The problem is to keep up with the needs of a new industrial revolution. We are moving into an era in which the techniques of production and many of the machines of propulsion and power will be remarkably improved. It is an exciting prospect and one promising great benefits for mankind.

The Key to the Future

With all the technological progress, we must never forget that the most important key to future success is the ability and enthusiastic effort of the men and women of American industry. It is worth noting that at the end of the year 22,794 Westinghouse employees were enrolled in the company's employee stock purchase plan. Thus one of every 5 employees is participating in this program to become a part owner of the company or to increase his share of ownership. Approximately 16,000 employees turned in suggestions which earned awards during the year for ways to improve the company's operations. Some $167,000 was paid to Westinghouse engineers and scientists in awards for inventions of unusual merit. These are some of the human ingredients of corporate success.

For this success to continue in the year ahead, an important element will be cooperation among all employees—management people, professional employees, production and maintenance employees and clerical personnel alike. Cooperation between management and unions is also vital. Production lost through company-union disputes during 1955 would mean sales—and jobs—lost to the hundreds of competitors, both large and small, in the many markets which Westinghouse serves.

Future Looks Bright

Given such cooperation and with the constantly growing market for things we make, the long range future for the electrical industry looks bright indeed. The short range future is always more difficult to predict accurately. Using the best tools at hand for evaluating the next 12 months, however, we look for a general stability and a gradual improvement in the national economy.

For Westinghouse, orders during 1954, excluding defense business, were off approximately five per cent. We anticipate an increase in orders in 1955 of some 10 per cent. For 5 consecutive years we have set all-time sales records. A year ago it appeared that 1955 would see a noticeable decline in this sales billed curve. The upswing in business evidenced during the last few months, however, now leads us to expect that 1955 sales billed will approach or equal the 1954 record.

Whether this is so will depend, of course, on our ability to skillfully meet the test of keen competition. The pattern of rising costs and little change in prices of products manufactured has made all industry extremely conscious of the continual need for eliminating waste and carefully controlling costs. At the same time, rugged competition has re-emphasized the necessity of vigorous sales efforts.

We think that, Westinghouse and American industry generally can and will successfully meet these challenges. All signs indicate that for the wise investor, the efficient manager and the cooperative and productive employee 1955 can be a good year.

Lawler Builds Poultry Houses

Pre-built poultry houses scientifically designed to fit the climate and management requirements of maximum egg production in the South have been announced by Cosby-Hodges Milling Co., Birmingham.

The Jazz Poultry House is pre-built in two types, one for cage layer production and the other for conventional floor flocks. Designed by Dr. D. A. Simpson, D. V. M., Cosby-Hodges farm service and training director, the Jazz Poultry House incorporates many features developed through the company's research program as well as that of leading southern agricultural colleges. The house is 28 feet wide and the basic cage is 64 feet long. This building will house 528 layer cages. The basic floor type house with a capacity of 523 birds is 56 feet long. The houses are pre-built in easily assembled 8 foot sections and can be erected in lengths to house several thousand birds under one roof.

The Jazz Egg Factory features a unique "ridgelator" system that extends the full length of the building. Ventilation is controlled by opening or closing the doors and wall ventilator flaps.

Another feature of the house is the "bridge girder" type truss construction. Through the use of this truss, designed to support a load in excess of 800 pounds per truss, center posts or rafter supports are eliminated. This effectively reduces labor problems and makes it possible for trucks to move through the house when cleaning out litter in floor type houses.

The Jazz Poultry House has a "V" crimped aluminum roof and is built of Southern kiln dried pine. All sills are treated against rot and all outside surfaces of the house are painted white. The houses are pre-built by Lawler Manufacturing Company of Montevallo.

White Christmas Offering Breaks All Past Records

The White Christmas Offering for the Methodist Children's Home in Selma finally reached a total of $927.19 to break all records of giving to this cause by the Montevallo Methodist Church.

The church rejoices at the generous spirit shown by its members and friends toward this most worthy cause, and expresses its sincere gratitude to God "from whom all blessings flow."

Save Christmas Cards For Missionary Work

Don't throw away your old religious Christmas cards! They are needed by Mrs. James Dickson, missionary on the island of Formosa, who will print scripture verses on them in Chinese and distribute them in her work.

We all know the critical and strategic place Formosa occupies in world affairs at present. This will be one way we can all help in bringing the message of Christ to bear in a very needy place.

You may go through your cards and select the religious ones, or you can leave them for the local Methodist Youth Fellowship to sort out for mailing, but please get your cards to the church or parsonage by 5:30 Friday so the youth can get them ready to mail.

This plea is made to all people of the community as well as Methodist members.

Fowler Will Address Rotary Club Tonight

Guest speaker at the Montevallo Rotary Club meeting tonight will be Conrad M. (Bully) Fowler of Columbiana.

Mr. Fowler is Circuit Solicitor of this judicial district composed of Shelby, Clay and Coosa counties. Recently he has been actively associated in the state's prosecution of the Phenix City vice cases.

Miss McCary Died Of Heart Attack

Miss Bessie McCary, 73, lifelong resident of Montevallo, died at her home late last Wednesday afternoon following a heart attack. She was stricken while in the Post Office. She died a short while after being carried to her apartment at St. George Hotel.

Burial was in Montevallo Cemetery Friday, Dec. 24, with the Rev. Edward Glover officiating at the graveside service.

Bolton-Walton Funeral Home of Columbiana was in charge of burial.

Surviving are an uncle, John McMath, Decatur; six cousins, Mrs. J. R. Pow, Woodward; Miss Anna Nabors and Mrs. R. B. Dawson, Montevallo; Mrs. Alex Richards, Knoxville; Mrs. DeWitt Dusk and Hugh McMath, Columbus, Ga.

Miss Bessie is listed among the first graduates of Alabama College. Following graduation in 1902, she was a member of the faculty of music for a number of years and gave private lessons at her home which is now the old nursery school. She furthered her music training in New York and with the Gussens Conservatory in Birmingham.

For many years she was active in Sunday School work of the Montevallo Baptist Church, in the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Studiosis Club.

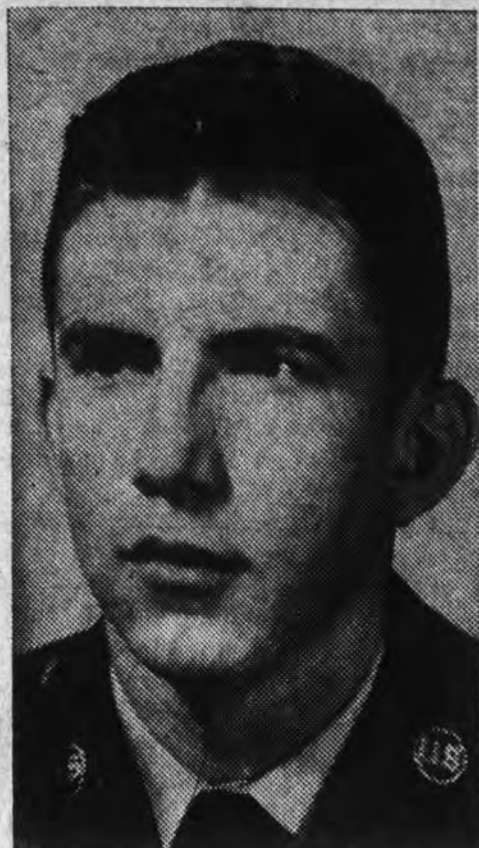

During World War I her activities included Red Cross work, and in 1922 she was awarded membership in the Lifesaving Corps of the American Red Cross.

In 1952, on the Fiftieth Anniversary of Alabama College she and Miss Nell Peterson, both local graduates of the class of 1902, were Alumnae honor guests.

Dr. Henry Denman Will Speak To Methodists

Dr. Harry Denman, one of the most outstanding Methodist laymen, will preach at the Montevallo Methodist Church Sunday, at 11 a.m., and will teach Dr. M. E. Lazenby's young adult Sunday school class at the 10 o'clock hour.

"Brother Harry," as he is affectionately known by thousands of Methodists throughout the United States, was for 20 years business manager of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham. For many years he has been executive secretary of the Board of Evangelism of the entire Methodist Church, with headquarters in Nashville. In this capacity he has preached and led evangelistic missions in all parts of the world and is recognized as one of the most consecrated, colorful, and forceful speakers and leaders in the entire church. He is also an able writer.

Dr. Denman is a warm personal friend of our own Dr. M. E. Lazenby, who is himself a Methodist leader of recognized ability and note, and he will be entertained by the Lazenbys on this visit. The people of Montevallo are indeed fortunate to have this opportunity to hear this saintly layman, and a large crowd is expected to turn out Sunday to hear him.

Rev. Elred M. Stewart Died In Greensboro

The Rev. Elred M. Stewart, 75, retired Baptist minister, Greensboro, died Sunday afternoon at Greensboro Hospital.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday at Greensboro Baptist Church, where he was pastor 33 years ago. Burial was at Greenville.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Dr. J. Jones Stewart of California and Elred M. Stewart, Pittsburgh; two daughters, one in Birmingham and one in Florida.

Mr. Stewart was pastor of the Montevallo Baptist Church prior to his pastorate at Greensboro.

Seal Sale Is Short Of Goal

Proceeds from the sale of Christmas Seals are $592.66 short of the goal set for Shelby County by the State Association. Goal is $2,015 and $1,422.34 has been received as of the first of this week. Reminder post cards have been mailed to those who have not yet sent remittance for their Seals. Contributions made by December 31 are deductible for income tax purposes for this year.

Christmas Seals may mean the difference between life and death to those who have TB. They keep homes from being broken, make possible research for new ways to cure TB, and they can arrest and prevent TB. Since TB is a contagious disease, all people of Shelby County have an interest and a stake in the success of the program of the County Tuberculosis Association. Remittances should be made to Mr. Roy Downs, treasurer, Calera.

Methodist Youth Sponsor Program

The Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring a watch night program for all members and friends of the church New Year's Eve at the church. The varied evening's program will get under way at 5:30 Friday when MYF members will meet at the church to pack religious Christmas cards for mailing to Mrs. James Dickson, missionary in Formosa. At 6:30 every member of the church is invited to bring a dish of food and enjoy an old fashioned spread and good fellowship.

At 7:30 a 35-minute film "Crossroads", produced by the Methodist Radio and Film Commission, will be shown. This film is the story of a typical American boy reaching maturity, the problems and crises he meets and how he solves them. It is highly recommended for both youth and adults.

A 10-minute film "America's Wonders", featuring scenes of Niagara Falls, Rocky Mt. National Park, Crater Lake, Columbia River, Grand Canyon and other scenic wonders, will also be shown. The films will be followed by a very interesting and unusual event called "Writing a Letter to God," a recreation period, and at 11:45 the youth will go to Mary Thornton's home to view a special television watch night broadcast over WABT-TV at 11:30. This watch night service is being produced by the North Alabama Conference MYF and Town and Gown Civic Theatre of Birmingham.

The youth wish to emphasize that this event is for all church members and any others interested, regardless of age. There will be fun and inspiration for all from 6:30 to midnight. Any who cannot stay for the entire evening's program will be free to go at any time they wish.

CHARLIE SEZ THANKS AGAIN

Charlie Crisswell says he is mighty busy with his cleaning and pressing business, but he pauses long enough to express his thanks to the many good and loyal friends who have been his customers in the past year, and to wish them a good year in 1955.

"I will be doing business at the same old stand," Charlie sez, and "you can continue to depend on me to keep your wearing things in good shape. This has been a good year for all of us—good for business and good for friendship. Let's keep it so in 1955."

Congressman Goes Behind the Iron Curtain For A Look At Things In Soviet Russia

By Laurie C. Battle
Congressman, Ninth District

Recently I had the unusual experience of traveling over 8,000 miles for 17 days behind the Iron Curtain in Soviet Russia—the first time a Congressman was permitted to do this since the Iron Curtain dropped and the cold war began.

I took over 200 pictures and picked up a great deal of information about the Russian way of life which I am trying to make available, since the USSR is a mysterious, powerful nation that is obstructing peaceful international relations and threatening unimagined thermonuclear destruction in the world.

The People Are Captives

The people in Soviet Russia have never known the kind of freedom we take for granted. Not many years ago they were serfs, and have struggled under dictatorships of one kind or another since that time. Although it is their normal way of life, the people are captives of internal propaganda and news blackouts. They are captives of a heritage which teaches what to think instead of how to think—to blindly obey and not to question. The nine Kremlin dictators specialize in indoctrination of the youth of Russia. I found children under a system of government-dictated education from the cradle right up to adulthood. Advanced students are selected on the basis of competition throughout the Soviet Union. Promotions and good job assignments primarily depend upon ability to master the Communist party line. Also the people are captives of the constant threat of a one-way trip to Siberia. Unusual adjustments can be made by a recalcitrant individual in such a society when he has a gun in his back and bountiful promises to relieve his mind.

Ham and Eggs for $2.50

The food of the Russian people is rough, simple, expensive, and barely meets standards necessary for hard work on the state-operated farms and factories. Meat is scarce. You can get ham and eggs for breakfast if you have $2.50, but they smell and taste strange, to say the least. The dress is plain and dark with little variety, but affords adequate protection from the severe weather. Shops carry limited supplies of basic necessities.

The Russian military dresses best, eats best, and takes priority over everything civilian. A fringe of private enterprise has crept in by the way of piece-rate jobs in factories and allocation of garden plots for the individual farmer to use. On one of the collective farms I was told they pay no taxes. Upon investigation I found that the government merely takes most of what is produced and leaves very little to be divided among the individual farmers. Everyone works for the government. Farmers and factory workers alike can be shifted anywhere at any time for any purpose by the government. There are no strikes. Women do heavier work than men. Wages are low and prices high.

All Under Kremlin Orders

In effect, Russia has total mobilization of all manpower and womanpower and industrial power, ready to carry out the Kremlin orders. The population is 213 million people living on one-sixth of the world's land. The nine dictators riding herd on the world's largest bureaucracy, dominate almost one-half of the peoples of the world today, and control vast natural resources. Even with their industrial lag and serious limitations, they have come up to the second ranking nation in the world in steel production, and have produced a long range jet bomber airplane which compares favorably with the best in the United States. In addition, they are catching up on atomic and hydrogen bomb developments as well as guided missiles and other extremely destructive forms of power.

Goal is World Domination

At present the Russian government has its hands full trying to digest the millions of satellite peoples, reconstruct Soviet cities, keep the bureaucracy producing and maintain the largest war machine known to history. Soviet dictators have shifted tactics but have not given up the goal of world domination. When Russian dictators really want peace, they will not need war materials from the West, and they can withdraw their agents who have been planted in every free country to create chaos and prepare the way for revolution.

When Russian leaders really want peace, they will not need the vast system of spies and recruits who have been amazingly successful in stealing prized military secrets from the free world. They can make a peace treaty in Austria, Germany and Korea. They can withdraw from Czechoslovakia, Poland, etc., and discontinue their aggression in Indo China and elsewhere. Until deeds are substituted for catch phrases like "co-existence", their talk about peace is nothing more than slow, camouflaged aggression.

Worship is Discouraged

The Kremlin claims there is freedom of religion in the Soviet Union, but they discourage worship at every turn. In the factory grounds of the Stalin auto works the Communist guide told me that the workers voluntarily asked to have an old cathedral there converted into a palace of culture. This is a place where the workers rest, study art, produce plays and follow artistic pursuits

The Russian leaders are forcing this type of culture as a substitute for religion. About half of the churches I saw had been converted into museums and so-called palaces of culture. I attended several religious services in different cities behind the Iron Curtain, and never did see a child in church. Usually it was only a few older women who attended services.

Factories operated on Sunday. Signs appear in libraries and other places which say that religion is the opponent of progress. At a time when a tremendous building program is under way, I did not see one new church being erected. I have never seen a country that needs God any more than Russia and which worships God any less than Russia.

Thankful for Our Country

We can be mighty thankful for America and that we live in America. As I reflect on this trip behind the Iron Curtain, I cannot help but be even more thankful for our country where we have a heritage of respect for the individual citizen—his right to speak out, to use initiative, to get ahead, to select political leaders, and above all, to worship God instead of tyrants. Certainly it is our continuous duty to protect our free institutions, improve our political structure, defend our country and foster spiritual ties in international relations.

Montevallo Personals

Miss Anna Nabors spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murphy and children in Birmingham and Mrs. J. R. Hunter in Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wesson in Atlanta last week.

Upon their return they entertained the following out of town visitors during the holidays: The Wesson family from Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dukes and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards Sr. from Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Jackson of Minter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards and family attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. Carl Edwards in Selma Sunday.

CARD OF THANKS

The families of James Kelly, Mrs. Jessie Scott and Mrs. Effie Noblin wish to express their deep appreciation to their friends in Calera and Montevallo for their help in their recent loss by fire.

COMES the tail end of December and you find yourself with the same problem that plagued you last year about this time. What's to be done with leftover turkey? Why not whip up a flavor-rich cream sauce? With condensed soup it's only a matter of minutes. Then pour the sauce over toasted turkey sandwiches.

There's merry eating for the whole family. And what a happy way to bid adieu to the Christmas bird!

A MESSAGE FROM ZOLLIE COWART and JACK SIMS
"YOUR PHARMACISTS"

THE "MOST PRECIOUS DOCUMENT IN THE WORLD" is the prescription you get from your Physician. Before he can write it, he must do these important things.

1. AFTER GRADUATING FROM HIGH SCHOOL, and being carefully checked for moral character and adaptability to medicine, he attends a pre-medical college.

2. HE THEN STUDIES IN A MEDICAL UNIVERSITY for at least four more years.

3. AFTER GRADUATION HE IS EXAMINED BY THE STATE for knowledge and ability. When he passes these tests he is licensed to practice medicine.

4. THEN HE USUALLY SPENDS ABOUT TWO YEARS as a hospital interne, where thousands of sick people are examined by him. Here older Physicians give him the benefits of their experience.

5. AT LAST HE OPENS HIS OFFICE, but he never stops learning. He joins his County, State and National Medical Societies, and from their reports he gets all the newest methods of treatment.

NOW HE CAN WRITE YOU THAT PRESCRIPTION which you bring to "Your Pharmacist," also licensed by the State, after many years at College, to practice Pharmacy. We carefully compound it, exactly as your Physician specifies, and you get well.

Alabama Power President Looks Forward To State's Continuing Industrial Progress

Alabama's continuing economic growth is reflected in estimated year-end figures revealed by the Alabama Power Company. During 1954 it spent $34 million for additions and improvements. Included in this amount is nearly a million dollars for preliminary survey and engineering work necessary for the preparation of an application for a license from the Federal Power Commission for the construction of a series of dams on the Coosa River estimated to cost about $100 million.

The company also did preliminary exploratory work on the Warrior River. It has pending before the Federal Power Commission an application for a preliminary permit to construct a dam at the New Hope site on that river and to install power facilities in the existing dam at Lock 17. In both these projects the company is cooperating with the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

During 1954 Alabama Power Company built 100 miles of urban distribution line, 525 miles of rural lines and 267 miles of high voltage transmission lines. It enlarged 41 distribution substations and built 22 new ones.

Barry Steam Plant near Mobile, under construction for the past several years, was completed and work progressed on the eighth generating unit at Gorgas.

The total number of customers served at year end increased by 16,500 over a year ago to make the total 537,500. Total retail value of electrical appliances sold in the company's service area by all outlets during the year is estimated at $35 million. Kilowatt-hour sales for all purposes was greater than in 1953 by about 4 percent.

L. M. Smith, president said: "These figures and the fact that we have scheduled $106 million for investment enlargement during the next three years should be evidence that Alabama is growing in economic importance and that we have faith that this growth will continue well into the future. There may be temporary ups and downs but all indications are that the progress of the South will continue and that Alabama will share in that progress. Looking backward a few years helps justify that faith."

"Since 1939, in only 15 years, the number of active industrial establishments in Alabama has increased from 2,052 to 5,300, or 158 per cent. The value of manufactured products has increased 417 per cent to an annual rate of nearly 3 billion dollars. Wages of production workers have increased 434 per cent. Per capita income has increased 330 per cent, bank deposits 313 percent, and kilowatt hour sales of electricity 322 per cent."

"In this same period 347 new industrial plants, exclusive of war plants and plants with a capital investment of less than $50,000, set up shop in 178 Alabama towns, and the capital investment in these plants was over $280 million. Since 1945 the rate of investment in completely new plants has been in the order of $500,000 per week. On top of all this, the value of new facilities added by existing plants runs into hundreds of millions of dollars. These new plants and the expansion of existing plants have provided more than 127,000 new industrial jobs, a sizeable boost to the economy of the state."

"The industrial plants which Alabama has gained in recent years have not been taken away from other regions but represent increases in the total productive capacity of the country. They are well diversified."

"Alabama, already a great producer of iron and steel products, textiles, coal, lumber, naval stores and pulp and paper, is now making headway in clothing manufacture, chemicals, oil production, farm equipment, electrical apparatus, tin plate, aluminum and in many other durable and non-durable products."

"In striking contrast with former days, we now have in Alabama many more dollars of capital available for investment. We have more skilled workers, better paid and doing better work than we have ever had before. We have business management with the confidence, experience and 'know-how' we never had before. We are gradually overcoming some of the prejudices of other regions against our workmanship and the products we make."

"This does not mean that it is yet possible for us or any other major company to find in Alabama investment funds in the amounts necessary for major expansion. We still must appeal to investors the nation over—institutions such as insurance companies, endowment and retirement funds, and individual investors—and persuade them that their investment in Alabama is not fraught with unnecessary risk."

"We are happy that Governor-elect James E. Folsom intends to encourage industrial development. This means that he will encourage those who will invest in enterprises which would locate here. It is fortunate that this long-standing policy is to be continued."

"We intend to continue our efforts and cooperate with railways and other utilities, manufacturers, banks, insurance companies, newspapers and local organizations diligently to promote industrial development. Only by promoting further development will we be able to provide more jobs for those of the present day, as well as the thousands who will be looking for jobs in the years ahead. We definitely are optimistic about the prospects in Alabama."

TERRELL STAGNER DIED

Terrell Stagner, 67, passed away December 22 at his home after a long illness. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Calera; two brothers, Lige of Saginaw and Green of Sylacauga.

Funeral services were held on Friday from the Shelby Baptist Church, burial in Shelby cemetery with Rev. Thomas Johns officiating.

WEEDS GROW IN TREE CROPS TOO

Farmers know best of all that nature isn't always friendly.

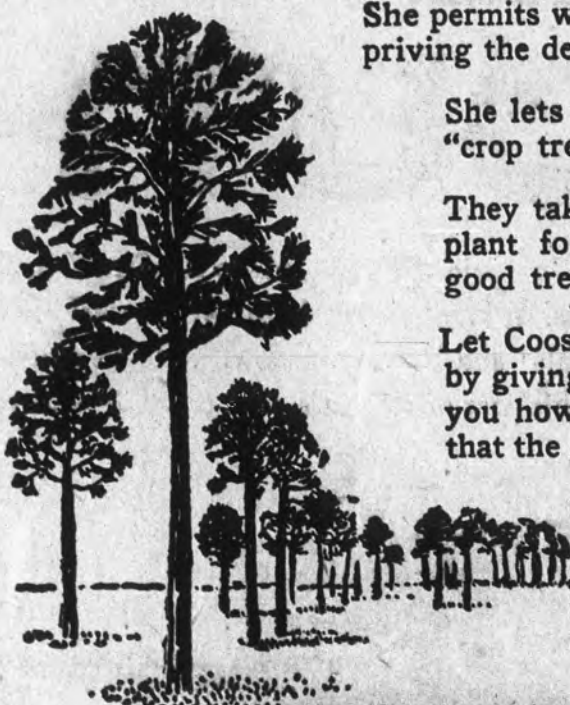

She permits weeds to compete with valuable crops, depriving the desirable plants of precious fertility.

She lets "weed trees" grow, too, just as well as "crop trees."

They take up needed space, sunlight, water and plant foods that would otherwise be used by good trees.

Let Coosa River's "Friendly Forester" help you by giving you sound forestry advice. He can tell you how to get rid of the undesirable trees so that the good trees can grow more money for you.

Stop! Look! Listen!

Montevallo will be honored by having one of its oldest citizens open a new and important business to serve the people of the surrounding area. Six years ago I retired from business after serving the public in a general merchandise store in said city for 62 years. My efforts will be to bring back all the trade that has wandered off to other advertising businesses in Shelby County, owing to the fact that they have been satisfied with less profit on the merchandise sold by them. I am not only going to meet their prices but will sell my merchandise for much less than the prices in their circulars issued each week. Our motto is: We will not be undersold by either Jew or Gentile. The proof of the pudding is the eating. So I quote you prices as a sample of what we propose to do.
